In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitnire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17206 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Mary Ann Watson, D 347;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES/

In the matter of the application of James Martin et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications

James Martin,.....Cherokee Freedmen D 344
Mary A. Watson,.....Cherokee Freedmen D 347.

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment, as Cherokee Freedmen, were made to this Commission by James Martin, for himself, and by Mary A. Watson, for herself. The application of Mary A. Watson also included her husband, Howard F. Watson, who claims right to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage, but, the citizenship of persons applying for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by intermarriage not being fixed at this time, the said Howard F. Watson is not embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that the applicants, James Martin and Mary A. Watson, were born prior to the beginning of the war of the rebellion and that they were not slaves of Cherokee citizens or free colored persons residing in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war of the rebellion.

None of the names of the applicants herein are found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of James Martin and Mary A. Watson, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

COMMISSION TO FIVE TRIBES.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 24, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the applications of James Martin, C. F. D. 344, and Howard F. Watson, et al., C. F. D. 347.

It appears from the records in these cases that the applicants, their attorneys, and the Cherokee Nation were notified to appear before the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock A. M., on June 15, 1904, for the purpose of introducing further testimony in accordance with the Department's letter of April 4, 1904, remanding these cases. By agreement of the parties this case has this day been taken up for hearing on this day.

APPEARANCES:

Applicants by attorney White, of the firm of Kimball & White, and applicant, James Martin in person.

Cherokee Nation by attorney James S. Davenport.

R. L. MARTIN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A R. L. Martin.

Q How old are you? A 56.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Pensacola, I. T.

Q Are you a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know the applicants in these cases, Howard F. Watson and his wife, Mary A. Watson, and James Martin? A I know James Martin.

Q You don't know the others? A No, sir.

By Mr. White:

Q Did you know James Martin's father? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his name? A Joshua.

Q Was he a slave before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Who owned him? A My father, Joseph L. Martin.

Q Was your father a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

Q You say Joseph L. Martin is your father and his name appears on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Is what district? A Cooweescoowee.

Q With whom would he be enrolled at that time? A Himself and family.

Q What was the name of his wife in 1880? A Jennie.

Q What children? A Jesse, G. A., and Willie.

The name of Joseph L. Martin appears on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll, Cooweescoowee District, opposite No. 1858, as Jos. L. Martin, native Cherokee, 60 years of age.

Beneath appear the names of Jennie Martin, Jesse B. Martin, Granvil A. Martin and Willie A. Martin.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q Mr. Martin, you say you knew Jim Martin before the war? A No, I don't remember him.

Q Do you know where and with whom his father was living prior to the breaking out of the war? A With my father.
Q Where was your father living with reference to the old Lynch place when the war broke out? A About five miles very near south.
Q Where was Jim Martin living at the breaking out of the war?
A This Jim?
Q Yes, sir. A I don't know only what they say.
Q Do you know to whom Joshua Martin, the father of this man, belonged at the breaking out of the war of your own personal knowledge?
A No, sir.
Q How old were you when the war broke out? A I was born in '47; make me 13 years old.
Q Do you know the mother of James Martin? A No, sir.
Q Were you old enough to remember a man by the name of Harrison who came from South Carolina and lived at the Lynch place? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember of Harrison's owning a colored woman who was the mother of James Martin, by the name of Harriet?

Mr. White: We object to that question for the reason that it does not call upon the witness to state a fact, but announces as a fact and asks the witness to state whether he remembers it or not, and we don't admit that this woman was the slave of this man Harrison, and we further object to the question on the ground that it is immaterial to whom the mother of this applicant belonged.

Commission: Objection will be noted and the witness will answer the question.

A I don't remember anything about it. I remember the old man Harrison living there.
Q Do you know C. L. Lynch, the son of Judge Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q How old was he at the time the war broke out? A He was grown and married; I don't know his age.
Q Do you know whether this man Harrison had any slaves at time the war broke out? A Couldn't say.
Q Was Jim Martin, the applicant in this case, living at your father's place when the war broke out? A Not that I know of; don't remember it.
Q Did you ever know his mother or where she lived? A No, sir.
Q All you know is, you know Jim Martin's, or who Jim Martin claims as his father? A Yes, sir.
Q And you know that Joshua Martin was the slave of your father?
A Yes, sir.
Q You ~~don't~~ don't claim to know anything about who Jim Martin's mother was or to whom she belonged or to whom Jim belonged? A No, I don't remember.

By the Commission:

Q You don't know when Joshua Martin returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A He died during the war.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge that Joshua Martin was the father of Jim Martin? A No, sir.
Q You never saw him living with him? A It is all hearsay; they always claimed it; in fact don't know whether he could swear to that.

By the Commission:

Q Do you know where James Martin was born? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether Joshua Martin and James' mother were living together at the time James Martin was born?

Mr. White: We object to that as not being proper cross-examination. I have offered this witness for the sole purpose of proving that Joshua Martin was the slave of Joseph Martin, who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen, and have other witnesses to prove that Joshua Martin was the father of this applicant. This witness doesn't know, and told me before he went on the stand that he didn't, and, therefore, I didn't attempt to prove it by him.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A No, I don't know that; they didn't live together then like they do now.

ANDERSON LYNCH, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By Mr. White:

Q What is your name? A Anderson Lynch.

Q Where do you live? A Up on Grand River, near Vinita.

Q You are a Cherokee freedman? A Yes, sir.

Q How old are you? A About '66.

Q Have you been regularly enrolled on a straight card by the Commission?

Mr. Davenport: I object to the question as being immaterial and incompetent. It isn't necessary that a man should be a Cherokee citizen in order to give evidence in this court or any other court.

Mr. White: It is customary in every court in existence to show the status of the witness in the community, his occupation, his identity and any other matters which may show his credibility or his knowledge of the subject matter about which he attempts to testify.

Mr. Davenport: The representative of the Cherokee Nation object to the statement of counsel and say that it isn't a fact in any civilized court in the world that a man has to give his standing in order to give his testimony.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

Q What is the name of your father? A My father is named William Choteau.

Q Was he ever known by any other name? A They called him Bill.

Q What was the name of your mother? A Peggy Lynch.

Q Who was your owner? A Joe Lynch.

Witness appears upon Cherokee Freedmen straight card No. 791, and on the final roll of Cherokee freedmen, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, opposite No. 1933.

Mr. Davenport: Objected to as incompetent and immaterial.
Commission: Objection will be noted.

By Mr. White:

Q Did you go to Kansas during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you get back here? A In '65.

Q Do you know the Applicant, James Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q And his sister, Mrs. Watson? A Yes, sir.

Q When did they get back here? A Got back in the summer of '66.

Q Who brought them back? A Jesse Rowe.

Q Where did you see them in the Nation in '66? A Near Joe Martin's place, where Simon had stopped, at the old Military crossing.

Q Simon who? A Lynch.

Q How far was that from where you were living? A About three miles; about three miles from where I am living now.
Q Do you know who their father was? A Yes, sir, we all belonged to the old family of people.
Q What was the name of the father of Jim and Mary? A Joshua ~~xxxxxx~~ Martin.
Q Do you know who owned him? A Yes, sir.
Q Who? A Joe Martin.
Q Was Joe Martin a citizen of the Nation? A Yes, sir.
A An Indian? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q Did you belong to Joe Martin, too? A No, sir, my mistress and him were brothers and sisters.
Q Didn't you testify that you belonged to the same party. A To the same people.
Q It wasn't the same people was it?

Mr. White: We object to that question as tending to confuse the witness. He has already explained his relationship.

Commission: Objection will be noted and the witness will answer the question.

A Yes, sir, Joe Martin and Charlotte Lynch were sisters and brothers--
Q I am asking whether you and these applicants belonged to the same man when the war broke out? A No, sir.
Q Did you ever belong to the same party? A Did time of the old grandfather.
Q At the time the war broke out? A No, sir.
Q Was Joe Lynch dead when the war broke out? A The war had commenced when he died.
Q These applicants, James Martin and Mary Watson, weren't living with Joe Martin at the time the war broke out? A No, sir.
Q Was Joshua Martin living with Joe Martin when the war broke out? A Yes, sir.
Q When did Joshua Martin get back to the Cherokee Nation? A He never come; died.
Q You never saw him? A I saw him afterward; he died up there.
Q He remained up there after the war closed? A He was dead.
Q Did he die before the war closed? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know what year? A No, sir, I never kept track of the year; I come on back down here in '65.
Q You came back to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did Harrison, the man who lived on the Lynch place, go when the war broke out?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Just across the river from the Tan Yard over there on Lynch's branch. The Pens got him and took him up and killed him.
Q What was the name of the applicants' mother? A Harriet.
Q Who did she belong to before the war?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A She belonged to Harrison, the woman did before the war, belonged to Harrison and in between them was Joe Lynch, and he still let her stay there and cook for Harrison while he was taking care of his cattle. Old man Joe Lynch went south and died and Harrison was taken up and killed; Pen Injuns killed him.

Q As I understand you, at the time the war broke out the mother of the applicants in these cases, James Martin and Mary Watson, ~~XXXX~~ was the slave of Harrison, is that correct? A No, sir, I couldn't tell; they was in Lynch's possession.

Q Then you don't know of your own personal knowledge to whom Harriet Martin, James Martin and Mary Watson belonged at the breaking out of the war?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Lynch had them in possession, and I couldn't tell just which they belonged to. They were under mortgage to Lynch. He let her stay there to cook, and then they both died, and I don't know how they went; don't know how the children all divided, some went south and some north.

Q How old were you when the war broke out? A 21 years old.

Q Do you know anything about the mortgage you have been speaking about, or did you ever see it? A Never saw it; just heard the talk among them.

Mr. White: I wish to call attention to the fact that in the <sup>ownership</sup> direct examination, I have not asked this witness anything about any ^ of the mother, Harriet, and I expect, for that reason, that the Cherokee Nation will be bound by any matters brought out by him, and to that purpose witness will be the witness of the Cherokee Nation.

Q Did the applicants, James Martin or Mary Watson, ever live with Joshua Martin? A Yes, sir.

Q When was that with reference to the breaking out of the war?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A He took them from here to Ottoway, Kansas

Q Where did you first see them after the war, the applicants in this case? A On Cabin Creek.

Q Who were they with? A Simon Lynch.

Q Your brother? A No, sir, no kin to me.

Q Where did you next see them? A I couldn't tell just exactly, once in a while, back there among their people; times was hard and nobody could keep them.

Q You don't know anything about anybody trying to keep them, do you? A I know of them trying to get places to stay.

Q Who? A With me a while and did stop with me a while, and on up the river with Nellie Frye.

Q She has never testified in this case, has she? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q This is the first time you have testified in this case isn't it?

A First time they called on me.

Q How many freedmen cases have you testified in?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer.

A I don't know; kept no record.

JAMES MARTIN, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A James Martin.

Q How old are you? A I don't know my age just exactly.

Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita and Woodland; get mail at both places.

Q You are an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman?

A Yes, sir.

Q When you applied before the Commission in 1901, you gave your age as 42, was that right? A Yes, sir, something like it.

Q Then you are about 45 now? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. White:

Q When you were brought into the Nation at the close of the war to what place were you taken? A Uncle Simon Lynch's.

Q Where was that? A On Big Cabin Creek.

Q Was your sister, Mary Watson, with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the occasion of your going out of the Nation after you were brought in here?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that, because he hasn't shown that he went out; it is immaterial and presupposes what did happen.

Mr. White: I am perfectly willing to admit that he never went out.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A. Well, times was hard, and a missionary man stopped at Uncle Simon's and said he would take us and take care of us and said he would give us an education and raise us like white people.

Q Did he take you? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A Up in Kansas; don't know just exactly now.

Q You said in your former testimony that you staid with him and run off and left him and came back to the Cherokee nation, is that correct? A Yes, sir.

Q And that you were then about 13 or 14 years of age? A Yes, sir.

Q From that time on where did you make your home? A Right here in the Territory.

Q Ever since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Your sister was taken to Kansas by this missionary? A Yes, sir.

Q And she afterwards came back did she? A Yes, sir.

Q And her home is in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when your sister came back to the Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q About when? A Well, it was later on after that.

Q About how old was she, if you know? A When she came back, about 14 or 15 years old.

Q And has she since then made her home in the Nation? A Yes, sir, generally made it her home. This is our home, the folks always told us, and we didn't know no place else.

Q What was your father's name? A Joshua Martin.

Q Did he recognize you as his son?

Mr. Davenport: We object to that as incompetent and immaterial. It makes no difference whether the father recognizes his son or not.

Mr. White: We don't insist upon the question, since the representatives of the Nation admit that.

Mr. Davenport: The representative of the Nation hasn't admitted anything and the representative of the applicants must not construe his remarks as meaning any such thing.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who owned your father? A Yes, sir.

Q Who?

Mr. Davenport: I object to that as incompetent and immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Joe Martin, Cherokee Indian.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q How old were you when Joe Martin died? A I don't know just exactly, Mr. Davenport.

Q You can't remember him, can you? A Yes, sir, staid at his house several times; set up at night and talked with him till one and two o'clock.

Q How long before the war do you remember seeing Joe Martin? A Well, I cannot say, because I was small.

Q You can't recollect when the war broke out? A Don't know but very little about that.

Q Your mother's name was Harriet, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.

Mr. White: We insist that the Cherokee Nation be bound by the answers to any questions in relation to Harriet, the mother, for the reason that we haven't asked this witness anything about her.

Q Did you ever live at your father's, Joe Martin's, before the war? I mean with who was reputed to be your father?

Mr. White: Objected to as immaterial.

Commission: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Don't know; couldn't say; was small and don't know.

Q Your mother didn't belong to Joe Martin, did she? A Not that I know of.

Q Do you know, or have you information from the family history as to whom she did belong at the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom? A Joe Lynch.

Q Isn't it a fact that the family history of the Lynch family, and that as you received it, discloses that she belonged to John Harrison and not to Joe Lynch?

Mr. White: We now object to that question, for the reason, that, having been warned, the representative of the Nation has gone beyond the scope of the examination in chief, has received an answer to that very question, and is now undertaking to cross-examine his own witness.

Com.: Objection will be noted and witness will answer the question.

A Not to my knowledge, no, sir.

Q Do you know Lon Lynch, son of Joe Lynch? A Just when I see him.

Q Now, Jim where were you living when you first remember after you come back to the Cherokee Nation? A Where were I living?

Q Yes, sir. A I lived on Geeseneck Bend a while, and on----

Q The first time you remember; not the different places, the first place you lived in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A That I lived?

Q Yes. A After I come back from Kansas, I lived up there on Possum Creek a part of the time and working around in the Cherokee Nation.

Q The first time that you remember living in the Nation after the war, not the different places, the first place you were living in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well, I couldn't say the very first spot that I remember living, but I can tell you where I lived from one place to another back to about '74.

Q Didn't you testify in your original testimony as to the first place you lived? A I don't know.

Q Didn't you say in that examination that you were living over on Gooseneck? A I don't know; remember I lived there at Gooseneck and at possum Creek and on Big Creek.

Q I am asking you about the first place? A I disremember whether I stated that that was the first place or not.

Q If you did state that the first time you recollected was on Gooseneck, that was correct, wasn't it? A I don't know; I believe that we lived---

Q I am asking you if your statements in your original examination were that you were living on Gooseneck and whether or not that was correct? A I couldn't say, Mr. Davenport, the first place that I lived, I couldn't say.

Q You knew when you gave testimony in 1901 as well where you lived first in the Cherokee Nation as you know to-day, didn't you? A I don't know whether, I couldn't say, recollect now whether it was I told you--

Q The question was, if you didn't know when you gave testimony in 1901 as well where the first place was you lived as you do today? A It looks very reasonable that I should. I lived at all these places, but I couldn't say whether I told you at that time Gooseneck or Possum Creek.

Mr. Davenport: The representative of the Cherokee Nation requests that the hearing in these cases be continued for ten days, in order to enable it to produce testimony to rebut the testimony brought out to-day by the applicants as to the ownership of the applicants, and as to the return of the applicants and as to their remaining in the Cherokee Nation.

Commission: The Commission's records show that the applicants, their attorneys and the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation were notified that they would be permitted to appear before the Commission at nine O'clock A. M., on June 15, 1904, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and introduce such testimony as they might desire touching the points mentioned in the Department's letter of April 4, 1904, remanding this case, copies of which letter were furnished the parties concerned. By agreement of the parties concerned this case has been taken up for such hearing on this day, and the Commission cannot now grant a continuance.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James Martin et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

James Martin,
Mary Ann Watson,

Cherokee Freedman D 344,
Cherokee Freedman D 347.

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission by James Martin for himself; and by Mary Ann Watson for herself. The application of Mary Ann Watson also included her husband, Howard P. Watson, who claims right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman by intermarriage, but as his application has been otherwise disposed of, he will not be embraced in this decision. The record further shows that on July 10, 1903, this Commission rendered its decision herein denying said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and that said decision was duly forwarded to the Department. Thereafter, on April 4, 1904 (Departmental letter I, T.D. 1370-04), this case was remanded for further testimony, and on May 24, 1904, further testimony in the matter of said application was taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

The evidence herein shows that at the commencement of the Rebellion the applicants, James Martin and Mary Ann Watson, together with their mother, Harriet Harrison, were the slaves of one John Harrison, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and, except that their names appear upon the Wallace roll, they cannot be identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence further shows that said applicants herein were born several years prior to 1860; that their father, Joshua Martin, at the commencement of the Rebellion was the slave of a Cherokee citizen, and that during said rebellion applicants herein and their father, were taken from the Cherokee Nation; as to whether or not said applicants or their father returned to the Cherokee nation within the time specified in the Whitwire decree, for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation, the Commission does not believe it necessary to consider in order to properly adjudicate the rights to enrollment of these applicants.

All the opinion entertained by the Commission is in direct conflict with the recommendations of the Acting Commissioner, as indicated by his letter of February 16, 1904 (Land 81104-03), it is considered advisable to more fully discuss two questions raised by the record in this case, viz:

(1) The ownership of children born of slave parents where the parents are owned by different masters; and

(2) Under Article nine of the Treaty of 1866, can applicants, born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, claim as descendants of freedmen, or must they stand or fall upon their ability to show whether or not they, themselves, have complied with the provisions of said Article nine of the treaty of 1866?

In re doctrine of Partus Sequitur Ventrem:

In language more forcible than elegant, the doctrine of partus sequitur ventrem was illustrated by Justice Buller of England, as follows:

"Whosoever bulleth my cow the calf is mine."

"Under the Roman law slavery may originate in three ways: Either by birth-- as when the mother was a slave, ..... " Am. Enc. of Law, Vol. 25 p. 1089 citing Westbrook & Mitchell, 24 Tex. 560.

In this country it has been held that "The chief means of the perpetuation of slavery in the United States was the adoption from the civil law of the rule partus sequitur ventrem, by which the condition of the child became that of the slave mother." Am. Enc. of Law, Vol. 25 p. 1089, citing in connection with a number of Federal and state court decisions the case of Fowler v Merrill, 52 U.S. 375, 13 L. Ed. 736, where it was expressly held that "The children of slaves belong to the owner of the mother."

In re term "descendants" as used in Article nine of the treaty of 1866:

Said article, in part, provides:

"All freedmen who have been liberated by voluntary act of their former owners or by law, as well as all free colored persons who were in the country at the commencement of the rebellion, and are now residents therein, or who may return within six months, and their descendants, shall have all the rights of native Cherokees."

In Departmental letter of March 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 2528-04), in reply to certain questions submitted by attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, it is held by the Assistant Attorney General, in considering said article nine of the treaty of 1866, that

"The period of six months fixed by the treaty is not a limitation upon a right, but a condition qualifying a right given, or created by the treaty. It is in the nature of a condition precedent and essentially a part of the facts out of which the right given arises. There is no right independent of the existence of the conditions imposed. Such limitations affect all alike, competent or incompetent."

Reasoning by analogy, it is difficult to see, if the limitation above indicated is a "condition qualifying a right given" and "affects all alike, competent or incompetent", why the limitation "freedmen who have been liberated by voluntary act of their former (Cherokee) owners or by law", is not a condition qualifying a right given, and should not affect all alike, be they competent or incompetent, one day or sixty years old.

For the purpose of defining our position in this matter more clearly, permit us to divide the freedmen upon whom citizenship was conferred by said article nine of the treaty of 1866, into two classes:

- (1) All free colored persons residing in the Cherokee country, and all slaves of Cherokee citizens, at the commencement of the rebellion; and
- (2) Their descendants.

The language of the treaty is broad enough to include in the first class all freedmen, etc., and all free colored persons etc., who were in being at the commencement of the rebellion, irrespective of their age, and, in order to perfect their right to Cherokee citizenship, upon them, individually, was imposed the personal duty of complying with the treaty stipulations of 1866.

Were it permitted those in the first class to establish their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by showing that their ancestors had complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, this Commission would be placed in the embarrassing attitude of enrolling certain applicants (for instance James Martin and Mary Ann Watson), and denying their children born since the commencement of the rebellion, although such children had done nothing to forfeit their rights to enrollment. It would exempt from compliance with said treaty stipulations those freedmen, born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, whose ancestors had perfected their rights to enrollment as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

And again, if a child two years old at the commencement of the rebellion could violate the treaty stipulations of 1866, and still claim the right to enrollment by showing that his ancestors had perfected their right, why cannot an applicant twenty-five, or fifty, years old at the commencement of the rebellion do the same?

As to the second class, designated by the term "their descendants", in Article nine of the treaty of 1866, it is clear to the Commission that it was the intention of the treaty makers to include in this class only those born since the commencement of the rebellion, who can show a continuity in the line of descent from their nearest ancestor included in the first class.

In view of the foregoing, the position of the Commission can be summarized as follows:

First. Under the law, children born to a slave mother belong to the owner of the mother, irrespective of the ownership of the father.

Second. That the term "their descendants", as used in the treaty of 1866, is intended to include only those born since the commencement of the rebellion who are the lineal descendants of slaves of Cherokee citizens, or of free colored persons residing in the Cherokee country at the commencement of the rebellion.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of James Martin and Mary Ann Watson as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 496), and it is so ordered.

Powell for himself; by Stepmey Dawn for herself; by Ellis Vann for his wife, Melinda Vann; by David Johnson for his wife, Frances Johnson; by Phillip Foster for his wife, Annie Foster; by Houston Rogers, Jr. for his wife, Mary H. Rogers; by George Washington Lane for himself; by Silas Hammer Brown for his wife, Jane Brown; by Samuel L. Young for himself; by Lizzie Buckner for her husband, John Buckner; by Sarah Cox for her husband, Willis Cox; by Susan Bowles for her husband, Leonard Bowles; by Henry Murrell for his wife, Melinda Murrell; by Charles Claggett for himself; by Samuel Irwin for himself; by David Ross for his wife, Mary Ross; by George F. Nave for his wife, Maggie Nave; by Lewis Armistead Nave for his wife, Nepma Nave; by Perry Ross for his wife, Ella Ross; by Elizabeth Duncan for herself; by Perry Adams for his wife, Sadie Adams; by Thomas Archer for his wife, Georgeann Archer; by Nancy Claggett for her husband, John Claggett; by Sonny Smith for his wife, Hattie Smith; by Jack Jackson for himself; by John Sanders for his wife, Lula Sanders; by Mary Hazelrig for her husband, George Hazelrig; by George West for his wife, Lizzie West; by Maria French for herself; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Maggie Vann for herself; by William Hudson for himself; by Sarah Rogers for herself; by Abraham Ballard for himself; by King David for his wife, Laura David; by John Deckman for himself; by James B. Papp for himself; by Isaac Welch for himself; by Nancy Logan for her husband, Lawson Logan; by Maria Howell for her husband, George Howell; by Amanda Masir for her husband, Henry Masir; by Katie Adams for her husband, George Adams; by Willie Thomas for his wife, Annie Thomas; by Lewis McConnell for himself; by Josh Vann for his wife, Ouida Vann; by Lou Peters for herself; by Robert Adair for his wife, Ada Adair; by Josie Brown for her husband, Robert Brown; by Mat Chambers for his wife, Allie Chambers; by Rachel Jones for her husband, Isom Jones; by Lewis Gunter for his wife, Alice Gunter; by Amos Adair for his wife, Katie Adair; by William H. Martin for his wife, Carrie Martin; by Benjamin Clark for himself; by Emily Looney for herself; by Mary Groves for her husband, John Groves; by Matilda McNair for his wife, Matilda McNair; by Bettie Vann for herself; by Nelson Lott for himself; by Allen Rogers for his wife, Fannie Rogers; by William Washington for himself; by Squire Warren Owens for himself; by Fannie Goldsby for herself; by Charles Daniels for his wife, Susan Daniels; by Rachel Turk for her husband, Anderson Turk; by David Lane for himself; by Felix McClain for himself; by Henderson Jones for himself; by Isaac Vann for his wife, Belle Vann; by Maggie Stroud for her husband, Levi Stroud; by John Sumpter for himself; by Mariah Thompson for herself; by Ellen Sheppard for herself; and by Lula Melton for herself, claiming their right thereto by virtue of their marriage to Freedmen Cherokee citizens.

The record further shows that none of the applicants herein make any claim to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than as set forth above.

It further appears from the record herein that at the time applications were made for the enrollment of the above named applicants, application was also made for the enrollment of other applicants as Cherokee Freedmen, but said applications being differently classified are not included in this decision.

It does not appear that any of the applicants herein are identified upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Roll, nor does it appear that any of said applicants has ever been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Cherokee Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome, (I. T. D. 5848-1904, 11,776-1904), the applications made for the enrollment of William Davis, Henry Thomas, Ella Vann, Mary Markham, Frances Melton, John Dotson, Mary Jane Vann, Thomas Lowe, Ella Mayfield, Sallie Rider, Reuben Campbell, Van Jackson Luther, Cassie Middleton, Mary Harbin, Nellie Fields, John Kimbo, William S. Madden, Jane Bean, Albert T. Thomas, Mary Campbell, Caroline Daniels, Melvina Alberty, Dave Morris, Alexander Claggett, Amanda Martin, Eliza Martin, John E. Smith, Susie Colbert, William Shaggs, Susie Johnson, Alfred P. Hopkins, Kizzie Vann, Freddie Looney, Lucy Chouteau, Alice Durant, Mahaley Ward, Fred D. Thomas, Bettie Beck, Ella Warren, Millie Robinson, Mary Webber, Frances Martin, Mary Riley, Emanuel Taylor, Henry Sykes, Larkin P. Powell, Stepney Dawd, Malinda Vann, Frances Johnson, Annie Foster, Mary H. Rogers, George Washington Lane, Jane Brown, Samuel L. Young, John Buckner, Willie Cox, Leonard Bowles, Melinda Marrell, Charles Claggett, Samuel Iven, Mary Ross, Maggie Nave, Neoma Nave, Ella Ross, Elizabeth Duncan, Sadie Adams, Georgeann Archer, John Claggett, Hattie Smith, Jack Jackson, Lula Sanders, George Hazelrig, Lizzie West, Maria French, Mary Johnson, Maggie Vann, William Hudson, Sarah Rogers, Abraham Ballard, Laura David, John Deckman, James B. Perry, Isaac Welch, Lawson Logan, George Howell, Henry Masir, George Adams, Annie Thomas, Lewis McConnell, Callie Vann, Lou Peters, Ida Adair, Robert Brown, Allie Chambers, Isom Jones, Alice Gunter, Katie Adair, Carrie Martin, Benjamin Clark, Emily Looney, John Groves, Matilda McNair, Bettie Vann, Nelson Lett, Fannie Rogers, William Washington, Squire Warren Owens, Fannie Goldsby, Susan Daniels, Anderson Turk, David Lane, Feltz McClain, Henderson Jones, Belle Vann, Levi Stroud, John Sumpter, Mariah Thompson, Ellen Sheppard and Lula Melton, as Cherokee citizens by intermarriage, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1896, (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

There is herewith inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated July 10, 1903, in the consolidated case of James Martin, et al., rejecting, among others, your application for the enrollment of yourself as a Cherokee Freedman. There has heretofore been furnished your attorneys, Mellette & Smith, Vinita, Indian Territory, a copy of the record of proceedings, and there has this day been forwarded to them a copy of the Commission's decision.

The decision, with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. The action of the Secretary will be made known to you as soon as the Commission is informed of the same.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, February 16, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith for the consideration of the Department the record of the proceedings had before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of James Martin for the enrollment of himself and the application of Mary A. Watson for the enrollment of herself, both as Cherokee freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

It further appears that the application of the said Mary A. Watson also includes the name of her husband, Howard P. Watson, who claims the right to be enrolled as a Cherokee freedman citizen of said nation by intermarriage, but that his application is not embraced in this decision.

On July 10, 1903, the Commission rendered a decision in this case, finding from the evidence that the applicants, James Martin and Mary A. Watson were born prior to the beginning of the war of the rebellion and that they were not slaves of Cherokee citizens or free colored persons residing in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war of the rebellion, and that their names are not found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation.

By reason of these findings and facts the Commission is of the opinion that the applications for the enrollment of James Martin and Mary A. Watson should be denied, under the provisions of section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 ( 30 Stats. 495)

I have examined the record evidence submitted in this case and find that the said James Martin testified that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation nearly all his life; that his father's name was Joshua Martin who is dead, and that his mother's name was Harriet Martin, and that she is also dead.

I find that the tendency of all the evidence submitted in this case is to establish the status of his said mother, Harriet Martin and it seems to be an unsettled question as to whether she was the slave of a non citizen by the name of Harrison or the slave of Joe Lynch at the beginning of the war.

There is but little testimony submitted as to the father of these applicants, whose name is given as Josh or Joshua Martin. It does appear from the evidence that this Joshua Martin was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war. I consider that the record should show more fully just what became of the said Joshua Martin during the war, and about the only testimony as to him is that of David

Martin, who says he is 64 years old, has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life except during the war; that he knows the applicant James Martin and knew his father, Josh Martin; that he first knew the applicant in 1858 or '7 or '9; that he was over at Joe Lynch's when the war commenced; that his mother belonged to Joe Lynch, who bought her from Harrison; that Joe Lynch was a Cherokee Indian and citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

On cross examination he testifies when asked if he knows when Josh Martin came back, as follows: "no, in '63 I was in Kansas and visited Josh and his family and he had Mary and Jim." The witness is again asked when they came back to the Cherokee Nation and answers: "well, if you will let me tell you, I can tell you; I went on in the army in '63 and in '66 when I came back coming home that way they wasn't there; they was done left Kansas and had come to the nation."

The witness is then asked how he knows they had come to the nation and replies: "I went to see them and they had left for the nation." He is then asked "you don't know where they had gone?" and answers "no sir, that is what was said."

There is some additional testimony taken to show that the said James Martin returned to the nation in 1866, but as stated above, this matter does not seem to have been gone into very thoroughly by either the parties or the nation, as the nation apparently ignored the status of the father and undertook to show that the mother was not the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the rebellion, evidently believing that fact alone would be sufficient to make these applicants ineligible to enrollment.

On November 6, 1903 Messrs. Kimball & White filed a brief in this case on behalf of the applicants wherein they set out that the applicants are negroes and were little children at the beginning of the civil war and were living in the Cherokee Nation; that they were taken into Kansas for a short time, but that it is clearly established that they returned within the six months limit fixed by the Cherokee "constitution and that they have been rejected by the Commission on the sole ground that their mother, one Harriet Johnson was the slave of one Harrison, who was a white man and not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. These attorneys state that the evidence on this question is somewhat conflicting, but that aside from that question it is certain that Joshua Martin, who was the slave of Joe Martin, a Cherokee citizen, was the father of these children. Said attorneys then refer to the requirements of the Curtis Act that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, and then take up the question of who are descendants as used in said decision.

It is not claimed by these attorneys that the said Joshua Martin returned to the Cherokee Nation within the proper time. As the evidence now stands I consider that it is necessary to hold that the said Josh Martin and his said children were in the Cherokee Nation within the time stipulated by the treaty provisions of 1866, although the evidence is not satisfactory on this point, yet there is some evidence to that effect and none whatever disputing it.

I am therefore of the opinion that unless the nation can show that neither these children nor their father did return to the Cherokee Nation within the proper time, these applicants should be enrolled as Cherokee freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

On December 16, 1905 the Department transmitted to this office a brief in said case on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, drawn by W. W. Hastings, attorney for the nation, but I cannot concur with the attorney in his argument therein as to the meaning of the word "descendants" as used in the treaty of 1866. In speaking of the return of these applicants, the attorney states that there is no satisfactory proof that they returned to the Cherokee Nation within the time prescribed by the treaty, but that the Cherokee Nation did not particularly press that point in the introduction of testimony for the reason that the testimony as to the ownership of these two applicants was positive, clear and convincing of the fact that they were not owned by citizens of the Cherokee Nation. I do not believe that these applicants' admission is dependent upon the fact of whether their mother was or was not owned by a Cherokee citizen, since the evidence shows that their father was so owned by a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion.

The sole question as I view it is did either they or their father return to the nation within the proper time. Otherwise I consider them eligible for admission and on this point the evidence being in their favor, I recommend that either this record be returned for further evidence or that the decision of the Commission be set aside and the parties be enrolled as aforesaid.

Very respectfully,

WCB/LM

Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

July 23, 1903, you transmitted the record in the Cherokee freedman case of James Martin, et al., including your decision of July 10, 1903, rejecting the application of James Martin and Mary A. Watson.

Reporting February 16, 1904, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that either the record be returned for further evidence, or that your decision be set aside and the parties enrolled.

Following the rule heretofore adopted by the Department, it is necessary in such cases that the Nation and the applicants be allowed sufficient time in which to file arguments. The Department considers it fair to all parties that they be given an opportunity to produce further evidence if they so desire. You will therefore notify the applicants and the attorney for the Nation of the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner, and that they will be allowed thirty days within which to produce further evidence. The testimony and papers attached are inclosed herewith, together with arguments filed by the nation and the applicants and a copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Theo. Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

January 19, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that none of the applicants makes claim to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, except by intermarriage with a Cherokee Freedman; that none has ever been enrolled or admitted to citizenship by any tribal authority of the Cherokee Nation or by any United States tribunal and that none is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

In view of the record and of the ruling of the Department of November 12, 1904 (I. T. D. 5848-1904) in the Lemuel Welcome case, the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

May 4, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 12, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by James Martin for himself and Mary A. Watson for herself.

July 10, 1903, the Commission decided adversely to the applicants.

The record shows that the applicants were born prior to the beginning of the war of the rebellion and that they were ~~xxxx~~ not slaves of ~~the~~ Cherokee citizens or free colored persons residing in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war. None of the applicants is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I received by reference of September 19, 1906, the records in the applications of James Martin and of Mary A. Watson for enrolment as Cherokee freedmen. Reference is made to Article IX of the treaty of 1866 (14 Stat., 799), and my opinion is requested--

Whether, in view of the words "and their descendants" in said treaty, the applicants in this case, born prior to the war of the rebellion, are entitled to enrolment as descendants of their father, a slave of a Cherokee citizen, their mother being a slave of a citizen of the United States.

The question, by its necessary implication, states the fact found by the Commission and accepted by the Department that the applicants were themselves living when the war of the rebellion broke out, and that they are the children of a father who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen and of a mother who was the slave of a citizen of the United States not a Cherokee citizen.

I am of opinion that all former slaves living at the outbreak of the rebellion made citizens by the treaty are included in the words "all freedmen," to which general class the words "their descendants" have reference as a class taking their rights by succession to and descent from the first class named. The outbreak of the rebellion being the point of time fixed to which the general class has reference, in my opinion it follows of necessity that the words "their descendants" logically and necessarily are limited to persons born after that time, and that a person then living must show right in himself as being included in the first class, and can not establish a right by proof of an earlier descent from one of that class.

Very respectfully,

Frank L. Campbell.

Sir:

On May 4, 1906 (Land 31387), the Indian Office transmitted a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 19, 1905, forwarding the record of the consolidated application for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of James Martin, for himself, and Mary A. Watson, for herself, together with its decision of July 10, 1903, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurred in the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes. A copy of its letter is enclosed herewith.

On September 26, 1906, the Assistant Attorney-General for this Department rendered a decision in reference to this case, which was approved by the Department on the same date, a copy of which is enclosed for your information.

In accordance with said opinion, the consolidated application of James Martin and Mary A. Watson for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen is hereby denied.

Chelsea, I.T., May 28, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Maude Manley for the enrollment of herself and children as Cherokee Freedmen, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge she testified as follows:

- Q Give your full name please? A Maude Manley.
Q You applied for yourself and children at Ft. Gibson did you not? Or Vinita? A Vinita.
Q Your maiden name was Bullock was it not? A Yes sir.
Q Give me please the names of some of the members of your family, that is of the Bullock family? A Well, my father's name was Kit Bullock.
Q Well, any other members of the family? A My brother's name was Charley.
Q Well? A There isn't any only just brothers of us.
Q Give me one or two of them? A Clad Bullock, he is in this court.
Q Is that all? A That's all there is of us, yes sir.
Q Is there any one in your family named Jack Bullock? A No sir.
Q Or Fay? A No sir.

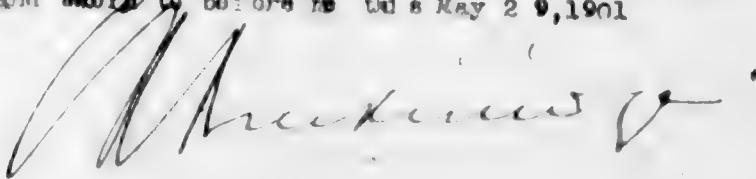

Commissioner: It is found in Commission case 1544 that the Maude Bullock therein referred to was a daughter of B.H. and F. Reed, and not of the family of the applicant, consequently, she is not identified as being a party to the proceedings in this case before the Commission in 1896.

It is found also in case of the Commission 3735 of 1896 that the Maude Bullock therein referred to is the same one as shown by the family association, as that one referred to in the case 1544, and therefore the applicant is not identified as a party in the proceedings in either of these cases before the Commission in 1896; this will be filed as additional testimony in the case cited, Cherokee Freedmen D 353, and attention will be called to it on the card.

M.D.Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Maude Manley, et al, for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen:

Appearances:

Mellete & Smith, Vinita, I. T., for applicants;
James S. Davenport, for the Cherokee Nation.

TESTIMONY IN BEHALF OF CHEROKEE NATION.

ELIZABETH DAVIS, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by James S. Davenport:

- Q What is your name ?     A Elizabeth Davis.
Q Where do you live ?     A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived there ?     A I went there in the fall of '63, and have lived there continually ever since.
Q Where had you been living before you went there in '63 ?
A In the Territory here.
Q Near what place ?     A Between here and the falls on the Arkansas river.
Q Do you mean Webbers Falls ?     A Yes sir.
Q You went to Fort Scott, Kansas, in the fall of '63, during the war ?     A Yes sir.
Q And have lived there continuously since that time ?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know of a man by the name of Alonzo Cullen or Manley, a colored man ?     A Yes sir. I knew his step-mother before I went there.
Q After you went there did you get acquainted with him ?
A Yes sir. His name was Cullen Manley, and he went by the name of Cullen, and the children went by the name of Cullen.
Q Do you know if he had any children ?     A Yes, he had two, one named Alonzo, and one I can't remember the name.
Q Do you know whether or not Alonzo ever married ?
A Yes sir, he was married there in Fort Scott.
Q Do you know whether or not he had any children ?
A He had one boy child they called Joe.
Q When did you first get acquainted with Cullen Manley ?
A When I went to Fort Scott in '63. By knowing his wife I got acquainted with him. I had known her before going there.
Q You say you had known his wife before going there ?
A Yes sir. She belonged to Peter Hilderbrand.
Q Do you know whether or not that wife is living; the wife of Cullen ?     A No, she died there in Fort Scott.
Q Was she the mother of Alonzo ?     A No, she was his step-mother; she was the mother of Fred.
Q What was Cullen doing, if you remember ?
A He was trading horses for a man by the name of Kirkendal, who kept race horses.
Q That was in '63 or '64 ?     A Yes sir, in '64.
Q How long did he live there when you were living in Fort Scott when you learned to know him ?     A From that time up until 1870. He didn't leave there earlier than that, and maybe later.
Q Did his family live there with him ?     A Yes sir.
Q After his wife that you knew died, did he re-marry ?
A No sir, she broke up there pretty soon after she died.
Q Alonzo was his son by a former wife ?     A Yes sir.
Q Who had belonged to the Hilderbrand's ?     A Yes sir.

Q This boy Fred was the son of this woman ?
 A Fred was the son of Harriett.
 Q She died in Fort Scott ? A Yes sir.
 Q Then he continued to live there from the time you got acquainted with him until after the death of his wife ?
 A Until after the death of his wife.
 Q Till about what time ? A I think Cullen himself left there in 1870, but Alonzo, I don't think he left there earlier than 1872 or '3.
 Q Did they have a house there ? A Yes sir.
 Q Did they own any property there ? A Yes sir, they owned property. In 1872 their property was sold for taxes and a lawyer there by the name of Hewitt bought it in.
 Q How far did they live from where you lived ?
 A Just a block east of where I lived.
 Q You had an opportunity to see them quite often ?
 A Every day.
 Q And you had known Fred Manley's mother before she went there ?
 A Yes sir.
 Q You had lived here in this country quite a while ?
 A Yes sir, and I knew nearly all the colored people that went from here up there.
 Q You know a great many of the people that still live here ?
 A Yes sir.

Examined by Mr. Smith:

Q Where did you go from to Fort Scott ?
 A From the Cherokee Nation.
 Q How long had you lived in the Cherokee Nation before you went to Fort Scott ? A I don't know just how long; I had been here 15 years probably.
 Q When did you go to Fort Scott ? A In '63, in the fall of '63.
 Q When did you first know Alonzo Manley ?
 A I know him in '64.
 Q How old was he at that time ?
 A He was about--he must have been about 18 years old I guess; he was a short chunky boy. He was a boy who was beginning to think himself a young man.
 Q What was his father's name ? A Cullen Manley.
 Q When did you first know Cullen ?
 A About the same time I knew Alonzo.
 Q Didn't know either of them in the Nation ? A No sir, I knew his wife though.
 Q Cullen's wife ? A Not Alonzo's mother, but Cullen's second wife.
 Q What was Alonzo's mother's name ? A I don't know; never knew her.
 Q What was his stepmother's name ? A Harriett.
 Q Now you say that you knew one son of Alonzo Manley. What was his name ? A They called him Joe. He was a little fellow when I seen him.
 Q Where ? A At his house. I went to see him purposely.
 Q Where ? A At Fort Scott.
 Q What was his mother's name ? A Eliza.
 Q What was her name before she married ? A Whitmire.
 Q Where did he marry her ? A There in Fort Scott.
 Q Was she a colored woman ? A She was a colored woman. A yellow woman; a very pretty woman.
 Q When was the last time you saw her ? A I saw her the last time when the baby was small, it must have been about the first part of '72. Along there.

Q IN Fort Scott ? A Yes sir.

Q How old was the boy Joe at that time ? A He was a young baby probably a year old; but I don't hardly think he was that old.

Q Less than a year you would say ? A Yes sir, I think he was less than a year old probably when they left there.

Q When you first knew Alonzo you say he was about 18. How long from that was it until he married ? A He married in '65, I believe. He may have been older than that. I don't know what his age was. He helped his father with the horses.

Q How long did you know him before he married ? A I knew him in '64, and he was married, I think, in '65. He was married young. His father was very much against his marrying so young when he married.

Q Did Alonzo have any brothers or sisters ? A He had this one, this half-brother, Freddie.

Q That's all ? A That's all I ever saw or heard of.

Q Had no sisters ? A I never heard of any.

Q Have you ever resided in the Cherokee Nation since the war ? A No sir.

Q Have you ever been an applicant for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation ? A No sir, I have no right here at all.

Q Did you ever apply ? A No sir.

Q Any of your family ? A No sir.

Q Did you ever claim to have ? A No sir, my brother was a citizen here in the Cherokee Nation.

Q What was his name ? A Hays.

Q Is he a citizen yet ? A No he is dead.

Q His family ? A He left no family; his wife died before he did, and they had no children.

Q Where were you living in the year 1866. A I was living in Fort Scott.

Q Where do you say Manley was ? A There in Fort Scott trading horses.

Q Did he marry that year ? A He was married, I think, in '65.

Q Are you certain about that ? A No, I aint certain about it. I knew that he was married there, and stayed there quite a while after he was married. I know he was there in the first part of '70. I am positively sure he was there then.

Q You can't say whether he was in the Cherokee Nation in November, 1866 ? A Well, he wasn't; he was there in Fort Scott.

Q Who was he working for ? A Kirkendal, the same man his father worked for.

Q Who was Kirkendal ? A He was a man who owned race horses.

Q Were the streets of Fort Scott numbered at that time ? A No sir.

Q Were they designated in any way ? A Well, there was Locust street; and Market street; and Main street.

Q Will you tell me exactly where this man lived in November, 1866 ? A He lived on what they called Plaza, in a house that is torn down and gone now.

Q Who was living in Fort Scott who knew, besides yourself, that this man lived there during 1866 ? A Well, there's Mrs. Anthony that knows him. A man named Wiley Anderson; Ben Crowl, and several others that knew him.

Q Do you know where this man Alonzo Manley came from when he came to Fort Scott ? A From the Cherokee Nation with his father and mother.

Q What makes you suppose that ? A Because he was a boy living with his father.

~~XX~~

Q How do you know where his father came from ? A Because he married Harriett there before the war, and bought her from her folks. She said so. That's what she told me herself.

Q Well, you didn't know this man Manley at the time the war commenced ? A No sir.

Q Do you know his status, whether he was free then ? A They didn't belong to anybody. Him and Gullen were free, so they said.

Q Where did you live; what part of the Cherokee Nation ? A I lived here between here and Webbers Falls on the Arkansas river.

Q How far from Fort Gibson ? A I lived just above where Spaniard Creek empties into the river.

Q How far is that from Fort Gibson ? A I don't know.

Q Don't you know how many miles ? A No sir, I never measured it. I never went up that way, and don't know a thing about it.

Q You haven't any idea how far it was from Fort Gibson ? A No sir. Never heard anybody say.

Q Where was Alonzo Manley in December, 1866, and January, 1867 ? A In 1866 he was there, unless he was away somewhere; his family was there anyway.

Q What composed his family then ? A His wife is all he had.

Q When was Jos born ? A I don't know; sometime along there in the 60s or the first of the 70 s. I don't know exactly when he was born.

Q Don't know what year her was born ? A No sir.

Q You don't know where Alonzo Manley was in the month of December, 1866 ? A No, but he was there I suppose.

Q Just testify as to what you actually knew. A His wife was there. He was there in '69, because he shot his leg there, and was laid up there for quite a while in '69.

Q You can't state then, of your own knowledge, where Alonzo Manley was in January, 1867 ? A No sir, not any special month.

Q Now the mother of this boy Joe, what was her name ? A Her name was Eliza Whitmire before her married her.

Q You saw him as late as 1872 in Fort Scott ? A Yes sir. She was there for that long, if not longer.

Q Did you ever know Alonzo Manley after the time about which you have spoken ? A No sir. I know he moved to the Territory. At least they said he did.

Q You never saw him yourself ? A No sir, I have heard of him several times, but never saw him.

Q Well when were you here; what years ? A I have been here every year since '71 nearly. Every two years, or every year I would come and visit my brother.

Q Did you never apply for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation ? A Why no, I had no right to apply for citizenship.

Q Do you know what Alonzo Manley's mother's name was ? A No sir, I never saw her, nor heard tell of her even.

Q You are here testifying in a number of these Freedmen cases, are you not ? A No, I know a number of them.

Q How many cases did you testify in yesterday ? Mr. Davenport: I submit that that doesn't make any difference. I don't object to it, however. Give him the number of cases you testified in Mrs. Davis, if you can.

A Three I think.

Examined by Mr. Davenport:

You only testified as to what you knew in these cases ? A That's all I aim to do.

The Commission: This testimony will be filed in the case at bar, and also in the case of Joseph Manley, Cherokee Freedman No. D 628.

The authenticated roll of 1880 examined, and the names of the applicants are not found thereon.

The census roll of 1890 examined, and the names of the applicants are not found thereon.

MRS. LYDIA BARTON, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

- MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Mrs. Lydia Barton.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
- Q Do you hold any official position at the present time? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is it? A County Clerk.
- Q Of the county in which Fort Scott is located? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you an official paper? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is it? A Our official paper at the present time is the Republican but that changes you know from time to time.
- Q Do you know what your official paper was in December, 1866, and up to and including March of 1867? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was it? A The Fort Scott Monitor.
- Q Are you required to keep files of this paper in your office? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you a file of the official paper including December 22, 1866, up to and including March of 1867? A Yes, sir. (Here presents files.)
- MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the account found in the Fort Scott Monitor of date Wednesday, December, 20, 1866, found on the second column of the editorial page, headed "Another Murder."
- MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and objects to the introduction of these newspaper accounts for the reason that they are incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and purely hearsay.
- COMMISSION: The objection will be noted and the newspaper accounts introduced in evidence and considered for what they are worth.

"Another Murder.

Shooting of D. Hayford.

Testimony given before the coroner.

On Saturday night, the 22nd inst., after dark, Mr. Dyer Hayford, of this city, was found murdered. A colored man, named Eli Mackey, has been arrested, and is in jail, charged with the crime. There would not seem to be much, if any, doubt of his guilt. Mr. Hayford has been a resident of Fort Scott for several years, has kept a grocery and provision store on the corner of Williams and Bigler streets, and was a very quiet and inoffensive man. The facts of his murder as we learn them, are these:

On Saturday, about dark, the sack of flour which Mr. Hayford had placed on a box, outside the door of his store, was stolen. Being missed almost immediately, and learning that Mackey had taken it, and was then on his way home with it, (Mackey resides near Fort Scott mills,) Mr. Hayford jumped on a horse and started towards the mill. He had not been gone more than twenty or thirty minutes before several shots were fired, on the road between the city and the mills, where Mr. Hayford was found on the ground, in the last agonies of death. He had received four shots from a weapon, evidently a revolver.

Suspicion was at once directed to Mackey and he was arrested. As the news spread through the city, the excitement and the indignation was great, and many threats of lynching Mackey were made; but wiser and better counsels prevailed, and there was no disturbance.

On Sunday, Justice Marygrave was called on to hold a coroner's inquest. A jury was empanelled, consisting of Messrs. C. F. Drake, Joseph Ray, Frank Clough, Porter Williams, Jos. Warden, and P. L. Phillips. The body of Mr. Hayford having removed to his late residence, the jury proceeded to inquire into the cause of his death. We give the principal part of the testimony given before the jury.

Drs. J. S. Redfield and B. F. Hepler made a post-mortem examination, and testified that they found four pistol or gun-shot wounds on the body and face of Dyer Hayford, then lying dead before them. One shot entered the region of the stomach which came out over the liver, in the side of the back. This wound bears evidence that the pistol was held close to the body when discharged. Two other wounds found on the body were about two inches above the left nipple and about an inch and a half apart - one ball passing through, coming out below the left shoulder, the other ranging downward, and was found close to the spinal column, a few inches below the lower ribs on the left side of the body. The fourth ball entered the upper part of the chin, not fracturing the bone, and lodged in the right shoulder, (evidently fired, we think, after he was on the ground.) The surgeons testified that any of the three wounds found on his body would have been mortal.

Alonzo Cullin, (colored) sworn - Was at Hayford's Saturday evening, just after six o'clock, came on horseback, left my horse at the door, went in and found Hayford alone and coming toward the door; Eli Mackey, colored, was standing on the walk when I went into Hayford's; a sack of flour was standing on the box at the door when I went in; Hayford came out and the flour was gone; he asked me who was there when I came in, and I told him; asked me to get on my horse and follow Mackey and see if he had the flour; did so; rode very fast and overtook Mackey at the mill, going toward the mill; he had stopped and the sack of flour was on the ground beside him; his coat was off and thrown over the flour but the end of the sack was in sight; I rode close to him; he put his hands up to his sides and was blowing right smart; I inquired if he had seen a steer with a rope on his neck; he said no; I rode back toward Hayford's and told him Mackey had the flour and where it was; Hayford said he would go and get the flour, and asked me for my pony; he got on and rode down the road; he had been gone a good while before I heard the firing; he had been gone long enough to ride to the mill and back to the place where he was shot, before I heard the firing. When I saw Mackey at Hayford's he had on a soldier's coat; it was off when I found him with the flour. Didn't notice that at any time whether Mackey had any arms or weapons with him; saw him again after he was arrested, a short time after Hayford was killed; he then had a different coat. He asked what he was arrested for; he was told, for stealing flour; he asked who had seen him with the flour; he was then told he had shot Hayford, and he said he had nothing to shoot with. I know that he generally carried a revolver; when I saw him with the flour I didn't notice whether he had one or not. When Hayford started from the store, he said he would go and get Mr. Myers to go with him to get the flour; from the place where I saw Mackey with the flour to that where Hayford was shot, is about one hundred yards. I heard three shots distinctly.

Harry Lander, (colored) sworn - Saturday evening heard several shots fired. Was at home, lived near the mill close by Eli Mackey's. About twenty minutes after the shots were fired Mackey came to my door; asked me if his wife was there; told him no. He seemed to be in a hurry. He had on a black soldier's coat; the shooting sounded as if it was south from my house, and about the place where Hayford was found; someone rode down to Mackey's and returned about fifteen minutes, before the shots were fired. Saw the coat which Mackey wore when he came to my house, at his house afterward. - Do not know whether he had any revolver then or not, he usually carries one, have seen him have one several times. I did not notice any flour on his coat. It was a navy revolver which Mackey usually carried. He also owns a gun; didn't see that at his house that night. When Mackey left my house he went to his house, and soon afterward heard him going back to town whistling. Mr. Jones found the sack of flour at the edge of the creek; looked as if thrown down the bank. Was found about twenty yards from Mackey's house. Saw Mackey have a revolver on Friday the day before Hayford was killed.

E. C. H. Myers, sworn - I live about 100 yards west of Eli Mackey's. Saturday night was at home sick abed; a man came to my house and inquired for me; I heard him and knew by his voice that it was Mr. Hayford; have known him several years. He left and my wife said he rode in a northerly direction, that is the way from my house to Mackey's. About five minutes after he left I heard four distinct shots. From the sound thought they were about 150 yards off and southwest from my house. After the firing heard someone walking past, whistling; he was going towards town.

Stephen Looney, (col.) sworn - After dark Saturday night I saw Eli Mackey at Smith's saloon. He asked me to play cards with him that night. He went out and I told him not to stay long. I waited a good bit and Mackey didn't come back and I went out and called him; he didn't answer; I then went over to Hayford's and learned that a sack of flour had been stolen. Didn't notice whether Hayford was there or not. Alonzo Cullin told me he saw Mackey on the road towards home, and that Mackey heard him call, but wouldn't answer. Didn't see Mackey again until Mr. Jones had arrested him, and brought him up to town. When I saw Mackey at Smith's he had on a soldier's brook coat; he had a revolver on him then; it was a big navy revolver. When I saw him after he was arrested, I think he had on a different coat.

Daniel O'Neil, sworn - Saturday night I was at Kirby's and heard a shot fired, and soon after heard a rap halloa; run out and another shot was fired before I got out; immediately after heard another shot and saw the flash of a pistol down in the bottom toward the mill. Alex Harris, Westly Dickey and myself run down the road. We found a man lying on his side; his face was turned downward; he was alive but could not speak. From the sound I know it was a pistol that was fired. Came to town to find Mr. Jones, Deputy Marshal.

The coroner's jury returned to the justice their inquisition, stating that Dyer Hayford came to his death by gun-shot wounds received at the hands of Eli Mackey; they also found that Mackey had feloniously and wilfully fired the revolver at Mr. Hayford with intent to kill him.

Mackey will have his examination soon, before Justice Mangrove, and will no doubt be committed for trial at the next April term of the district court. Mackey is said to be a very dangerous man; he was raised in the Cherokee Nation, and is said to be part Cherokee. He is also accused of having assassinated two men in the Nation, before he came to Fort Scott, and he was once before arrested here, for shooting at a man; but before his trial came off the prosecuting witness left for parts unknown, and Mackey was discharged without trial. Let him be tried for the offence with which he now stands charged, and if guilty he should expiate his crime on the gallows."

MR. HASTINGS: I desire to introduce an editorial from the Fort Scott Monitor of date February, 27, 1867, as follows:

"Eli Mackey, colored, accused of the murder of Dyer Hayford, confined in our jail, to await his trial at the next term of the District Court, for murder in the first degree, escaped last evening, and up to the time of going to press this morning, has not been heard of. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension."

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from the Fort Scott Monitor of Wednesday, March 27, 1867:

"A Chapter of Horrors.

Murderer of Hayford Captured and Hung.

Tragic events connected with the affair.

The history of our community for the past week is replete with horrors, such as will, for long days to come, overshadow the hearts of our citizens with gloom.

A few weeks ago, we published an account of the escape of Eli Mackey, the black fiend, who last winter murdered Dyer Hayford. Ever since that time the officers of justice have been on the alert with a view of his recapture, and on Wednesday, the 20th inst., Deputy Sheriff Wheaton, having learned that the murderer was concealed in his brother's house, about five miles northeast of this city, started, in company with his son, Charles T. Wheaton, Edward Coe - who were on police duty in this city - and Benj. Files, for the purpose of capturing him.

On arriving at the house, Messrs. Coe and Wheaton, Jr., approached and ordered the wretch to surrender. In return he fired several shots through the partially open door, and then ran out of the house into the open prairie. Coe, being nearest, received the first shots that were fired. He stepped to the corner of the house, sat down and expired in about fifteen minutes. Immediately after Charley Wheaton received a ball in the right side and fell to the ground. For some time no hope was entertained for his recovery; but at the present writing his condition is improved, and his friends entertain some hopes that he will live.

In the mean time a number of the neighbors had gone around and headed by Capt. Curtis Johnson, Mr. Files and Mr. Dickinson started in pursuit. The murderer, with a gun and revolver in his hands, ran fleetly across the prairie, firing at his pursuers as he ran, and dropping down to load as fast as his weapon became empty. Finally, when nearly dead from the wounds he received from his pursuers, he signified his readiness to surrender; but even after they approached him his bloodthirsty spirit was not satisfied, and he fired the two remaining shots in his revolver at the crowd. Fortunately, no one was injured, though Mr. Dickinson had part of his coat shot off. After the murderer was secured he was taken back to the house from which he had fled and hung by the neck until he was dead. Before his death he tried to implicate an innocent negro in the murder of Mr. Hayford, but having been caught in the falsehood, he confessed to having committed the deed himself. He also confessed to having killed five other men, and also to having shot at Major Mefford last winter. - All reports indicate that he has always been a character with scarcely a parallel in the annals of history for desperation and bloodthirstiness. - We are informed that at one time, in the Cherokee Nation, 25 men attempted to arrest him but failed on account of his desperation. The colored people, who knew him, were terrible afraid of him. History has seldom presented a character so utterly lost even to every sentiment of humanity.

As a general rule, we have always depreciated the taking of life except by due process of law, as dangerous to the peace and quiet of the community and to the best interests of society. We have always found that nothing but the most extreme necessity would justify it, but we believe in this instance that necessity existed; for every moment this desperado was allowed to live, endangered the lives of good citizens. We learn that the house he occupied was since burned to the ground. The sufferers from their attempt to arrest him, were among the best of our young men. As members of the police force of this city they have performed their duties faithfully. Generous and brave to a fault, the death of one and the danger to the other creates a spirit of sadness that cannot soon be eradicated.

The body of Mr. Coe was brought into the city, and on Friday after a funeral sermon by Mr. Irwin was escorted by a large procession, headed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, to the cemetery where it was interred.

Sequel.

On Thursday night a crowd of about fifty men, still laboring under the excitement growing out of the tragedy of Wednesday, entered the jail and having possessed themselves of the keys took Jackson Mackey and Harry Vann - on the brother who harbored the murderer and the other charged with furnishing provisions and aiding in his concealment, to the ravine near the poorhouse and hung them to a tree where their lifeless bodies were found next morning. So quietly was this done that few in the city except those who participated know of it until the next morning."

Benjamin Files, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Q. HASTINGS: What's your name? A Benjamin Files.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q Were you living there at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living there in '66, December? A I have lived there ever since '62.

Q Did you know Dyer Hayford? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you known him before December '66. A Yes sir, I had known him in the neighborhood of two years before that and knew him up until that time.

Q Was he killed? A He was killed at Fort Scott.

Q Was he killed in the town? A He was killed just at the brink of the hill along in the mouth; yes, sir he was killed in the city just about the brink of the hill.

Q About what time of the day was he killed? A He was killed just after dark, just dark.

Q Do you know who killed him, who was said to have killed him, who was accused of killing him? A Yes, sir.

Q Who? A Eli Mackey.

Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir, he was.

Q Did you assist in his arrest? Yes, sir.

Q Who arrested him? Myself and a man we called Deacon Jones.

- Q That this other man here with you? A Yes, sir.
- Q About how long after this reported killing? A I heard the shots fired, then run down there and run over him; I lit a match and this man drew his breath twice. from the time the shots fired I wouldn't it was more than twenty minutes.
- Q Twenty minutes? A Yes, sir.
- Q Had it become generally known at the time of the arrest? A No, sir.
- Q There was no time for the public to know? A Only a few people knew; I heard the shots fired myself and run down there.
- Q And a few people knew that the killing had taken place before he was arrested? A Yes, sir.
- Q And the excitement then, was that after that? A Yes, sir, they didn't have time to know it.
- Q Was he put in jail? A Yes, sir.
- Q You remember how long he remained in jail? A Till about the twentieth, sometime in February, 26th I think it was.
- Q Of February following, of '67? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well did he make his escape? A He got away.
- Q He got away? A Yes, sir, he got past the turnkey, Ed Coe.
- Q Ed Coe was the turnkey was he? A Yes, sir.
- Q I will ask you then if there was any searching parties out for this man? Yes, sir.
- Q For how long? I think he was killed on the 26th of March.
- Q From then about the 26th of February until the 26th of March people looked for him, a reward offered for him? Yes, sir, some three hundred dollars I believe.
- Q Well were there quite a number of people out searching for him?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q Considerable excitement at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did people go out in the country looking for him? A Yes, sir, and searched houses and searched lands, they looked around for him, but failed to find him.
- Q Up until that time? Yes, sir.
- Q You say that was for about three weeks? A Yes, sir, something over three weeks.
- Q From the 26th of February up until about the 26th of March? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee Barney or not? A Yes, sir, he was.
- Q I believe there was a newspaper account to the effect that when he was captured he was hung up there? A He was killed, yes, sir.
- Q What I want to get particularly from you was whether there was any search made for him at the time he was killed or whether search was made for him after his escape, after the 26th of February? A There was no search made for Mackey until he broke jail.
- Q No houses searched, nor no wagons, nor no nothing when he was first captured? A He was in jail. I don't think it was much over a half an hour, I don't think it was any; he was in jail in not much over half an hour after he shot Hayford; I heard the shot that killed Hayford.
- Q And you helped to arrest him? Yes, sir, I got to Hayford before he died, but he was too far gone; I lit a match and he was too far gone to speak.
- Q You had known Hayford prior to that time? A Yes, sir, him and me was friends.
- Q You was a friend of his? A Yes, sir.

H. C. Jones, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A H. C. Jones.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q What is your age, please sir? A 46.

Q Were you holding any office in the town of Fort Scott, Kansas, in December of '66? A I was.

Q Well were you holding any office at the time a man by the name of Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey? A I was.

Q What office was that? A City marshal, called town constable.

Q You was a city policeman? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you assist in his first arrest? A I did.

Q Who assisted you in the arrest? A Mr. Benjamin Files.

Q This man that is present here? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear the shot that killed Hayford? A I did.

Q How soon after Hayford was killed was Mackey arrested, Eli Mackey?

A 20 or 25 minutes, inside of a half hour at most.

Q Very short time? A Yes, sir.

Q Had any houses or wagons or anything of that kind been searched in the mean time? A No, sir, there was no knowledge.

Q People didn't generally know it up to that time? A No, sir.

Q Put in jail then? A He was taken right to the jail as soon as he was arrested, he was hurried off to jail for fear of any mob violence.

Q Well how long did he remain in jail, do you remember? A Why I think something like six weeks or more.

Q Well the Fort Scott Monitor puts it about February 26th? A I presume that was right, it was correct. It was hard for me to remember exactly.

Q Well he remained in jail up to that time? A Up till that time, he was not out of jail except while he was under guard.

Q He made his escape then? A He made his escape, yes, sir, at the time.

Q You know how long he was at large? A Well I put it something like three weeks.

Q I will ask you if there was any searches at that time made for him?

A You mean after?

Q When he got away after February 26th? A Oh yes, sir, there was considerable hunt for him at that time.

Q Reward offered for him? A Yes, sir, reward offered.

Q People searched around in the country for him? A There was quite a number of both officials and independent searches, they would search for him for the first couple of weeks of his escape from there.

Q He was afterwards captured was he? A Yes, sir, he was located afterwards, he hadn't been out of a radius of probably ten miles from there after he got away, he was captured.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee colored man? A He was called a Cherokee refugee, yes, sir, had the reputation, that is his name, of being a Cherokee nigger.

COMMISSION: You are positive about these dates? A To the best of my knowledge now, I would have put it, that is, a week before the holidays, and I knew it was only a few days before Christmas when the killing was done.

Q '67? A In '66 the killing was done.

Q Few days before Christmas of '66? A Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that all the testimony introduced in the case of Aaron Webber, D-216, with reference to the return of the Webber detachment, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and moves the Commission to strike from the records of this case all the testimony taken on this day, for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence, it being purely hearsay.

COMMISSION: The request of the representative of the Cherokee Nation will be complied with, and the testimony filed.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: No. D-394, D-396, D-398, D-401, D-402, D-404, D-407, D-775, and in D-381, the same being the case at bar.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Maude Manley for the enrollment of her children as Cherokee freedmen. Testimony in behalf of applicants.

Applicant represented by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation by W. W. Hastings:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A G. W. Clark.

Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.

Q How old are you, George Clark? A 59 years old.

Q How long have you lived in the vicinity of Vinita or in the country where Vinita is now located? A I have been in the Cherokee Nation all my life.

Q How long have you lived near Vinita? A 37 years.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, I am.

Q By blood? A Yes, by blood.

Q Did you ever know a man by the name of Alonzo Manley or Alonzo Cullon? A I know Alonzo Cullon.

A He afterwards went by the name of Alonzo Manley.

Q The same man? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you during the war? A Stationed at Fort Gibson.

Q When were you mustered out? A The last day of May, 1865.

Q Where? A At Fort Gibson.

Q How long after that before you went up to the country where you now live? A I started there the next day after I was mustered out.

Q Have you made your home up there in the vicinity of Vinita ever since that time? A There on the river ever since that time.

Q Now before you were mustered out when had you seen this Alonzo Cullon or Manley in the Cherokee Nation? A I just can't remember exactly; I saw him off and on during the war one or twice, I don't recollect; I knowed him when I saw him. He went by the name of Cullon then; I knew his father.

Q Where did you see him before you were mustered out? A I saw him there at Gibson and in the fall after we were mustered out.

Q In the fall of '65 after you was mustered out you saw him there in Gibson? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember whether you saw him at Fort Gibson in '65 before you was mustered out? A I don't recollect, but I think he was here.

Q When had you seen him before this time you saw him in the fall of '65, have you any recollection? A No sir, I haven't.

Q Now, you say you left Fort Gibson and went up in the vicinity of what is now Vinita; did you ever see Alonzo up there? A He come there in the fall of '67 I think or '68; I think it was in '67 he moved up there. He dropped on the place I own now. He had a brother-in-law there by the name of Aleck Johnson.

Q Did he have a family? A Yes, his wife was a colored woman.

Q How long did he live there at this place that he first came to?

A I think he stayed there that winter.

Q And then where did he move to? A I don't know.

Q Did you see him from time to time after that? A No sir, I never saw him for a good while.

Q Do you know where he came from when he came to Vinita? A No, I don't know, my impression is that he come from down by Fort Gibson, but I am not positive.

Q Do you know where he lived in the Cherokee Nation after that? Is he living or dead I will ask you now? A He is dead; he died in Coowesscoowee District, on Lightning Creek; he lived on Lightning Creek; I ranched close to him.

3-Mauie Manley-

Q Do you remember what time that was? A No, I don't, he was on Lightning Creek when I made that place there. He wasn't living with the same woman then, he was living with a white woman then.

Q Between the white woman and the colored woman did he have another wife? A No sir, I don't know, I lost run of him.

W. W. Hastings: George, I believe you stated that after the fall of '65 you didn't see anything more of him until either in the fall of '67 or '68 when he come to your place? A Correct.

Q You don't know of your own knowledge where he was in the meantime between those dates? A No sir.

Q If the record shows that he was in Fort Scott between that time you don't admit to dispute that? A No sir, I don't know; I know he came at that time and located at the place where--log houses were on the place-- I am located now.

Q That was in '67 or '68? A Yes sir.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of FERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mallette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 493, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Hand Manly, D 353;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1863, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decrees of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings;

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

COMMISSION TO FIVE TRIBES.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., September 25, 1903.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the application for the enrollment of MAUDE MANLEY, ET AL., as Cherokee Freedmen.

Appearances:

Preston S. Davis, Attorney for Applicants.
L. B. Bell, Attorney for Cherokee Nation.

L. B. BELL, being first duly sworn on behalf of applicants, testified as follows:

MR. DAVIS: State your name? A L. B. Bell.
Q How old are you? A Sixty-five years old.
Q You reside at Vinita? A Vinita is my post office.
Q Were you acquainted with Alonzo Manley in his lifetime? A Yes sir, I knew one Alonzo Cullen, or Manley. I first knew him as Alonzo Cullen.
Q Afterwards you knew him as Alonzo Manley? A Called him that since the war.
Q You remember seeing Alonzo Cullen or Manley in the Cherokee Nation before the war broke out? A Yes sir, I saw him.
Q Do you know whether or not he was a free colored person before the war? A When I saw him he was supposed to be a slave. She was the mother of two or three other children besides him, he was the youngest. These negroes were divided out amongst the folks that was heirs of the Sanders' estate, or whoever it was, and an old man by the name of Miller, lived in Texas, his wife got Alonzo, he was a small boy then. They started to Texas with him, and Cullen, that's his father, a free negro that lived in the country here, a horse trainer, had him taken charge of under habeas corpus proceedings in the federal court at Van Buren, and the court set the boy free; and then Cullen, I understand, went back to Fort Gibson. I never saw Alonzo until after the war.
Q You say his father was a free colored person? A Yes sir, Cullen was a kind of free negro living in this country.
Q And they habeas corpused this boy and he was discharged by the court on habeas corpus proceedings? A That's the understanding.
Q He was discharged on the ground that he was free before the war?
A Yes sir, it was said that there was a whole family of free niggers, that is, there were two of them in the country, and it was talked about that they were free negroes and had been put in the hands of someone to raise up when they were small children, and they grew up and lived there. That woman had three or four children as slaves.
Q Do you know what became of the records of that court? A No sir, we have tried to get some of the records of that court, but they say it was burnt up.
Q Court house and contents? A Yes sir.
Q It is generally understood that the courthouse and contents burnt?
A Yes sir, that is my understanding.
Q Do you know what business or trade Alonzo followed when he was small, what he did? A No, I don't, I have only heard. I suppose his dad was going to make a rider out of him.
Q His father was a race horse man here at Fort Scott, I understand. I never saw him there. I knew him very well. He stayed at our house. He had one of his wives at our house, that is, he had the other one down in Flint District. I think he had him a wife everywhere there was a race track.

BY COMMISSION: Did you know this Alonzo Cullen at the commencement of the war? A I will just state, yes, that was before the war. He was taken away from those folks by habeas corpus proceedings at Van Buren. That's where the Federal Court was located at that time, for the Western District of Arkansas. There was a race track at Fort Gibson, and he made his home there, and I guess that's where he took Alonzo.

Q You don't know where he was at the commencement of the war?

A No sir, I don't know where he was at the commencement of the war.

Q It is your understanding that before the war he was a free colored boy? A Yes sir, after the declaration of the court. I understood him to be a slave up to that time. I lived right down there, and moved off up to Beatty's Prairie, and after that they divided the negroes. Alonzo was set free by the Federal Court, but whether they ever brought him back into the Nation or not is a question. I don't know.

LOONEY GLASS; being first duly sworn on behalf of applicants, testified as follows:

MR. DAVIS: State your name, age and post office address?

A Looney Whitmire, that's the way they have me on the roll.

Q What other name do you go by? A Looney Glass.

Q How old are you? A Close to forty-seven, I reckon, I don't know my age exactly.

Q Your post office? A Hayden.

Q Did you know Alonzo Manley in his lifetime? A Yes sir.

Q Was he any kin to you, either by blood or marriage?

A He was a brother-in-law of mine.

Q He married your sister? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether or not Alonzo Manley was in the Cherokee Nation, or returned to the Cherokee Nation, on July 19, 1866, or within the year 1866? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living at that time? A Tahlequah.

Q In town or in the country? A In the country, about six or seven miles southeast.

Q Of Tahlequah? A Yes sir.

Q Where do you first remember seeing Alonzo at that time? A He came there where I was living, on Illinois River at my grandmother's.

Q What time of the year was this? A This was along about the first part of the fall.

Q How do you know it was the year 1866, how are you able to fix that time? A I heard my mother and grandmother, they were rejoicing when they all come back there, home. I understood at that time they came back in '66, and I heard it ever since.

Q How long did Alonzo stay at your grandmother's when he first came in? A Two or three weeks.

Q Then what did he do? A Went on across the river and took him a claim.

Q Make him a place? A Yes sir.

Q How long after that before he married your sister? A He had married her when he come down. They was already married when he come Q Married before he come down? A Yes sir.

Q Did she come on with him? A She came on a little ahead.

Q Do you know where they were living when their first child was born?

A They was there close to o ld Joe Spears' place

Q How far from Tahlequah was that? A Seven miles.

Q In the nation, were they? A Yes sir.

Q What was the name of their first child? A Joe Cullen, or Manley.

Q Did Alonzo go by the name of Cullen? A Yes sir.
 Q Is that the same person, Alonzo Cullen and Alonzo Manley?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Do you know how old this son of was is, that was born down there?
 A He must be about thirty-seven years old, somewhere along there, I don't know just exactly.
 Q Do you know what year he was born in? A Born in '66.
 Q When was he born, in reference to the time that you remember Alonzo coming back, how long after he came back? A He was born just a little before he come, a month or so.
 Q In other words, as I understand, his wife, your sister, came down first, and she was at that time in a family way, was she? A Yes sir.
 Q This child was born a short time before Alonzo got down here?
 A Yes sir.
 Q In the fall of that same year? A Yes sir, in the summer like.
 Q Have you known Alonzo ever since that? A Yes sir.
 Q Did he ever leave the Nation to make his home anywhere else?
 A No sir.
 Q Did you know him when he died? A Yes sir.
 Q Where was he living then? A Over here on Lightning Creek.
 Q Were you able to keep track of the years, and know whether it was '69 or '70 or '71, were you able to keep up with the years yourself as they went along, at that time? A Not exactly.
 Q You couldn't keep it up? A No sir.
 Q Are you able to do that now? A Yes sir, I can do it now.
 Q Have you secured some little education? A After I was grown I learned how to keep account a little, by writing my name. I didn't go to school, I just took that up.

BY COMMISSION: Do you know where Alonzo Manley was living at the commencement of the war? A No sir.
 Q You didn't get acquainted with him until right after the war?
 A Right after the war.
 Q Has he resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation since the close of the war up to his death? A Yes sir.
 Q These children, Etta, Alonzo, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie, were they all born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
 Q Have they lived their all their lives? A Yes sir.
 Q Were they all the children of Alonzo Manley? A Yes sir, so said to be.

MR. BELL: When did you come back to the Cherokee Nation?
 A Come back in '66.
 Q Where did you start from? A Choctaw Nation.
 Q What time did you come? A Come along in the early part.
 Q In the spring? A Yes sir.
 Q Make a crop here? A Yes sir, made a kind of a little crop, with a fence around it.
 Q Where did you settle? A Next to the old Joe Spears place. The place that we settled on was called the old uncle Daniel Sanders place, the place that he owned before the war, and he went back to it.
 Q Who lived there when you got there, near there? A Nancy Spears and George Spears. They was all the Cherokees lived close there, they was about half a mile north of us.
 Q When did Alonzo marry your sister? A I don't know, they must have married in '65, but I don't know.
 Q You wasn't took north then? A No sir.
 Q When did your sister return? A She came in '66.
 Q What time of the year? A Along in the summer.
 Q After you had got back? A Yes sir.
 Q Who come with her? A She came with her mother.

Q With her mother? A Yes sir.

Q That was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Just those two? A Yes sir.

Q Nobody else? A No sir, she went up after her and came down.

Q We all came to Gibson, and she went up and got her and come back.

Q When did Alonzo come? A Alonzo come shortly afterwards, a month or so.

Q How long did he stay here when he came? A He has been here all the time.

Q Did he just come here and locate then? A Yes sir, he located there. He only stayed there about two or three weeks, and went to the other side of the river and located him a home, on the other side of Illinois River, between Tahlequah and the river.

Q You was living -- A I was living with my grandmother.

Q Across the Illinois River? A Yes sir.

Q Did he make him a place? A He made a little log hut.

Q How long did he stay there? A Not very long.

Q Where did he stay? A He was just traveling all the time, he didn't stay very long one place.

Q I thought you said he located him a home? A Yes sir, he did.

Q He just put up a claim and left it? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he go right back to Fort Scott? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Don't you know he did? A No sir.

Q Don't you know he was in Fort Scott all of '67? A No sir.

Q Tell me where he was in '67? A He come back there where his wife got killed. I suppose he was living right there in '67.

Q Living where? A Right there, right close, I think it is about a mile below where they always have the picnics, at the big spring.

Q That place where they built the foundation? A Yes sir.

Q I thought you said he just put up a few logs and left it?

A He came back.

Q How come her to get killed? A I don't know.

Q Somebody killed her? A Bud Nave killed her. He had been drinking, I guess.

Q When was she killed? A I don't remember. It must have been '74 or '75, I don't know the date, somewhere along there.

Q It was years after you came back, six or seven years?

A Yes sir, quite a little bit.

Q I want to know where he was in '67? A I know he was down there around Tahlequah.

Q Where was he living? A On this side of the river.

Q When did he build the house there and live in it? A He took a claim.

Q He just put four logs up and called it a claim? A He built it.

Q When? A Along in the fall.

Q Fall of what? A '66.

Q He didn't get there until the fall of '66? A He got there in the first part of the fall, I said the first part.

Q You come in the spring? A Yes sir.

Q Your mother went on up and brought your wife (sister) down, then in a month or two he came, in the fall he come, and went there and made a claim and went somewhere, is that right? A He built the house in the last of the fall.

Q When did he move into it? A That winter some time.

Q Wasn't Cullen a race rider, Alonzo? A That's what they said he was.

Q Didn't he ride a famous race in '67? A I don't know.

Q Didn't he go right up there in January and ride in Fort Scott?

A I don't know.

Q But you do know he was seven miles from Tahlequah?

A Yes sir, I saw him.

Q Then you know he wasn't at Fort Scott? A I didn't say, just said one part of the time he traveled back and forth. I didn't claim he just stayed right there.

Q If he built the house he must have been right there? A He could have built the house and come again.

Q You think he went up to Fort Scott, do you? A I don't know.

Q You don't care? A No, it wasn't any of my business. Of course I didn't keep track of him.

Q Then you don't know whether he was up in Fort Scott in '67 or not, do you? A No sir, I don't.

Q You don't know whether he was in Tahlequah all of '67 or not? A I don't know whether he was there very much.

Q Name some one month when he was there. A I told you he was there

Q I know. When was that he was there? A He was along there in the spring of '67.

Q I thought you said he was right in his house in the winter. That would be along in January or February? A yes sir, in the spring too.

Where was he in January and February? A I don't remember the dates exactly.

Q Let me ask you, where was he the Christmas of '66?

A The Christmas of '66, I disremember.

Q You don't know? A No sir.

Q You are certain he wasn't down there to Tahlequah?

A I don't know.

Q Was he in Fort Scott the Christmas of '66? A I don't know.

Q Was he down there with his wife Christmas of '66? A I disremember whether he was there or not.

Q You don't know a great deal about him, do you? A Ought to.

Q You don't know much about his whereabouts in '66, '67 and '68?

A I don't know.

Q He didn't bring his wife down there? A No sir, he didn't.

Q He come how long after she came? A About a month, I wouldn't be positive.

Q You don't really know thatm he come until the winter, you are not positive? A He came before winter.

Q He built a house, how long after the foundation was laid until he built the house? A He built his house shortly afterwards.

Q What do you mean by that? A Probably a month or such matter, maybe two or three weeks.

Q How long did he stay with your mother before he went across the river to make his claim? A Two or three weeks, as near as I can recollect.

When he made his claim what did he do? He went off somewhere, did he? A Yes sir, he went off.

Q How long was he gone? A Not very long.

Q Gone two or three weeks? A I disremember.

Q Two or three days, or two or three weeks? A I couldn't say.

Q How long did he stay with your mother before he went to building his house? A He was there two or three weeks.

Q Then he was two or three weeks more building it? A He was locating a claim.

Q He went off ~~xxx~~ and was gone two or three weeks and come back, how long did he stay with your mother then? A I don't remember of him staying there long.

Q You don't recollect of him coming back at all? A Yes sir.

Q Where was you? A On the Illinois River.

Q How did he come there, on foot or horseback? A I don't know.

Q Did he have a wagon and team? A No sir.

Q How did he go for the logs to build his house?

A He got a wagon and team from grandmother.

Q You have got him down for about three or four months after he come that will carry him in January? A He was right there in January.
 Q Was he? You don't know whether he was there in the month of December, January or February or not, do you? A I disremember whether he was there in December or not.
 Q Was he there in January? A I think so.
 Q Was he there in February or March? A He was there in the spring
 Q In February and March? A Yes sir, I think he was there in March, I am satisfied.
 Q Do you know anything about it? A He was there in March.
 Q What time in March? A It must have been along about the 1st of March.

MR. DAVIS: You don't pretend to say but what Manley might have gone up there to Fort Scott and come back? A He might.
 Q Has he made his home outside of the Cherokee Nation, anywhere else, to your knowledge? A No sir.
 Q Gone any considerable portion? A Go up and come back.
 Q You have seen him off and on? A Yes sir.

JOSEPH MANLEY, being first duly sworn on behalf of applicants, testified as follows:

MR. DAVIS: State your name. A Joseph Manley.
 Q How old are you? A Thirty-six years old last birthday.
 Q When was your birthday? A The 7th of last October, 1902.
 Q You will be thirty-seven years old the 7th of this October, A Yes sir.
 Q What is your post office? A Hayden, I. T.
 Q What was your father's name? A Alonzo Manley.
 Q Where were you born, Joe? A I don't know, sir, said to be I was born at Tahlequah.
 Q Right in Tahlequah or near Tahlequah? A Near Tahlequah, not in the city.
 Q Have you always understood you were born down near Tahlequah in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, that is my understanding.
 Q Since you have been big enough to remember, has Alonzo Manley, your father, did he at any time leave the Cherokee Nation and make his home anywhere else? A Only when the marshals ran him out. He got into some trouble once and they got after him and he went out a little while.
 Q Did his family remain here? A Part of us.
 Q From that time, outside of that, did he ever leave pack up, move, or go somewhere else to live? A No sir, not as long as I have ever lived here. Since I could recollect my right hand from my left he was at Tahlequah, from Tahlequah to Grand River, and from Grand River to Lightning Creek.
 Q You have lived up there all the rest of your life? A Yes sir.
 Q Alonzo died up there? A Yes sir.
 Q That is the father of these children that are mentioned in this case? A Yes sir.
 Q They were born while he was living with his wife? A Yes sir.
 Q He died there at home? A Yes sir.

MR. DAVENPORT: Where were you living when you can first remember? A Tahlequah.
 Q Your father's name was Alonzo Manley? A Yes sir.
 Q And his father, do you remember what his father's name was? A His given name was Cullen, and his surname was Manley.

Q Do you know whether or not Cullen Manley had more than one son named Alonzo? A He only had one that I know of. If he had an other he never said anything about it. Of course he had some relations. I think there is one named after my father.

Q Did you ever live at Fort Scott, Kansas? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q You was born in what year? A I was born in '66.

Q You never stayed with your father after you was born, then, did you? A After I got up pretty good size boy, probably eight years, I stayed a great deal with my grandmother, but I don't know how about my babyhood.

Q Were you living with your father or your grandmother in 1870? A I couldn't say positively whether I was living with my grandmother in 1870 or not. I am positive I was with her off and on.

Q Where did your grandmother live in 1870? A She lived at Tahlequah. That is, I am not positive, because I was young at that time, but since I could know my right hand from my left I have lived at Tahlequah.

Q In 1872, where were your grandmother and grandfather living? A I am positive it was at Tahlequah.

Q You, of course, don't mean to swear from positive knowledge that you was born in the Cherokee Nation? A I didn't swear where I was born at all. I just said what I was told. I swore that.

Q Your mother died when you was a small boy? A I was about eight or nine years old. She got killed.

Q Did you ever know Kliza Davis, that lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I don't believe I do.

Q Where did your grandfather ever move to from the Cherokee Nation, if he ever left it? A I don't know, he died here on Lightning Creek.

Q He died in the 70s or 80s? A I suppose it was near 1880.

Q Can you remember when your grandfather lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A No sir.

Q Did you ever visit them while he lived there? A I never have been out any further than Oswego in my life.

Q You were born at Fort Scott? A I don't know.

Q You never heard your father say? A I never heard him say I was born at Fort Scott.

Q Your father lived with his father in Fort Scott, Kansas, in 1870, didn't he, as far as rumor goes with you? A I was quite young then. I wouldn't say positively, I would say this, '75, no more than '77.

A I think you are right about that. From '73 on they all moved down here.

MR. WELLS: Where did your father marry Maude Manley, in the Nation? A I don't know whether he married at all. If he married at all he married her in the Nation, on Big Creek. That is where they claim they went to get married.

Q She was living in this country? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they move up to Oswego and live for years? A No, not since he has married her he has not lived outside the Cherokee Nation a day with her, I don't think.

MR. DAVIS: Have you any remembrance at all of ever being in Fort Scott when you was little, any remembrance of the city, the buildings or anything of that kind? A No sir, none whatever.

Q You say you were always given to understand you were born down here to Tahlequah in the Nation? A Yes sir.

MR. BELL: Who give you to understand that? A My grandmother, my mother, and my father.

Q I thought you said your father never talked to you about being born? A About being born in Fort Scott.

Motion to Reopen Case.

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and moves to re-open the above entitled case for the purpose of introducing the testimony of Lydia Barton heretofore taken in the case of Elizabeth Davis F. D. # 391 which shows that on May 13, 1902 at the time she testified in said case that she was county Clerk of the county in Kansas in which Fort Scott is located and introduced files of the official paper of the county of December 1866 up to and including March 1867 which files were officially kept and ~~which~~ from which a detailed account was given of the testimony taken before a coroner with reference to the murder of Dyer Hayford on December 26, 1866; said Testimony shows that Alonzo Cullen father of the applicants in this case was a witness in the case, was called to testify and which conclusively shows that the said Alonzo Cullen, also known as Alonzo Manley was a resident of Fort Scott, Kansas and thereby conclusively corroborates the very intelligent detailed statement of Elizabeth Davis who testified in this case on February 18, 1902 to the fact that she knew Alonzo Cullen also known as Manley; that she knew his family intimately; she knew each of his children; that she knew his wife; she knew where he resided and that he resided only a short distance from witness. If her statement be true which we think this testimony conclusively shows the applicants father was not in the Cherokee Nation as testified by witnesses for applicants within the time prescribed by the treaty.

The testimony of Elizabeth Davis is so clear and reasonable in all of its details and she knows so intimately this family that we feel thoroughly convinced that these applicants are not entitled to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation and we therefore earnestly protest against their enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen and most earnestly urge that this case be reopened and the Cherokee Nation be given an opportunity to introduce this very important testimony in this case.

Respectfully,

W. W. Hastings

D E C I S I O N .

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to this Commission by Maude Manley for herself ( by intermarriage ), and her minor children, Etta, Alonso, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley; by Walter Whitmire for himself and wife, Ella Whitmire, but as the said Walter Whitmire is classified differently from the other applicants herein, he will not be embraced in this decision; by Becky Webber for herself; by Lewis Webber, Sr., for himself and minor children, Lewis, Jr., Cora, Floyd and Beulah Webber; by Joseph Manley, Sr., for himself and wife, Kate Manley, and minor children, Ida, Frank, Sarah, Lela, Joseph, Jr., and Willie Manley, and that subsequent to the filing of the original application, an affidavit which is made a part of the record herein, was filed with the Commission, showing the birth of Daisy Manley on March 24, 1902; by Robert Webber for himself and wife, Margaret Webber; by Sam Webber for himself; by Josh Webber for himself and wife, Mary Webber ( by intermarriage ); by Sidney West for herself; by Sabra McQueen for herself; by Sarah Chatman for herself and minor children, Evaline Jimison, Henry Caesar, Jim (James), Julia and Nannie Chatman; by Susie Webber for herself and husband, Frank Webber, and minor children, Julia and Samuel Webber; and by Eliza Rogers for herself. As the status of intermarried citizens is not at this time fixed, the rights of Maude Manley and Mary Webber to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by intermarriage will not now be passed upon. It appears that since filing her original application herein the said Susie Webber was, on April 21, 1902, married to one Isaac Whitmire, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Susie Whitmire. The testimony taken in the cases of Aaron Webber, Cherokee Freedmen D-216, Joe Moss, Cherokee Freedmen D-350, Elizabeth Meigs, Cherokee Freedmen D-391, and Samuel Beck, Cherokee Freedmen D-775, is filed with, and made a part of the record herein. The record further shows that on January 2, 1904, this Commission rendered its decision, enrolling said Sabra McQueen as a Cherokee Freedman; that said decision was duly forwarded to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and that upon request of this Commission said decision was returned to it for reconsideration. And that on March 5, 1904, this Commission rendered its decision herein enrolling Etta, Alonso, Harvey, Freddie, Waynard, Howard and Tessie Manley as Cherokee Freedmen; that subsequent thereto the Cherokee Nation filed its protest against said decision, and a motion to re-open said case and introduce the evidence of one Lydia Barton, taken in Cherokee Freedmen D-391; and that on April 21, 1904, this Commission granted said motion, to which applicants objected.

The evidence herein shows that the applicants, Becky and Lewis Webber, Sr., were slaves of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; that during said Rebellion they left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation. The minor applicants, Lewis, Jr., Cora, Floyd and Beulah Webber, are children of the said Lewis Webber, Sr., and possess no rights to enrollment except as his descendants. The said Becky, Lewis, Sr., Lewis, Jr., Cora, Floyd and Beulah Webber can not be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

The evidence further shows that the applicants, Robert and Margaret Webber were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the Rebellion; that they were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during said Rebellion, but that said Robert Webber returned thereto within the time specified in the above mentioned decree, and has since continuously resided therein. Said Margaret Webber did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in said decree, and she can not be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880. The applicants, Ella Whitmire, Sam and Josh Webber, and Kate Manley, are children of the said Robert and Margaret Webber, were born since 1866, and have continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth. The minor applicants, Ida, Frank, Sarah, Lela, Joseph, Jr., Willie and Daisy Manley, are children of the said Kate Manley, were born since 1880, and have continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, Joseph Manley, Sr., was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment except as the descendant of Alonzo Manley (Cullen), and Eliza Manley, and that the minor applicants, Etta, Alonzo, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment except as descendants of the said Alonzo Manley (Cullen); that the said Alonzo Manley (Cullen), was a free colored person residing in the Cherokee country, and that the said Eliza Manley was the slave of a Cherokee citizen, at the commencement of the Rebellion; and that during said Rebellion they left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto within the time specified in said above mentioned decree. Neither Joseph Manley, Sr., nor Alonzo Manley (Cullen), or Eliza Manley, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, Sidney West, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; that she was taken from the Cherokee Nation during said Rebellion, but returned thereto and established a residence therein within the time specified in said above mentioned decree, and has since continuously resided within the domain of the Five Civilized Tribes. (It appears that after the close of the war the said Sidney West returned to the Cherokee Nation with her husband, Charley Chambers. The said Charley Chambers is duly identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, page 83, No. 596, Cooweescoowee District, and he has been listed for enrollment on Cherokee freedmen straight card No. 1017).

The evidence further shows that the applicants, Sabra McQueen and Eliza Rogers, are children of the said Charley Chambers and Sidney West, were born during the Rebellion, and brought to the Cherokee Nation by their parents on their return as above indicated, and have since continuously resided within the domain of the Five Civilized Tribes; that the applicants, Sarah Chatman and Susie Whitmire, are children of the said Sidney West, were born since 1866, and have continuously resided within the domain of the Five Civilized Tribes since birth; and that the minor applicants, Evaline Jimison, Henry Caesar, James, Julia and Nannie Chatman, and Julia and Samuel Webber, are children of the said Sarah Chatman and Susie Whitmire, were born since 1880, and have continuously lived with their mothers since birth.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, Frank Webber, died on June 13, 1901. An affidavit to that effect is filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 ( 32 Stat., 715), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Becky Webber, Lewis Webber Sr., Lewis Webber, Jr., Cora Webber, Floyd Webber, Beulah Webber and Margaret Webber, Joseph Manley, Sr., Etta Manley, Alonzo Manley, Harvey Manley, Freddie Manley, Maynard Manley, Howard Manley and Tessie Manley, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of the Act below noted; and that Robert Webber, Sam Webber and Josh Webber, Ella Whitmire, Kate Manley, Ida Manley, Frank Manley, Sarah Manley, Lela Manley, Joseph Manley, Jr., Willie Manley and Daisy Manley, Sidney West, Sabra McQueen, Sarah Chatman, Evaline Jimison, Henry Caesar, Jim Chatman, Julia Chatman and Nannie Chatman, Susie Whitmire, Julia Webber and Samuel Webber (son of Susie and Frank Webber), and Eliza Rogers, should be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, ( 30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered. And it is further ordered that the application for the enrollment of Frank Webber as a Cherokee Freedman be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, ( 32 Stat., 716).

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that applications for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by inter-marriage, were made to this Commission by William Davis for himself; by Hannah Thomas for her husband, Henry Thomas; by Jim Vann for his wife, Ella Vann; by Sig Markham for his wife, Mary Markham; by Nathan Melton for his wife, Frances Melton; by Mary Dotson for her husband, John Dotson; by George W. Vann for his wife, Mary Jane Vann; by Thomas Lowe for himself; by Thomas Mayfield for his wife, Ella Mayfield; by James Rider for his wife, Sallie Rider; by Deuben Campbell for himself; by Van Jackson Luther for himself; by Tobe Middleton for his wife, Cassie Middleton; by Thomas Harlin for his wife, Mary Harlin; by John Fields for his wife, Nellie Fields; by John Kimbo for himself; by William S. Madden for himself; by Tobias Bean for his wife, Jane Bean; by Etta Thomas for her husband, Albert T. Thomas; by James Campbell for his wife, Mary Campbell; by Frank Daniels for his wife, Caroline Daniels; by Jim Alberty for his daughter-in-law, Melvina Alberty; by Sarah Morris for her husband, Dave Morris; by Jane Claggett for her husband, Alexander Claggett; by Payton Martin for his wife, Amanda Martin; by Charles Martin for his wife, Eliza Martin; by John E. Barnes for himself; by Joe Davis for his wife, Bell Davis; by Ellen Brown for her husband, Samner Brown; by Mary Ann Watson for her husband, Howard M. Watson; by Jack McConnell for himself; by Maude Mauley for herself; by George Reed, Sr. for himself; by Buck Ledman for himself; by Bell Thompson for herself; by Lewis Scott for himself; by Abe Scott for

The record further shows that none of the applicants herein make any claim to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than as set forth above.

It further appears from the record herein that at the time applications were made for the enrollment of the above named applicants, application was also made for the enrollment of other applicants as Cherokee Freedmen, but said applications being differently classified are not included in this decision.

It does not appear that any of the applicants herein are identified upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Roll, nor does it appear that any of said applicants has ever been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Cherokee Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 831).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome, (I. T. D. 5848-1904, 11,776-1904), the applications made for the enrollment of William Davis, Henry Thomas, Ella Vann, Mary Markham, Frances Melton, John Dotson, Mary Jane Vann, Thomas Lowe, Ella Mayfield, Sallie Rider, Reuben Campbell, Van Jackson Luther, Cassie Middleton, Mary Harlin, Nellie Fields, John Kimbo, William S. Att'y for Applicant.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

In the matter of the application of Maude Manley, for the enrollment of herself, and children, namely, Etta, Alonso, Harvey, Freddie Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley, as Cherokee Freedmen.

MOTION TO RE-OPEN AND FOR A RE-HEARING.

The Applicant herein, Maude Manley, for herself and the above named minor children hereby moves that this case be re-opened, and that she be allowed to introduce further testimony on behalf of herself and her said minor children for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen. Said applicant Maude Manley, being duly sworn upon her oath states:

That if ~~this~~ case is re-opened and she is allowed to introduce additional ~~and~~ testimony, she will be able to produce the testimony of a new witness, namely, Andy Nave, a Cherokee Citizen by blood, of Tahlequah, Indian Territory. And Clara Foreman, a Cherokee Freedman Citizen of Vinita I. T.

Said applicant shows to the Court that she was not aware of the fact that the said witness, Andy Nave, knew any of the facts relative to this case, until about ten days ago, and that she now attaches, herewith an affidavit made by the said Andy Nave on the 23rd day of June 1906. And one made by Clara Foreman on 25 day of June 1906

And Affiant says, if this case is re-opened and the said Andy Nave is called to testify in this case that he will testify to the facts set out in this affidavit, and that the Affiant further believes that she will be able to find other persons who will testify substantially to the same facts.

And affiant further shows that she is informed and believes that William Brewer of Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, will testify substantially to the same facts set out in the affidavit of Andy Nave, attached hereto; that on account of the fact that this motion must be filed on or before the 26th day of this month, affiant has been unable to see and interview other witnesses, and she prays that this case be re-opened and that she be allowed to introduce the testimony of the said Andy Nave and William Brewer, and any other persons whose testimony will be competent and relevant herein.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25 day of June, 1906.

Andy Nave, being duly sworn upon his oath says; that he is fifty years of age, a Cherokee citizen by Blood, and that his Post Office address is Tahlequah, Indian Territory;; that he has always lived at, or near Tahlequah, I. T.

This affiant further states that he was intimately acquainted with one, Alonzo Manley, who was sometimes known, as Alonzo Cullins; that he knew Alonzo 'Manley-Cullins' father and his family.

This affiant further states that the said Alonzo Cullins, or Manley was a race-horse man and rode many horses in many races at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory.

This affiant further states that he knows that the said Alonzo Cullins, or Manley, lived at or near Fort Gibson, I. T. during the war, and during the years of 1865 and 1866; that he saw the said Alonzo Cullins, or Manley during the years of 1865 and 1866 and knows that his place of said residence at said time was at or near Fort Gibson, I. T.

This affiant further states that he knows that the said Alonzo Cullins or Manley, lived for several years, on what is known as the Illinois River, I. T.; that the said Alonzo Cullins, or Manley was about 7 or 8 years old in the year 1865 or 1866; that after the said Alonzo Cullins or Manley moved from the Illinois River, he went to the Coconino District, I. T. where he lived until he died.

Chlora Foreman, being duly sworn upon her oath states:-

That she is a Cherokee Freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and lives at Vinita, Indian Territory; that she was married about the year 1867; that she was married at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory; that prior to coming to Vinita, Indian Territory affiant lived for many years, and during the war from 1861 to 1866, she lived all of that time, and was well acquainted at Fort Gibson Indian Territory; that she was acquainted with one Alonzo Cullins, or Manley; that she knows that the said Alonzo Cullins or Manley was a race horse rider; that the affiant's husband and the said Alonzo Cullins or Manley ran many horse races together.

Affiant further states that her husband's name was Luster Foreman, who has been dead for several years.

This affiant further states upon her oath that she knows that the said Alonzo Cullins or Manley lived with his father at Fort Gibson, during the war, and during the years 1865 and 1866; that later the said Alonzo Cullins or Manley moved to Tahlequah or near Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and from there he moved to Lightning Creek, and lived there until he died.

This affiant further states on her oath that the said Alonzo Cullins or Manley sometimes left Fort Gibson to run horse races, but, he made his permanent home at Fort Gibson during the war and for some years immediately afterwards.

This affiant further states upon her oath that she knows that the said Alonzo Cullins, or Manley, lived at Fort Gibson until peace was declared and from Fort Gibson he moved over near Tahlequah, Indian Territory, where he was married and later his wife was killed there.

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

FILED

JUL 17 1885

COMMISSIONER

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the motion for a rehearing of the application of Maude Manley, et al., as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation, F. D. 351.

Reply of the Cherokee Nation.

There are no grounds whatever set up in the motion for a rehearing, which are ordinarily set up in such motions in courts of the country, but attached to the motion for rehearing are three affidavits, one by Maude Manley herself, in which she desires to have the case reopened in order that additional testimony may be introduced, but she does not disclose in her affidavit what efforts, if any, she has made heretofore in order to secure the testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits are attached.

It has been held in the case of Moore versus Larney, Creek No. 49, that "in motions for rehearing resting on newly discovered evidence it should be shown that said evidence could not be discovered by due diligence and the facts showing such diligence should appear." In this case are cited the following: 6 L. D. 9; 7 L. D. 136; 10 L. D. 463; 18 L. D. 131; 19 L. D. 343.

We submit that in reading over the affidavit of Maude Manley she does not state what diligence she had used or that she had used any whatever, but it states that she was not aware of the testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits are attached. In the case of Burgess versus Wise, 2 Ark. 33, the Supreme Court of Arkansas held:

"In order to entitle a party to a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence the affidavit in the case must show:

First. The names of the witnesses whose testimony had been discovered and the facts expected to be established by them.

Second. Facts and circumstances sufficient to prove that the applicant has used due diligence in preparing his case for trial.

Third. That the facts and circumstances newly discovered have come to his knowledge since the trial and are such as if adduced on the trial would have been competent to prove the issue and would probably have changed the result verdict.

Fourth. That the evidence discovered is not cumulative of that previously relied on and will tend to prove material facts which were not put directly in issue on the trial."

At the end of this decision are cited a great number of cases which are in line with it.

By an examination of the record in this case it will be seen that the applicant on the 18th day of May, 1901, appeared before the commission to the five civilized tribes and in addition to her own testimony, introduced L. C. Daniels, James Alberty and Moses Riley. Each of these witnesses attempted to testify that Alonzo Cullin or Manley, was a free colored person residing in the Cherokee Nation prior to the war and each in an unsatisfactory way attempted to testify of the return of Alonzo Manley. But a close analysis of their testimony disclosed that they do not fix him permanently at any place in the Cherokee Nation after the war. L. C. Daniels claims to have seen him at Fort Gibson in 1865, and so does James Alberty, but neither of them claim to have seen him continuously, whereas Moses Riley did not see him until a much later date. This case was reopened and remanded after one decision by the commission to the Five civilized tribes and additional and ample opportunity after due notice was given both parties. The applicants were at first represented by Pellette & Smith, both able and competent lawyers, Mr. Pellette now being United States District Attorney for the Western District of Indian Territory, and Mr. Smith practicing his profession and equally prominent therein. They were also represented by Preston S. Davis of Vinita, Indian Territory, who filed a most elaborate brief and argument in the case and who was present and cross-examined the witnesses introduced by the Cherokee Nation and therefore we feel that we have a right to insist that these applicants have been properly represented and their case cared for.

Now as against the testimony introduced on behalf of the applicant the Cherokee Nation introduced the testimony of Lydia Barton, filed in Freedmen doubtful case 391 being that of Elizabeth Weigs. Lydia Barton was the clerk of the county Court in which Fort Scott is located and brought with her the newspaper files giving a detailed account of the killing of Oyer Hayford by Eli Mackey, and this record discloses the fact that this Alonzo Cullin resided there at that time, December 22, 1866, and a synopsis of his testimony is given. His testimony also discloses that he is familiar with people in and about the town, and that he was necessarily familiar resident of the place at the time. The Cherokee Nation also introduced Mrs. Elizabeth Davis who testified most positively that she was a resident of Fort Scott, Kansas, and knew Alonzo Cullin well, knew his children, knew his first wife who died there, and knew him when he married his second wife, and swears positively that they lived right near her and owned property there and continued to reside there some three or four years, after the war. She had no interest whatever in the result of the case, and she was corroborated by the record testimony introduced by Lydia Barton. Now, in addition to this an examination of the Cherokee Supreme Court records for the Cherokee Nation of 1871 in possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes shows that Alonzo Cullin was decided against by the Cherokee Supreme Court on June 13, 1871. If this case were reopened this testimony of Andy Nave and of Chlorea Foreman would be cumulative and no court has ever granted a motion to reopen solely upon cumulative testimony because if it were true then either side when it found an additional witness could take his affidavit and attach it to a motion to reopen and there would never be any finality to a judgment. In support of the contention that the evidence must not be cumulative we cite:

5 Ark. 256; 5 Ark. 403; 11 Ark. 671; 17 Ark. 96; 17 Ark. 404;
25 Ark. 89; 26 Ark. 496; 46 Ark. 182.

Again, we desire to call attention of the department to the fact that if Andy Nave were to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and testify to the facts set forth in his affidavit it would not change the result, because he states in his affidavit that he saw them at Fort Gibson in 1865 and that he knows that Alonzo Cullin afterwards lived on Illinois River, but he does not state the year. But to show that Andy Nave does not know what he was talking about in his affidavit, and is therefore unworthy of consideration in connection with this motion to reopen, I desire to quote this clause from his affidavit in which he states: "That the said Alonzo Cullin or Banley was about seven or eight years old in the year 1865 or 1866." Now, the truth is he claims to have been married at that time and was a grown man, and if on the other hand he were a boy what would he be doing around Fort Gibson by himself to be seen by the affiant Andy Nave? It is quite clear that if he saw him when he was seven or eight years of age he saw him before the war, because he could not have seen him in 1865 or 1866 at anything like that age, and he is careful not to state what years he lived upon the Illinois river in the Cherokee Nation. The next affidavit is signed by Chlora Foreman, an old colored woman, who claims to have seen him in 1865 or 1866, at Fort Gibson, and she is made to say "That later the said Alonzo Cullin or Vanley moved to Tahlequah or near Tahlequah, Indian Territory; from there he moved to Lightning Creek, and he lived there until he died." Now, all of these witnesses who testified could have seen Alonzo Cullin or Vanley at Fort Gibson temporarily in 1865 or 1866, but that he did not permanently reside <sup>there</sup> there can be no question; that he was residing at Fort Scott when Myer Mayford was killed by Eli Mackey the permanent records on file there show, and these records strongly corroborate the pointed and intelligent statement of Mrs. Elizabeth Davis who comes upon the stand and testifies in this case, and she is corroborated also by the decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871 adverse to the applicants. If this applicant had lived at Fort Gibson as these witnesses attempt to swear, which is within 20 miles of Tahlequah, where the Supreme Court met, and if Alonzo Cullin moved from Fort Gibson to Tahlequah and was living in that immediate ~~fix~~ vicinity in 1871 every one knows that a number of witnesses could have been secured and proof would have been easy and abundant to substantiate his right to be admitted to citizenship as a Cherokee freedman in 1871, and that no adverse decision would have been rendered against him.

Section 3 of the Act of July 26, 1906 (Public No. 129) provides:

"The roll of Cherokee freedmen shall include only such persons of African descent either free colored or the slaves of Cherokee citizens, and their descendants, who were actual personal bona fide residents of the Cherokee Nation August 11, 1866, or who actually returned and established such residence in the Cherokee Nation on or before February 11, 1867

Now, anyone after reading this testimony can but be convinced that Alonzo Manley was not an actual, personal bona fide resident of the Cherokee Nation at the time required by the treaty of 1866. The testimony is conclusive that he was not. As above observed witnesses introduced in his behalf only saw him occasionally and at great intervals, and it might have been true that his family lived at Fort Scott, Kansas, and he may have made occasional visits to the Cherokee Nation, riding race horses, and still never have been an actual personal bona fide resident, but a resident of Fort Scott, Kansas.

The Department has held in both the Harry Still case and the John Morgan case that judgments of the Cherokee courts are entitled to great faith and credit and that they should not be lightly overturned after the lapse of so many years, but that the Department now should rather regard itself as a reviewing court to see whether or not any fraud was practiced against the applicants. In this case 35 years have elapsed since the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation decided adversely to the applicant; the principal applicant is dead; a great many of the older people of the country are dead; the memory of all the living is treacherous; but that he did not have sufficient testimony to entitle him to be admitted in 1871 the permanent record of that Court shows; and that he was residing in Fort Scott, Kansas, on December 22, 1866, the records of Fort Scott, Kansas, show. It will be noted that all of the witnesses who testified for Alonzo Manley's family testified that they saw him down immediately in the Cherokee Nation previous to that time and not subsequent.

This case has been briefed at great length; it was twice carefully considered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and the Department now in affirming the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes calls attention to Section 3 of the Act of April 26, 1906 (Public No. 129), and also calls attention to the motions for review filed September 7, 1905, and calls attention to the argument filed by Preston S. Davis of Vinita, Indian Territory, which shows that careful consideration has been given this case, and we submit that if this case were reopened and remanded that no other decision could be reached upon the testimony other than that heretofore reached rejecting the applicants, and we insist that no diligence has been shown; that the testimony now desired to be introduced would be cumulative and finally for the reasons hereinabove indicated we submit that the motion to reopen said case should be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. Hastings

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Maude Manley for the enrollment of her children, Etta, Alonzo, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley as Cherokee Freedmen.

AMENDED MOTION FOR REHEARING.

The record herein shows that a Motion for rehearing was filed with the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the passage of the Act of Congress, approved April 26, 1906, providing that Motions for rehearing or reconsideration in such cases as this should be filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days from the date of the approval of said Act.

The record further shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Maude Manley for herself (by intermarriage), and her minor children, Etta, Alonzo, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley; that the application of Maude Manley for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage was differently classified and not considered in this Decision and was passed upon by the Department in a separate case.

It further appears that on March 5, 1904 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its Decision in this case ordering the enrollment of Etta, Alonzo, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard, and Tessie Manley as Cherokee Freedmen; that subsequent thereto the Cherokee Nation filed its protest against said Decision, and a Motion to reopen said case and introduce the evidence of one Lydia Barton taken in Cherokee Freedmen D. 391; and that on April 21, 1904 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes granted said Motion, to which the applicants strenuously objected.

The evidence further shows that the applicants, Etta, Alonzo, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment except as descendants of Alonzo Manley (Cullen); that the said Alonzo Manley (Cullen) was a free colored person residing in the Cherokee country and that during the Rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation, and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in its Decision of January 5, 1905 decided that he did not return thereto within the time specified in the Decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896.

The Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes was therefore of the opinion that the applications for the enrollment of Etta Manley, Alonzo Manley, Harvey Manley, Freddie Manley, Maynard Manley, Howard Manley and Tessie Manley, as Cherokee Freedmen should be denied under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898.

This Decision was thereafter affirmed by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior.

Comes now the applicants and move that this case be remanded to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes in order that the applicant have an opportunity to introduce the newly discovered testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits are filed with the original Motion for rehearing filed in this case prior to June 26, 1906, and also the newly discovered testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits are hereto attached in support of this Amended Motion for rehearing, together with all of the other newly discovered testimony of witnesses who have been found since the Decision herein was rendered, who will testify that Alonzo Manley (Cullen) returned to the Cherokee Nation and became "An actual personal bona fide resident of the Cherokee Nation" before February 11, 1867.

The applicants move that the Department order that the testimony of Lydia Barton taken in the case of Elizabeth Meigs, which was ordered on April 21, 1904 made a part of the record in this case at the request of the Cherokee Nation, be stricken from the files of this case for the reason that the same is filed in this case over the objection of the applicants and is in violation of the rule laid down by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior in Departmental letter of May 21, 1906 (D.C. 20724; I.T.D. 5262-1905; 4589-1905; 3537-1905; 9556-1905) in the matter of the Cherokee Freedmen Enrollment case of Catherine ~~Meigs~~ Mix wherein the Department held: "It is observed that the testimony taken in certain other cases was appended to the record herein and made a part of the same, contrary to the objection of Counsel for the applicants. While this action of the Commission is not considered proper in view of such objection, the additional testimony has not been considered in-as-much as the testimony submitted by and on behalf of the principal applicant is of itself sufficient to warrant the conclusion which the Department has reached in the matter".

This action of the Commission is also in violation of the rule laid down by the Department in Departmental letter of June 20, 1906 (D.C. 25968; I.T.D. 6190-1903; 8700-1904) in the Cherokee Freedmen enrollment case of Payton Martin, et al., in which the Department held: "A reconsideration of the record in this case shows that on the original hearing five witnesses were examined by the Attorneys for applicants and subjected to cross-examination by the Attorney for the Nation. Opposed to this showing there is attached to the record the testimony of E. J. Clayton as taken in the Neatie Martin case. It does not appear that this testimony is filed with the consent of the Attorneys for applicants and in the argument submitted by them they state that their consent was not given". . . . .

"It is not the policy of the Department to consider affidavits in citizenship cases submitted in this form as it is manifestly unfair to the Nation and against the rules of evidence. In this case it is apparent that the evidence of E. J. Clayton taken in another case and without opportunity of cross-examination by applicants' Attorneys is subject to the same criticism as the affidavits submitted by the applicant".

"The Department cannot in justice be expected to adjudicate a case on such affidavits in behalf of the Nation. In regard to the cross-examination of the witnesses and the injection of testimony from other cases into the case under consideration your attention is called to Departmental letter of December 7, 1905 in the application for the enrollment of Dochee, deceased, as a citizen by blood of the Creek Nation and also to Departmental letter of May 21, 1906 relative to the application of Catherine Mix for her enrollment as a Cherokee Freedmen. As the objections to this testimony were made in the argument submitted the Nation should be permitted to introduce their evidence in the premises".

"The Departmental Decision of September 22, 1903, in this case is hereby rescinded and the case is remanded for a rehearing. You are instructed to permit the applicants and the Attorney for the Nation to present such proper evidence as they see fit in the matter of the rights of these applicants to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen".

It will be observed that Dyer Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey on the night of December 22, 1866, and applicants expect to prove by proper evidence that Alonzo Manley (Cullen) was up at Fort Scott, Kansas on a visit at this time and that he was not then residing in Fort Scott, Kansas and that he was at that time "An actual personal bona fide resident of the Cherokee Nation".

The applicants expect to prove that Elizabeth Davis, the witness for the Cherokee Nation, is disreputable and entirely unworthy of belief; that she is a white woman and at one time married a colored man; that her reputation in the past will be shown by testimony on part of the applicants to have been such as to render her testimony entirely unworthy of belief and the attention of the Department is invited to the fact that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in face of this testimony, on March 5, 1904, rendered a Decision ordering these applicants enrolled and that on April 21, 1904 the Nation moved to re-open the case in order that the testimony of Lydia Barton taken in Cherokee Freedmen D. 391, Elizabeth Meigs, be filed and made a part of the record in this case, and upon this testimony injected into this case from the Elizabeth Meigs case and upon no other testimony, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on January 5, 1905 reversed itself and rendered a Decision denying these applicants the right to be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen.

The applicants in this case have been diligent and have procured the testimony which was sufficient to enroll them and upon which the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a Decision ordering them enrolled, but after this Decision the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes reopened the case for the purpose of introducing the testimony of Lydia Barton heretofore taken in the case of Elizabeth Meigs only, and a reference to the letter of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated May 5, 1904, the original of which is hereto attached, will show for itself that the applicants were not given an opportunity to introduce any further testimony and that the Nation's Motion to re-open said case for the purpose only of introducing this testimony of Lydia Barton was granted and the only privilege these applicants had was to object to the injection of said testimony.

It therefore appears that these applicants can not be charged with a failure to use proper diligence in securing evidence in this case when upon the testimony introduced by them they were ordered enrolled and afterwards the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, contrary to the recent holdings of the Department herein cited, took the testimony of Lydia Barton from another case and made it a part of the record in this case over the objection of the applicants and without them being afforded an opportunity to introduce their testimony and without notice to them that the Commission was going to take such action until it had actually made the order as laid down by the letter hereto attached and the applicants were not given an opportunity to even object to this action on the part of the Commission until after the order had been made and they had been notified thereafter that the Commission had made such an order. Wherefore, the applicants earnestly request and pray that they be granted a rehearing in this case and that they be afforded an opportunity to introduce all of the testimony they have tending to prove that Alonzo Manley (Cullen) returned to the Cherokee Nation and became "An actual personal bona fide resident" therein prior to February 11, 1867.

Respectfully submitted,

 NORTHERN DISTRICT )

On this 31st day of July, A. D., 1906 personally appeared before me, the undersigned Notary Public within and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, MAUDE MANLEY, of lawful age, who being by me duly sworn according to law, on her oath deposes and says:-

"My name is Maude Manley; my age is 38 years and my Post Office is Hayden, Indian Territory. I am the person who applied for the enrollment of the applicants, Etta Manley, Alonzo Manley, Harvey Manley, Freddie Manley, Maynard, Manley, Howard Manley and Tessie Manley, and at the former hearing of this case I procured the testimony that I deemed sufficient to warrant the enrollment of these applicants and upon that testimony a Decision was rendered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes ordering them enrolled. Said case was reopened as shown by the record for the purpose of introducing the testimony of Lydia Barton from another case, and afterwards, without an opportunity being afforded me to introduce further testimony the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a Decision denying these applicants. I was unable at the former hearing to produce the testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits are attached for the reason that I did not know at that time of the existence of such testimony but I made an effort to get testimony material to this case and produced at the time what I deemed was sufficient and what the Commission at one time deemed sufficient to warrant the enrollment of these applicants, and with due diligence at the time I was unable to get any further testimony, and I have, since the Decision adverse to these applicants, discovered the testimony of the witnesses whose affidavits have heretofore been filed and whose affidavits are filed in support of my Amended Motion for a rehearing, and I have also found other witnesses by whom I expect to prove the essential material point in this case, to-wit: 'That Alonzo Manley (Cullen) returned to the Cherokee Nation and became "An actual personal bona fide resident" therein prior to February 11, 1867.

This Motion ~~is~~ for a rehearing and the Amended Motion for a rehearing in this case is made in good faith, not for the purposes of delay but in order that justice might be done my children.

Dear Madam:

In the matter of your application for the enrollment of yourself, et al., as Cherokee freedmen you are advised that upon motion of the Cherokee Nation, a copy of which was furnished you, this case has been reopened for the purpose of introducing the testimony of Lydia Barton heretofore taken in the case of Elizabeth Meigs.

There is herewith inclosed a copy of the Commission's order of April 21, making the testimony of Lydia Barton a part of the record in your case, and you are advised that in accordance with this order copies of that testimony have been filed with and made a part of your said application for enrollment.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the motion for a rehearing of the application for the enrollment of Maude Manley, et al., as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Reply of the Cherokee Nation to Amended Motion for Rehearing.

Counsel for applicants file an amended motion for a rehearing in the above case and the burden of their argument in the amended motion for a rehearing is that the testimony of Lydia Barton taken in the case of Elizabeth Meigs was ordered made a part of the testimony in this case, which is, it is claimed, in violation of the rule laid down by the Department in the Catherine Mix case and in the Payton Martin case. Now, the Department gave its reasons in the Payton Martin case why the evidence of E. J. Clayton should not be taken from the Neatie Martin case and thrown into and made a part of the testimony in the Payton Martin case and took occasion to say:

"In this case it is apparent that the evidence of E. J. Clayton, taken in another case and without opportunity of cross-examination by applicants' attorneys, is subject to the same criticism as the affidavits submitted by the applicant."

The only possible objection that could be raised against the testimony of Lydia Barton was that there was no opportunity for cross-examination, but lets see if that objection is good in this case. What good would the opportunity of cross-examination have done any attorney? She did not testify of her own knowledge, but she testified only as an official; she was a County Clerk; and the newspaper account of the killing of Dyer Hayford was an official newspaper of the County, <sup>the</sup> files of which had been kept ever since 1866, and she only appeared as the custodian of the newspaper files. There was nothing to cross-examine her about; no one objected to the correctness of her statement, namely, that she was at that time the county Clerk and that the newspapers which she brought with her were from the official files, and these were introduced themselves. The attorneys for the Cherokee Nation might as well have had copies of these made there and certified to, just as they could have had copies of any other records made without her coming and they could have been introduced in evidence in the case. So it will be seen that it was unnecessary to have brought Lydia Barton, it was unnecessary to have introduced her, except for the purpose of her certifying to the fact that these were official papers and in her custody, and she could have done this by a certificate under her official seal just as well as her certifying to any other official document within her custody, but instead of her certifying to it, which she could have done in an ex parte matter, she came and went upon the stand and testified, and when the attorney for the Cherokee Nation found that this newspaper account included the father of the applicants in this case, that he was there as a witness, when all of his witnesses testified that he was living down here, it was thought proper to introduce it in evidence in this case, and the attorneys for the applicants are not injured by it and cannot be heard to complain because as above observed a certified copy of it could have been made and introduced without the witness coming. We think, therefore, that this objection found in the amended motion for a rehearing is not meritorious. It seeks to raise a technical objection, whereas the courts always hold: "It must to go the merits and not rest merely on a technical defense." White v. State, 17 Ark. 404.

Again, the affidavit of Maude Manley states that the testimony of Lydia Barton was thrown into this case without the opportunity being afforded her to introduce testimony before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes. The truth is that she was notified on the 5th day of May, 1904, that the case was reopened upon motion of the Cherokee Nation, for the purpose of introducing the testimony of Lydia Barton heretofore taken in the case of Elizabeth Neigs and that inclosed with an order of date April 21st, making the testimony of Lydia Barton a part of the testimony in her case.

Referring to the motion filed to reopen this case it will be seen that the motion, a copy of which was served upon the representative of Maude Manley, states as follows:

"Comes now the Cherokee Nation and moves to reopen the above entitled case for the purpose of introducing the testimony of Lydia Barton heretofore taken in the case of Elizabeth Peigs F. D. #391 which shows that on May 13, 1902 at the time she testified in said case that she was county Clerk of the county in Kansas in which Fort Scott is located and introduced files of the official paper of the county of December 1866 up to and including March 1867 which files were officially kept and from which a detailed account was given of the testimony taken before a coroner with reference to the murder of Dyer Hayford on December 26, 1866; said testimony shows that Alonzo Cullen father of the applicants in this case was a witness in the case, was called to testify and which conclusively shows that the said Alonzo Cullen, also known as Alonzo Manley was a resident of Fort Scott, Kansas and thereby conclusively corroborates the very intelligent detailed statement of Elizabeth Davis who testified in this case on February 18, 1902 to the fact that she knew Alonzo Cullen also known as Manley, etc."

From this it will be seen that the case was reopened for the very express purpose of introducing this testimony and it was introduced as shown by the order and the applicant notified of it and no decision was rendered thereafter in the case until January 5, 1903, or about eight months, during all of which time abundant opportunity could have been afforded the applicants or her representatives to introduce any testimony it was desired in their behalf.

For the reasons herein assigned, together with the reasons heretofore urged in our reply brief, we submit that this case is without merit, that the applicants are not entitled to be enrolled as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation and that the motion for a rehearing filed in this case and the amended motion for a rehearing should be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

[Signature]

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen ;-

Your letter dated May the 6th. 1904, advising me that that my case, Cherokee Freedmen, D 353, had been re-opened for the purpose of allowing the Cherokee Nation to introduce the testimony of Lydia Barton heretofore taken in the case of Elizabeth Meigs, received. In reply will say that I desire to enter a protest on behalf of myself and my children to this action on the part of the Commission, and desire that this protest be filed with the papers in the case: We object to this action on the part of the Commission in thus re-opening our case for the following reasons and upon the following grounds, that is to say ;-

- 1st. Said action is contrary to law.
- 2nd. This case having been fully and finally submitted to the Commission and the Commission having rendered its decision therein, was wholly without authority or jurisdiction to reopen said case or to take any further action therein.
- 3rd. That the Cherokee Nation was in possession of the testimony of this witness, Lydia Barton, before this case was finally closed and finally submitted to the Commission, and said testimony was a part of their case in chief, and after the case was finally closed, and after the Commission had rendered its decision therein on the 5th. day of March, 1904, the Commission was without authority or jurisdiction to re-open this case or to permit the Cherokee Nation to introduce further testimony therein, and the Nation had waived its right to introduce this, or any other testimony, when it finally closed and submitted this case to the Commission.

- 4th. Because the substantial rights of the applicants herein are prejudiced by this action on the part of the Commission, said applicants not being allowed to introduce further testimony in this case.

For these reasons applicants say that the action on the part of the Commission was wholly without warrant of law, and they ask that this letter may be filed with the records in this case and become a part thereof to show their protest against this action on the part of the Commission. That they at no time consented to this action of the Commission in thus re-opening their case. They ask that this testimony be excluded and that the decision of the Commission heretofore rendered in this case be allowed to stand.

WASHINGTON, March 20, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 24, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by intermarriage to Cherokee freedmen by William Davis, Henry Thomas, Ella Vann, Mary Markham, Frances Melton, John Dotson, Mary Jane Vann, Thomas Lowe, Ella Mayfield, Sallie Rider, Reuben Campbell, Van Jackson Luther, Cassie Middleton, Mary Earlin; Nellie Fields, John Kimbo, William E. Madden, Jane Bean, Albert T. Thomas, Mary Campbell, Caroline Daniels, Melvina Alberty, Dave Morris, Alexander Claggett, Amanda Martin, Eliza Martin, John E. Barnes, Bell Davis, Samuel Brown, Howard P. Watson, Jack McConnell, Maude Manley, George Reed, Sr., Buck Ledman, Bell Thompson, Lewis Scott, Abe Scott, Kender Lampton, Thomas E. Allen, Lewis Vanderford, John L. Bowlin, Katie Davis, Charles Williams, John J. Ross, Jane Martin, Lena Peterson, Alex Johnson, Martha Vann, John Scott, Nancy Ross, Charles C. Smith, Susie Colbert, William Skaggs, Susie Johnson, Alfred P. Hopkins, Kizzie Vann, Freddie Looney, Lucy Cheuteau,

January 19, 1906, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that none of the applicants makes claim to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, except by intermarriage with a Cherokee Freedman; that none has ever been enrolled or admitted to citizenship by any tribal authority of the Cherokee Nation or by any United States tribunal and that none is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

In view of the record and of the ruling of the Department of November 12, 1904 (I. T. D. 5848-1904) in the Jannel Welcome case, the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

March 31, 1908

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 26, 1908, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by Maude Manley for her minor children, Etta, Alonso, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley; by Walter Whitmire for his wife, Ella Whitmire; by Becky Webber for herself; by Lewis Webber Sr., for himself and minor children, Lewis Jr., Cora, Floyd and Beulah Webber; by Joseph Manley Sr., for himself and wife, Kate Manley, and minor children, Ida, Frank, Sarah, Lola, Joseph Jr., Willis and Daisy Manley; by Robert Webber for himself and wife, Margaret Webber; by Sam Webber for himself; by Josh Webber for himself; by Sidney West for herself; by Habra McQueen for herself; by Sarah Chatman for herself and minor children, Evaline Jimison, Henry Caesar, Jim (James), Julia and Nannie Chatman; by Susie Webber, nee Whitmire, for herself and husband, Frank Webber, and minor children, Julia and Samuel Webber, and by Eliza Rogers for herself.

January 5, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to Becky Webber, Lewis Webber Sr., Lewis Webber Jr., Frank Webber, Cora Webber, Floyd Webber, Boulah Webber, Margaret Webber, Joseph Manley Sr., Etta Manley, Alonzo Manley, Harvey Manley, Freddie Manley, Maynard Manley, Howard Manley and Tossie Manley and favorably to all the other applicants.

The record shows that the applicants, Becky and Lewis Webber Sr., were slaves of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that during the war they left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867. The minor applicants, Lewis Jr., Cora, Floyd and Boulah Webber are children of Lewis Webber Sr., and possess no rights to enrollment except as his descendants. The minors or their parents are not identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

The record further shows that the applicants, Robert and Margaret Webber were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that they were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and that Robert Webber returned but Margaret Webber did not return on or before February 11, 1867. Robert Webber has since continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation. The applicants, Ella Whitmire, Sam and Josh Webber and Kate Manley are children of Robert and Margaret Webber, were born since 1866 and have continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

The minor applicants, Ida, Frank, Sarah, Lela, Joseph Jr., Willie and Daisy Manley are the children of the said Kate Manley, were born since 1880 and have lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

It is further shown that the applicant, Joseph Manley Sr. was born since 1866 and possesses no rights to enrollment except as the descendant of Alonso Manley (Cullen) and Eliza Manley, and that the minor applicants, Etta, Alonso, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley were born since 1880 and possess no rights to enrollment except as the descendants of the said Alonso Manley (Cullen); that Alonso Manley (Cullen) was a free colored person residing in the Cherokee country and that Eliza Manley was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that during said war they left the Cherokee Nation and did not return on or before February 11, 1867. They are not identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

It is further shown that the applicant, Sidney West, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that she was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war but returned thereto on or before February 11, 1867, and has since continuously resided in the Indian Territory.

It is further shown that the applicants, Sarah Chatman and Susie Whitmire are children of the said Sidney West, were born since 1866 and have continuously resided in the Indian Territory since birth; that the minor applicants, Evaline Jimison, Henry Caesar, James, Julia and Wannie Chatman, and Julia and Samuel Webber are children of the said Sarah Chatman and Susie Whitmire, were born since 1880 and have continuously lived with their mothers since birth.

The record shows that the applicant, Frank Webber, died June 13, 1901.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 9, 1907

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

There is enclosed a motion filed June 28, 1906 by Seymour Middle, Vinita, Indian Territory, for a rehearing of the Cherokee freedman case of Maude Manley et al. This motion is supported by the affidavits of Andy Hays and Orlora Foreman. The reply of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation to this motion, filed July 17, 1906, is also enclosed. August 1, 1906, there was filed by Messrs. Starr & Patten, Vinita, Indian Territory, an "amended motion for rehearing" of said case. The reply of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation to said motion, filed August 8, 1906, is also enclosed.

Maude Manley claims the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation only by intermarriage, and her application for enrollment as such was, among others, denied by the Department April 17, 1906 (I.T.D. 2904-1906).

The decision of the Commission to the Five Civil-

secretary-2

ited Tribes, dated January 8, 1906, rejecting, among others, the application of Maude Manley for the enrollment of her children, Etta, Alonso, Harvey, Freddie, Maynard, Howard and Tessie Manley, as Cherokee freedmen, was affirmed by the Department May 31, 1906 (I.T.D. 10611-12900-1906). A motion for review of said case filed September 7, 1906, was also denied on that date.

The record in this case is very voluminous, but after a careful consideration of the same in connection with the motions now presented, this office considers that sufficient reason is not shown to warrant a rehearing of the case.

The record shows that the applicants were represented by able counsel when their case was heard before the Commission. The record shows that the applicants in the present case under consideration, other than Maude Manley, claim the right to Cherokee freedman citizenship only as descendants of their father, Alonso Manley, or Cullen.

The records of this office show that said Alonso Manley, or Cullen, was an applicant to the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation for recognition as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that his application was denied by said court on June 13, 1871. The question as to the weight to be given to decisions by the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation has been before the Assistant Attorney General, and the Department's rulings in cases where that fact exists are well known.

It is respectfully recommended that the motion herewith transmitted be denied.

Respectfully

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

In the matter of the application of Dennis Hicks for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and five children as Cherokee Freedmen.

Dennis Hicks, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A Dennis Hicks.
Q How old are you? A I am 52 years old the 15th of June.
Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee; well I live in Saline, or Delaware it is; my home is in Cooweescoowee.
Q Do you want to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir, not unless you will accept my certificate; I am not a freedman.
Q You want to apply? A Yes, sir, I want to apply.
Q As a Freedman? A No, sir, intermarried.
Q You are an African are you? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is it you want to apply for besides yourself? A Five minor children.
Q And have you a wife you want to apply for? A She will apply for herself I guess.
Q We would rather the family would come together. A Well.
Q You apply for yourself, your wife and five minor children?
A Yes, sir; the wife of them children though is dead.
Q You apply for your self as an intermarried man do you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here since 1878.
Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
Q Give me the name of your first wife? A Mary Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q What was she, a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you and her marry? A 1872.
Q How long has she been dead? A Been dead four years.
Q Did you and she live together until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of her father? A Henry Ridge.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A About 18 years.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Katie Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A No, sir.
Q Did you get out a Cherokee license when you married this woman?
A Let r on I did; a preacher married me in the first place.
Q Have you that license? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee district, December 18, 1892, as well as it can be made out, authorizing marriage between himself and Mrs. Mary Hicks, nee Ridge. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the 18th day of December, 1892, by the Rev. A. W. Lewis, and it is endorsed as having been recorded on the 18th day of December, 1893. This is filed herewith.

By J. S. Davenport, Cherokee attorney: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation present protest against the introduction of the marriage certificate, under §639, page 398, of the Compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1892.

Commissioner: This protest will be considered in the final determination of the case.

- Q Now give me the name of your second wife? A Her name is Bettie Holt.
Q Is she living now? A Yes, sir.
Q Was this first wife ever married except to you? A No, sir.
Q How old is your present wife? A She is 55 years old.
Q When were you and she married? A About 3 years ago.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A I have at this Court down here, I haven't it with me, it is down at the house.

Q You claim that Bettie Holt is a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.

Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you how long, all her life though pretty near I suppose.

Q Give me the name of her father? A I don't know him, sir.

A Give me the name of her mother? A Her name is Easter Hill.

Q Is she alive? A Yes, sir.

Q Was this wife ever married before she married you? A Why I think so, I don't know.

Q Give me the names of these children, begin with the oldest; these five children.

A Commence at Leroy Hicks.

Q How old is that child? A He is about 19 years old.

Q What is the next child? A Dennis Hicks, Jr.

Q How old is Dennis? A Dennis is about 17, going on 18 I believe he is.

Q Give me the name of the next child? A The next one is Delana Hicks.

Q How old is that child? A She is about, I think she is at 14 years old.

Q Give me the name of the next child? A Mabel Hicks.

Q How old is that child? A She is about 12.

Q The next child? A Elmer.

Q How old is that child? A Nine, going on 10.

Q Are these children all living now? A Yes, sir, all at home.

Q Are these children of your first wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you on any roll of the Cherokee Nation? A No myself, no sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the applicant, Dennis Hicks, nor Mary, his first wife, not identified on said roll.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and applicants not identified thereon.

Q Did your wife ever draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes sir.

Q Did you draw Cherokee strip money for these children? A Yes, sir; no, sir, they didn't give her this last money; the children did.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Dennis Hicks not on said roll.

Mary Hicks not on said roll.

Leroy Hicks on page 120, No. 2976, Delaware district;

Dennis Hicks, Jr., on page 120, No. 2977, Delaware district, as Dennis Hicks;

Delana Hicks on page 120, No. 2978, Delaware district, as Delaney Hicks;

Mabel Hicks on page 120, No. 2979, Delaware district;

Elmer Hicks on page 120, No. 2980, Delaware district.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the name of Bettie Hicks not identified thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicant Bettie Hicks identified thereon, page 123, No. 4035, Cooweescoowee district, as Bettie Holt.

Commissioner: What I would like particularly to know at this point is the status of the applicant's first wife, whereby hinges whatever claim she may have as an intermarried man and the claims of all these children.

Mr. Edgar Smith, attorney for applicant: That is what I want to clear up.

Mr. Smith: Who was your first wife? A Mary Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Katie Ridge.

Q Who was her father? A Henry Ridge.

Q Did she have any sisters or brothers? A Yes, sir.

Q Who were her sisters and brothers? A Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Ridge, and Jesse Ridge, he is dead though.

Q Do you know Katie Ridge yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known her? A I knowed her first in time of the war.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on the river.
Q What river? A Grand River.

Q How far from Vinita? A About 16, about 18 miles.

Q Has she been here during the sitting of the Commission at this place? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she made an application for the enrollment of herself or not? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you and your wife live together here in the Cherokee Nation? A We lived together about 29 years in all; no, we lived together, been 29 years since we married; it is about 29 or '7 years.

Q Was that up to the time of her death? A Yes, sir, up to the time she died.

Q Where did she die? A Here in Vinita; I don't know just exactly how many years.

Q You yourself don't know where your wife was during the war or in 1863? A Why she was during the war at Springfield.

Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge when she came back?

A They came back right after the war; they left the place where they were and said they were coming to the Nation, that is all I know about it.

Q What place was that? A Springfield, out in the country about four miles from Springfield; we lived right on the same house; we lived in that house about a year together.

Q When was it they said that, when did they leave and tell you they were coming back? A They year after they brought corn in down here to Gibson for the Indians, my father-in-law was hauling corn down here for them, and the next fall they moved, said they were coming to the Nation.

Commissioner: That was Springfield, Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: Are you able to state what year that was in? A That was the year the war closed they hauled the corn in, and the next fall they moved.

Q And said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I didn't see them for a good while after that.

Q And when did you next see her? A When I came here in 1872, or I first met them again in Joplin, that is before I came down here, and I married down here in 1873.

Q Where did you marry? A Down here on Grand River.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that time?

A No, sir, I haven't; I went backwards and forwards to Joplin, I took my family up there once, they were up there about two months, came to visit me; I was a blacksmith and I had to work out for a living.

Q And you were there about how long? A She was there about two months, I was there about six months.

Q Is there anyone here who knows who your wife's mother was?

A Yes, sir, everybody present.

A Well we don't want all of them; who knows who your wife's mother was? A I can use Fred Martin and Mrs. Amy Bean.

Mr. J. S. Davenport, Cherokee Attorney: How long have you lived back and forth at Joplin? A I worked back and forth there about three or four years myself; the most of the time she was away, all the time, and I wasn't there, I never was away from here but a few months at a time.

Q That was your place of business, of work? A Yes, sir, yes sir, there is where I worked.

Commissioner: What was your wife doing up at Joplin at that time?

A They lived up there a little while, they were living up there.

Q How far is Joplin from Springfield? A It is 75 or 80 miles.

Q How long had you been there when you met them at Joplin? A No, they were there when I went there, there was a great boom there and I went down there.

Q In what year was it you moved? A That was in '72.

Mr. Davenport: You say they were living there when you moved over there? A Yes, sir, they hadn't been there long, though.

Q How long did they stay there after you met them? A They came right away that fall, I went down in the spring and they came away that fall.

Q How do you know that? A They said they hadn't, I don't know anything about it.

Mr. Smith: You stated I believe, when they left Springfield the first time they stated they were coming to the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: The next time you saw them after they left Springfield and said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, was at Joplin, Missouri? A Yes, sir, that was a good while after they left Springfield.

Q They left Springfield and said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, but the next time you saw them was in Joplin, Missouri, and in the same state of Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Amy Bean, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Amy Bean.

Q How old are you? A 45.

Q What is your post office? A Vinita.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Mr. Smith: Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Well, I really don't know, I guess about 27 or 28 years ago I first got acquainted with him.

Q Did you know his first wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Mary Hicks.

Q What was her name before she married him? A Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Kate Ridge.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on younger side of Grand River.

Q What post office? A Spavinaw I think that is her post office name.

Q Do you know whether she is the same Kate Ridge who applied here the other day for a pollment? A Yes, sir, she is the same one applied up at the other table.

Mr. Smith: I will just ask to have the copies of the testimony in the Ridge case filed with this case.

Fred Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Fred Martin.

Q How old are you? A 45.

Q What is your post office? A Spavinaw.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Q Do you know Dennis Hicks the applicant here? A I do.

Q Did you know his wife, his present wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her name? A Bettie Hicks; it was Bettie Holt before he married her.

Q How long has he been married to her? A I don't know just exactly how long he has been married, something over 8 years.

Q Do you know them as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q They are living together in that way, are they? A Yes, sir.

Q They are recognized in the community as husband and wife?

A Yes, sir.

Dennis Hicks. - 5.

Q How long have you known her? A Well, I don't know, I have known her a long time.

Q Was she ever married before she married this man? A I don't know.

Q Has she any children? A She has one to my personal knowledge.

Q But you don't know whether she has ever been married or not?

A No, sir, I don't know whether she has ever married.

Q Have you ever known her to live with another man as husband wife?

A No, sir, except Dennis.

Dennis Hicks, recalled, testified:

Mr. Smith: Dennis, your present wife claims to be entitled to be enrolled upon the freedman roll in her own right? A Yes, sir.

Q What proof does she depend upon in her case; is that proof present this evening or not? A I don't know that it is, I think they are out west somewhere.

Q She will have to get that proof and make it in addition to the proof in your case,, and it will all be one case then.

Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five minor children. The applicant is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married in accordance with Cherokee law to his first wife, now deceased, one Mary Ridge, in 1892, they having previously been married according to the testimony, under United States law. The applicant is a colored man and he claims as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He states that neither he or his first wife were ever previously married. He is not upon any roll, and his first wife is not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1896, or upon the Kerns-Clifton roll.

Q How old was your wife Mary Ridge when she died? A She was about 42.

The Wallace roll examined, and Mary Hicks identified thereon, page 118, No. 2485, Cooweescoowee district.

She is identified on the Wallace roll. Reference is made to the testimony as to her status, and also to the case of her mother, Fatic Ridge, Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card D-295, and the applicant will now be listed on a doubtful card as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage.

His present wife, for whom he makes application, Bettie Hicks, is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or 1896. But little testimony has so far been taken in her case, and to await further identification of the status of this woman, she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. The applicant's marriage to his second wife will also enter into his own right as far as he may possess a right by intermarriage, and it has been established by satisfactory testimony, but it is not entirely clear whether she was previously married or not, so far as it may affect his rights.

As for the five children named in the testimony, they are all five identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll. These are the applicant's children by his first wife, Mary Ridge. They are living and to await the determination of her status, and for the further consideration of their case, they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card.

The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post office address.

Mr. Smith: Do you know whether your present wife was ever married before she married you? A I don't know, sir.

Dennis Hicks - 8.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly reported the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Where do you live? A Fort Gibson.
Q How long have you lived there? A All my life.
Q Do you know Bettie Hicks this applicant? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known her? A I known her just a while before the war.
Q Was she a slave? A Yes, sir.
Q Whom did she belong to? A Old lady Holt I suppose.
Q Was Mrs. Holt a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did she live before she war? A She lived at Webbers Falls on this side of the river.
Q Where was this applicant, Bettie Hicks at the time the war commenced, do you know? A I don't know, sir.
Q How long before the war had you seen her there at Holt's?
A It was a good little while before the war; when the steam bots was running she was coming up to my Mistress on a visit.
Q Do you know how long that was before the war?
A No, sir, I don't.
Q When did you see this applicant, Bettie, in the Cherokee Nation after the war closed? A I saw her in Fort Gibson.
Q When was that? A That was when the Refugees was drawing; I was in there cooking for the refugees, cook for the Commissary Clerk.
Q What were the Refugees doing? A They was issuing rations and the Clerk was issuing rations to them and I was cook for him.
Q And you mean the people that had gone out of the Nation during the war? A Yes, sir, that was all getting back to their homes.
Q Did you ~~mean~~ Had you been out or remain in the Nation?
A I remained in the Nation; I just went out on ~~Russ~~ Ryar Town and come back before peace was made.
Q Are you yourself a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir; I am nothing else, I am half Cherokee and freedman too.
Q Are you a recognized citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q On the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir, always has been.
Q Can you state what year it was that they were issuing those rations? A No, sir, I can't exactly state, it was just after peace was made and they ordered them all to come in.
Q When you saw her? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did they issue those rations and keep that up as well as you remember? A I don't know exactly how long; they stopped and begin; I could not tell how long I cooked about tw years right along there.
Q Right ~~was~~ soon after peace was declared. A Yes, sir, right after peace was declared.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q Was she a grown young woman then? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you saw her owner one time before the war when her Mistress come up to your Mistress' house? A Yes, sir.

Q What was she doing there? A She was waiting on her.

Q How many girls would she usually carry with her? A She sometimes carried one or two.
Q Did you ever see her carrying more than one at a time?
A Yes.

Q How many waiters did she have up there? A One

Q Didn't you testify, in the Gailie Miller case yesterday? A Yes, sir.

Q Now when you testified in that case yesterday, didn't you testify that Gallie Siller was ~~xxx~~ with Mrs. Holt when she visited your mother at Fort Gibson as the waiting girl for Mrs. Holt?

A Yes, sir, that is right.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Did Mrs. Held; what do you mean by that, now you saw Mrs. Holt brought Sallie up there? A Sometimes bring Sallie and sometimes bring Bettie.

Q Did she make more than one visit? A Yes, sir, she visited more than once.

Q Well when you spoke of Mrs. Holt having brought Gallie up there as her waiting girl was that the same trip you are talking about now? A No, sir; they come up several times, come on the steam boat named Pilot.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q They came quite often to visit Mrs. Nivens? A Several times, we went down there several times.

Q She carried you with her? A No, sir, not every time.

Q Then you have been down there and seen her? A Yes, sir; I have been to Mrs. Holt's that is right.

Q And Holt's lived in Flint district didn't they? A The Holts
I am talking about lived at the walls.

Q You don't know whether they had ever lived up in Flint District?

A No, sir.

HARRY STILL, being sworn and examined testified as follows:

BY MR. SMITH:

Q. Where was that? A. Vinita.

Q Have you known her, or rather have you known anything of her whereabouts since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you seen her often or a few times? A Often from the time I come to Vinita.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q. Where was Bill Holt living when you knew this woman at his place?
A. His home was, Bill Holt, was down here on the Arkansas, where I saw this woman.

Q What part of the Arkansas? A George Whitmire had a cattle ranch there and that is the first time I saw this woman, in Candian District, I reckon.

Q Near what point that you can name? A It was not far from the old ranch there.

- Q I don't know where the Whitmire Ranch was? A It was on the Arkansas river there, I know I saw Bettie distinctly.
- Q On what side of the Arkansas did you see this Bettie as a Slave of Bill Holt? A I don't know which side; I think it was on the other side;
- Q You were there at his place wasn't you? A No, sir, he was at our place.
- Q Did he have all his darkies down there? A He didn't have all of them, I saw Bettie.
- Q Where was Bettie when you saw her? A I don't know.
- Q How old was she when the war broke out? A She was grown woman.
- Q Grown woman? A Looked like to me.
- Q And you don't know where it was you saw her? A I don't know; I know distinctly I saw her when I went to Kansas.
- Q How many sisters had Bettie? A She had Sallie.
- Q Which is the older Sallie or Bettie? A I don't know, I think Sallie is the oldest.
- Q And you don't know which side of the river Bill Holt's place was on? A No, sir.
- Q Which side of the river was Whitmire's ranch? A On the North side.
- Q And Vian Creek? A On this side I reckon.
- Q And on which side of the river was Bill Whitmire's ranch on?
- A On the East side, towards Fort Smith.

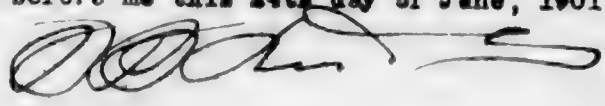

COM'R NEEDLES: In this action the Attorney for the applicant prays that the testimony taken in the case of the application of Joshua Holt for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman be made a part of the record in the case at bar; said Joshua Holt having been listed for enrollment on Doubtful card #344, and ~~that~~ a copy of said testimony will be filed with the testimony taken in the case of the applicant.

- Q Did you get your strip money? A Yes sir.

The Kerns Clifton roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant identified thereon as follows:

By Com'r Needles: Katie Ridge applies for herself; she is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1890 but she is identified on the Kerns Clifton roll; she makes satisfactory proof as to her residence and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card for the reason that her name is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880, and from the further fact that her citizenship is contested by the Cherokee representatives. When the Commission arrives at a conclusion in her case she will be notified by mail.

Chas. von Weise, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

Q Now, where was Herman living? A Well, sir, I don't know where he was living; he was an intermarried man.

Q He had no home in the Nation did he? A The last account I know of Herman was that when he joined the army.

Q Well, where was he living just before he joined the army?

Q I don't know sir, I could not tell you?

Q Well now, you came back here did you with your father and mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what was the first point you came to? A In the Nation?

AQ Yes. A On Honey Creek.

Q Now, what place on Honey Creek did you return? A Well, I don't know the name of the place at all, but as near as I can remember it was about probably three or four miles down the creek from where South West City now is.

Q That is the point you came to was it? A Yes, sir.

Q That was near your old home? A Yes, sir.

Q You come right back to the old home didn't you? A No, sir, not right exactly.

Q Well about how far from your old home? A It don't, it must have been, probably a mile and a half from the old Ridge place.

Q Did you build a house? A No, sir.

Q How did you live there? A Went into a house that was there.

Q That was vacant? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there? A Well, sir, I expect we were there something like three or four months.

Q Then where did you go? A Went to Missouri.

Q Joplin? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married at Joplin, weren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A Ida.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is Ida? A Ida's about, I don't know, 24 or 25 I guess.

Q Well, isn't Henry older than Ida? A No, sir; he is younger.

Q And where was Ida born? A Ida was born on Grand river.

Q Near what place? A On Lynch's prairie.

Q How long after the war was it until you come down to Lynch's prairie? A How long after the war you ask me?

Q That is the question. A I don't know, something about like three or four years.

Q George Clark was living right near you then? A Yes, sir, George Clark was living there.

Q Then the only time you claim to have come back to the Cherokee Nation before that was when you were up on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived there you say about two or three months? A Yes sir.

Q Now, what kind of a house was that you moved into? A It was a log house.

Q Now, what direction from the old Polston was that log house that you moved into? A Well, if I am not mistaken and kinda turned around I say out south.

Q Did you go to the old place while you were there? A Polston place; yes, sir.

Q Who was living there? A Dr. Polston.

Q Was his wife there with him? A Now, I am not right sure; let me think over that a little; yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Would she have any children there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know their names? A No, sir, I don't.

Q What did you do for a living down there? A Didn't do anything.

Q Do you remember any citizen you saw down around there? A No, sir, I don't remember any one.

Q Where did you get anything to eat? A Brought provisions with us.

Q And just camped out down there in a house? A No, sir, we lived down there in a house.

Cornelius Ridge, et al, 4.

Q You never worked for anybody? A Never done a day's work for anybody as I knows of.

Q Well, what year were you there? A We were there in the fall.

Q About what month? A Well, sir, I don't know hardly, I expect though it was in or near the month of October, September or October, somewheres along about there.

Q Were you up about that town there while you were down there on Honey Creek? A No, sir.

Q You didn't go to any town? A No, sir; what do you mean, South-west City?

Q Yes, sir. A No, sir, there wasn't no town there; we come right past there and there wasn't no town there.

Q Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house, any people living anywhere around you? A No, sir, none that I know of; none that I was acquainted with except Polston.

Q None except polston? A No, sir, that I can remember now.

Q You don't remember any of those Indians that were living about you? A No, sir; I don't remember, there was none living there as I know of.

Q Was there any field connected with your house you lived in?

A No, sir.

Q What did you get water out of, creek, spring or well?

A Spring.

Q What direction was the spring from the house? A Well, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't remember? A Appears to me though like the spring was east, not to be positive.

Q How far was the home place from Honey Creek? A I presume something near a mile and a half.

Q Were you north or south of the creek? A Well I would say south.

Q Dennis Hicks' wife your sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q Where was she born, before the war or after, and when? A She was born before the war, I don't know where she was born at.

Q Did she go this round with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your mother was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father? A Yes, sir; I think though Dennis' wife was born in Arkansas.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Well, now in all these round you went your father and mother and all the members of your family would go with them? A Yes, sir.

BY OTHER MEMBERS:

Q Well, you apply for your wife as an intermarried citizen do you?

A Yes, sir.

Q When were you married to her? A I don't know sir, about '67 I guess.

Q Have you been living with her continuously since that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Living with her now? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you married? A Married in Missouri.

Q She is a state woman? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living in 1867? A In Missouri.

Q Brought your wife back with you when you come? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Joplin is in Missouri, isn't it? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q What time, Cornelius, did you leave the Cherokee Nation after you came home in 1866; how long did you stay here in 1866? A We came in the fall and left after Christmas.

Cornelius Ridge et al 5.

Q Were you a married or unmarried man at the time you came here in 1866? A Unmarried.
Q Why did you leave the Nation, the Cherokee Nation, at that time? A We didn't have anything to live on.
Q Where did you go to? A Went to Joplin, Missouri.
Q How long did you stay there? A About three or four years, I presume.
Q And then where did you go to? A Came on Grand river.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What time did you say you came back? A From Missouri?
Q Yes. A In about three or four years I guess.
Q After you went up there? A Yes, sir.

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES:--Cornelius Ridge applies for the enrollment of himself and three children, Pearl, Jessie and Myrtle, as Cherokee Freedmen; he also applies for the enrollment of his wife, Laura, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896, but he and his children are duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton pay roll, and he upon the Wallace roll. He avers that he was married to his wife, Laura, a state woman in the year 1867, and has lived with her continuously ever since that time. He makes satisfactory proof as to his residence, and in this connection, as requested by Counsel that the testimony taken in the present case be made a part of the record in the application of Dennis Hicks who was listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedman card D #355, and it is ordered that the testimony taken in the application of Katie Ridge for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, who was duly listed for enrollment on D. Card #295, be made part of the record in the present case and a copy of the same be filed in the case of the applicant, Cornelius Ridge. The said Cornelius Ridge and his children as enumerated herein will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card, and his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. The applicant will be notified by mail as to the final decision of the Commission.

When I first saw they they were up there on Honey Creek and someone said that was the Ridges.
Q What year was that? A That was along in the fall of '66, I think it was.
Q You saw her in the fall of 1866 then? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, after they came down here, I got acquainted with them; he said it was some of the Ridges that was up there on Honey Creek.
Q Do you know the Katie Ridge, the applicant here, as the same woman you saw on Honey Creek in the fall of 1866? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir, I don't know all the Ridges, all I know about them is what Simon was telling me.
Q Simon who? A Simon Lynch.
Q Did you know them before the war? A No, sir, he knew them.
By L.L.Bell, Cherokee attorney: Where were you going in '66?
A Going up to Southwest City.
Q How far is South West City from where they were living? A I don't know, sir, I never noticed; the first time I ever had been there, and I just went along with Simon.
Q About what time of the year was it? A It was long in the fall like.
Q Can you recollect, early or late? A It was early, it wasn't so cold, I ~~don't~~ know we slept out, we were going up there.
Q You don't recollect then how far it was from where they lived to Southwest? A No, sir, I expect Simon knows, he was acquainted up there and I wasn't.
Q You went on from there to Southwest City did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was Southwest City, in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri?
A It was in Missouri or Arkansas, I don't know which, it was across the line.

COM'R. NEEDLES:--Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or census roll of 1896, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two children's Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

SAM WEBBER, being sworn by Com'r Needles, testified as follows: By Mr. Brown:

Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.

Q Mr. Webber, do you know Anderson Johnson and Dinah Johnson, the mother and father of this applicant? A Yes, sir.

Q You know whether they were ever married or not?

A I couldn't tell you about the wedding, they were living together as man and wife.

Q So recognized by the community? A Yes, sir.

Q Were they living together as man and wife at the time this applicant was born? A Yes, sir.

Q You know this girl's sister, Mary Johnson? A Yes, sir.

Q At the time she was born were they living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you testify for Jane Holt in the Joshua Holt case? A I did 5 years ago, I didn't this time.

Q You testified a while ago in the Mary Johnson case? A Yes, sir.

Q You didn't say anything about their marriage then? A No one asked me; I didn't have no right to unless they asked me.

Q When did you first see Anderson Johnson and the mother of this girl living together as husband and wife? A They come and settled down there; he married her somewhere and brought her there, I don't know where he married her.

Q When was it? A I don't believe I can tell you just when that was.

Q How long after the war was it? A I couldn't tell you that and be positive in it.

Q Was Anderson Johnson married when he first came there?

A No, sir, he was a single man.

Q It was sometime after that when he married? A Yes, sir.

Q Had he been married up to that time? A Up to what time?

Q Up to the time he first came up there after the war in '66 as you testified a while ago? A He was single when he come down.

Q You don't remember how long after that when you saw him living with this woman? A No, sir, I couldn't say positive, but they was living together as man and wife on the creek there when he got killed, and had been for several years.

Q You remember just that year he got killed? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember just about how long after he come down there? A No, sir.

Q The circumstance of his getting killed isn't as great as the circumstance of your first seeing him after the war? A I don't know, it might be greater for all I know, but I never paid no particular attention.

Q About what is the first date that you are willing to swear that you saw them living together as husband and wife? A I tell you I never paid no attention to it, so many people married, I can't keep the dates of all of them, of of course I didn't rtry.

Q I am not asking you, Mr. Webber, the exact date, but how long ago, now when they first began living together, but about how many years ago are you willing to testify you saw them living together?

A I don't know, I couldn't be positive about that.

Q Did they have any children when you first saw them living together as husband and wife? A When I first saw them they didn't have any

Q Do you have any idea how old this woman is, (indicating applicant

A No, sir, not exactly.

By Com'r Needles: Well, Mr. Webber, how long did they live together as husband and wife according to your best recollection, your knowledge? A I declare I couldn't answer that correct.

Q Did they raise a family there? A Raised them right there on the creek, three children.

Q While they were living together as man and wife they raised a family? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings: You don't know where he got the woman?

A No, sir, I couldn't tell you.

Q How far did they live from you? A About 10 miles I guess, as near as I can guess at it.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SALLIE MILLER as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mollette, of Counsel for applicant;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SIMON MCKENZIE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Simon McKenzie.

Q Where do you live? A I live up Pryor Creek, about five miles north of Pryor Creek.

Q What is your age? A I am 59.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here all my life, only few times I have been out of the Nation.

Q Well, you were out of the Nation; when you were out of the Nation what places were you in? A When I was out of the Nation I lived at Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q About what year did you live in Fort Scott, Kansas? A I lived from 1865 down to 1866, '67 and down to spring of '68.

Q During the years you lived there did you become acquainted with Sallie Miller, or Holt, or Walker? A Yes, sir, I was acquainted with one lady named at that time Sallie Holt.

Q Well, did you know her family at that time, her mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was her mother's name? A Aunt Easter Holt.

Q Did you know any of her brothers? A Tecumseh and I forget the other one's name, was another one.

Q Do you know whether it was Mose or Joshua? A Yes, sir, Mose and Joshua.

Q Did you know any of her sisters? A Yes, sir, but I forget their names.

Q Now, where were they living, if you know, during the years you lived at Fort Scott? A They lived in an old Government building right in Fort Scott.

Q You went there in 1865? A In '65

Q How long had you been there before you knew these people, or got acquainted with them? A I was there about a month or two or three months, I could not state the time.

Q Well, where were they living when you left Fort Scott, Kansas, if you know? A Well, Aunt Easter was living in an old Government building.

Q Have you seen any of them since that time? A No, sir.

MR. MELLETT: Now, Mr. McKenzie, you don't know that the woman who is an applicant here for enrollment is the woman whom you say you saw up at Fort Scott, Kansas, at the close of the war, do you?

A I don't know the woman.

Q You don't know that that is the same woman? A In the same name.

Q It is not the same name? A The name Holt.

Q Well, you don't know that this is the same woman that you knew up there, do you? A Well, it was a daughter of Easter Holt, it was a Sallie woman.

Q Well, you don't know anything about this applicant; you have never seen this applicant here? A I haven't seen her here.

- Q Well, you have never seen her since she has made application here for enrollment have you? A No, sir.
- Q Now, when did you leave Fort Scott, Kansas? A I left there early in '68, in the spring.
- Q In the Spring of '68? A Yes, sir.
- Q What were you doing up there at Fort Scott? A I was working there at Fort Scott, for Billy Shanahan, stone mason, doing public work there.
- Q Did you keep track of these colored people? A All I saw.
- Q Did you ever testify in this case before? A I guess I did.
- Q When? A Not long ago at Fort Gibson.
- Q You give testimony up at Fort Gibson? A I think I did.
- Q How long ago? A I don't know exactly whether it was last month.
- Q How old are you, Mr. McKenzie? A I am 59.
- Q Well, it has been 35 or 6 years ago then since you saw them up there at Kansas? A Yes, sir, I guess so, I never kept count of the time.
- Q Well say 35; well, Mr. McKenzie, can you remember just about the time you saw these people up there 35 years ago? A Well, I guess I could remember it, I stated before.
- Q There is no reason why you paid particular attention to them? A No, just seeing them pass and repassing about.
- Q You left there in the spring of '68? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well, they could left there a year before that and you not remember it 35 years afterwards? A Didn't I saw they back and forth all the time I was up there, off and on.
- Q Well, now, off and on there, you saw them? A Every week.
- Q Can you remember 35 years ago you saw these people every weeks? A I guess so, I wouldn't be here if I didn't thought I could testify nothing.
- Q Well, you feel because you are here you have to testify something? A I don't know.
- Q Well, I want to know if you can remember 35 years ago you saw these people every week? A I did while I was living in Fort Scott most every week.
- Q Is it possible they might have left there a year before you did? A If they did they went back in a short time.
- Q What were you paying so particular attention to those people for? A I could not tell you.
- Q You just watched them? A Well, just seeing them pass and pass every day.
- Q Who else did you see up there at Fort Scott? A Why I see good many.
- Q What other colored people? A Good many. Good many other colored ~~knack~~ people, but I don't know their names.
- Q Well, now, give the name of some other colored person you saw up there except this family? A I could not give their name.
- Q There were a great many colored people in Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.
- Q And of all the colored people that was in Fort Scott this family is the only one you remember the names? A Yes, sir; of course I was passing there and some lived out in the country.
- Q Well, who else lived in the Government building there? A Good many families.
- Q Good many families? A Yes, sir.
- Q Why don't you remember the names of the other colored people? A Because the boys I remember them, and part lived in town.
- Q Why can't you remember the names of some other colored people you saw there some time? A Well, I could if I wanted to state the whole thing I can, there was Bill Thompson.
- Q Who is Bill Thompson? A There he is (pointing to a man in the audience.)

- Q And who else was there? A Bill was blacksmith; Tom Brown.
Q Was it Tom Brown or Bill Brown? A Tom Brown
Q When did they leave there? A I don't know.
Q Were they there when you left? A I don't know; they lived out at the edge of town; of course when I left town I went out about three miles of town and a family lived there by the name of Campbell, worked right there at Fort Scott. I know the whole generation if you will give me time to call the name over, the whole generation of them.
Q What makes you remember seeing these people there all the time you were there? A I saw them off and on, because I was working in town; Tom Brown was a blacksmith, worked in town.
Q When was the last time you remember seeing this Sallie Miller?
A Well, I saw when I left Fort Scott.
Q Did you see her the day you left? A No, sir; I didn't see her the day before I left.
Q How long before you left did you see her? A Oh, short time, maybe a week or two weeks.
Q You remember then of seeing her two weeks before you left?
A Yes, might have been two weeks, and maybe longer and not so long.
Q Maybe a year too? (No response.)
Q Was it a year? A No, sir, I don't think it was a year; if she left there at all she went west, went towards Mapleton.
Q How do you know she went to Mapleton? A Well, if she left at all.
Q What makes you think that? A That was the talk.
Q How was that? A That is why I found out by talking with her brother.
Q You got a letter? A No, sir, talking with her brother.
Q You are testifying to what her brother told you?
A That is how I found out where she went, if she went off at all.
Q That is the reason you are swearing that she was there all the time you were there? A No, sir; I know it.

WILLIAM MARGRAVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Margrave.
Q What is your age, Mr. Margrave? A My age is --130--about 82; I am away along in the 83 year.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Margrave? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A Since 1854.
Q Since you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you become acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts or Holt? A Yes, sir.
Q You know the old lady's name? A Yes, sir; do you mean the mother?
Q Yes, sir; what was her name? A Easter Holt.
Q How many of the children do you remember, Mr. Margrave? A Let's see, there was Mose, Cumsh, Sallie and Josh.
Q When did you become acquainted with the family? A I am not positive, I think they came there along towards the close of the Civil war, if they didn't they came there very shortly afterwards.
Q Well, now, where did they live with reference to where your home was? A Well, most of the time they lived in, I should judge, about a hundred yards, except Mose he lived, after he married, he lived about 50 yards.
Q Well, now, where is Mose Holt living now, do you know?
A Lives right there by me in Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where Josh is living? A I do not, he has been away from there a good many years, I don't know how long.
Q Well, about how many years has it been since Josh moved away from there? A Of course that would be from guess work, something I never took no count of; I don't think he has made his home in Fort Scott for the last 15 years, I might not be correct about it.

Q About how long has it been since Tecumseh moved away from there?

Q That maybe all the way from five, sir, seven or eight years, not longer than that.

Q Well, when did Bettie leave there, about when did she leave?

A That is quite a while ago, I could not tell that.

Q Well, did Sallie Holt marry while she was up there? A Yes, married twice.

Q What was her first husband's name? A Walker he died and then she married a Miller.

Q Do you know what Miller's first name was, or what he was known by up there? A Stepney I believe it is.

Q Have you seen Sallie Miller, the applicant, since you been down here? A I saw her this morning, spoke to her.

Q Did you recognize her as the same woman you knew up there as Sallie Holt? A Well, she lived right there near me for I expect 30 years, I don't know that it was that long; of course I knew her as well as I knew anybody in Fort Scott.

Q About how long ago was it since Sallie left Fort Scott?

A Well, now, I can't tell you.

Q Well, you came from there in -? A Seven, eight or ten years.

Q Do you know where Aunt Gaster Holt is living now, whether she is living or dead? A I saw her I think about a year ago up in Fort Scott, I have never heard of her dying.

Q When did she move away, if at all, from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A It comes to those dates-

Q About how long? A I would think it was six or seven years ago.

Q You got acquainted with this family as I understand you, sometime about the close of the war? A Yes, sir, I knew them by sight and afterwards got acquainted with them.

Q They afterwards lived right near you? A Yes, sir. It was right close to me, I don't think it was over a hundred yards from where I now live.

Q And they lived there then in your neighborhood from the time you got acquainted with them up until a few years ago? A Yes, just as I stated.

MR. MELLETT: Now, where was Sallie Miller in the Fall of '65?

A I don't think I could tell just that because-

Q Well, now, where was she in '66? A The family was there, I am satisfied they were in Fort Scott in '66.

Q I am talking about Sallie Miller now? A I know you do; one of the family might have went away.

Q You can't say that Sallie Miller, or Sallie Holt, was not here in the Cherokee Nation in 1866 can you? A No, sir, I cannot; I know the family was living up there at that time. One of the family could go off and I would not know anything about that; go off and return again.

Q Isn't it a fact that she was down here in '66, and didn't go back up to Kansas for a couple of years after '66, about '68?

A No, I don't know.

Q You don't know? A No.

Q That might be true, might it not? A Yes, the family was there, I know they didn't all come here; might be such a thing as she did, of course not looking for a thing of that kind I might not know.

Q Well, these people might have come down in the Territory from time to time without you knowing their business, might they not, 35 years ago? A You mean one at the time?

Q Yes, or two at the time? A Of course they might.

Q Sallie Miller's husband died up there, one of them? A Walker.

Q Didn't she take some children back from here the first time she went back? A Children; I don't know anything about it.

JOHN FORBES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John Forbes.

Q What is your age, Mr. Forbes? A 56.

Q Where do you live? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 33 years.

Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the old lady's name, if you know Mr. Forbes? A I don't exactly know what the old lady's name was.

Q What was the children's names? A I have heard the names; well there was Mose and Josh and Mrs. Walker; well, there was one or two others.

Q Do you know whether her name was Sallie Walker or what her first name was? A Her name was Sallie Walker.

Q Did she marry a man by the name of Walker? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Walker at the time of his death, if you know?

A I don't know where he died, but I was informed that he died; that I don't know where he died, away or whether he died in Fort Scott.

Q Well, do you know whether or not she married after Walker's death?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she marry that time? A Man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you remember his first name? A Well, I have heard it called Step Miller.

Q What business did he follow? A Shoemaker.

Q Well, did you know any of her brothers or sisters that you remember the names of? A Well, there was Bet or Bit, I think that is it; and there was Mose and Josh.

Q Any one else you remember? A I think there was more than that.

Q Do you know where Mose Holt is living now? A Living at Fort Scott.

Q Do you know anything about where Josh is living? A No, sir.

Q About when did Josh Holt move away from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A Well, he moved away from there good many years ago, I don't know very well; I wasn't very well acquainted with him on that account.

Q Well, when did the applicant, Sallie Miller now, formerly Sallie Holt, move away from there? A I could not say, I think the best of my judgment it was eight or ten years ago, but I could not--after I got acquainted with them in '70, then I was personally acquainted with them after that.

Q Was the mother of them living there and keeping house when you got acquainted with them in '70? A I am not sure whether the mother was there, but she was there afterwards.

Q Do you know what became of Bettie whether she is living up there or alive? A No, I do not.

Q You don't remember what year they left but they left there a number of years after you got acquainted with them? A Yes, sir.

MR. MELLETTE: Mr. Forbes, you don't know where these people, any of them, were in 1866, '67 or '8, do you? A No, sir.

Q Isn't it a fact that they came, after you knew them, that they came back and forth down here in the territory and back up to Kansas?

A I didn't know anything about that; I think I heard some of them talking about going down to Fort Smith or going from Fort Smith, or something when I got acquainted with them.

Q Fort Smith down here on the border? A Yes, sir; I wouldn't be positive of that; some little recollection in my mind but I wouldn't be positive.

JAMES BRIGHTEN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A James Brighten.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Brighten? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 20 years.
Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, have you become acquainted with a family of colored people by the name of Holt?
A Yes, sir.
Q What members of the family are you acquainted with? A I know Mose, Mose lives there now, well I think anyother one, George Maybe.
Q Did you ever know any of the girls? A Oh, I have seen them, I don't know.
Q You are not very well acquainted with them? A I knowed Mose well and knowed where they lived well; no, I am not well acquainted with the lady folks.
Q Did you ever know the mother? A No, sir.
MR. MELLETTE: You don't know where the women folks made their homes, whether they made it here and visited up there, or where they really belonged, do you? A No, sir.

WILLIAM SEXTON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows: On part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: what is your name? A William Sexton.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Sexton? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I have lived at Fort Scott ever since '69.
Q Well, since you came to Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A I did.
Q Did you know the mother, the old lady, or reputed mother of the family? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Her name was Easter Holt.
Q What were the names of the children, or as many as you can remember? A There was one by the name of Mose, Josh, and Cumsh and Jennie and Gallie; that's as many as I recollect.
Q Well, did you know Gallie Holt, if she was a grown woman?
A Sallie she was a woman when I got acquainted with her.
Q Josh, was he grown when you got acquainted with him?
A No, sir, he was a young man.
Q Would you know Gallie Holt if you would see her now?
A Yes, sir.
Q I wish you would look back through the audience and see if you see her? A Yes, sir.
Q You recognize her as being the same woman, Sallie Holt, you knew?
A Same woman.
Q Did she marry while she was living up at Fort Scott? A She was married when I got acquainted with her.
Q Do you know what her husband name was? A Her husband's name was Walker.
Q Do you know whether Walker is living or dead? A He died.
Q Well, did she marry again? A She did.
Q Do you know who she married? A She married a man by the name of Miller.
Q Do you know his first name? A Stepney.
Q What was his business? A He was a shoemaker up there.
Q You knew Josh too up there did you? A Yes, sir.
Q And Tecumseh? A Tecumseh.
Q Did you know any other girls of the family, was there any other girls that you remember? A I do not.
Q Do you know whether or not there was a girl by the name of Bettie?
A I wouldn't be positive but it appears to me there was.
Q Were they living in Fort Scott when you went there in '69, Mr. Sexton? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, about how long after you went there did they continue to live in Fort Scott? A Now, I could not say; I didn't pay particular attention, sometime they would leave and sometimes they was there.

- Q Did they keep house while they were there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Sallie live there with Walker when he was living?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where is Mose living now? A Moses is living up there now.
Q About how long has it been since you remember of Josh and then living in Fort Scott? A Josh hasn't been there for some considerable time.
Q Well, about how long? A It has been, I should judge, some ten or 12 years.
Q Well, how long has it been since Tecumseh has been living there?
A She has lived there to the best of my recollection, it has been that long since I seen him there.
Q Do you know where he went when he left there? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether he went to Kansas City or not?
A No, sir, I do not.
Q Well, how long has it been since Sallie has been living there?
A I don't know.
Q Has she lived there any since she and Miller married? A Yes, sir.
MR. PELLETTE: Well, how long do you think it has been since Sallie Miller lived there regularly? A Well, now, I could not say positive, it has been since she left there regularly.
Q Well, isn't it a fact that she was back and forth ever since you have known her, to the Territory and back to Kansas, would come down here a stay a while and go back to Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q That is true? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know where any of these people were in '66? '67 or '68?
A No, sir; I came to Scott in '69.
MR. DAVENPORT: And they were living there when you came?
A They was there when I came.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be made part of the record in Freedmen doubtful cases #953, #979, #980, #645, and in case of Bettie Hicks.

as a Cherokee Freedman.

TESTIMONY ON THE PART OF CHEROKEE NATION V.

Appearances:

Mr. Mellette, of Mellette & Smith, attorneys for appl't.
Mr. L.B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation,
and Mr. W.W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.
W.H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.

Q What is your age? A 48.

Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living here when the war begun? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.

Q How when did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.

Q Where did you come to? A Come to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District,
Cherokee Nation.

Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey
Creek? A About a mile and a half.

Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.

Q Well did you live there when the war begun, or how come you to go on that place? A We lived on Whitewater in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from
Dr. Polston, my father did.

Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.

Q Was there any town there at that time, near here? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over near the line that they called Honey Creek.

Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about
2 years.

Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.

Q And you left it? A Yes sir.

Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.

Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.

Q Were you acquainted with one Katie Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.

Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.

Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.

Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washbourn place at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Was there any Freedmen living on that place by that name? A No
sir.

Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.

Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 5 or 6 miles.

Q When did Dr. Polston buy that place after you bought it from him or did he ever? A He went right on the place when we left it in '66.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville Arkansas.

Q Where was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q Now do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he came from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when they,--no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washbourn place that you knew of? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. NELLETT:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 48 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1863, that right?

A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days?

A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 13 year old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q What place are you talking about as the one that ~~white~~ colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly; the brakes of Honey Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 13 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q When did you return? A In '65.

Q What time in '65? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Choctaw Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. BELL:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas on Mike Elvins' place,

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee nation in '66? A Yes sir.

FRANK M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A M. M. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of a Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 9th article of the treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokees? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I knew them in Fayetteville, Arkansas

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Eneous Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '58, spring of '58.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washbourn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q This home that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Vatie? A Yessir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Could you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there that I know of; she had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. McLESTER:

Q Mrs. Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until in '58 did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, say? A Yes sir

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Vatie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all; they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge's brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you ~~also~~ became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my present husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.
Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.
Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I last lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.
Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?
Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Why it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.
Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri, - I saw her husband.
Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.
Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.
Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; I didn't see any of his family at that time.
Q Then did you see Katie Ridge first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.
Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Watie place. That's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, I was horseback and met the wagon; I was with Stan Watie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN R. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Grove is my post-office; my name is John R. Shields; my age is 53.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A I guess not.
Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right somehow or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of these that got behind. I am not a citizen myself at all.
Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.
Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Line Road", line between the Cherokee nation and Missuri.
Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.
Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.
Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the Creek; there was no town or village there at all.
Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.
Q Who was the first man that went there? A Alex Strothers and J.P. Langrance were the first men to put up stores.
Q Was there a post-office established there? A Well they kept a post-office there in the store, in the hands of Mr. Strothers I think the post-office was handled.
Q Well the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

Q What was the place called then? A Honey Creek. did it
Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.
Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when,
I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. MELLETTE: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES N. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M.
Bell, aged 69, post-office Needmore, or Vinita, either one.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation are you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with the exception of a few intervals I have been here since '39.
Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.
Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.
Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware
District.
Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.
Q Name what they were if you can do it? A ~~His first~~ His first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rolen Ridge was the next, Herman, Encous, Andrew, Susan Washburn, Flora Polston, constituted
the family.
Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee Nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.
Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.
Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '50 sometime, that I was there.
Q That in Benton county? A In Benton County.
Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.
Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.
Q You were acquainted with Herman Ridge were you? A Yes sir.
Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?
A He was between 25 and 30; he was 25 I reckon; between that and 30.
Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '63 I believe, or
'62, in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.
Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man; had no family of his own.
Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.
Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.
Q ~~When~~ Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.
Q Do you know of his ever having a farm, location or home or happitation in the Cherokee nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.
Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes
sir.
Q They were closely related to you were they? A Yes sir.
Q By blood, friendship, social matters or what? A It is my understanding that we are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district down here near Stillwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware District.

Q That's in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q How were you there and know all about this personally; did you see that? A I saw Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family?

Q Yes. A Left the country on that account, that's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q All you know is that they were out of the Territory? A Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you now if a Mrs. Ridge, the mother of Herman Ridge, who lived in Benton County, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back and forth from where she was to their farm to keep it up? A I know nothing of that.

Q Didn't she take supplies from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville to live on? A She might have done so, but I knew nothing of that.

L. B. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. W. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell, 62 years old, Vinita.

Q Where were you born? A Well I was born in the State of Georgia I guess, Haversham County, they tell me; I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation here? A Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Adair farm in 1843 when the whole world was flooded, I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '4.

Q Do you remember the Ridge family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A Yes, I know what they called the old Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A Oh lots of times.

Q Now who lived there, occupied it? A Old Peter, -the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he killed a man there and run off and had to go to California, left there and never came back any more. Then an old man named Peter, an old slave of his that he had there, remained on the place 5 or 6 years, then it passed into the hands of Dr. Polston, who married Flora, the youngest girl of John Ridges family; they lived there until '61 probably lived there 3 or or 4 years:

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge so far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first; next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he come and joined our command, that is the confederate Army, General Watie was a kinsman of his and he joined the 2d regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, - his wife died in about 1860; his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee Nation in the conduct of these Freedmen cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. MELLETTTE: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, is op this Katie up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time ~~that you~~ there while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q How the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee Nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A ~~At Fayetteville~~ Fayetteville?

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I knew her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn who was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville? A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Ridge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went; I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the Territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Ridge family in '58? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen is he not? A He is not living now.

Q He did move back into here as a citizen after the war? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if they were not temporarily outside of the Cherokee Nation because it was unsafe for them to live in the Cherokee Nation?

Kate Ridge (sup'1) 8

okee Nation? A Well I don't know; I know they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You don't know what legal steps were taken by these people, Washbourns ~~and~~ or Polstons to re-establish their citizenship? A No sir.

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES: The testimony will be filed in Katie Ridge, Cherokee Freedman D 295, and D355 and D 586, and D 589 and D 300, D 360, D 361, D 362 and D 358.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitnair, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F. D. 438, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Dennis Hicks, .D 355;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decrees of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gild of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decrees of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Esther Holt for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

D E C I S I O N .

The record in this case shows that on June 10, 1901, Esther Holt appeared before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made personal application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Copies of the testimony taken at various times in the cases of Joshua Holt, et al., and Sallie Miller are made a part of the record herein.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Esther Holt, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during the rebellion she left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. The Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Freedmen to said Nation.

The name of said applicant is not found on the 1880 authenticated roll of said Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application of Esther Holt for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman should be denied, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Tecumseh Holt, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of

Tecumseh Holt,
William Holt,

Cherokee Freedmen D-653
Cherokee Freedmen D-694.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Tecumseh Holt for himself and by William Holt for himself. A copy of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, on June 10, 1901, in Cherokee Freedmen D-644, and a copy of the testimony of Sam Webber taken at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 26, 1901, in Cherokee Freedmen D-866, are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Tecumseh Holt, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 5, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation. The evidence further shows that the applicant, William Holt, is the son of the said Tecumseh Holt; that he was born since 1866 and has no right to enrollment except through his said father.

It does not appear that either of the applicants is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Tecumseh Holt and William Holt as Cherokee freedmen should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Moses Holt as a Cherokee Freedman.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that Moses Holt appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 21, 1901, and made application for his enrollment as a Cherokee freedman.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicant, Moses Holt, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during the rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. The Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation. The evidence further shows that the applicant returned to the Cherokee Nation temporarily about the year 1866, but that he did not establish a residence therein but went to the State of Kansas, where he has since resided. It appears from his testimony that he has voted in Kansas and otherwise exercised the rights and privileges of a citizen of that State.

It does not appear that the applicant herein is identified upon the 1860 authenticated Cherokee Roll.

It is therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Moses Holt as a Cherokee freedman should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 498),

Wagoner; by Arthur Riley for himself; by Lattie Beth Melton for herself and minor child, Elnora Melton; by Riley Curls for himself; by Riley Curls for himself and minor children, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Clarence Curls; thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission affidavit showing the birth, on February 13, 1902, of Peatatrice Curls, child of the applicant, Riley Curls; and by Ophelia Thompson for herself and minor children, Alpha, Libbie, Hirschel, Harvey and Clyde Thompson.

Copies of the following testimony, decisions, and Departmental letters are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case: Its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of May 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 3470-04), in the case of Ed Vann, C.F.D. 660; its decisions rendered by the Commission on July 10, 1903, and June 23, 1904, and of Departmental letters of May 11, and November 12, 1904 (I.T.D. 2412, 3594-04), in the cases of Jesse Vann et al., C.F.D. 254 (R 302), and Emma Purtle C.F.D. 265; its decisions rendered by the Commission on March 5, and April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letters of June 2, 23, and 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 4380, 5025-5034-04), in the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645 (R 443), Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653 (R 399), William Holt, C.F.D. 694 (R 398), and Moses Holt, C.F.D. 185; its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of June 21, 1904 (I.T.D. 4738-04); in the consolidated case of Katie Thornton et al., C.F.D. 578 et al., (R. 410-R 411-R 412-R 413-R 414); of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, June 3, 1901, its decision rendered by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letter of October 31, 1904, (I.T.D. 8138-04), in the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell, et al., including, among others, the application of Mary Riley, C.F.D. 624; of its decision rendered by the Commission on November 23, 1904, in the consolidated case of Andrew T. Watie, C.F.D. 502, et al., and of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Edward Derrick, C.F.D. 818, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, Elizabeth Peigs, et al., C.F.D. 391, Samuel Beck, et al., C.F.D. 775, David Johnson, C.F.D. 356, Abraham Ward, C.F.D. 607 (R 233), and of Peter Ward, C.F.D. 613, (R 282).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge, and one Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks Sr., D 350, infra.), both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmore, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicants, Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and to the said Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Pearl, Jesse, Myrtle and Henry C. Ridge, and Ida Jones, are children of the said applicants, Cornelius and Laura Ridge, were born since 1868, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the applicants, Joseph, Percy, Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, and William Townsend, are children of the applicant Phoebe Johnson, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother; that the applicants, Lee, Eddie, and Stella Martin and Cornelias Jones, are children of the applicant Ida Jones, were born since 1880, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said applicants Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin, possess any rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother, and the applicant Cornelias Jones, possesses no rights to enrollment other than as his mother's descendants; that the applicant Minora Vann, is a child of the applicant Ary Lynch, and the said Jesse Ridge, deceased, was born since 1880, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; that the applicant Jesse Barnett, is a child of the applicant Maud Riley, was born since 1880, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said Jesse Barnett possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said mother, and that the applicant John C. Riley, is a child of the said applicant Maud Riley, and one William Riley, (said William Riley's rights to enrollment are considered below, C. F. D. 303), was born since 1880, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said parents; that the applicant Josephine Vann, is a child of the said applicant Rosa Vann, was born since 1880, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother (in C.F.D. 560, the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 17, 1904, Departmental letter I.F.D. 3470-04, said finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant Lollie Townsend, is a daughter of one Jesse Vann, and one Rosa Purtle, was born since 1868, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (in C.F.D. 254 and 265 the Commission found that the said Jesse Vann and Rosa Purtle possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on May 11, and November 12, 1904, Departmental letters I.F.D. 2412-3594-04, said findings were approved by the Department); and that the applicants, Rosa, George and Arthur Townsend, are children of the said applicants William and Lollie Townsend, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicants Lettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Lettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, (children of One Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, supra., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation; that the applicants, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel, and Elmer Hicks, Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Paulina (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Millie Whinnett, Frank and Luella Johnson (In C.F.D. 855 the Commission found that one Charlotte Beck, mother of the applicant, Luella Johnson, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on July 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Elize and Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, and Katie Davis, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie and Susie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, Nettie Downing, deceased, and Mary Ridge, deceased, (In re Mary Ridge see preceding paragraph), and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants.

THE EVIDENCE FURTHER SHOWS: That one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased, were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria and Millie McNair, all deceased, and the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and the applicants, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Ellick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson, and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree, for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicant, Ruth Riley, is a daughter of Henry Thornton, deceased, and Patie Thornton, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 578, 580 and 581, the Commission found that the said Patie Thornton and one Maggie Curle and one Joseph Thornton, full sister and brother of the said applicant, Ruth Riley, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on June 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant, Hannah Riley, was born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, and was the slave of a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion, and that the applicants, Millie

Nathanial, Joseph, Ollie, Viola, Mabel, Elnora, Ideller, Luther D., Frank, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola, Earl E., Clarence (In C. F. D. 624, the Commission found that one Mary Riley, wife of the applicant Frank Riley, and mother of the applicants, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola and Earl E. Riley, and grandmother of the applicant, Clarence Riley, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on October 31, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Samuel, James E., Amanda, Mariah, Maggie, Calvin, Bertha, Ada and Leona Riley, Charles Wesley Miller, Fessie and Jimmie Scott, Delilah, Allie, Luman, Jesse, Alfred, Nola, Della, Ella, Harrison, Rebecca, Luford, Wilbert and Arch Johnson, Henrietta, Irvin, Harry, Roy, Dan, Effie, Tracy, Jesse and Maine Ward, Lenora Odine Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J., and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth and Elnora Melton, Julius, Riley, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Beatrice Curls, (One Nancy Curls, C.F.D. 429, who was denied enrollment by the Commission is the mother of the six last mentioned applicants), Ophelia, Alpha, Libbie, Mischel, Harvey, and Clyde Thompson, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Jerry, Jane, Ruth and Hannah Riley, Fannie Scott, Lottie Johnson, Daniel and Sandy Thompson, and Ellick and Amanda Ward, and of the said Riley McNair, deceased, Maria McNair, deceased, and Millie McNair, deceased, Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as such descendants.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the first below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any of the said applicants herein born during or subsequent to the said first below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1860, and none of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

THE EVIDENCE HEREIN FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, died prior to September 1, 1902, Affidavits to that effect are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

The applicants, Katie and Cornelius Ridge and Fneche Johnson, testify that they, together with Mary and Jesse Idge, both deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, remained a few months, and then removed to Joplin, Missouri, where they resided for a number of years. That they returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 is controverted by the testimony of witnesses who were in a position to know the matters of which they testify. In view of the fact that the burden of proof is on the applicants, and they must show by satisfactory evidence that their rights to enrollment are perfect, it is considered that these applicants have wholly failed in this, and that their applications come within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers, (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Martha Albert et al., (I.T.D. 4732-04), and Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04); and, granting that said above named parties did return to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, as contended, it is further considered that they did not establish such a residence in said Nation as was contemplated by the treaty of 1866, and are, therefore, within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales and Susan Brown (I.T.D. 1850-04), and Thomas Mayfield et al. (I.T.D. 6960-04).

The testimony in re return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, of the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, and Sallie Miller, and of the said Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, is contradictory in itself, and contradicted by the testimony of witnesses in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, hence, it is unsatisfactory, and the first above mentioned rulings of the Department are considered applicable. In this connection attention is called to the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645, Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653, William Holt, C.F.D. 694, and Moses Holt, C.F.R. 185, mother and brothers of the three applicants first named in this paragraph. The material facts as established by the evidence in the several cases embracing this family, are practically the same, and the Commission found that the said Esther, Tecumseh, William and Moses Holt, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and its findings were duly approved by the Department. Granting that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and the said Buck Bushyhead and Nettie Downing, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the interval between the close of the rebellion and February 11, 1867, they must have remained but a short time, as, by the testimony of the applicants themselves, and that of disinterested witnesses, it is shown that during a period beginning immediately subsequent to the year 1867, they, for a number of years, continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, consequently, the ruling of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales, Susan Brown and Thomas Mayfield, et al., supra., is also applicable to them.

Sam Webber, Lewis Whitmire, and Daniel and Reuben Sanders, testify that Anderson Johnson returned to the Cherokee Nation with them in the summer of 1866, but for reasons more fully set out below, it is not considered that their testimony is either convincing or satisfactory. That these four witnesses complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, there is no doubt. They were admitted to citizenship by the Chambers Court, and are identified on the 1880 roll. Without calling attention to the many cases in which the above named witnesses have been successfully contradicted and repeatedly impeached, it is considered by this office, that, after hearing the testimony of numerous witnesses, interested and disinterested, and after the examination of many exhibits filed and made a part of the record in freedman cases, it can identify each and every member of the party of freedmen known as the Webber-Whitmire-Sanders detachment, or colony, who complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, and it is fully convinced that Anderson Johnson was not a member of that party. In support of this position attention is called to the fact that the personnel of the above mentioned party was thoroughly gone into by the Chambers Court, in 1878-9, and numerous witnesses, among others, the said Lewis Whitmire, examined on behalf of both parties, and that, too, at a time when the facts must have been fresh in their minds, and no particular advantage was to be had by misrepresenting who were included in said party, with one accord testify as to who composed this colony of freedmen, and the said Anderson Johnson is never named as one of them. By reason of changed conditions, the experience of the former Commission and of this office, in their investigations relative to the personnel of said colony of freedmen, has been somewhat different from that of the Chambers Court, but generally the conclusions reached have been the same. It seems to have been the policy of those witnesses, appearing before the Commission, who were members of the above mentioned colony of freedmen, to add to said colony as occasion required, but after an examination of a great number of freedmen cases in which the above named witnesses testified, it cannot be found that they ever included Anderson Johnson as a member of this colony, until they were called upon as witnesses in behalf of his descendants, although they were often asked to, and as often did, name those who returned with them in 1866.

As to the return of Riley McNair, deceased, to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion: Moses Hardrick, in behalf of the descendants of the said Riley McNair, testifies that, after the rebellion, he and Riley McNair returned to the Cherokee Nation together. In C.F.D. 314, the Commission found that the said Moses Hardrick did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on October 13, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. It was several months after the above indicated trip before Riley McNair moved his wife and family to the Cherokee Nation. One Emma Purtle, daughter of the said Riley and Maria McNair, removed from the Cherokee Nation during, and returned thereto after, the rebellion, with her father's family. In C.F.D. 265, the Commission found that the said Emma Purtle did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 12, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. The said Columbus Rogers, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, with the said McNair family.

The applicant, Jane Riley, testifies that she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, and is corroborated by her witness, Jack Landrum. No credit can be given the testimony of the said Jack Landrum, as he has been repeatedly contradicted and impeached, (See, in particular, C. F. D. 498-D 664 and D 863). In C. F. D. 578 ( R 410 ), he swore, point blank, that Katie Thornton, applicant therein, and her husband, Henry Thornton, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the winter of 1866, and that he hauled logs to help build their house. In this case it was conclusively shown by the testimony of disinterested witnesses, that the said Katie and Henry Thornton did not leave Garnett, Kansas, after the rebellion, prior to March 1, 1871, and on this testimony the Commission denied the applicant, Katie Thornton, the right to enrollment, and its action was duly approved by the Department. Attention is further called to the fact that the said applicant, Jane Riley, and one Ben Landrum, deceased, are the parents of the applicants Charles Landrum and Bettie McIntosh, and that the said two last named applicants were born in 1866 and 1868, respectively. It is shown by the testimony of several disinterested witnesses, and a certified copy of the record of certain proceedings had before the District Court of Woodson County, Kansas, that the said Ben Landrum, continuously lived near Garnett, Kansas, during the years 1866, '67 and '68.

The applicant Daniel Thompson, testifies that on his return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, he found his son, Andrew Watie, at Fort Gibson. In C. F. D. 562, the Commission found that the said Andrew Watie did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitaire decree. The applicants Sandy Thompson and Amanda Ward, returned with their father, the said Daniel Thompson.

In connection with those applicants herein who claim through Jess Ridge, deceased, and the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Henry Ridge, Daniel Thompson, and Robert Foster, attention is called to the fact that the Commission on Cherokee Citizenship of 1892-9, decided that the said Jess Ridge, since deceased, and the four applicants last above named, were not entitled to Cherokee citizenship, a certified copy of the proceedings of said Commission in re above named parties, being filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The applicant, Elick Ward, swears that he was raised by one Peter Ward, and after the rebellion returned to the Cherokee Nation with the said Peter Ward and one Abraham Ward. In C. F. D. 122 ( R 262 ), and D 307 ( R 283 ), the Commission found that the said Peter and Abraham Ward did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitaire decree, and on April 29, 1904, its findings were approved by the Department.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I. T. D. 5643, 11776-04), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, Ay Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, and Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe (Milton) Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, and Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Farnett and John C. Riley, Rosa Vann and Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Hollie Townsend, Rosa Townsend, George Townsend, and Arthur Townsend, Nettie Hicks, Percy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks and Elmer Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Reeson, Ella Reeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Nellie Miller, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson and Luella Johnson, Eliza Hawkins and Tyndie L. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, Katie Davis, Moses Riley, Lillie Riley, Andrew Riley, Nathaniel Riley, Jesse Riley, Joseph Riley, Ollie Riley, Viola Riley, Mabel Riley, Elnora Riley, Ideller Riley, Luther D. Riley, Frank Riley, Lottie Riley, Fannie Riley, James Riley, Ralph Riley, Arizona Riley, Inola Riley, Earl E. Riley, Clarence Riley, Jerry Riley, Samuel Riley, James E. Riley, Amanda Riley, Mariah Riley, Maggie Riley, Calvin Riley, Bertha Riley, Ada Riley, and Leona Riley, Fannie Scott, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie Scott, and Jimmie Scott, Delilah Johnson, Allie Johnson, Luman Johnson, Jesse Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Nola Johnson, Della Johnson, Ella Johnson, Harrison Johnson, Lottie Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Luford Johnson, Wilbert Johnson and Arch Johnson, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick Ward, Amanda Ward, Henrietta Ward, Irvin Ward, Harry Ward, Roy Ward, Dan Ward, Effie Ward, Troy Ward, Jesse Ward and Paine Ward, Sandy Thompson, Ruth Riley, Lenora Odine Riley, and Hannah Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J. Wagner and Oval Wagner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth Melton and Elnora Melton, Julius Curls, Riley Curls, Willie Curls, Edward Curls, James Curls, George Curls, Stephenia Curls and Beatrice Curls, Ophelia Thompson, Alpha Thompson, Libbie Thompson, Hirschel Thompson, Harvey Thompson and Clyde Thompson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the applications for the enrollment of Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, and the same are, hereby dismissed, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716).

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Katie Ridge for herself; by Cornelius Ridge for himself, and children, Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge, and his wife, Laura Ridge as a citizen by intermarriage; by Phoebe Johnson for herself and minor children, Joseph, Percy Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton; by Henry C. Ridge for himself; by Ida Jones for herself and minor children, Lee Eddie and Stella Martin. Thereafter, on June 27, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on June 3, 1902, of Cornelius Jones, child of the applicant, Ida Jones; by Charles J. Lynch for, among others, his wife, Ary Lynch, as a citizen by intermarriage. The others included in said application have been heretofore disposed of, and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Walter Vann for, among others, his wife, Elnora Vann; the others included in said application have been otherwise disposed of and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Maud Riley for herself and minor child, Jesse Barnett. Thereafter, on April 9, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on October 26, 1901, of John C. Riley, child of the applicant, Maud Riley; by Rosa Vann for her self and minor child Josephine Vann; by William Townsend for himself; by Dennis Hicks Sr., for himself, by intermarriage, and his wife Bettie Hicks and minor children, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks; by Eliza Hawkins for herself and minor child, Tyndle E. Hawkins; by Joseph Hicks for himself and wife Susie Hicks (by intermarriage), and minor child, Otto A. Hicks; by Katie Hicks for herself; by James A. Hicks for himself; by Joshua Holt for himself and wife, Jane Holt, and minor stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beeson, and minor children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucella (Marcellia) Holt; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Ruth Chinnett for herself and minor children, Martha, and Lillie Chinnett; subsequent to filing her application herein and prior to September 1, 1902, the applicant Ruth Chinnett was married to one George Vann, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Ruth Vann; by Frank Johnson for himself. Thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on February 7, 1902, of Luella Johnson, child of the applicant Frank Johnson; and by Frances Johnson for herself and minor children, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson.

The records of this office further show that on October 13, 1905, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision herein, denying, among others, all of said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen and citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, which decision was duly forwarded to the Department, and that, thereafter, on July 9, 1906 (I.T.D. 17884-1905), motions having been filed with the Department for a rehearing of this case, the same was remanded to the Commissioner for rehearing and readjudication, the Department stating that it "considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under Article 9 of the treaty of 1866."

In accordance with this direction the Commissioner consolidated the following cases, and further proceedings were had therein at Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 14, 1906; Katie Ridge, D 295; Cornelius Ridge et al. D 586; Phoebe Johnson et al. D 589; Henry C. Ridge D 638; Ida Jones et al. D 647; Ary

Although the principal applicants included herein other than the applicants in the above mentioned consolidated case, and their attorneys, have several times been notified by letter and in person, of the Department's action in remanding their cases for rehearing, and to submit such evidence as they desired to present in their behalf, they have failed to do so. Their right to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen will therefore be adjudicated in this decision.

THE EIV DINCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge and one Mary Ridge, both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion and did not return thereto and establish an actual, personal, bona fide residence therein as provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat. 137); that the applicants Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than by reason of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and the said Jesse Ridge deceased, and the applicant Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge and Joseph, Percy Herbert, Serena, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida and Cornelius Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann ( In C. F. D. 660 the Commission found that on Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedmen, and on May 7, 1904-I.T.D. 3470-1904 said finding was approved by the Department), William Townsend, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks, (Their father, Dennis Hicks, case D. 350 infra?) Eliza and Tyndle E. Hawkins Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, were born since 1866 and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen except as descendants of the said Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of Jesse Hicks and May Ridge (Hicks) deceased.

After ample opportunity afforded the applicants, Lee Eddie and Stella Martin and Jesse Barnett, it is not shown by satisfactory evidence that they possess any right to enrollment other than as descendants of their mothers, that said Ida Jones and Maud. The minor applicant John C. Riley is a child of William Riley, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was rejected by the Commissioner on February 27, 1907, and the applicant herein, Maud Riley, and possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman other than as a descendant of his said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicant, Dennis Hicks Sr., neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than by virtue of his marriage to the applicant, Bettie Hicks; that the applicants Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Anderson Johnson, deceased were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906; that the applicants Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson ( In C. F. D. 853 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, on April 22, 1905, that Rebecca Webber, mother of Frank Johnson, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedmen and its finding was approved by the Department June 25, 1906- I.T.D. 7712-8846-1906), and Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, were born since the war of the rebellion; are descendants of the applicants Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie Hicks and Joshua Holt, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants. The applicant Luella Johnson, is a child of the said Frank Johnson and Charlotte Johnson, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedmen was denied by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on July 21, 1904 and its action affirmed by the Department September 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7192-7993-1904). No one of the applicants herein nor any ancestor through whom they claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I.T. D. 5848-11776-1904), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr. Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucelia (Marcelia)

Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillir Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

cision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 ( I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1868, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father the said Cornelius Ridge had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman

October 13, 1905, the Commissioner decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Jesse Ridge, deceased, and Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks, Sr), deceased; that they were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation, during the War, and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that the applicants, Laura Ridge, and Amy Lynch neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than those obtained by marriage to the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants Dennis Hicks, Sr., and Susie Hicks neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than by virtue of their marriage to Bettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller (children of one Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion; were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the War, and did not return on or before February 11, 1867; that one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lettie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria, and Millie McNair, all deceased, and Moses, Andrew, Jesse, and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that all the other applicants were born since 1866, are descendants of the foregoing and possess no rights to enrollment except as such descendants, or have failed after ample opportunity afforded to establish such a right. None is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll, or the Cherokee census roll of 1896, nor can an ancestor be so identified.

There is also enclosed a letter from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitting a motion in behalf of the applicants and three communications from G. P. Fogle enclosing motions in their behalf which have been carefully considered.

In view of the record the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

July 9, 1906.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On October 13, 1905, you transmitted the record, together with your decision of the same date, in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of Katie Ridge et al. (Cherokee freedmen D. 295). Said decision was adverse to all the applicants.

Reporting December 22, 1905, the Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The attorneys for the applicants have filed a number of motions and briefs in this case, and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation has filed his answer.

A consideration of these motions, together with the record, leads the Department to the opinion that the case should be remanded for a further hearing.

The Department considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which

It is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under article 9 of the treaty of 1866, being first those persons and their descendants who returned from the neighborhood of Joplin, Mo.; second, those who returned from near Fort Scott, Kans., and third, those who returned from Garnett, Kans.

Having divided this case along the lines indicated, you will permit the attorneys for the applicants and for the nation to submit such proper evidence as they may see fit regarding the rights of these applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

The record is returned.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

Vinita, I.T. Aug. 11, 1906

The Honorable,

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith find request from Sallie Miller and Anna Peterson for us to represent them in the matter of their application for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen together with the applications of Esther Owens, F. D. 979 and Howard Bushyhead, F.D. 980 who belong to the same family. We also represent the other daughter of Sallie Miller whose name is Katie Davis, F.D. 953 and we will send in an authority from her next week as we have done in the other cases.

These cases are really independent cases of their own all depending practically upon the return of Sallie Miller and her husband Buck Bushyhead to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war of the rebellion. It is contended by the principal applicant, Sallie Miller, that she and her former husband, Buck Bushyhead were living together as husband and wife in Ft. Gibson in the late fall of 1865 and that they continued to live there for a number of years when they went to Big Creek and improved a farm. It is claimed in the cases of the Holts that they came to the Cherokee Nation in 1866. We have your letter of Aug. 6, 1906 addressed to Blue and Bulger, Attorneys for Joshua Holt, at Baxter Springs, Kansas and we notice that the Sallie Miller case is consolidated with the case of Dennis Hicks, et al., F.D. 355 and we note that there is also a part of the Ridge case consolidated with this Dennis Hicks case. We represent all of the Ridges and all of the Holts and a part of the Hicks that belongs to the Ridge case and we will have each of them to sign a statement to file with you as we have in the Sallie Miller case showing that we represent them. We desire to know if the Sallie Miller case could be tried to itself. It is as follows:-

F D 648, Sallie Miller,

F. D. 979 Annie Butler (now Peterson and Daughter Esther Owens,

F.D. 980 Howard Bushyhead,

F. D. 953, Katie Davis.

These cases could be consolidated with the applications for the enrollment of Sallie Miller and we earnestly request that we be granted separate trial in these cases. If we could try this case separately from the others we would be ready for trial at once. The testimony in this case would not apply to any other case in the list as we know of.

Wherefore we earnestly request that Sallie Miller and her descendants as above indicated be given a separate trial.

You request that the Cherokee freedmen cases of Sallie Miller, Anna Peterson, et al, Howard Bushyhead and Katie Davis, be consolidated and heard separate from the Cherokee freedman case of Dennis Hicks, et al, with which they are at present consolidated.

In reply you are advised that you have been entered as attorneys of record for said applicants. Upon an examination of the record had in the Cherokee freedman case of Sallie Miller, et al, it is not desired at this time to separate them from the consolidated case of Dennis Hicks, et al.

Gentlemen:

This office is in receipt of your letter of November 7, 1906, submitting a list of the names and addresses of the witnesses you expect to introduce on behalf of applicants, in the Cherokee freedmen cases of Sallie Miller, Anna Butler, et al., Howard Bushyhead and Katie Davis. You have heretofore requested that these cases be consolidated, and that they be heard separate from the freedmen consolidated cases of Dennis Hicks, et al., and you were advised by this office September 1, 1906, that it was not at that time desired to separate the cases.

Anna Butler and Howard Bushyhead are children of said Sallie Miller, and Katie Davis is a grand-daughter of Sallie Miller. Upon a further examination of the record in the case of Sallie Miller, it is found that she was born prior to the war of the rebellion, and that she did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the war at the same time the principal applicants in the case of Dennis Hicks, et al., claim to have returned.

It is hereby ordered that the cases of Sallie Miller, Anna Butler, et al., Howard Bushyhead and Katie Davis be separated from the consolidated case of Dennis Hicks, et al., and that they be consolidated and heard separate from said case. The applicants will be permitted to appear before the office of the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock A. Dear Sir:

On August 6, 1906, you were advised that your Cherokee freedman case had been remanded to this office for rehearing and readjudication on July 9, 1906, and that your Attorney had been requested to advise this office at the earliest practicable date of the names and addresses of the witnesses he proposed to introduce on your behalf, and that upon receipt of such information your case would be set for a hearing.

This office has not been advised of the names of such witnesses and you are requested to advise this office by return mail whether you are represented by an Attorney at this time. Before your case will be set for a hearing it will be necessary that this office be advised of the names and addresses of the witnesses you expect to introduce on your behalf, after which the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation will be notified thereof, and a day set for hearing the case, of which all parties at interest will be advised.

Hon. William M. Mellette,
United States District Attorney,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your recent conversation with this office relative to submitting a list of the names and addresses of the witnesses proposed to be introduced on behalf of applicants in the Cherokee freedmen cases of Dennis Hicks et al., at which time you stated that you did not then desire to be entered as attorney in the cases but that you would advise this office later as to whether or not you desired to be entered as attorney, and as to submitting a list of the witnesses, your attention is called to the following provision of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137):

"That the rolls of the tribes affected by this Act shall be fully completed on or before the fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and seven, and the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person after said date."

You will see from this provision that it is of the utmost importance that the case be heard at the earliest practicable date, in order that their names can be placed upon the Cherokee freedman roll, if it is found they are entitled to enrollment.

It is therefore requested that you advise this office, if practicable, by return mail as to whether or not you desire to be entered as attorney in the case, and if so, to see that the case is tried at the earliest practicable date.

Respectfully,

Dennis Hicks,

Vinita, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In your letter of December 1, 1906, you submitted the names and addresses of certain witnesses you desire to introduce on your behalf in your Cherokee freedman case.

Since the receipt of your letter, Mr. Mellette, Attorney at Law, of Muskogee, Indian Territory, has called at this office and stated that he was in receipt of a letter from you asking that he appear as your attorney. Mr. Mellette informed this office that he would advise it later as to whether or not he desired his name entered as attorney in the case, and relative to the case being heard. A letter has this day been addressed to Mr. Mellette asking whether or not he desires to be entered as your attorney, and his attention is called to the law relative to the placing of names on the Cherokee freedman roll, and his immediate attention to the case, if he desires to accept it, has been urged.

If it should be found that you are entitled to enrollment it is extremely important to you, and to the other applicants in the case with which yours has been consolidated, that the case be heard at the earliest practicable date, and your immediate attention is directed to the matter. The other applicants in the case whose names are known to you should also see that the case is tried at the earliest practicable date. You have heretofore been advised fully as to the status of your case and as to the rules in reference to hearing Cherokee freedmen cases.

Respectfully,

There is enclosed herewith a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 28, 1907, rejecting the application for the enrollment of Katie Ridge, et al., as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. You have heretofore been furnished with a copy of the record of proceedings had in the case.

The decision, together with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Enc I-37

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Sr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelius Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Rownsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucelia (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedmen, together with the decision of the Commissioner, dated February 28, 1907, rejecting said application.

Secretary--2

In Connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 586, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman was based upon the theory that her father, the said Cornelius Ridge, had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

Secretary--3

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman citizenship, the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee freedman 1429, formerly Cherokee freedman D 219, be reopened, and the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee freedman citizenship, be reversed.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On March 4, 1907 (Land 21941-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated February 28, 1907, relative to proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrolment of Laura (Katie) Ridge, et al., together with your decision of the same date rejecting the application.

The Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department considers said decision correct and it is hereby affirmed.

In connection herewith you call attention to one Laura Daniels, a party applicant in this case, who appears on a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907. You report that she was enrolled and that her enrolment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrolment in the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman." You state that this is an error and you recommend that if the Department affirm your decision as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee citizenship that the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., be reopened and that the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee freedmanship, be reversed.

In accordance with your recommendation the Department rescinds its decision and reverses your decision in the case of Enoch Daniels in so far as said decisions apply to the enrollment of Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, and her name is canceled from the roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907, as of this date.

Your office and the Indian Office are requested to make your records conform to this action.

The papers in the case, together with a carbon copy hereof, have been sent to the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

Jesse E. Wilson,

Acting Secretary.

WASHINGTON.

LAND
21941-1907

March 4, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated February 28, 1907, relative to applications for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Sr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elmera Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks, Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Elise Hawkins, Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedmen, together with the decision of the Commissioner of February 28, 1907, rejecting the applications.

The Office has examined the record in this case and finds the conclusions of the Commissioner to be correct, and recommends that his decision be approved.

In connection herewith the Commissioner invites attention to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, wherein the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-1904), found that one Laura Daniels (nee Ridge), daughter of Cornelius Ridge, a party applicant herein, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Department on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

Mr. Bixby now reports that Laura Daniels was born since 1866 and that her right to enrollment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrollment by the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman."

This being an error, as indicated by the case herewith transmitted, the Commissioner now recommends that the Department reverse its decision in the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., so far as it relates to Laura Daniels, and that her name be stricken from the roll.

The Office concurs in this recommendation.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman; he being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name. A Walker Johnson.
Q How old are you? A Something over 57 years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Locust Grove.
Q In what district do you live? A Saline.
Q Do you want to ~~be~~ be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Who is it you want to enroll besides yourself? Have you a wife?
A My wife is already enrolled; she is a Cherokee woman.
Q Have all the family been enrolled except you? A Yes sir.
Q You just apply for yourself? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q To whom did you belong before the war and at the time of the war?
A George Johnson.
Q Was he a recognized Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir, he was a Cherokee.
Q Give me the name of your father. A Reuben Johnson.
Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother. A Mary.
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll examined and the name of the applicant not found thereon.

- Q You are not on the roll of 1880, why is that? A I don't know, sir.
Q Have you always been recognized as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir, and held an office and got permission from National Council.
Q From National Council about what? A To hold an office.
Q Did you ever apply to the National Council for admission as a Cherokee citizen? A Yes.
Q You say you did apply to the National Council to be admitted as a Cherokee citizen? A When they give me that permission I asked the Chief who was Joel Mayes; he said I was a natural citizen.
Q Have you a copy to that effect? A I turned it in before Mr. Hastings at the time of the other roll.
Q What, the Kerns Clifton Roll? A Yes sir.
Q When was it you claim to have gotten some document of that kind?
A I got it the last - I don't remember what year it was; it was in Joel Mayes' time.
Q About how long ago? A It was before the strip was sold.

The 1896 census roll examined and the name of the applicant not found thereon.

The Kerns Clifton Roll examined and the name of the applicant is found on page 148, No. 3668, Walker Johnson, ~~Cherokee~~ District.

The Wallace Roll examined and the name of the applicant is found on page 120, No. 2521, Walker Johnson, District not given.

- Q Who is there here who knows that you ought to be enrolled. Is there anybody that knew you at the time of the war? A Jim Alberty and Al Lynch.
Q Where were you during the war? A I was pretty much around Gibson, and I went to Kansas a while and come back.
Q You were in Kansas a while during the war? A Yes sir, a while.
Q About when did you go up there? A Along in the war time.
Q ~~At the~~ the close of the war? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay in Kansas? A I stayed there four or five months, and then I come back, and I was hired to man, driving team and I would go backward and forward.
Q Give me some account of yourself in coming back from Kansas; when did you come back from Kansas? A In '86.

2- W. J.

Q What time in '86? A Just naturally up to what time, I don't know no date that time, I didn't have any.

Q What time of the year was it you got back? A I come down in the fall.

Q Where did you come to when you came back in the fall of '86? A I come up here; first stopped in the Rowe settlement for a while.

Q Where is that Rowe settlement, do you mean Rose postoffice. I am talking about this settlement you came to first. I want to locate where it is. What settlement is that you are talking about? A It is up here, the edge of Delaware.

Q Who lives in the neighborhood and what do you call the neighborhood? A Arch Landrum lives in that neighborhood.

Q Did he live there when you came in '86? A He was around in through there, and I stopped with Lewis Rowe in that same neighborhood.

Q And who else was living there when you came? A Lewis Rowe's father then.

Q What was his name? A Old man Jesse.

Q So Arch Landrum lived there then? A Yes sir.

Q And Lewis Rowe and his father Jesse? A Yes sir.

Q They were there when you came back from Kansas? A They were there, yes sir.

Q How long did you stay there? A I stayed there a couple of weeks.

Q Well then, what did you do? A I went on further down and I stopped with a Cherokee man by the name of Saturday Vann.

Q Where did he live? A He lives between three or four miles near the Orphan Asylum, this side.

Q How long did you stay down there? A Off and on down there for two or three months.

Q And then what did you do? A Well, I worked around here a little bit and then I went away from there.

Q Where did you go? A I went down to the mouth of the Verdigris.

Q And what did you do down there? A I run the ferry boat then.

Q How long did you stay there? A I stayed there seven or eight months or longer.

Q And then what did you do? A I ~~*****~~ would go back over there and in the Creek Nation running around over through there.

Q How long did you run around over the Creek Nation? A Run around a week or two, and then go to work.

Q Where would you work? A At Mrs. Brady's.

Q Around about that ferry? A Yes sir.

Q What was her full name? A Mrs. Laid Brady.

Q Did you then ever settle down and live steady at any one place? A I settled down and lived here in Saline District.

Q Where were you in 1880 when that 1880 roll was made? A I was living in Saline District then.

Q Why were you not put on that roll? A I don't know; my wife drew in the '80 roll; she drew money for both of us.

Q I am talking about you? A I don't know why they didn't put me on.

Q Did you apply to be put on the roll then? A No, I don't think any of us did. I was just living here in Saline District.

Q Didn't you go to be put on the roll? A There was no call for us colored to go to be put on the roll. I went to Tahlequah a time or two.

Q I am talking about the roll of 1880. I want to find out why you aint on that roll? A I don't know, sir.

Q What have you been doing since 1880? A Still working around from '80, in Saline District.

Q Ever since '80? A Yes sir, have a good farm and me and my old woman been living together for 35 years.

Q What is your wife's name? A Patsy.

Q She has been enrolled? A She was enrolled at Pryor Creek.

Q She is a Cherokee, is she? A Yes sir.

Q When you married her, did you get out a Cherokee license? A Yes sir, paid for it.

Q Where is it? A I just went to the judge and he married us, and I paid him the money and I suppose he registered it.

3- W. J.

- Q You didn't speak to anybody but the judge? A I went to the judge and his wife and his daughter was witness there.
Q Did you have any dealings with the Clerk before you went to the judge? A No sir.
Q The judge just married you and you didn't get out a license?
A No sir, the judge married us.
Q But you didn't get any license from the Clerk? A No sir.

Jim Alberty, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C.R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name. A Jim Alberty.
Q How old are you? A Seventy years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Chouteau.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All that time, I have told you.
Q All your life substantially? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know the applicant here Walker Johnson? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Ever since we were both boys.
Q Who did he belong to before the war? A William Vann, is the man he belonged to when I was with him.
Q Did he belong to William Vann at the time the war broke out?
A Yes sir.
Q Did you live in the same neighborhood? A No sir.
Q How far did you live from him? A I lived quite a distance from where he did.
Q About how far? A Forty or fifty miles, I reckon.
Q How did you happen to know anything about him? A I used to go there every fall and go there horse training.
Q He was there on William Vann's place? A He was there; I don't know whether he was exactly on William Vann's place or not.
Q He belonged to William Vann? A Yes sir.
Q How do you know that? A He had been with him a long time; the last time I saw him he was at William Vann's.
Q Was that the time the war broke out? A About that time.
Q Did you see anything of him during the war? A No sir.
Q Not while the war was going on? A No sir.
Q What about after the war, did you know about him? A I saw him running Mrs. Brady ferry in 1866. I crossed there several times.
Q The first you saw him after the war was when he was running Mrs. Brady's ferry across the Verdigris? A Yes sir, right where the rivers come together there.
Q Do you know anything of him since that time? A Yes sir.
Q What do you know about him? A The next time I saw him was on Grand River at Lewis Rowe's.
Q Well, when was that? A I don't know; a year or two after I saw him at the ferry; maybe longer; it may have been two or three years, I don't know how long.
Q Have you seen anything of him since that time down until now?
A Yes sir.
Q What have you seen of him? A I saw him at the election when he run for Grand Council, and they elected him; I voted for him at that time.
Q Do you mean the Cherokee Council at Tahlequah? A Yes sir.
Q About when was that? A I don't know what year.
Q About how long ago? A That has been a great while ago; I couldn't tell. It has been ten years or more.
Q Have you been living in his neighborhood of late years? A Yes sir, and living there now.
Q How long has he been living in your neighborhood? A I don't suppose less than ten years, I reckon.
Q And what is your postoffice? A Chouteau.
Q Do you know anything about Walker Johnson having been over in the Creek Nation? A No sir, I do not.
W. W. Hastings: Mr. Alberty, what time did you see him at that ferry - what time of the year? A I think it was in the fall as well as I can recollect.
Q You don't recollect what month? A No sir.
Q Did you just see him the one time? A I crossed there several times.
Q Where were you going? A Sometimes to Muskogee and then coming back.

Q That was in '66? A Yes sir.

Q He was running a ferry there, was he? A Yes sir, he was running a ferry.

Q Across what stream? A The Arkansas and Verdigris all run together.

Q Right below the mouth? A Yes sir.

Q Just west of Fort Gibson? A Yes sir, west of Fort Gibson.

Q You were going backwards and forwards from Fort Gibson to Muskogee? A From up home where I lived at the old Markham place to Muskogee.

Q That is when you saw him in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir.

Q Who did you trade with over in Muskogee then? A Just any where; I didn't take any particular notice.

Q Don't you remember anybody in particular? A No sir.

Q That is what you were doing trading backward and forward over in Muskogee, weren't you? A No.

Q You did trade some? A I bought myself some little tobacco, but I don't know.

Q Who would you buy tobacco of at that time? A I suppose it must have been Josh Ross, the most of the time; I was acquainted with him. I don't know positive, but I guess it must have been him.

Q Do you remember anybody else that had a store there at that time?

A No sir, I don't know exactly.

Q How large a place was Muskogee at that time, about how many?

A I couldn't tell they.

Q One hundred or two hundred? A I can't say that for I don't know.

Q Well there were a number of stores; three or four? A There may have been three or four stores.

Q You don't recall the name of anymore? A No sir, I don't know.

Commissioner of Applicant: Where did you say you are living now, in what neighborhood? A In Saline District just below the Orphan Asylum.

Q How long have you been living there? A I have been living there in Saline District for over twenty years. Me and my old woman have been married nearly 23 or three years.

Q And you have been living near the Orphan Asylum? A Yes sir, right below there right on the river all the time.

Q What is the name of that man you spoke of, Saturday Vann? A Yes sir.

Q How far did he live from the Orphan Asylum? A About three or four miles up the river.

Q Is he still living? A No sir.

Q Are you living now in the neighborhood where he did live? A Pretty much.

Q About how far from the place where he lived when you went to his house after the war? A I suppose it is about four miles from where I live or more now to his old place.

Q Where does Jesse Rowe live? A He lives up here on the river.

Q Jesse Rowe and Lewis Rowe were they brothers? A He was the old man's son.

Q Jesse is the son of Lewis? A Lewis is the son of Jesse.

Q How far did they live from this Orphan Asylum neighborhood where you live? A I am living near the Orphan Asylum. It is about 20 miles. It is about 15 and 16 miles from there up to the Bynah settlement, and I suppose it is called about eight miles to where these men live that you are speaking of, as near as I can get at it.

Q So they live some 25 miles miles or such a matter from this Saturday Vann and this Orphan Asylum neighborhood where you are living? A I ~~didn't~~ gave it to you as near as I can; yes sir, about that.

Q Are there any Rowe's living down about the Orphan Asylum now? A No sir.

Q And in this neighborhood where you are living now is the same neighborhood that you went to just after the war when you met Saturday Vann? A Right up here and then I went in there, down —

Q I am not talking about that perhaps. You told me that when you left Arch Landrum and Jesse Rowe's neighborhood, you went to the

5- W) J.

Orphan Asylum neighborhood where Saturday Vann lived? A Yes sir.

Q You are living in that same neighborhood? A Yes sir.

Q And been living there for some twenty years? A Yes sir.

Q Is there any white people by the name of Rowe living there?

A Gull Rowe, Napoleon Rowe; these are all Cherokees.

Q Are there any Jesse Rowe's living there? A No sir.

Q How far does Jim Alberty live from you, and from where you have been living for twenty years? A He lives in the lower end of my neighborhood.

The applicant is identified on the Wallace Roll and the Kerns Clifton Roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or 1898. He states that he came back to the Cherokee Nation from Kansas in the fall of 1866, and settled in what is known as the Arch Landrum and Lewis Rowe and Jesse Rowe neighborhood, and stayed there some two weeks, and then went to the neighborhood of the Orphan Asylum in Saline District, and stayed there two or three months and then went to the mouth of the Verdigris and did a ferry business for a Mrs. Laid Brady. His subsequent life appears to have been passed in the Indian Territory, and substantially in the Cherokee Nation, except an indefinite period some twenty years, or such a matter ago, in the Creek Nation, but he states he was in the Cherokee Nation twenty years ago at the time the roll of 1880 was made. His witness, Jim Alberty, claims in the face of this testimony to have met the applicant at the ferry alluded to on the Verdigris River in the fall of 1866, and further states that at that said time he was on his way to trade at Muskogee, which is described as being a town of some population and business at that time. The applicant will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. For the further consideration of the testimony as stated, and for inquiry as to the time when the town of Muskogee was established or possessed any population at all; it being definitely stated by the applicant's witness as indicated that that was a town of considerable population and business at the time he first met the applicant after the war. It should be borne in mind, however, that the applicant claims to have made trips to the Creek Nation after he first worked at the Brady Ferry, and to have returned to work at the Brady Ferry at subsequent times. When the final decision of the Commission is reached in this case, it will be made known to the applicant at his postoffice address.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of May, 1901.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Vinita, I. T., May 31, 1901.

Supplemental testimony in the matter of the application of Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

(Isaac P. Bledsoe, Agent for Applicant, and W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative, present.)

Patsy Johnson, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C.R. Brackinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name. A Patsy Johnson.
Q How old are you? A I can't exactly tell how old I am; they did say I was sixty the last time I was put on the roll.
Q You are about 64 or 5? A Yes sir; I come from the old nation.
Q What is your postoffice? A Locust Grove.
Q In what district do you live? A Saline.
Q Do you want to give some testimony in the case of Walker Johnson?
A Yes sir, a few words.
I. P. Bledsoe: Do you know Walker Johnson? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known Walker Johnson? A Well, I have known him for - we have been married for 23 years and I knowed him three years before we were married.
Q Where has Walker Johnson resided since you have known him? A Right down on to Saline; backward and forwards right around the neighbors there. His ma used to work and stayed around Saturday Vann's and worked for those merchants.
Q Did you know Walker Johnson before the war? A Well, I knowed him directly after peace was declared.
Q In what year did you know him? A I can't tell you that.
Q You don't know whether you saw him in '66 or not? A I haven't got any learning at all.
Q What relation are you to Walker Johnson. Are you married to him?
A I am married to him.
Q When did you marry him? A I can't tell you that; it has been 23 years ago since me and him married.
Q Were you married according to Cherokee law? A We were married by the law.
Q Who married you? A The Judge.
Q A Cherokee Judge? A Yes sir, a Cherokee Judge at that time.
Q Have you got a certificate of your marriage? A No sir, they never issued any at that time.
Q Do you know whether Walker Johnson ever was elected to any office by the Cherokee authorities or not? A

W. W. Hastings, Cherokee representative, objects to that as the records will show that.

I. P. Bledsoe: The records are in the custody of the Cherokee authorities and we would like to have everything we can in evidence.

Commissioner: The objection is overruled and question permitted to go in the record.

- Q Do you know whether Walker Johnson was ever elected to office or not by the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Q Did he serve in that official capacity? A Yes sir.
Q Did they allow anyone at that time, any but Cherokee citizens to vote or hold office? A They allowed to hold but one office, and they were allowed to hold that.
Q Was anybody but Cherokees allowed to vote at that time - did they allow people from the states, non citizens, to vote? A No sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Are you upon any roll. What roll are you on? A On the '80 roll.
Commissioner: What office did Walker Johnson hold? A Grand Council.
Q What year was that? A It was the time Judge Hayes was Chief.

This is to Mr. Bledsoe: If you want to establish that Walker Johnson held that office, it will be well for you to get official evidence of that fact from Tahlequah. They doubtless have a record of the members of the Council.

2- W. J.

W. W. Hastings: You have known Walker Johnson for about 23 years I believe? A I have known him longer than that; we have been married that long.

Q Where did you first see him? A I first seen Walker Johnson right where John Price used to have his store right on the river; he used to work for him, Jack Riley, and all of them; he used to work for them.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I stayed home until I couldn't stay, and I went to Neosho.

Q Who did you go with? A With the soldiers.

Q Who did you come back with? A With the Company.

Q Where did you come to? A To Tahlequah.

Q Did you live at Tahlequah a while? A We come to Tahlequah a while and stayed there a while and then they moved us all back to Gibson.

Q And you stayed there a while? A I stayed there until peace.

Q And then where did you go? A And then I went back home on Fourteen Mile Creek.

Q That was in Tahlequah District? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived there until you were married? A I lived there until I was married.

Q Now, after the war, and before you married Walker Johnson, about how long before you married Walker Johnson, was it, did you see him? A I reckon it was about five years.

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes sir.

This will be filed as additional testimony in Cherokee Freedman D Card 356.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of May, 1901.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Rowe, I live at the Rose post office, Saline.

Q How old are you? A 52.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 52 years

Q Do you know a colored man by the name of Walker Johnson?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know him before the war? A No, sir, I didn't know him before the war.

Q When did you first see him after the war? A Why I saw him to the best of my recollection about '70.

Q Where did you see him? A I saw him down in Saline district.

Q Who was with him at the time you saw him, if you remember, or what was the circumstances under which you saw him? A I saw him there at his wife's father.

Q Who was his wife's father? A Man by the name of Johnson, old man Johnson.

Q What was he known by there, was he known by Walk Johnson, or by some other name? A He was known by Walker Sparks.

Q You don't know how he got that name, do you? A No, sir.

Q You had been living in that Rowe neighborhood from the time you came there until 1870? A Yes, sir.

MR. BLEDSOE: You don't know where Walk Johnson was in 1866 of your own knowledge? A No.

Q That was the first time you had ever seen him? A Yes, sir.

MURRELL JOHNSON being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Murrell Johnson.

Q Where do you live, Murrell? A I live in Tahlequah district.

Q Did you ever live in Saline district? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you raised, what part of the Territory?

A In Saline district.

Q Do you know Walker Johnson? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know him before the war? A No, sir.

Q Well, did you go out of the Territory during the war, Murrell?

A Yes, sir.

Q What year did you come back? A Come back in '66.

Q To what place did you come in '66? A Old man Dave Rowe's.

Q Where did you settle with reference to the Rowe place in '66?

A I settled west of Dave Rowe's.

Q Well, did you have anything to do with the Rowe place after you came back down there, you or your father? A Yes, sir, made a crop on the place next year.

Q How many crops did you make on the Rowe place? A If I mistake not we made two crops.

Q And then what did you do? A Then we had our place opened up and made a crop there.

Q After you came down here and made those crops did you go back to Kansas? A Yes, sir, I went back on a visit.

- Q Where did you go? A Went to Ottawa.
Q Well, who did you see up there? A I seen lots of my friends and seen Walker Sparks up there.
Q Did you know whether Walker Sparks is the same man that goes by the name of Walker Johnson now? A Yes, sir.
Q If I understand you, you made two crops on Rowe's place and one crop on your own place? A Yes, sir.
Q And you came here in 1866? A Yes, sir.
Q And went up there you found Walker Sparks? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, what became of Walker Sparks when you came down here?
A He came with me.
Q That was about two years after you came down here in '66?
A Yes, sir.
Q Walker came with you? A Yes, sir.
Q He has been living down here ever since that time? A Yes, sir.
MR. BLEDSOE: Do you know whether, of your own knowledge, Walker was ever in the Nation in '66 or not, do you?
A No, sir.
Q When did you get acquainted with Walker? A I just got acquainted with him up there in Kansas.
Q Do you know when he got married? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you known him and his wife ever since? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he marry a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir, he got a Cherokee wife.
Q He has been living with her how long, of your own personal knowledge? A Well, I could not say, I never paid much attention to it.
Q About 15 or 20 years? A Yes, sir.
Q Living here in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q He has been recognized by the Cherokees as a citizen has he?
A Not that I know of.
Q Do you know of him ever being elected to the Grand Council of the Cherokee Nation? A I remember he was once.
Q The people were elected hereby vote? A Yes, sir.
Q And you only voted for Cherokees?
Mr. Davenport: I object to that.
Q Did you ever vote for Walker Johnson for Grand Council?
A No, sir.
Q Did anybody sit in that Council but Cherokee citizens, or does anybody else sit there in that Cherokee Council but Cherokee citizens? A Sometimes they have colored men.
Q Are they Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q They have white men and Red men there, don't they? A Yes, sir.

Commission: The Agent for the applicant offers in evidence a copy of a Communication from W. A. Jones, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, dated at Washington, June 12th, 1901, with reference to a Commission as Grand Councilor of Saline district, in the Cherokee Nation for a term of two years from November 16th, 1891, filed with the Department by the applicant in this case, Walker Johnson.

Mr. Davenport: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation object to the introduction of the copy of communication for the reason that if it shows upon the face that the facts recited herein are true, it would not tend to establish or deny the right of the applicant to citizenship.

MR. M. B. ROWE, recalled for additional cross-examination:

- MR. BLEDSOE: How long have you known Walker Johnson and his wife? A The wife he brought down here when he came?
Q This woman here, his present wife? A I guess I have known Walker Johnson ever since about '70.
Q How long have you known this woman; how long have you known them to be living together as man and wife, is what I want to know?

Supl.C.F.-D.#356.--3.

4 About 11 or 12 years.

Mr. Bledsoe: I want to introduce Section 689 of the compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1892, Article 21.

Department of the Interior
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes
Muskogee, I.T. May 9, 1902.

Supplemental testimony and proceedings in the matter of the application of Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman; testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

I. P. Bledsoe, Agent for applicant
Appearances: W. W. Hastings, attorney for Cherokee Nation

BEN GREENLEAF, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

By W. W. Hastings:

- Q What is your name? A Ben Greenleaf
Q Where do you live? A Tahlequah
Q What is your age? A About eighty, I reckon.
Q As near as you can guess at it? A Yes, as near as I can guess at it:
Q Where were you living before the war? A. On Grand River at the gravel house.
Q Who did you belong to? A. Clem Vann
Q How long did you belong to him before the war? A. About five years I reckon. He married my young mistress, Jim Mackey's daughter. Jim Mackey raised me. They took us up to Grand River
Q Where did you live before you went to Grand River? A. Near the Salt Works.
Q In Illinois District? A. Yes sir.
Q How far below Fort Gibson? A Twenty miles from Fort Gibson; ten miles from the Falls.
Q Did any of your relatives live up in Goingsnake district near Cincinnati, Arkansas? A My wife who belonged to Sally Musgrove
Q How far from the line? A. About five miles from Cincinnati, about four miles from the line of the State of Arkansas.
Q Did you ever go up in that country? A. Many times; I used to haul goods there; my old boss had a store there at Musgrove.
Q Four miles from the Arkansas line? A. Yes.
Q Do you know Walker Johnson who lives up in Saline District, a colored man who has a wife by the name of Patsy? A. I didn't know anything about him belonging to Johnson.
Q Do you know him now by the name of Walker? A. If it is the same man I know him. I knowed the one that Joe Parks had Q Did you know the Walker Johnson who lives up in Saline, do you know him now? A. If I was to see him I would know him. I haven't seen him since before the war.
Q How do you know he has a wife by the name of Patsy? A. All the folks that know him and knows the woman. I knew the woman; I didn't know she was the woman. Since they told me I know her; her name was Patsy Thornton; she had a white man and he got drowned. He first married a woman on Miss Musgrove's place, her name was Amanda Johnson; she was a sister of Murrell and Fog Johnson.
Q This is the same man. Did you know him? Did you know him before the war? A. If it is the same man I would, knew him before the war.
Q Did you know that man before the war? A. Yes.
Q Who did he belong to? A. Joe Parks. He had a store in Cincinnati.

24-Walker Johnson.

- Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. No sir, he was a white man.
- Q Did he live there when the war come up? A. A little before the war come up, if it is the same man.
- Q Did you know his father Reuben? A. I know a man they called Reuben; he belonged to Bushyhead.
- Q Do you know whether it was his father? A. I don't know.
- Q Have you ever been in Saline District since the war? A. I have been there once, the time the Cherokees got paid off.
- Q Did you ever see this walker up there? A. Not that I know of; there was no black people drawing there then, the Indians were drawing.
- Q You haven't seen this walker since the war? A. Not since the war.
- Q Have you heard of him marrying? A. Marrying Patsy Thornton.
- Q The same man that married Patsy Thornton and that you knew before the war? A. The same man they tell me.

- Q Joe Parks was a white man? A. He is a white man, a tall white man like Markham.
- Q A citizen of the state of Arkansas? A. A citizen of Cincinnati.
- Q He was no Cherokee citizen? A. No sir, he was a white man.

By I.P. Bledsoe: You knew a fellow by the name of Reuben Johnson did you? A. No, I never said anything about Reuben.

- Q That is the one that walker claims was his father? A. I know a Reuben that belonged to Bushyhead.

- Q Was Bushyhead a Cherokee citizen? A. Yes.

- Q How old was this walker when you knew him? A. He was a pretty good size man; he ought to be sixty some odd years old by this time.

- Q How come he to belong to this man in Arkansas and his father belonged to a Cherokee? A. That can be done mighty easy. Don't you know they sold the darkies one place and another in slave times?

- Q Do you know Joe Parks bought this man or whether he hired him? A. He owned him as a slave. I am telling the truth; you don't want me to tell no lie.

- Q You know Parks owned him? A. He went by the name of Parks and I never heard anything else.

- Q You don't know whether he was hired out or not by Parks?

- A. He wasn't hired by Parks; he belonged to Parks.

- Q He first said he belonged to Johnson? A. What Johnson was it?

By Mr. Hastings: George Johnson.

By Mr. Bledsoe: You don't know of your own knowledge that he belonged to Parks? A. I don't know of my own knowledge but everybody in the neighborhood said he belonged to Parks and I saw him lots of times before the war and he went by Parks niggers. Nobody said he belonged to anybody else.

- Q You don't know anything about who his mother was? A. Don't know anythin' about his mother.

- Q You don't know anything about his being known as Walker Johnson?

- A. I knowed him as Walker Parks. He said Johnson used to own him. This here Bob Parks he speculated on darkies and went over where he could buy them.

- Q Georg Johnson, did you know a Cherokee by George Johnson?

- A. Yes, that was old Ben Johnson's son.

- Q Do you know whether Walker ever belonged to this George Johnson or not? A. I don't know who he belonged to; I guess he belonged to Joe Parks.

- Q They were trading and trafficking people out before the war weren't they? A. Yes.

- Q Hiring them out and selling them? A. They hired them out, and selling them too, and this here Parks was a nigger trader. It looks as if he was a nigger trader he wouldn't hire them, he would buy them.

3-Walker Johnson.

- Q You don't know really nothing about this Walker Johnson or Walker Parks, or who he belonged to? A. He belonged to Joe Parks is all I know.
- Q You haven't seen him to know him since the war? A. No sir.
- Q You know whether a Walker Johnson was elected to the National Council or not? A. Not that I know of.
- Q Where have you been living since the war? A. Been living at the Salt Works in Illinois and at Fort Gibson; those are the only places.
- Q You have been living some distance from the Orphan Asylum that is in Saline District? A. I never lived up there no more at Grand River after peace. I never went back any more. I have been back to Talala station.
- Q Since the war you know very little about the people up in that country? A. I don't know; I knowed them most all before the war and a heap of them is dead.
- Q Were you ever arrested for any offense? A. What for?
- Q Arrested? A. No sir.
- Q Were you ever put in jail? A. I was put in jail at Tahlequah over Mat Yoakum scrape.
- Q What was you accused of? A. They claimed I was schemeing outside to get my son out.
- Q And were you convicted? A. No sir.
- Q They put you in jail? A. They put me in jail for safe-keeping; they thought I would get mobbed or something.
- Q How long did you stay in jail? A. Five weeks.
- W. W. Hastings: You never were indicted; they were awaiting action of the grand jury? A. They put me in there for safe-keeping.
- Q They throwed it out at Claremore? A. Yes sir.
- Q You knew this man you are talking about at dances before the war?
- A Yes sir, he used to come down there to Bushyheads and Musgroves where all the darkies come; they had a lot of dances and a heap of niggers from Cincinnati would come over Saturday night.
- Mr. Bledsoe: You don't know whether it is the same man or not?
- A I haven't seen him, I haven't known.
- Mr. Hastings: You understood this man married a Patsy?
- A He married Mandy Johnson and then married Patsy.
- Q This Reuben that belonged to Bushyhead, did they own him or did they sell him? A. They sold him, his wife and Jinsy for Dennis and Ned Bushyhead to go to California on before the war.
- Q Who did they sell him to, white people or Cherokees? A. To white people across the line. I never seen the old man for three or four months; he was a preacher; he came over on the Cherokee side and preached.

- A Yes sir.
- MR. HASTINGS: Didn't you swear you went to Kansas? A. Well
I said-- yes, sir, I have been up in Kansas around.
- Q But you told him that you had been here ever since? A. I have lived here off and on.
- Q You didn't tell in your main examination when you first applied to this Commission that you belonged to Sparks did you?
- A No, I didn't because I wasn't asked
- Q Sparks lived over in Arkansas didn't he? A. Well he lived across the river.
- Q He was a white man, wasn't he? A. He was a white man.

- Q When you were freed you were with him? A. No, I run away from him.
- Q Run away from him? A. Went to Texas.
- Q And where were you, did you go to Texas? A. No, sir, I didn't
- Q Where did you go to when you were freed? A. Come to Fort Gibson
- Q Were you free, too, before that? A. Come to Fort Gibson and been free ever since.
- Q Well the last man that you were with and under his control was this white man Sparks? A. That is the last man.
- Q You had Murrell Johnson's sister for a time didn't you?
- A I did.
- Q And had some children by her? A. I did.
- Q Did you know Ben Greenleaf? A. That's a man I don't know nothing about; no, I don't; if I did I would tell you.
- Q Did you know Ben Vann? A. Ben Vann?
- Q Yes? A. Where did he live? I don't know this Ben Vann.
- Q Belonged to Clem Vann, or to Clem Vann's wife, the Mackeys?
- A Well that's up here.
- Q You knew him didn't you? A. I have seen him a time or two. Didn't really know the man.
- Q Used to go to dances with him up there near Cincinnati around on Musgrove up on the line? A. Never was dancing at Musgrove.
- Q Well in that country, I mean in that neighborhood? A. No.
- Q Never at any dance at all? A. Oh yes, I have been to dances.
- Q You did go to dances up there? A. Not up there; all my dancing was done in Sequoyah.
- Q Where did Sparks live, this man Sparks? A. Stayed over there in Fort Smith
- Q In Fort Smith, huh, in Arkansas? A. I guess so, in Arkansas; it's in Fort Smith.
- Q Now how long before the war was it that you went from Johnson's to Sparks? A. It was time of the war.
- Q Well after it had begun? A. Yes sir
- Q Before you were freed? A. Yes, sir
- MR. BLANDSOE: You say you wasn't sold to this man sparks?
- A Not that I ever knowed of.
- Q What were you doing over there at Sparks'? A. Waited on him in the army.
- Q Weren't you riding horses? A. Rode horses, attended to a race mare.
- Q Well if Ben Greenleaf stated that you was sold to this man Sparks he told something that wasn't so? A. Well I don't know; if ever I was sold we knowed nothing about it; all I know he was to carry me to Red River to George Johnson, and I run away from him, and that's the last of it.
- Q And you come back to the Cherokee Nation? A. I come right back to Fort Gibson
- Q And remained here? A. Remained until I went into Kansas and worked around.
- Q Did old man Johnson, your owner, own anybody besides you?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Who was the other parties? A. Want them all?
- Q No; was Joe Johnson one of them? A. Yes, sir.
- Q George own him before the war? A. Knowed him ever since he was that high (indicating)
- Q Did he belong to the same man? A. I belonged to his son, and he belonged to the father, all the same.

- MR. HASTINGS: Now Uncle Walker you say you don't know whether you was sold or not? A. No, sir, I don't know.
- Q You were ignorant at that time and didn't know? A. Master didn't tell us what he was doing, he sent off, and told me, he says, "They'll take you to Red River," and that's all I know about it.
- Q They often made those excuses to you slaves before the war when they went to sell them? A. They always told them something but the truth.

JOE JOHNSON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

- MR. FLEDSOE: What's your name? A. Joe Johnson.
- Q What is your age? A. 51.
- Q Where do you live? A. I live between the two rivers, Verdigris and Arkansas, near Gibson Station.
- Q Are you a Cherokee freedman? A. Yes, sir.
- Q On the 1880 roll? A. Yes sir.
- Q Do you know one Walker Johnson? A. I know him now by that name, but he never did go by that name when we all lived with our owners; he went by the name of Hubbard.
- Q Hubbard Johnson? A. Yes, sir.
- Q Now did you and he belong to the same man? A. We did; we belonged to Ben Johnson.
- Q Was he a Cherokee citizen, Ben Johnson? A. Yes sir.
- Q Where did you live at that time? A. Down here, Gabriel Paynes, near Fort Smith. I seen him at the time that when they was moving all of us out from home, that was my last seeing of him, when they taken us from off home, and put us in camps.
- Q How long was that after the war? A. The war was going on, the war was going on, we were leaving home then.
- Q Who took Walker Johnson off; was there anybody took him off?
- A No one taken him off at all; we were all taken and went out in camps, the ones that was grown, they was hired out, I don't know who they was hired out, but the old man kept the women and children along with him.
- Q Was Walker Johnson ever sold to a man by the name of Sparks?
- A Never sold him.
- Q If he had been sold would you have been likely to know it?
- A I would hear something of it; I was old enough along at that time to know if a man was sold off of the place.
- Q Well if Ben Greenleaf stated that he was sold he was mistaken in his statement? A. Suppose he was.
- Q Have you known Walker Johnson since the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q When was the first time you saw him after the war? A. Well, I don't just remember the time; it was not a great while when I saw him after the war.
- Q Well all during the war, and after that time, after you all went south or went off? A. It was a good while afterwards; I say, I don't just remember just how long it was after; it was after peace was declared after I saw him.
- Q Have you seen him often ever since? A. Yes, sir.
- Q Where has he been when you seen him? A. Saw him at Fort Gibson and Vinita.
- Q Within the limits of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
- Q Still living here in the Cherokee Nation is he? A. Yes sir.

MR. HASTINGS: You never saw him in Kansas because you weren't up there? A. I never went to Kansas.

Q And you couldn't have seen him up there? A. Couldn't testify that because I have never went there.

Q You have been in the Cherokee Nation all the time? A. Yes sir

Q The only time you seen him he would have been bound to be in the Cherokee Nation because you wasn't anywhere else? A. Yes sir

Q How old are you? A. Didn't you ~~just~~ hear me just say that I was 51?

Q You was about 10 years old, 9 or 10, when the war came up? Now did this man ever live over with sparks, a white man? A. I didn't know Sparks.

Q Well I am asking you if he lived there? A. Why I don't know; I didn't know any person, any Sparks, at that time.

Q He would know more about where he lived than you? A. Well at that time he would.

Q Well if he says he lived over there why he would know more about it than you? A. Well I say at that time; I didn't know a white person in Fort Smith.

Q Now before the war you say you saw this man? A. Before the war? The war was going on.

Q Well how long? A. He has been there on the place always from my recollection on up; when I come to my senses he was on the place.

Q Well now did he go south with you? A. He started south with me and he ran away.

Q Started south with you? A. Well we started south when we were in camps.

Q Well was old man Sparks along with you? A. Nobody of that name with us.

Q Well now how do you know? A. Couldn't.

Q Who started south with you and George Johnson and Thurman?

A. Well Ben Johnson.

Q Well Ben Johnson? A. Well when we went out to the camps he was with us then, but where they went to from there, the men folks, I don't know.

Q Well they didn't go on south with you? A. No, not with us colored men at all.

Q Well now where did you go in camp? A. On Poteau.

Q Then you went from Ben Johnson's place on this side of the river down to Poteau? A. Yes, sir.

Q And this man Walker Johnson was with you at that time?

A Yes, sir.

MR. BLEDSOE: He had never been away from you over to Spark's?

A I don't know anything about him at all; I couldn't tell you anything about where the men folks went because we left.

Q The last when you recollect you were camped right there about the beginning of the war? A. Yes sir, last I can give an account of him.

Q And you never saw him again until after the war a good while?

A Just two years or so long; that old man Mose said he ran off, old man Mose, that was my uncle.

Q You just heard the others say that? A. Heard the white ones that we belonged to talking about it

Q Well you don't know of his being sold or hired to Sparks?

A No sir, I don't know Sparks, and don't till yet.

Office of Indian Affairs.

DOS24-1901.

Washington, June 12, 1901.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

The office is in receipt of Department letter of June 7, 1901, transmitting for consideration, report, and recommendation a letter from Walker Johnson, of Leavittsboro, Indian Territory, requesting that a certificate showing his election as Grand Councilor of the Cherokee Nation, which he states he forwarded to the Department some years ago be returned to him so that he can present the same to the Commission in connection with his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

In reply, I have to advise you that on September 22, 1895, this office received a letter from said Walker Johnson complaining that in the taking of the census just prior to the date of his letter the authorities of the Cherokee Nation refused to enroll him as a citizen and with said communication he transmitted a commission signed by J. B. Nays, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, which said commission was dated November 29, 1891, and appointed him Grand Councilor of the Saline District of said Nation for the term of two years from November 16, 1891. This commission was returned to Mr. Johnson with office letter of October 2, 1895, and it is respectfully recommended that he be so advised.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

W. A. Jones.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on May 20, 1901, Walker Johnson appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made personal application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 22, 1901, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on May 9, 1902, and May 21, 1902.

The evidence shows that the said Walker Johnson was about fifty-seven years of age at the date of the application herein.

It does not appear that the applicant was the slave of a Cherokee citizen, or that he was a free colored person residing in the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion. But the evidence shows that he went out of said Nation during the rebellion, and it does not appear that he returned thereto prior to January 19, 1867. The name of the applicant is not found on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Walker Johnson as a Cherokee Freedman should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee I. T. May 16th 1904.

In the matter of the application of ~~Abraham~~ Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Cherokee F. D. 356.

Brief of the Cherokee Nation.

All of the questions involved in this case are questions of fact and the Cherokee Nation contends that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes being upon the ground are in a better position to judge of the reputations of the witnesses than the Honorable Secretary of the Interior and their conclusions of fact should not be disturbed unless there are urgent reasons therefor.

On April 11th 1904 the Honorable Secretary of the Interior transmitted with approval a letter from the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs (I. T. D. 1472-1904) dated February 18, 1904 (Land 47517-1903) which disagrees with the findings of the Commission and directs the Commission to enroll the applicant.

The Commission finds that the applicant in the first place was not the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion and did not return within the time prescribed by the treaty and that therefore the applicant was not entitled upon either ground to enrollment as a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Let us examine the testimony upon these two points. As a matter of course the applicant testifies that he was a slave of a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion, viz: George Johnson and that he returned in the fall of 1866 to the Rowe place in the Cherokee Nation. There is nothing strange about this testimony; every single freedman applicant swears to these two facts and so does Walker Johnson. The Commission here expects it and would be very much surprised if any applicant swore to the contrary.

Upon the other hand Jim Alberty one of the most disreputable freedmen in the Cherokee Nation, a standing witness, one about whom we have taken occasion to say quite a good deal in our general brief; so disreputable that the Commission is thoroughly acquainted with him and can not afford to give any heed to his testimony. We had occasion to cite in our general brief on page 89, of examples of a great number of cases wherein this disreputable witness was impeached and clearly contradicted by many of the most reputable people in the Cherokee Nation and among them, Ex-Chief S. H. Mayes; D. W. Vann; R. L. Martin George W. Clark, and reference was also made to this particular case wherein we called attention to the fact that this witness testified to seeing this applicant Walker Johnson running a boat at the Brady Ferry across the Arkansas river in 1866 as he, James Alberty, was on his way to Muskogee to buy some tobacco when it is a well known historical fact that the town of Muskogee was not started until some time in the year 1872. The Commission uses these historical facts and takes them into consideration and also takes into consideration the general reputation of this disreputable witness; and where the Cherokee Nation knows that the Commission is so well acquainted with his reputation for truth and veracity it did not think it necessary to hunt up evidence at great expense and introduce witnesses to attack their reputation and we therefore thought that inasmuch as there had been so many disreputable witnesses to testify before the Commission that the opinion of the Commission on questions of fact alone, they being upon the ground and acquainted with a great many other facts and circumstances which corroborate witnesses for the one side or the other should not be disturbed

Again to show how thoroughly disreputable this witness Alberty is he swears that the applicant belonged to a man by the name of Vann and never testifies to his belonging to George Johnson; again Walker Johnson swears that he came to the old Rowe place which the Commission and the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation know, was in Saline District some fifty miles distant from this Brady ferry and there being no town at Muskogee at the time it is clearly unreasonable to suppose that Walker Johnson was running around that far distant from home with no objective point to go to when following the course indicated by Alberty would lead him into the Creek country among people with whom he was unacquainted.

The only other witness who testified for Walker Johnson was one James Johnson, a colored man, and he contradicts Walker Johnson himself by saying that Walker Johnson never lived with James Sparks. Now Walker Johnson himself admits that he lived with James Sparks and all of the witnesses introduced by the Cherokee Nation are corroborated in their testimony that he belonged to Sparks, a white man who was a resident of the State of Arkansas when the war came up, by the fact that this applicant went by the name of Sparks (Walker Sparks) in Kansas and often now goes by that name throughout the country.

This last witness knows nothing of the applicants return to the Cherokee Nation and in fact no one except the applicant himself and Jim Alberty who saw the applicant crossing the Brady ferry on his way to Muskogee, saw him here in 1866.

Now lets see what the testimony is on part of the Cherokee Nation:

Walker Johnson swears that he came to the Rowe place, which is a celebrated place in Saline District; and a son of old man Rowe, M. B. Rowe, was introduced as a witness and he testifies that Walker Johnson, the applicant, came there in about 1870; that he came from Kansas and that he was known as Walker Sparks. Murrell Johnson swears that he came to the Dave Rowe place in 1866 and made two crops there and the third crop on the place near by, then went to Ottawa Kansas where for the first time in his life he saw the applicant who went by the name of Walker Sparks and who returned to the Territory with the witness.

We submit that if three crops were made they must have been made in the years 1867, 1868 and 1869 and that therefore M. B. Rowe was correct when he said that the applicant came there in about 1870.

Now it will be noted that this is the point to which the applicant himself claimed he returned. And we have introduced two witnesses who lived upon and about this Rowe place from 1866 on up and both M. B. Rowe and Murrell Johnson swear positively that it was about 1870 when Murrell Johnson brought the applicant from Ottawa Kansas to the Territory, and to this place. Now it will be noted that no other witness except Jim Alberty testifies to the return of this applicant. Again Ben Vann testifies that this applicant, and he identifies him by his marriages sufficient to show that the person about whom he speaks is one and the same person, that the applicant belonged to Joe Sparks who lived across the line and was a citizen of the State of Arkansas at the commencement of the rebellion and was not a slave of a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. Ben Vann is corroborated by Walker Johnson himself when he testifies that he lived with Sparks; he is corroborated by Murrell Johnson when he says that the applicant was known as Walker Sparks in Kansas and he is corroborated by M. B. Rowe when he says the applicant went by the name of Walker

Sparks when he returned to the Cherokee Nation first in 1870.

We submit that this testimony is convincing that the applicant is not entitled to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman. The Commission knowing as well as it does the disreputable character of the witnesses for the applicant, knowing also the general topography of the Cherokee Country, understanding the location of the Rowe place, its distance from the Brady Ferry where Muskogee was afterwards established, being acquainted with the fact that Muskogee was not established until 1872, could not, in our judgment, have arrived at any other conclusion and we respectfully submit that the decision of the Commission should be sustained and that this applicant should not be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

W. H. Hastings
Attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

Walker Johnson, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Commission:

- Q. What is your name? A. Walker Johnson.
- Q. How old are you, Mr. Johnson? A. I do not know exactly. Something over 50 years old, I guess.
- Q. What is your post office address? A. Locust Grove, Saline District.
- Q. Were you a slave at the commencement of the Rebellion? A. Yes sir.
- Q. To whom did you belong? A. George Johnson, as I have been telling you all the time. Son of Ben Johnson.
- Q. Was George Johnson a Cherokee Indian by blood? A. Yes sir, his mother was a fullblood Indian.
- Q. Was his father a Cherokee Indian? A. He was a white man, as well as I can tell you about him.
- Q. Did you belong to old Ben Johnson at the commencement of the war, or to his son. A. I was living with the old man right at the commencement of the war. I went down and lived with his son.
- Q. To whom did you belong? A. Really, the old man was the principal owner, and he sent us to his son.

- Q. Where did old Ben Johnson live at the commencement of the Rebellion? A. Right down near Fort Smith, on this side of the river.
- Q. In the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was he living there when the war broke out? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you were living there with him? A. Yes sir. Give me a show and I will give it to you straight.
- Q. You were with him and were a slave of Ben Johnson? A. Yes sir. Up into '62 I was with him.
- Q. Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation during the Rebellion? A. No sir, no more than just shift across for safety.
- Q. Were you over in Arkansas then some? A. Yes sir.
- Q. When did you come back to the Cherokee Nation from Arkansas? A. We were just over there maybe a week when the times were pretty tight, and would come home.
- Q. Where have you lived since the war? A. I lived up in Saline District where I made my home when I would be there. I went off.
- Q. Always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

MR. BLEEDSON.

- Q. How come you to have the name of Walker Sparks? A. It is a nick-name.
- Q. Did you belong to Sparks at any time? A. No sir.
- Q. Were you ever sold? A. No sir.
- Q. Then you were living with George Johnson as your young master when the war broke out? A. No sir.
- Q. Were you with Sparks during the war? A. I wasn't with him particularly. I was in the company for safety.
- Q. What were you doing in the army? A. I was a waiter.
- Q. Was your young master there too? A. He was there part of the time.
- Q. How come you to go across the river? A. My young master carried me over there for safety, to keep me from running away.
- Q. Wasn't your young master on the scout? A. Part of them were.
- Q. What had he done? A. He had killed some men, and I always followed him in the woods, carrying him something to eat.
- Q. Who owned your mother when the war broke out? A. Ben Johnson..
- Q. Who owned her when you went over there? A. She belonged to this man Sparks.
- Q. That is how come you to get the name of Sparks. You were over where your mother was when this man killed some men and they were on the scout? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never was sold to this man Sparks? A. No sir.
- Q. How long did you remain in Arkansas with them. A. I was over there, I reckon, a little over two weeks or more with them before we came back home.
- Q. When did you dig the grave for George's wife---how long after that? A. About a week, or two weeks.
- Q. Then how long did you remain in Sepuoyah District after you buried her? A. I run away in '63.
- Q. Who did you run away from? A. George Johnson.
- Q. Where did you go to? A. Port Gibson.
- Q. How long did you stay at Port Gibson? A. We come there the 6th. of July, to my best recollection.
- Q. In what year? A. In '63.
- Q. Where did you go then? A. I stayed around Gibson till I went back home. Cutting hay there for the government.
- Q. Who did you work for? A. A colored man by the name of French.

- Q. Where were you in 1865? A. I was in and out, traveling around. Just to tell you exactly, I can not bring to my mind.
- Q. Where were you in 1866? A. I was right here in Gibson.
- Q. Who did you see there in 1866 that is living now? A. I worked with a man when I come there. They called him Brown Wright.
- Q. Who else did you see besides Brown Wright there at that time? A. I can't tell you who all I did see.
- Q. That is living now? A. Percival was there, for one. Bill Ross, at that time. He is dead.
- Q. Was Florine Nash there? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was Stick Ross there? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you see John Price there? A. I saw John Price.
- Q. What was Brown Wright doing when you come there? A. He was our paymaster, paying out some soldiers.
- Q. Where was he doing business? A. In an old log house going up toward the Fort. He said it belonged to Bill Ross.
- Q. Was there a brick house afterwards built there by Brown Wright? A. Yes sir, and Nash.
- Q. What Nash? A. Florine.
- Q. When was that house built? A. In 1866, to my best knowledge.
- Q. Was it built when he was in that log house? A. Yes sir, to my best knowledge.
- Q. Who was in business at Fort Gibson at that time, do you know? A. Brown Wright and Nash were doing business, and a colored man clerked with them.
- Q. What was his given name, do you know? A. I can not think of it.
- Q. William Hudson, was that it? A. Yes sir, I think it was.
- Q. Then did you work for Brown Wright there any at Fort Gibson? A. I worked around for him a while.
- Q. Then where did you go? A. To Tahlequah.
- Q. Who with? A. Brown Wright.
- Q. Who else? A. He was the only one.
- Q. Where did you go to from there? A. Stationed there and built a store there for Reece.
- Q. Where did you go to from there. A. Was backwards and forwards, and he would bring beef there.
- Q. Did you ever go to Kansas? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where did you go there from? A. When I got out of work with them I would go out and hunt work.
- Q. Kind of a horse jockey? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never made your home in Kansas? A. No sir, I never did.
- Q. Then if Ben Greenleaf or Ben Vann or anybody else stated that you was sold to Sparks, they are mistaken? A. Yes sir. I run away in '63.
- Q. Did you know Rose Rogers before the war or during the war? A. A. Before the war.
- Q. Who did she belong to? A. Cornelius Wright.
- Q. How far from you did they live? A. A part of the time, I couldn't tell you just how close, but I moved to Sequoyah District, and she lived in there close to my young master.
- Q. How far did she live from you before the war? A. I moved away 40 miles.
- Q. When the war broke out how far was she from you? A. 40 miles.
- Q. You were well acquainted with her, were you? A. Yes sir, from that time on.

MR. HASTINGS:

- Q. When did you first see this witness that you have out here, Ross McCracken, after the war, and where? A. She first

- saw me knocking around Gibson.
- Q. When did you first see her? A. In '66. I don't know just what time.
- Q. You and she have not talked that over at all. A. No sir.
- Q. How come you to bring her here if you have not talked with her? A. She did her talking to some one else. I told them what she knew about me.
- Q. Where does she live now? A. Out about 8 miles this side of me.
- Q. What other person did she do her talking with? A. Me and her talked about it.
- Q. When did you see her first after the war? A. I saw her over here at Gibson?
- Q. Where was she living? A. On Fourteen Mile Creek.
- Q. How far from Gibson? A. Seven miles, to my best knowledge.
- Q. What time in the year did you first see her there? A. I can not tell you just exactly.
- Q. Early part of the winter? A. Along in the spring.
- Q. Had you at that time ever been to Kansas? A. Not right at that time.
- Q. You had not been to Kansas up to that time? A. No sir.
- Q. Did you ever go to Kansas after that? A. Yes sir.
- Q. How long after that time did you go to Kansas? A. A couple of weeks.
- Q. Where did you go? A. Up in Kansas there.
- Q. Where did you go? A. I went up to a little place --- I have got to think of the place.
- Q. Ottawa? A. Not that time. The next time I went I went to Ottawa.
- Q. Why didn't you make this statement when you were on the stand before? A. You didn't ask me.
- Q. Did your attorney ask you? A. He asked me if I went to Kansas, and I told him.
- Q. Why didn't you tell the Commission before that you left here during the war? A. I told them I left here during the war every time I have been before them.
- Q. Didn't you tell them you had been to Kansas during the war? A. I told them I went there during the war time.
- Q. Didn't you say that you never had been there until after you saw this woman in 1866? A. No sir, I didn't tell them that.
- Q. Had you been there before then? A. One trip.
- Q. Then you were mistaken? You had been there? A. No sir, I told you a while ago I went.
- Q. When did you first ever set foot in Kansas, on Kansas soil? A. I told you a while ago about two weeks after I was this lady I went to Kansas.
- Q. Then you had been there before the spring of 1866? A. That was in time of the war.
- Q. Had you been there before then? A. A. No, I hadn't been there then.
- Q. You had not been there? A. No, not right then.
- Q. Had you been there any time before then? A. Yes sir, I had been there.
- Q. When did you first go to Kansas? A. I went during the war to Kansas.
- Q. What year? A. You are too tough for me.
- Q. Who did you go up there with? A. A man had me to drive his team.
- Q. What was his name? A. I can not remember his name.
- Q. What place did you go to in Kansas? A. A little place called Ottumway.
- Q. That is where you met Murrell Johnson? A. No sir.
- Q. Didn't you see Murrell Johnson up there in Kansas? A. Yes sir.

- Q. At Ottawa? A. I saw him at Ottawa.
- Q. Did you see him there in 1866? A. No sir.
- Q. You went by the name of Walker Sparks up there, didn't you?
- A. They called me that. It was a nick name.
- Q. But you never had the name of Walker Sparks until after Ben and George Johnson sold you to a white man in Arkansas, did you?
- A. I told you before I wasn't sold. I run away in '63.
- Q. When did Johnson sell you to Sparks,---before the war? A.
- A. He didn't sell me before the war.
- Q. When did he sell you? A. I don't know as he ever did.
- Q. You knew Jim Sparks, didn't you. A. I have seen him in the army.
- Q. You saw him before the war, didn't you? A. I saw him in Fort Smith.
- Q. Were you ever at his place before the war? A. I was over there to the store.
- Q. Were you ever at his house? A. Not before the war.
- Q. Were you ever hired to him? A. Not time of the war.
- Q. Were you ever hired to him before the war? A. No sir.
- Q. You run off and left him before the war? A. Not Jim Sparks.
- Q. Which one of the Sparks' did you leave? A. I left Johnson.
- Q. Which one of the Sparks' did you leave? A. None of them.
- Q. They were white men and lived in Fort Smith, Arkansas? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you never worked for them before the war? A. No sir.
- Q. And never went to their places? A. Not before the war.
- Q. Why did you use Sheep Jim Alberty on the stand as your witness? A. He saw me right at the mouth of the Verdigris.
- Q. He had been over here to Muskogee, in 1866? A. I don't know where he had been.
- Q. He testified that he had been over here to get some tobacco, didn't he? A. I don't know.
- Q. Were you not present when Sheep Jim Alberty testified for you before? A. He went out doors, and I was out doors when he was telling.
- Q. Is that a fact, was he on his way to Muskogee when he met you crossing on the ferry in 1866? A. I don't know where the man was going.
- Q. You know that he is a confirmed liar, don't you? A. I don't know.
- Q. He is so recognized, is he not? A. I don't know that.
- Q. You have known it all the time. That is the reason you got him as a witness, is it not? A. No sir.
- Q. Why is it you have never got this woman to testify for you?
- A. You never got her in 1866, did you? A. I didn't need her when we had the Clifton Court.
- Q. You never got her, did you? A. No sir.
- Q. If Mr. Florine Nash saw you at Fort Gibson why didn't you introduce him? A. I never was asked to.
- Q. You never did ask him to testify for you, did you? A. No sir.
- Q. Were you all at that witness' house in 1866? A. No sir.
- Q. Where were you living when she saw you? A. At Gibson.
- Q. That was in the spring of 1866? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you ever see her after that? A. Yes sir.
- Q. When did you see her again? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Was it ten years after that? A. No sir.
- Q. How long? A. A couple of months.
- Q. Where did you see her again? A. I was passing out toward Saline District, and she lived on the road.
- Q. Where were you going in Saline? A. Up near Mr. Rowe's.

- Q. N. B. Rowe was the son of Dave Rowe? A. Yes sir.
- Q. He testified you were in there in 1866, didn't he? A. I don't know.
- Q. Didn't he testify that the first time he saw you was in 1870? A. I don't know. I wasn't about when they took his testimony.
- Q. Your attorney, Mr. Bledsoe, was present, wasn't he? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Didn't you testify before that you come back from Kansas in 1866, in Saline District? A. Yes sir, I didn't give any certain time. I come in that year.
- Q. What time in the year did you come back? A. I can't tell you the date.
- Q. You don't know whether it was winter, spring, summer, or fall? A. Just what time, I can not do that.
- Q. But you had been to Kansas? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where did you come to when you moved here permanently? A. I come down over on the Rowe Prairie.
- Q. How far from the N. B. Rowe place? A. About a mile, I guess.
- Q. That is where you first come from Kansas and settled in this country? A. Yes sir, that is where we come.
- Q. You made your house there? A. I never built one until later.
- Q. What did you do then when you came? A. Worked around.
- Q. Who for? N.B. Rowe? A. No sir.
- Q. Who did you work for? A. Old man Rope.
- Q. N. B. Roes's father-in-law? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you lived in that neighborhood? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you ever see this witness out there? A. No sir.
- Q. When did you first see her after you come back from Kansas that time, in the fall of 1866? A. I can't tell you just what time, because I don't know. We didn't have to look after these dates.
- Q. Where were you living when you first saw her in the fall of 1866? A. I wasn't living particularly no certain place, but I stopped there as I was up in there.
- Q. On the Rowe place? A. Yes sir, I had no certain home.
- Q. Just around? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Tell us somebody you worked for? A. Rope, and his son.
- Q. N. B. Rowe? A. No sir.
- Q. Did you work for Col. Rowe? A. No sir.
- Q. Did you work for Judge Rowe? A. I cut a few locust posts for him.
- Q. When? A. I can't tell you the date.
- Q. Who did you come back from Kansas with that time? A. Me and Murrell.
- Q. You and Murrell Johnson? A. Yes sir.
- Q. That was the time you and he came together? A. Yes sir.
- Q. He had been up there at work.
- Q. You never did see Murrell Johnson up at Ottawa, did you? A. We went up there together and come back together.
- Q. He testified that he found you up there. Is that correct? A. He told you that, but we went up there to work together.
- Q. Is it true that he found you up there? A. I was there. Me and him were there.
- Q. When did you go ---in the spring of 1866? A. No sir.
- Q. Where did you go from? A. We went from up there on the Rowe prairie.
- Q. Then had you been on the Rowe Prairie before? A. No sir.
- Q. You had not been there before? A. No, not till he come there and we went to work.

Mr. Bledsoe:

- Q. When did you marry your first wife? A. I never married her.
Q. When did you take up with her?
Q. What was her name? A. Mandy.
Q. Mandy who? A. Rowe.
Q. She is on the roll as Mandy Vann? A. Yes sir.
Q. Have you got a son by her? A. Yes sir.

- Q. Where had you lived before that time? A. 3 miles right above Gibson, on the river.
- Q. Where were you living in 1866? A. In Gibson. We had not located no house in the country then.
- Q. Did you stay there all the year of 1866? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Who did you live with? A. My husband.
- Q. What was his name? A. George Rogers.
- Q. Did you see Walker Johnson around there in 1866? A. Yes sir, all the time.
- Q. All the year? A. All the time he was there.
- Q. The whole of the year? A. I left there then.
- Q. What time did you leave there? A. In the fall.
- Q. And you never noticed him there during the war? A. No sir.
- Q. Where did Walker go to from there? A. I couldn't tell you.
- Q. Don't you know, as good as you know anything, that that man went to Kansas and stayed there and never come to this country until 1870? A. I met him here at Gibson.
- Q. You met all of them did you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never heard of him going to Kansas at all did you? A. No sir.
- Q. Never heard of his going after the war, did you? A. No sir.
- Q. You never heard him say it did you? A. No sir.
- Q. You never heard it till today, did you? A. No sir.
- Q. And you were living in Fort Gibson in 1866? A. Yes sir.
- Q. He was at your house frequently? A. We were in camp.
- Q. He was in your camp? A. No sir, he was working for Brown Wright.
- Q. He was there in your camp? A. Not in mine. He was working for Brown Wright.
- Q. You and he fixed it up that he was working for Brown Wright before you came, didn't you? A. No sir.

- Q. Did this man live in a house there? A. He must have been.
 Q. Did he have a wife? A. No sir.
 Q. Who did he stay with? A. With Brown Wright when he was working.
 Q. Did Florine Nash stay at Brown Wright's? A. Stayed out in the prairie ---clerking in the store.
 Q. Was Florine Nash working for Brown Wright at that time? A. I couldn't tell you who Florine Nash was working for.
 Q. Brown Wright? A. That is where I got acquainted with him. I traded at Mr. Nash's store.
 Q. At Brown Wright's? A. They were there together, him and Brown Wright.
 Q. Florine Nash and Brown Wright? A. Yes sir.
 Q. And Walker Johnson was working there? A. Yes sir.
 Q. How do you know which he was working for if they were there together? A. He left him and went to Tahlequah.
 Q. Florine Nash and Brown Wright had a store there together? A. A. I called it Mr. Nash's.
 Q. Brown Wright was working for Nash, then? A. Yes sir, he was there clerking in the store.
 Q. When Walker Johnson was working around the store? A. Yes sir.
 Q. That is where you saw Walker Johnson? A. Yes sir.
 Q. How long did you see him working around Florine Nash's store? A. All the time I was there.
 Q. From the spring until the fall of 1866? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Are you certain about that? A. Yes sir.

Mr. Bledsoe:

- Q. You do not know that Walker Johnson was there all the time? A. Just in and out.
 Q. Was that all the time? A. He was just in and out.
 Q. He has no settled home, did he? A. No sir.
 Q. Just a single man? A. Yes sir, just working around where he could get a day's work to do.
 Q. You are on the 1860 roll, are you? A. Yes sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

W. W. Wheeler, being first duly sworn, testified as follows on behalf of the Cherokee Nation:

Mr. Hastings:

- Q. Your name is W. W. Wheeler? A. Yes sir.
 Q. You are a Cherokee Indian by blood? A. Yes sir.
 Q. What is your post office address? A. Sallisaw.
 Q. Where did you live prior to the war? A. I was born and raised in Fort Smith, Arkansas.
 Q. Did you know Ben Johnson before the war? A. Yes sir, and his sons, George, Anderson, and Ben.
 Q. Where did they live when the war come up? A. Almost opposite and a little above Fort Smith.
 Q. Across the river on the Cherokee side? A. Yes sir.
 Q. How long had they lived there when the war come up? A. For years.

- Q. It is not true, is it, that they ever lived up in Going Snake near Cornelius Wright's? A. I never heard of it. The only one was Anderson. Anderson lived up in the Going Snake District, I think it was after the war.
- Q. Did he live there before the war? A. No sir. They all lived on the old plantation.
- Q. Right across the river from Fort Smith? A. Yes sir.
- Q. About how far would that be from Barren, which was in the neighborhood described by the last witness? A. On a direct line, I suppose over 80 miles.
- Q. About how far was it to a point on the Grand River east of where Wagoner now is? A. Close to the same distance.
- Q. Was Ben Johnson a Cherokee by blood? A. I think so.
- Q. His son, George, was? A. Yes sir, they were all Cherokees.
- Q. Did you say you lived in Fort Smith just across the line in Arkansas? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you know Joe Sparks and George and Jim, who lived over there? A. Yes sir. Mitchel and James and Thomas were the old ones.
- Q. Were these Sparks' citizens of Arkansas? A. Yes sir, white people.
- Q. They didn't claim Cherokee citizenship? A. No sir, Mitchel Sparks was a merchant there, and an Indian trader --traded with the Indians.
- Q. Did you hear of the Johnson's disposing of a slave to the Sparks family before the war? A. They sold several darkies there in Fort Smith.
- Q. The Johnson family? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you hear of them selling the Sparks family a slave by the name of Walker? A. Yes sir, Mitchel Sparks had a man there named Walker that worked about the store, and sometimes on the ferry.
- Q. Do you know where he got that negro slave? A. Walker--he was always said to have been gotten from old Ben Johnson.
- Q. Do you know what became of this slave, Walker? A. Yes sir, he run away I think in 1861 or the early part of 1862.
- Q. You were living there at the time? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You heard of his running away? A. Yes sir.
- Q. About how much of a place was Fort Smith then? A. A little country village at that time.
- Q. You knew every body in it? A. Yes sir, every man, woman, and child.
- Q. And you knew of the slave that Mitchel Sparks had gotten from Johnson? A. Yes sir, said to have been owned by old Ben Johnson. We used to see Ben Johnson's negroes there all the time.
- Q. You would not know this slave now? A. Probably I would not. It has been 40 years, you see.
- Q. You had heard of the purchase of him before the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you had also heard of his running away from them? A. Yes sir, we had one to run off about the same time.

Mr. Bledsoe:

- Q. You do not know of your own personal knowledge that this Walker was ever sold to the Sparks'? A. Only common hearsay.
- Q. Do you know of your own personal knowledge that Walker Johnson was ever sold to the Sparks'? A. I know that Walker Johnson belonged to Mitchel Sparks. I suppose he bought him.
- Q. You do not know of your own personal knowledge whether Walker Johnson was sold, hired, or just living with Sparks? A. Oh! I couldn't swear it.

- Q. Do you know W. R. Johnson? A. Not by that name.
Q. Whose grandfather was Ben Johnson? A. No sir, I don't know that I know W. R. Johnson.
Q. He is a grandson of Ben Johnson? A. George Johnson had some children, and Anderson Johnson had some children.

Mr. Hastings:

- Q. It was generally recognized that this slave, Walker, belonged to Mitchel Sparks, wasn't it? A. Yes sir.
Q. It was a matter that was generally known there? A. Yes sir, my father bought darkies there, and I wasn't present at the sale, still I was confidant of the purchase.
Q. There was some talk about it when he run away, wasn't there? A. I heard of it.
Q. And he was generally recognized as Mitchel Sparks' slave who had run off? A. Yes sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Q. How long have you known him? A. 40 odd years.
Q. You have known him continuously for the last few years, have you? A. Yes sir.
Q. How far does he live from you? A. About 6 miles.
Q. Do you know his reputation for truth and veracity in the community in which he lives? A. Well, Jim is considered shaky in his -----
Q. You know it, do you? A. Yes sir, I know what people say.
Q. Is that good or bad? A. It is bad.
Q. Would you believe him under oath as a witness? in a freedman case? A. No sir.
Q. Do you know about the time the town of Muskogee was established? A. Yes sir.
Q. About when was it? A. The latter part of February or early March of 1872.
Q. Then there was no town here in 1866? A. No sir, no part of a town.
Q. Then if Jim Alberty testified that he had been over here trading in the year 1866 and saw Walker Johnson over here at the ferry, that could not have been true? A. No sir.

Mr. Bledsoe:

- Q. You couldn't state that it was not true as to the ferry? A. I don't know anything about the ferry -- as to Muskogee, it wasn't here.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Mr. Hastings--to witness:

- Q. You have been tried in the Cherokee Courts, haven't you?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And you were whipped once? A. No sir.
Q. Were you not convicted once? A. I was convicted and paid out. They just fined me.
Q. They convicted you of larceny once? A. No sir, I was freed on that.
Q. Hasn't it been offered in testimony a number of times that you were convicted? A. I was convicted and reprieved.
Q. Who reprieved you? A. The government.
Q. What government? A. United States government.
Q. Did the Cherokee Court convict you? A. They fined me $300.00.
Q. Were not you convicted for stealing just after the war? A. No sir, I never was convicted in the Cherokee Courts for larceny.
Q. Never was tried for that? A. No sir.

Mr. Bledsoe:

- Q. Are you a Cherokee Freedman? A. Yes sir.
Q. On the Dawes Commission roll? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you know Walker Johnson? A. Yes sir, I used to know him.
Q. When did you first get acquainted with him? A. Before the war.
Q. Were you a slave? A. Yes sir.
Q. Of a Cherokee citizen? A. Yes sir.

- Q. Who did he belong to? A. Ben Johnson, --lived on Lee's Creek near Fort Smith.
- Q. Didn't he belong to Ben Johnson when the war broke out? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Was he ever sold out that you know of? A. No sir, not that I know of.
- Q. When did you see him ---after the war? A. Yes sir, I saw him after the war.
- Q. When? A. In the year of '65 or '66.
- Q. Where? A. Right across here at Fort Gibson.
- Q. Has Walker Johnson always been considered a Cherokee citizen? A. Yes sir.

Mr. Hastings:

- Q. How long had Ben Johnson lived there near Fort Smith? A. I don't know ---as long as I remember.
- Q. Since you remember? A. Yes sir.
- Q. For 20 years before the war? A. Yes sir, he must have.
- Q. Then he never did live in Going Snake District at all? A. It is all the same.
- Q. Right opposite from Fort Smith is on the line of Going Snake District, is it? A. Yes sir, Going Snake and Flint.
- Q. Don't you know the north line of Flint District and the south line of Going Snake is within a mile of the town of Stilwell? A. I don't know where Stilwell is.
- Q. Don't you know that it is within two miles of Evansville, Arkansas? A. No sir.
- Q. It don't run there? A. I don't know where it runs, exactly.
- Q. What are you testifying about Going Snake being close to Fort Smith for? A. It runs in that direction.
- Q. Don't you know that Going Snake never run south of Evansville, Arkansas? A. Flint District joins ----
- Q. I am asking about Going Snake District. What is the nearest point of Going Snake District to Fort Smith, Arkansas? A. The nearest point --- I don't know.
- Q. Is it as near as 40 miles? A. I don't suppose it is that far.
- Q. 30 miles? A. Maybe in the neighborhood of 20 or 18. Not a great ways.
- Q. Don't you know, as a matter of fact, that Stilwell on a straight line is more than 30 miles north of Sallisaw, and Sallisaw is northwest of Fort Smith, and, therefore, Going Snake More than 30 miles north of Fort Smith? A. I don't know where Stilwell is.
- Q. Did you know where Cornelius Wright lived before the war? A. No sir.
- Q. You never heard of him? A. I heard of him.
- Q. Did you know where Cornelius Wright lived before the war? A. No sir.
- Q. If this other witness testified that Ben Johnson lived up in Going Snake District when the war come up, he told what was not true? A. He lived close to Fort Smith.
- Q. Then he never lived in Going Snake, did he? A. He lived on Lee's Creek, close to Fort Smith.
- Q. How long before the war was it that you saw Walker Johnson at Ben Johnson's -- how many years before the war? A. I couldn't state just how long.
- Q. 5 or 6? A. Not quite that long.
- Q. 4? A. 2 or 3 years --- I don't know exactly.
- Q. That is all you are willing to testify about, ain't it --that you saw him some 2 or 3 years before the war? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You are not ready to testify about him when you hadn't seen him? A. No sir.

- Q. You do not know about him after that time? A. Till along about '63.
- Q. Till after he run off from Mitchel Sparks? A. I do not know where he come from. I don't know about that.
- Q. Ben Johnson could have sold him before the war and you not have known it? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is not that man generally known as Sparks? A. I never knew that.
- Q. Didn't you ever hear this applicant called Sparks? A. No sir.
- Q. You swear that? A. I never heard him called Sparks.
- Q. You mean to swear that under oath? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You never have heard that up to this day? A. No sir.
- Q. Where was he living when you first saw him after the war? A. He come to the army where we were.
- Q. After the war? A. He was at Fort Gibson.
- Q. Who was he working for there? A. I don't know.
- Q. What time of the year was it you saw him? A. I saw him often and on in the Spring sometimes, and a way along in the Summer.
- Q. Of what year? A. '66.
- Q. Did you see him in 1867? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Did you see him in 1868? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Did you see him in 1869? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Did you see him in 1870? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Did you see him in 1871? A. No sir.
- Q. Did you see him in 1872? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Did you see him in 1873? A. No.
- Q. Did you see him in 1874? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Did you see him in 1875? A. No sir.
- Q. Did you see him in 1876? A. No sir.
- Q. '77? A. No sir.
- Q. '78? A. I don't remember.
- Q. '79? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Did you see him in 1880? A. I don't remember.
- Q. Have you ever seen him since 1866? A. No sir.
- Q. You have never seen him since 1866? A. I have seen him since 1866.
- Q. When did you see him next? A. In '74. When I moved away from Fort Gibson.
- Q. Was he living there then? A. No sir, he wasn't living anywheres particularly.
- Q. Did you see him from 1866 up to 1874? A. Not all the time.
- Q. Had you ever seen him from 1866 until 1874? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where? A. At Fort Gibson.
- Q. Didn't you just now swear that you had not seen him? A. Not to live there.
- Q. With whom was he living when you saw him in 1866? A. He wasn't living with anybody particularly.
- Q. What was he doing? A. Just dragging around.
- Q. Don't you know what house he stayed at? A. No sir.
- Q. Don't know what he was doing? A. No sir, it is a hard question to watch a young man.
- Q. Where did you ever see him settled down at any place? A. No where.

Mr. Bledsoe:

- Q. If Walker Johnson had been sold, were you living close enough that you would have known it? A. Yes sir.

Mr. Hastings:

- Q. Where were you living before the war? A. On Illinois River

- Q. How far from Tahlequah? A. 13 miles.
Q. How far was it from Fort Smith? A. I guess, between 30 and 35 miles. Somewhere along in there. Our trading point was Fort Smith.
Q. You were a slave before the war? A. Of course. My young mistress went to Fort Smith to trade.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

W. W. Hastings, being first duly sworn, states as follows:

My name is W. W. Hastings, I am 37 years of age, my post office address is Tahlequah, Indian Territory. The south boundary line of Going Snake District is near where the town of Stilwell now is, and the town of Stilwell is some 40 miles north and a little west of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and my best judgment is that no point of Going Snake District is nearer than 30 or 35 miles to Fort Smith. The point that this last witness places himself --- say, about 13 miles north of Tahlequah on the Illinois River, would be a distance of 70 or 75 miles from Fort Smith, Arkansas, and about that same distance to where he places Ben Johnson before the war; and if Ben Johnson lived across the river from Fort Smith, in Sequoyah District, he would have lived at least 80 miles from where Rose Rogers places herself before the war.

Mr. Pledgoe:

COMMISSION TO FIVE TRIBES.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, Nov. 22, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Walker Johnson as a Cherokee Freedman.

APPEARANCES:

Applicant appears by his attorney, I. P. Bledsoe.
Cherokee Nation by attorneys L. B. Bell and W. V. Hastings.

WILLIAM E. JOHNSON being duly sworn testifies as follows:

EXAMINATION BY MR. BLEDSOE:

- Q What is your name? A William E. Johnson.
Q How old are you Mr. Johnson? A I am 49 years old, born in 1855.
Q Where do you live? A I live in the Saline district, Cherokee Nation.
Q You are an Indian by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know Walker Johnson? Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known Walker Johnson two or three years.
Q Did you know him before the war or during the war? A Well I remember seeing him but he went by the name of Hubbard.
Q Is Hubbard and Walker the same? A Yes sir.
Q To whom did Walker belong? A My grandfather.
Q Is your grandfather a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q Was this Walker or Hubbard ever sold out? A Not that I know of.
Q If he had been sold you would have know it, would you? A Yes.
Q Did you live near them or with them? A Well we lived close together.
Q Tell the Commission what you know about him being sold out.
A I never knew of my grandfather ever selling but a woman and two children. The woman we called her Big Mary, she had two children. I suppose the reason I remember this was cause these was the first niggers I ever knowed of him selling and it created right smart talk among the darkies, they said "Master a sellin Big Mary". I don't know anything about what he got or whether he got anything at all.
Q Who was this Aunt Big Mary? A She was said to be the mother of Walker or Hubbard.
Q Where did they live at the time she was sold? A We lived in Ft. Smith. My grandfather lived on one side of the street and my father lived on the other side when this sale was done.
Q I understood you to state that he never was sold? A No, not that I know anything about.
Q You were old enough then and in a position to know? A Why I think I would have heard of it. There was a lot of niggers run off before this and I would like to tell the reason I remember this.
Q Just tell it. A Before we moved to Ft. Smith, before this sale was made of this nigger woman and two children, we lived on this side of the river on my Aunt's place and my mother was taken sick and was sick for sometime, I don't just know how long, I know it was in '62 or '63. When night come on the women got scared, saying they was afear'd of them niggers and there was no light in the house and there was some poles across the top and they taken one of them down and cut it up to make a light in the house and somethine was said about what was the matter and they said they was feared of them niggers and they wanted to know what niggers and they said Mose and Hubbard and John and Pick.

Q That was in what year? A '62 or '63, I don't know which, we moved from that place to Ft. Smith.

Q The sale of these other niggers was down in Ft. Smith? A Yes.
Q After that? A Yes, sir, I suppose it was after that, we never--
Q This nigger Hubbard or Walker was not included in that sale?
A No, sir.
Q That was all the niggers you ever knew of your grandfather selling? A Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Did this Walker Johnson or Hubbard ever go by the name of Sparks? A I don't know.
Q Well that you ever heard of? A Yes, I heard he went by the name of Sparks.
Q Now did you ever know a man by the name of Mitchell? A I knew a person.
Q Did you ever see him before the war? A Why I may have seen him I don't remember.
Q Well he was a recognized citizen in the State of Arkansas? A Ye
Q Now you were born in 1885? A Yes.
Q What was your father's name? A Anderson Johnson.
Q Where did your father live from '59 to '61? A Well sir, up to I reckon from '59 on up till '61, the breaking out of the war, near Flint Court House.
Q Well you were living in Flint district when the war broke out? A Yes.
Q How far was the Flint Court House, or the place where you was living, from where your grandfather lived at Ft. Smith?
A About 40 miles.
Q Your grandfather at that time lived just across the road in Ft. Smith, Arkansas? A He lived on the old place, I reckon he did.
Q You were only between five and six years old when the war broke out? A Yes.
Q But this slave formerly belonged to your grandfather, in Ft. Smith? A Yes.
Q Now you have heard that this man has gone by the name of Sparks? A Yes.
Q He is called by both names, Walker Sparks and Walker Johnson?
A Yes.
Q Well now wasn't it possible that this fellow could have been sold in '59 or '60 without your knowing it, you lived 40 miles away? A Of course such things could happen, but then I would have been apt to heard it among the niggers. I was just a little chap and played with the niggers all the time.
Q But you couldn't be positive now that this nigger belonged to your grandfather when the war came up? A Never no more than what them women said that night.
Q Don't you know the truth of the matter is he was sold to Mitchell Sparks, a white man, at the very time you knew he had run off from Mitchell Sparks and sought concealment there with your grandfathers niggers? A No sir.

- Q Are you willing to swear now on your oath that this man was never sold to Mitchell Sparks? A If he was I never knew about it.
- Q Are you willing to swear that he wasn't? A Why I don't know that I can swear to it, possibly he was, but it looks as if he was I would have knowed it.
- Q You say you were five years old at the time? A Why I was 6 or 7
- Q You were born in '55 before the war came up? A In '61 would have been 6.
- Q But I am asking you between '59 and '61, are you willing now to swear that this man was never sold to Mitchell Sparks? A All the answer I could give if he was sold I never knew of it.
- Q Now how do you account for his going by the name of Sparks if Sparks didn't own him? A Just takin that name.
- Q Well how do you account for his going by the name of Sparks if Sparks never owned him? A I guess his mother was sold to Sparks. I am not interested in this case at all, am just trying to tell you the truth. I don't want to misrepresent anything.
- Q When did you ever see this fellow after the war? A I never saw him until after he come to Saline district.
- Q A short time ago? A About ten years ago.
- Q Now how long before the war was it you saw Walker Johnson at your grandfathers? A I couldn't tell, Mr. Hastings.
- Q Are you positive you saw him there in '60? A No, I couldn't say.
- Q Are you positive you saw him there in '61? A No, I couldn't say about it.

EXAMINATION BY THE COMMISSION:

- Q How far did you say it was from where you were living say in '60 or '61 from where your grandfather lived, and owned, as you claimed this man, Walker Johnson, or Walker Sparks? A We called it 40 miles, but in '61 sometime, I couldn't tell when that we moved down there together near each other, we first lived on this place and then moved to Ft. Smith and then there was just a street divided my fathers and grandfathers families and this is where this nigger woman was sold.
- Q Can you remember being down to your grandfathers place about '60.
- A I can't remember of ever being there until after we moved, I don't know what year.
- Q As a boy of five or six years of age would you likely be down there very often? A I suppose not.
- Q Unless your father or your mother took you there for a visit?
- A At that time I went with father.
- Q Your father was living? A Yes sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You testified that you didn't remember seeing this fellow in '60 or '61 at your grandfathers place? A No.
- Q Then you couldn't remember seeing him in '59, you was too young then, then you couldn't remember seeing him in '58 you was still younger then and you didn't see him in '57 you was younger still.
- Q Well then according to your own testimony you never remember seeing Walker Johnson at your grandfathers place before the war?
- A No I couldn't say that I did.

EXAMINATION BY MR. BLEDSOR:

Q Then to your own knowledge there was no other sale made but this Aunt Big Mary? A No sir, I don't know of any other sale being made.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q But according to your testimony you never did remember seeing this man Sparks at your grandfathers before the war came up? A

A No, sir.

Q And all that you remember at all of this man was the circumstance of your making that light with a pole of wood in the house because it was understood that Hubbard and Mose had come? A Yes, the women was scared of these runaway niggers around there.

Q You didn't see him then? A No sir, I was scared to death.

Q You didn't know then who this Hubbard actually belonged to at this time? A I supposed he belonged to my grandfather.

Q He may have been sold to Sparks and been a runaway nigger at this time? A He could have been, but I don't think it was possible cause the niggers or somebody would have heard somebody say something about it.

Q You never did see this Hubbard, or Walker Johnson, before the war according to your testimony? A I don't know, it is kind of a mixed up business, of course I have been around with him sometime or another, I don't know when. I can't tell you when, but I know by the talk around when he come. The name Hubbard was familiar with the boys.

Q You just remember hearing the name Hubbard but you don't remember this man or of having seen him before the war came up? A

A No, I can't say I did.

Q You didn't move down to Ft. Smith near your grandfather until after the war sometime in '61 or '62? A The war was going on, we had to leave home.

BY MR. BLEDSOR:

Q To the best of your knowledge and belief Mr. Johnson, this man belonged to your grandfather and never was sold?

MR. HASTINGS: Objected to for the reason that this witness himself states that he never saw this man at his grandfathers before the war.

2 WITNESS EXCUSED.

JOHN PRICE being duly sworn testifies as follows:

EXAMINATION BY MR. BLEDSOE:

Q What is your name? A John Price.
Q What is your age? A 59 years old.
Q Where do you live? A Tallequah.
Q Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know one Walker Johnson? A Yes.
Q When did you first see him after the war? A I first saw Walker Johnson with Brown Wright.
Q Where at? A I was at Tallequah.
Q What year? A The latter part of 1867.
Q Where have you seen him since that time? A I met him after that with a load of goods and property for Brown Wright, moving to old man Wright's place. There wasn't very many niggers in the country at that time and I asked him who he was and I said "are you the same nigger that lived in Tallequah" and he said he was.
Q Is he living in the Cherokee Nation? A I suppose so.
Q Did he marry a full blood Cherokee? A Well she is not a full blood.
Q Cherokee by blood? A I suppose so.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

STICK ROSS being duly sworn testifies as follows:

EXAMINATION BY MR. BLEDSOE:

Q What is your name? A Stick Ross.
Q What is your age? A 54.
Q Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q Straight card? A Yes, sir.
Q Where do you live? A Tallequah.
Q Do you know Walker Sparks or Walker Johnson, A Yes sir.
Q When did you first see him after the war? A I will tell you I can't exactly say, it was in '66 or '67, I know it was when he was at Brown Wright's place at Tallequah. We had a council there and I saw him, I think it was in '66, but I understand it was in '67 when he was at this man Wrights. He says he saw me and I was trying to recollect when it was. I was well acquainted with him up there when he was at Brown Wright's place, at Tallequah.
Q You don't remember seeing him before that time at Ft. Gibson?
A. No, sir, I don't remember that I saw him, he says he saw me.

EXAMINATION BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q And you never saw him until John Price saw him at Brown Wright's place in '67? A Yes.
Q When did you draw that payment money, what year? A I couldn't tell, I drew it at Vinita.
Q Do you know what year your children were born? A No, the old woman does, I don't. She has their ages.
Q You don't know much about these years? A No, I don't remember any of them.
Q What is your opinion about the ownership of this applicant, Walker Johnson, before the war? A Well, they said he was sold.
Q Who to? A A man named Sparks.
Q A white man? A Yes, they say so, I never saw him.
Q That was your opinion at the time? A Yes, sir.

---6---

BY MR. BLEDSOE:

Q You didn't know of your own knowledge that he was sold? A No, that has always been charged against him.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Did he ever go by the name of Sparks? A That was what he went by, yes.

Q Why did you call him Sparks? A That was what his name was.

Q And he always went by the name of Sparks until lately? A Yes.

- Q Say your name is Cy Johnson? A Yes, sir.
Q It has been a long time since the war, hasn't it?
A. Yes sir, a good while.
Q How many years since the war, Cy? A I don't know exactly.
Q Can you remember when the war closed? A Yes sir.
Q Can you remember when it commenced? A No sir.
Q How long was it after the war that you saw Harrison Johnson in the Cherokee Nation? A It must have been a year or two, I guess.
Q Cy, you are not trying to testify to this Commission that you remember who was the owner of Harrison Johnson when the war commenced? A Yes sir.
Q And you are now how old? A 44
Q Don't you know that if you are 44 now, that you were not born at the commencement of the war? A It must be down wrong
Q Don't you know that you would have been too little to remember who belonged to who? A I do remember it.
Q Was you old enough when the war broke out to remember Ben Johnson? A Yes sir.
Q And you remember Harrison Johnson? A Yes sir.
Q What year did the war break out? A I couldn't tell you.
Q What year did it close? A I couldn't tell you that either.
Q Do you know what year this is? A No sir.
Q Then you do not know how old you are? A I said I was 44 years old.
Q Do you know what year it was that you and your mother and four children walked back from the Choctaw Nation to this country? A. Yes sir, it was in '65.
Q You are 44 years old now, and in '65 you walked from the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Mr. Blue:

- Q Why do you know your age---what do you know about it?
A. My young mistress said I was 44 years old.
Q You do not know positively how old you are, do you? A No sir.
Q You are positive that you walked back from the Choctaw Nation?
A. Yes sir, I know that I give out.
Q Do you know that you and Harrison Johnson and the other slaves went into the Choctaw Nation with your master? A Yes sir.
Q Were there other boys that were slaves of Ben Johnson at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Did he take all the slaves that you know he owned into the Choctaw Nation? A All but two.
Q Who were they? A Harrison's mother and Walker Sparkes.
Q What was Harrison's mother's name? A Mary.
Q Where did she stay? A He sold her off.

MR. Davenport:

- Q How long a before the war had it been since he sold Mary?
A. I don't know. The war was breaking out and then he sold her.
Q Where was Walker Sparkes at that time? A In Fort Smith.
Q He belonged to old man Sparkes.
Q Old man Sparkes was a United States citizen? A Yes sir.
Q You can remember all this? A Yes sir.
Q And your young mistress told you that you are 44 years old?
A. Yes, sir.
Q Where is she? A At Park Hill.
Q What is her name? A Dee Balentine
Q How old is your young mistress, that told you that you are 44 years old? A She is older than I am.

-----3-----

- Q You say the mother of Harrison and another slave were sold?
A. Yes sir.
Q And with the exception of these two he took the rest of his slaves? A. Yes sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Mr. Hastings:

(This Walker Sparkes has made application, under the name of Walker Johnson, and is found on Freedman-D- card number 356. There has been a good deal of testimony introduced in this case, and I suggest that the Commission, of its own motion, you having developed this testimony, make the testimony of this witness a part of the record in the Walker Sparkes case.)

COMMISSION: (The Field Party will take the testimony of Mary Dee Balintine, and find out the slaves of Ben Johnson at the beginning of the war of the Rebellion. They will inquire with particular reference to Walker Sparkes, or Johnson, and Harrison Johnson.)

Commission:

Daniel Sanders recalled.

- Q When did Harrison Johnson die? A Four or five years ago-- maybe six.
Q Is he on the '80 roll? A I don't know. He ought to be. I know he is on the '96 roll, and he ought to be on the roll of '70 if there is one.
Q When you saw Harrison at Fort Scott, as you have stated, do you know how he was traveling? A He come with some wagons from Fort Gibson.
Q When was that you saw him? A In the fall of '66.
Q Do you know how he happened to be there? A He was hunting his mother, and had heard that she was up there, and he went up there after her.
Q How long did he remain in Fort Scott after you saw him there? A. He wasn't there very long. He heard that his mother was in the country from there, and he went to where she was, and then come back.
Q Do you know whether he found his mother or not? A Yes sir.
Q Where was she? A Up on Mill Creek from Fort Scott.
Q After finding his mother then you said he returned to Fort Gibson? A I don't know just exactly.
Q When did you first see him in the Cherokee Nation after that? A. In '67.
Q What time of the year? A In the fall of '67.
Q Did Harrison have any brothers? A Yes sir.
Q Can you give the names of them? A Walker, Anderson, Reuben, and Sam.
Q Do you know whether or not any of them are on the '80 roll? A. They ought to have been on the roll, but I don't know whether they were put on or not.
Q What has become of these brothers of Harrison Johnson? A. Walker is dead, and Sam died in Jail at Fort Smith for killing his next oldest brother.
Q What do you say about Harrison being on the roll of '96? A. Yes sir, he is on it--- and I think he is on the Kerns-Clifton roll.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

CASE CLOSED.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS HAD IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION
FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HARRISON JOHNSON ET AL., AS CHEROKEE FREEDMEN.

MARY D. BALENTINE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSION:

- Q What is your name? A Mary D. Balentine.
- Q What is your age? A I will be 48 years old next month.
- Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q What is your post office address? A Tahlequah, I. T.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life only what time we were away during the war, I was just a child and we lived in the Choctaw Nation during the war.
- Q What was the name of your father? A Anderson Johnson.
- Q What was the name of your mother? A Lucy Johnson.
- Q Were they both citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever know Ben and Annie Johnson? A Yes sir, my grand-father was named Ben Johnson, my grand-mother was named Annie.
- Q Were they living at the outbreak of the war of the rebellion?
- A My grand-father was.
- Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, he was an adopted citizen, he was a whiteman.
- Q Was he the only Ben Johnson you ever knew? A No sir, I had an Uncle Ben.
- Q Was he a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the outbreak of the war of the rebellion? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he living? A Down near Fort Smith in the Cherokee Nation.
- Q What was the name of his wife? A I don't know, I am not certain but I think her name was Martha.
- Q What relation was he to you? A My Uncle.
- Q Was this Ben Johnson, who was your uncle, your father's brother?
- A Yes sir.
- Q And he was a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Your grand-father was an adopted citizen? A Yes sir, he was a whiteman but my grand-mother was a Cherokee.
- Q Did your grand-mother die prior to the outbreak of the war?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Did either your grand-father, Ben Johnson, or your Uncle, Ben Johnson, own slaves at the outbreak of the war of the rebellion by the name of Harrison Johnson, Charlotte Johnson, Millie White and Walter Sparks? A I don't know, I cannot remember, I was just a child then, but I know my father had a girl they called Charlotte, but the others I cannot remember anything about them.
- Q What was your father's name? A Anderson Johnson.
- Q Was Charlotte Johnson the slave of your father at the beginning of the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember whether Harrison Johnson or Millie White or Walter Sparks were all or either of them the property of any of the Johnson family? A No sir I don't remember anything about them at all.
- Q But Charlotte was the slave of your father? A Yes sir, we had a girl by that name, I remember her but the others I don't remember anything about.

- Q About how old would Charlotte be if living at present? A I think she was a girl a little bit younger than I am.
- Q Do you know whether this Charlotte you refer to is living or not? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you know the name of this Charlotte's mother? A They called her Clash, I think that is what they called her.
- Q Was Charlotte's mother the slave of your father? A Yes sir.
- Q Was she living with your family at the outbreak of the war in the Cherokee Nation? A I think so, yes sir.
- Q Did she go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A She went with us to the Choctaw Nation, but she died out there.
- Q Charlotte died? A No not Charlotte, her mother.
- Q Did Charlotte go to the Choctaw Nation with your family? A Yes sir.
- Q What time did your family return to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A I don't remember.
- Q Do you know when the Charlotte Johnson you refer to returned to the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't, I thought I knew but I got the wrong idea in my head about Charlotte some way, I thought we left her in the Choctaw Nation but my brother older than I am was here and I asked him about it and he said she came back with us.
- Q He said Charlotte Johnson came back to the Cherokee Nation with you? A Yes sir, when we come back we stopped over by Fort Smith awhile and he said Charlotte came with us to this place here the other side of Fort Smith and he doesn't know what became of her then.
- Q Then to the best of your information you had not yet reached the Cherokee Nation when Charlotte Johnson left you? A No sir we hadn't, it was a little place the other side of Fort Smith, some place where we stopped.
- Q Have you seen this Charlotte Johnson to whom you refer since then? A No sir.
- Q Do you know whether she is living or not? A No sir I don't.
- Q You have no recollection as to Harrison Johnson, Millie White and Walter Sparks? A No sir, I haven't.
- Q Do you know whether or not Charlotte Johnson and Millie White or either of them were sold to one Kerd Vinson in Alabama prior to the war? A No sir I don't, I know Charlotte wasn't, but I don't remember anything about the other ones at all.
- Q You know Charlotte Johnson wasn't sold to Kerd Vinson before the war? A No sir she wasn't.
- Q Have you any recollection of Millie White being sold? A No sir I don't know anything about her at all.
- Q You don't know whether either of them were hired to CVinson in Alabama? A No sir I know Charlotte wasn't, but I don't know anything about the other ones.
- Q Do you remember whether Walter Sparks, sometimes called Walter Johnson, was sold to one Sparks at Fort Smith, Arkansas, about the time of the war? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you remember the names of any or all of the slaves of Ben Johnson at the outbreak of the war? A I remember some of them, he had a good many slaves but I don't remember any other names.
- Q Give the names that you can recollect? A He had one woman, her name was Adaline, and she had some sons, John, Aaron, she had a daughter names Sarah, then he had another woman named Ailsie, I remember he had two named Mary, Big Mary and Little Mary, I believe that is all I can remember.

- Q These slaves you have just named were they the property of your Uncle Ben Johnson? A I think they were the property of my grand-father, I am not certain of that.
- Q Did your grand-father, Ben Johnson, and your Uncle, Ben Johnson, and your father live in the same community? A No sir, Uncle Ben Johnson and my grand-father, I think as well as I remember, they lived together, but my father lived up by Stilwell and they lived down near Fort Smith.
- Q Your Uncle Ben and your grand-father lived together? A I think so, but I am not certain, but I think they did.
- Q That is your best recollection? A Yes sir.
- Q These slaves you have named belonged to one or the other of them? A Yes sir, one or the other but I think they belonged to my grand-father, but this Charlotte belonged to my father.
- Q The Charlotte you refer to belonged to your own father? A Yes sir

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Walker Johnson as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on May 20, 1901, at Vinita, Indian Territory, Walker Johnson appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, May 21, and October 22, 1901, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 9, and May 21, 1902. The records further show that on July 10, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision herein, denying the application for the enrollment of said applicant as a Cherokee freedman, and that said decision was duly forwarded the Department for review and decision; that thereafter on April 7, 1904 (I.T.D. 1472-04), the Department, in view of a recommendation by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs that said decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes be reversed directed said Commission to notify the attorney for the Cherokee Nation and the applicant of said recommendation, and to allow said attorney thirty days within which to file any argument in the matter he might desire, and the applicant ten days within which to reply to same, and to serve such argument upon the parties, and that thereafter on August 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 1472-04, 4998-04), the Department remanded said case to said Commission for further hearing and readjudication. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 22, and November 22, 1904. A copy of the testimony of Cy Johnson taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory March 6, 1905, before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Delilah Johnson, et al., and Elizabeth Melton, et al., as Cherokee freedmen, is filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Walker Johnson, claims that he was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion, and that he complied with the provisions of Article nine of the Treaty of 1866, but after ample opportunity having been afforded said applicant to establish by satisfactory evidence, that he was either the slave of a Cherokee citizen, or a free colored person residing in the Cherokee country at the commencement of the war of the rebellion, and that he was an actual personal bona fide resident of the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation, and as provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat. 137), he has failed to do so, or to show that he possesses any right whatever, to Cherokee freedman citizenship, hence, the application of the said Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman comes within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza J. Bryant, et al. (I.T.D.544-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D.4230-04), William Rector (I.T.D.1468-04), Minnie Duncan, et al. (I.T.D.1470-04), Samantha Chambers (I.T.D.2296-04), Moses Ross (I.T.D.6056-04), Florence Bratcher (I.T.D.12692-04), and Frankie Grinnett (I.T.D.17902-1905). Excepting the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls, said applicant cannot be identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this office.

The evidence further shows that Walker Johnson is the husband of Patsy Johnson, nee Blackfox, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, whose name is included in the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 6820. It is further shown that the said parties were not married until subsequent to November 1, 1875.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), Walker Johnson is not entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied; and that in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, appealed from the Court of Claims, said Walker Johnson is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON,

June 12, 1901.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

The office is in receipt of Department letter of June 7, 1901, transmitting for consideration, report, and recommendation a letter from Walker Johnson, of Locustgrove, Indian Territory, requesting that a certificate showing his election "as Grand Councilor" in the Cherokee Nation, which he states he forwarded to the Department some years ago be returned to him so that he can present the same to the Commission in connection with his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

In reply, I have to advise you that on September 22, 1893, this office received a letter from said Walker Johnson complaining that in the taking of the census just prior to the date of his letter the authorities of the Cherokee Nation refused to enroll him as a citizen and with said communication he transmitted a commission signed by J. B. Mays, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, which said commission was dated November 27, 1891, and appointed him Grand Councilor of the Saline District of said Nation for the term of two years from November 16, 1891. This commis-

LAND.
47517/1903.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
Washington, Feb. 18, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated July 24, 1903, transmitting the application of Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

July 10, 1903, the Commission held the applicant was not entitled to enrollment. The Commission found that the applicant was not the slave of a Cherokee Citizen or of a free colored person residing within the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the Rebellion; that the applicant went out of the Nation during the Rebellion and did not return within the time limit fixed by the Treaty of 1866.

The record in this case shows that the applicant belonged to George Johnson, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, at the commencement of the war. He is the son of Reuben and Mary Johnson. He was also known by the name of Walker Sparks and Hubbard Johnson.

The applicant testified that he returned to the Cherokee Nation from Kansas during the year 1866. Jim Alberty testified that the applicant was running a ferry for Mrs. Brady in that year within the limits of the Cherokee Nation. M. B. Rowe testified that he did not see the applicant in the Cherokee Nation until about 1870 and that he did not know where the applicant was in 1866.

Murrell Johnson testified that he came to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 and that Walker Sparks, this applicant, was in the Cherokee Nation at that time. He also testified that he did not know whether the applicant was in the Cherokee Nation in 1866.

There is some testimony in the case relative to the applicant having been sold to a person by the name of Parks, but the preponderance of the evidence shows that he was not so sold.

The office is unable to agree with the Commission's findings. It seems that the applicant was, at the commencement of the rebellion a slave of a Cherokee citizen; that during the war he went to the State of Kansas, but returned before Feb. 11, 1867 and under Department letter of May 11, 1900, it is believed that the applicant is entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, and it is therefore recommended that the decision of the Commission adverse to him be not approved and that the Commission be directed to enroll the applicant.

Very respectfully,

CAW-H.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 10, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letter of April 7, 1904, (I.T.D. 1472-1904) there is herewith inclosed argument of attorney for Cherokee Nation, in the matter of the application of Walker Johnson, for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, the Commission's decision in which case was forwarded to the Department on July 10, 1903. This argument was received by the Commission on May 20, and bears evidence of service upon the applicant.

No reply to said argument has as yet been submitted by the applicant.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of the application of Walker Johnson for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, in which case you were recently allowed thirty days within which to file argument, there is herewith returned the argument filed by you in that case, together with a copy of Departmental letter of June 23, 1904, in which it is stated that a copy of your said argument should have been served upon the applicant's attorney, I. P. Bledsoe.

It is requested that you comply with the instructions contained in the Department's letter above mentioned, and that you return your argument at once, in order that same may again be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

WASHINGTON. August 17, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 19, 1904, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs submitted the Cherokee freedman case of Walker Johnson, and recommended that your decision adverse to the applicant be not concurred in, and that you be directed to enroll the applicant, as he finds that Johnson was the slave of a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion and returned to the Nation from Kansas prior to February 12, 1867.

Argument by the attorney for the Nation was received with your letter of July 12, 1904.

You found in your decision of July 12, 1904, that the applicant was not the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, and that he did not return from Kansas to the Nation prior to January 19, 1867.

The testimony for the applicant, upon whom the burden of proof rests, is somewhat vague and contradictory, both as to the question of slavery and residence prior to February 12, 1867; and is contradicted in material particulars by testimony introduced by the Nation. The Department does not feel justified in ) rendering a decision in the case without further opportunity for the applicant and the Nation to introduce more testimony, especially as the Nation asserts, apparently with good reason, that the principal witness for the applicant, Jim Alberty, is "one of the most disreputable freedmen in the Cherokee Nation; . . . so disreputable that the Commission is thoroughly acquainted with him and can not afford to give any heed to his testimony," etc.

It also appears that Johnson is the husband of a Cherokee citizen, and the question of his right as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation has not been passed upon by you.

The case is hereby remanded, with directions to allow further testimony to be submitted, and to readjudicate the case.

The testimony and the papers attached thereto, also the argument of the attorney for the Nation, are inclosed.

A copy of Indian Office letter of February 16, 1904, was sent you April 7, 1904.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

Q Do you know whether he was a Cherokee slave or not; slave of a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Lewis Ross.

Q Was Lewis Ross a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, a citizen.

Q Do you know what became of Ross during the war, whether he left the Cherokee Nation or remained here, Jeff Ross? A Jeff Lyons they called him, I don't know.

Q What do you say about Jeff, did he leave or not? A Yes, sir.

Q When did he come back? A He came back just before Christmas in the winter of '66.

Q Did you see him here at that time? A Yes, sir, he lived right in the yard with us.

Q With whom? A With me and Andy Fry and Aaron, four or five families lived there.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Recognized by the Cherokee Nation as a citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever had anything to do with this young man Ned Lyons in the Courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q What? A Why, I was appointed as administrator of old man Lyons' estate for these children.

Q You were appointed administrator? A Yes, sir, by Judge Ward.

Ned Lyons - 3

Q Who was Judge Ward? A Joe Ward.

Q What was he? A He was the judge and he appointed me as administrator over the estate of Jeff Lyons.

Q Of the estate of Jeff Lyons? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was the father of Ned Lyons? A Yes, sir.

Q When was that? A I just can't tell you exactly the year.

Q Did you wind up the estate? A Yes, sir.

Q About how long ago has that been as well as you remember?

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to ~~the~~ pursuing this line of investigation any further, because the record in any Court is certainly the best testimony. I allowed a part of it to be gone into, I didn't have any idea it would be gone into at any length.

Commissioner: There is no doubt but that the record is the best testimony, and the testimony cannot be used without it can be established the records are lost or cannot be procured.

Q In what Court was this: where did Judge Ward keep his Court?

A Delaware district, east of Grand River.

By Mr. Hastings: Al, you remember everybody that came back in '66

A No, not exactly, no, sir.

Q Your memory is fresh of 35 years ago, know just the exact time all colored people came to your neighborhood? A No, not the exact time, no, sir.

Q You remember all these years that stand out there? A Well, I can tell you why I remember this.

Q Why is it you remember it? A Well, let me tell you; he came here before Christmas in '66, and in January, '67, he went back to Kansas and got a lot of goods for old Bob Daniels, and old Bob Daniels gave him a twenty dollar gold piece, the first I seen since the war, for going after them goods.

Q Where was Bob Daniels keeping his store, where was he? A He was keeping his family.

Q Where was Bob Daniels living at that time? A At his place, he came down on his place and got Jeff to go back to Kansas for these goods.

Q Where did Bob come from? A Came from Texas.

Q When did Bob come up there from Texas? A He came up there, if I recollect right, sometime in January.

Q On what year? A In '67.

Q And during that month, you think it was, that Daniels hired Jeff to go back for a load of goods? A About that time he hired Jeff to go.

Q Do you know what that load of goods consisted of? A Yes, sir, it was bacon and flour and Hungarian seed.

Q Take Bob Daniels team? A Took his own team.

Q Lyons own team? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have his wife with him when he come to your place in '66?

A Had his wife and left here and I got wood for her when he was gone.

Q Did he live there the year of '67? A Yes, sir, and raised a crop; he put in his corn in June, '67; he didn't get his corn planted till then.

Q On the old Dr. Thompson place? A Yes, sir.

Q How many of you fellows made a crop there on that place?

A I wasn't making a crop there at all.

Q How many others of them fellows? A Andy Fry, Jeff Lyons, Mose Hodrick, Tom Moore, and old uncle Butler McNair.

Q How much was in cultivation on that place? A They cleaned up about five or six acres of a piece.

Q And all of them was making a crop right there? A Yes, sir.

Q And you swear positively Jeff Lyons was there on Christmas of '66? A To my best recollection he came there before Christmas, I don't know positive.

Q You know they were there on Christmas of '66? A They were there before Christmas, or just about Christmas, and he left from there in January and went back to Kansas.

Q He only made a trip up there and back? A He made two trips, made one trip for Bob Daniels and one trip for himself.

Q With the exception of short trips up there and back he was down in that country from ~~the~~ Christmas of 1866 on? A Yes, sir, that is the best of my recollection.

Q You are positive about it? A I am telling you the best I can recollect about it.

Q I want to know if you can remember that is the year of '66 or '67? A The year of '67 to my judgment.

Q Was this child born then? A This Ned, no, sir.

Q Did he have any children at all? A Yes, sir, he had a child Elias, that was a baby, and he had one girl there called Anarchy, and he had this Mike Moore, that is his stepson, and this Anarchy was his stepdaughter, and the boy Elias was a baby.

Q When he came there about Christmas? A When he came there, yes, sir.

Q Did he live in the house with you? A I lived in Dr. Thompson's house and he was living in Dr. Thompson's nigger houses.

Q Some small houses around there, log houses? A No, sir, little brick houses.

Q How far was George Clark living from there at the time? A George Clark lived between four and five miles.

Mr. Smith: Have you the letters of administration issued to you by that court? A Yes, sir, I think so, I think I have at home.

Q If you can find them will you bring them here to-morrow?

A Yes, sir.

--o--

Andy Fry, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: State your name? A Andy Fry.

Q How old are you? A 66.

Q Where do you live? A I live southeast of Vinita about 12 miles on the Grand River.

Q Are you a Freedman? A Yes, sir.

Q So recognized by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A I guess I am, I have never looked but then I guess I am on that roll.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my days until I went to Kansas during the war.

Q Do you know Ned Lyons? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know his brother, Elias? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know his sister Rachel Lyons? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was his father? A Jeff Lyons.

Q Who was their mother? A Their mother was; I most forget her name; I know it as well as I know any woman.

Q You don't remember her just now? A I can't remember her name just now, but I know her just as well as anybody.

Q Did you know Jeff Lyons in his life time? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did he live when the war came up? A He lived with ~~xx~~ Dr. Ross.

Q Was he a slave of some Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q Of who? A He went from Lewis Ross to Dr. Ross and lived with Dr. Ross.

Q Were the Rosses Cherokee citizens? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what became of Lyons during the war, whether he went out of the Cherokee nation or now? A Yes, sir, he went up north.

Q Do you know when he came back? A He came back in '66, the winter of '66.

Q About where did he come to? A He came up on Russell Creek and stopped up there a while and then he came down on Cabin Creek and stayed there a while and he heard of me being over on the other side of the river and he came to the river and hollered over and when I went to the river it was Lyons, a man I had known.

Q Was that before or after Christmas, in '66? A It was before Christmas.

Q This boy Ned Lyons, do you know where he was born? A Yes, sir, I know where he was born.

Q Where was he born? A Born there at Dr. Thompson's place.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge where his brother Elias was born? A He was born at Iola, Kansas.

Q Do you know where Rachel was born? A She was born this side of the river, right below Dr. Thompson's place.

Q Was she born before or after the war? A Rachel was born since the war.

Q Was Elias born before or after or during the war? A He was born about during of the war or just about the close of the war.

Q Where have these three children of Lyons been living since you first knew them? A Well, they lived near the river there all the while the old man lived, and one of them moved out west, I think one of them is living over there now, I think maybe a couple of them.

Q In or out of the Cherokee Nation? A No, they have been living in the Cherokee Nation all the time.

By W.W.Hastings: What place on Russell Creek did Jeff Lyons first come to? A He stayed up there this side of Chetopa.

Q Did he live there a while? A Yes, sir, he stayed up there a while in camps.

Q Who with? A In camps up there by himself, just him and his family.

Q You don't know how far from Chetopa? A No, sir, it was there on Russell Creek somewhere, around there towards that old timbered hill somewhere.

Q You don't know how long he stayed there? A I think he told me he stayed up there about three weeks.

Q And he went from there to Cabin Creek? A Yes, sir, and he was there in camps about three weeks.

Q In tents? A Yes, sir, in tents.

Q Anybody live up on Cabin Creek where he was camping? A Wasn't anybody at all there at the time.

Q Came on down to your place then? A Yes, sir.

Q You were on the other side of the river? A Yes, sir.

Q You helped him across? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he make a crop with you the next year, the year of '67?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was Jess Cochran living there that year? A Jess Cochran was living there but he moved out on Cabin Creek.

Q George Clark was living down there? A He was living down on the other side of the river somewhere, but I never seen George Clark till '67.

Q How many colored people made crops on that one place that year? A There was me and Jeff and Tom Moore and Butler McNair, and Mose Hodrick.

Q Now you know Mose Hodrick didn't come there for two years, don't you? A He came there and made a crop there.

Q Hax That year? A He came and made a crop in '67.

Q They had Jeff cited down at Tahlequah to appear before Bob Daniels Court, didn't they? A I don't know, sir.

Q This same Bob Daniels you heard Allen Lynch testifying about?

A Yes, sir.

Q And Bob Daniels was the Chief Justice of that Court down there?

A Yes, sir.

Q In '71? A Yes, sir.

Q And you know Jeff Lyons and his family were ~~xxxx~~ cited down there and Jeff did go down there to Tahlequah in '71? A I don't know whether he did or not.

Q I ask you if he went to Tahlequah? A I don't know whether he did or not; I was living on this side of the river.

Mr. Smith: I object to the testimony ~~xxx~~ ~~xx~~ without the production of the records.

Q Did he go to Tahlequah? A I don't know, sir, I never paid any attention to them Court cases, I was recognized by the Cherokee Nation at that time and never paid no attention to it.

Ned Lyons 6.

Q You never paid any attention to '71 but you did to '66? A In '66 I was all right myself and I didn't pay no attention to that myself.

Q You were not a witness at Tahlequah in '71? A No, sir, if I had been called on I would have went, but nobody didn't call on me.

Q Do you know any other Jefferson Lyons among the colored people
A No, sir.

Q You are pretty well acquainted among them? A Yes, sir, I am pretty well acquainted among the m.

Q This Bob Daniels that lived out here was the same Bob Daniels a member of that Court, at that time? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: Do you know anything of your own personal knowledge as to whether Jeff Ross' estate was administered on in the Cherokee Courts or not, or Jeff Lyons? A No, sir, I don't know for certain but I heard so, I can't swear it for certain, I heard it was.

-----o-----

Anderson Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Anderson Lynch/

Q How old are you? A About 64 I think as near as I knows.

Q What is your post-office? A Here at Vinita.

Q Are you sometimes called Crap or Crep Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q But that is not right, it is Anderson? A Anderson, yes sir.

Q Do you know Ned Lyons? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know his sister, Rachel? A Yes, sir.

Q Is her name Rachel Lyons, or is she married? A She was named Rachel Lyons when I knew her, she has married a Landrum.

Q Her name is Rachel Landrum then is it? A (No answer.)

Q Do you know New Lyons brother Elias? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know their father? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was their father? A Jeff Lyons.

Q Was he a slave during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did he belong to? A He belonged to Lewis Ross when I knew him.

Q Was Lewis Ross a Cherokee and a citizen of the Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what became of Jeff Lyons during the war? Whether he stayed in the Cherokee Nation or went out? A He went out, went to Kansas.

Q Do you know whether he ever came back or not? A Yes, sir, I saw him back here.

Q When did you first see him back? A It was in -- it was along in the fall of '66 as well as I can remember about it, it was along in the winter, I don't know just exactly what time it was.

Q Where have these three children, Ned, Elias and Rachel lived?

A They lived over there just below the Dr. Thompson place, at a farm over there.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Lived there all their lives? A Yes, sir, as was told not long ago I heard of some of them going out west.

Q Where did they go when they went west, as far as Grand river?

A Oh yes, or maybe a little farther, somewhere out on the creeks.

Q Did they still stay in the Cherokee Nation or did they go out?

A Yes, they were in the Cherokee Nation out there.

Q Do you know when Jeff Lyons died? A Yes, sir, I was over there directly after he died, but I don't remember just when.

Q Where did he die? A Right on his place at home.

Q About how many years ago? A I disremember, I never kept track of it.

Q Do you know whether his estate was administered on in the Cherokee Courts or not? A No, sir, I don't know whether it was or not, whether he ever went down there.

Mr. Hastings: Did he die less than 20 years ago, Crap; Jeff Lyons? die less than 20 years ago or more than 20 years ago? A I don't think it has been quite that long.

Q Q You saw him in '66? A Yes, sir, along in the winter of '66.

Q You don't know one year from another, do you? A Yes, I know.

Ned Lyons 7

Q What year is this? A This, I don't know just what, I never kept track of the years, but '66 is all I know.

Q You have just been told it was '66 and you stuck to it? A Well, '66 we were all on trial at that time pretty much, in '66 everybody was making back home.

Q You were all tried here before the Kerna-Clifton Commission, everybody? A Well a good many of them.

Q What year was that in? A You are too hard for it, I never kept track of the years.

Q Fact o f the business is you never kept track of any of them?

A Not hardly, never paid much attention to it, went along on my business.

Q Who told you to say '66 here to-day? A Nobody, but I know that '66 was years ago.

Q How many years ago was it? A I disremember, I didn't kept track of it.

Q You can't count? A No, sir, can't count.

Q And don't know anything about the years of the calendar? A Don't know a thing about it.

Q You remember about Jeff Lyons having his case tried down at Tahlequah a few years after the war when Mr. Bob Daniels was on the Court? A I don't know whether he went over there or not.

Q You don't remember about that? A No, sir; seems like to me a lot of them went down there, but I don't know whether he was along there or not.

Q Weren't you over there in the same neighborhood around with him?

A I lived on Lynch's Prairie and they lived back on Dr. Thompson's place.

Q Where did you live in the first year after the war; did you make a farm on this Dr. Thompson place? A No sir, no sir; I lived on the old Lynch place, me and Lon ~~Lyne~~ Lynch and Stephen Henry rented from Lon Lynch and uncle Bill Buffington, he lived over there by the Mills on Beatty's Prairie, I expect you knew him.

Mr. Smith: When did you come back, or did you go out during the war? A Yes, sir, I went out.

Q When did you come back? A I can't back along in '65, the winter of '65.

Q What was there about '66 that you are talking about all these being on trial, what do you mean by that? A Well, there was everybody that was reading the papers out there that we had all better return home, that we had a show to get home, the war was ceased and so on.

Q When were you to get home, or did they read anything to you in the papers about that? A Yes, sir, they said we wanted to return home inside of '66.

Q And that is the reason why you remember '66? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Hastings: That is before you came back when you were up in Kansas that they were reading that to you? A Yes, sir, I first got hearing of it in Kansas.

Q You heard them saying that up there, reading it in the papers, telling you to come back? A Yes, sir, that we all got to return home.

Q That was in '66? A No, it wasn't in '66, must have been along in '65 when they were reading it.

Q They were reading it in '65 before you returned, before you had come back in '65? A They just said return back home, the treaty wasn't made then.

Q Then they wasn't reading if it hadn't been made? A They were reading for us to come back home, that the treaty had ceased.

Q If you came back in a certain time? A Yes, sir, a certain time.

Q That was in '65 before you came back here; you came here in '65?

A Yes, sir, along in the winter of '65.

Q Have you ever been up before the Courts for anything? A What Courts. Q Any of them ever have you arrested? A No, sir.

Q Arrested? A No, sir.

Q Never did? A Yes, I have been arrested.

- Q Ever arrested for anything else? A No, nothing else.
Q Marshals or officers never had you any other time? A No, sir.

-----
Mr. Hastings: Mr. Smith, I want to offer in evidence this judgment.

Mr. Smith: (reads same) You can offer it, of course I object to it.

Mr. Hastings: The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation offer in testimony from pages 62 to pages 63 of Minutes of Special Court of Commission, Supreme Court, 1871, records of the Cherokee Nation, and on page 62 is found: "Monday morning, June 25, 1871. Court met; Chief Justice R.B. Daniels and Associate Redbird Sixkiller present. There being no cases ready for trial, Court adjourned till nine o'clock to-morrow morning. Tuesday morning, June 6, 1871." On this date, and on page 63 of the same book, appears the following: "Case of Jefferson Lyons and family. The Court decide from evidence they are debarred the rights of Cherokee citizenship under the Ninth Article of the Cherokee Treaty of July, 1866."

Mr. Smith: Counsel for the applicant objects upon the ground that the entry offered is insufficient to show any judgment in any form and for the further reason that the Jefferson Lyons referred to is not in any way identified with the Jefferson Lyons who was the father of the applicant, and for the further reason that the applicant is not in any manner shown even by the said entry to have been a party to the proceedings now offered.

Commissioner: I suppose you acknowledge the authenticity of the record.

Mr. Smith: I don't make any question about that.

Commissioner: Ned Lyons applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife Nancy, and four children, Delsie, James R., Mahaley and Katie. He avers that he was married to one Mariah Landrum, now deceased, and that by said marriage he had one child Delsie, and the name of Mariah Landrum is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and the name of Delsie is found upon the Kerns-Clifton roll. He avers that after the death of his wife Mariah he married Nancy Landrum, his present wife, and her name as Nancy Landrum is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896, and she is duly identified thereby. Said Ned Lyons and his wife Nancy and his children as enumerated herein are duly identified and make satisfactory proof of residence, consequently Nancy Lyons, wife of the applicant, and their four children as enumerated herein will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen. In order to complete the enrollment of the three younger children, it will be necessary to file with the Commission satisfactory proof of their birth.

Said applicant, Ned Lyons, will be listed as a Cherokee Freedman upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at a conclusion in his case, he will be notified of the same by mail. His name is found as stated upon the Kerns-Clifton pay roll, as well as upon the Wallace roll, and he is duly identified thereby.

Supplemental Ned Lyons D-251:

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., May 11, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Ned Lyons for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

In the matter of the application of Rachel Landrum for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

In the matter of the application of Elias Lyons for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Supplemental Testimony.

Both applicant and the Cherokee Nation present by their attorneys of record.

Allen Lynch, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith:

Q What is your name? A Allen Lynch.

Q You testified here yesterday in the case of Ned Lyons, did you? A Yes, sir.

Q You spoke of having acted as administrator on the estate of the father of Ned Lyons, who was Jefferson Lyons; I will ask you to look at that paper (hands witness paper.) A I think this is what you want.

Q Look at this paper (hands witness paper.) A I can't read that writing.

Q Where did you get these papers? A I got some of them from Joe Ward.

Q Who was Joe Ward? A He was the Judge.

Q Judge of what? A Judge of Delaware district, District Judge.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, certified I think by Tom Buffington when he was Judge, one of them from the Agent.

Mr. Smith: Now if the Court please, I desire to offer Letters of Administration issued on the first day of October, 1888, by J.L. Ward, Judge of the District Court of Delaware District of the Cherokee Nation, letters of administration to Allen Lynch as administrator of the estate of Jeff Lyons.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to the introduction of the testimony because the same is not duly attested, does not bear the attest or the signature of the Clerk of the District, nor does it have his seal.

Commissioner: It will be filed.

Mr. Smith: Mr. Lynch, was the Jeff Lyons whose estate you testified that you administered, related to Ned Lyons in whose case you testified yesterday? A His father.

Mr. Smith: I desire to offer the report of Allen Lynch, as administrator of the estate of Jeff Lyons, which was approved--

Mr. Hastings: The report will show for itself; don't give the contents of in the filing.

Mr. Smith: I just submit it then.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to what purports to be a report, first for the reason that it is not a certified copy of the report; second, that it bears neither attestation or any official seal; third, it is not shown that the witness is the custodian of the official records of the Delaware district; and fourth, it is not shown that the records are lost; and lastly, that the record is the best testimony and this does not purport to be a copy of the record.

Mr. Hastings: I don't see how there can be any excuse for offering that last, because he don't claim to be the custodian of that and it is just a fly leaf with marking on it.

Mr. Smith: I am not offering all my proof at this time, I will come to that later.

Mr. Hastings: I mean this, and I think that ought not to be allowed filed.

Mr. Smith: I will prove before I get through with it that that report was approved by T.M. Buffington, Judge in the matter of the administration of the estate of the applicant's father, and it is not a certified copy because it is the original and signed by T.M. Buffington.

Mr. Smith: Now I offer an order of Court in the matter of the administration of Ned Lyons, signed by J.L. Ward, District Judge.

Commissioner: Is there any contention that this man here was the administrator?

Mr. Smith: They objected yesterday on the ground that his statement was not the best evidence of the fact.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation and object to the piece of note paper upon which a few letters are written under day of May 7, 1889, claimed to be an order of Court, first, for the reason that it is not officially attested, there being no seal attached to the same; second, it is not shown that the records are lost or destroyed, and there has been no attempt to show the same in an official way, and third, it is not shown that this witness is the custodian of the official records.

Mr. Smith: Now I desire to offer a decision of the Indian Agent, Leo E. Bennett, located at Union Agency, dated Muskogee, June 13, 1889, in a matter pertaining to the administration of the estate of Jeff Lyons.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and object to the introduction of the testimony for the reason that the letter signed by Leo E. Bennett, United States Indian Agent, has no relevancy whatever in the matter in controversy.

Mr. Smith: Do you recollect Mr. Lynch with regard to the report of your expenses which I showed you, as to whether Mr. Buffington signed that; can you state whether he signed it or not, or do you remember? A--

Mr. Hastings: Objected to by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation for the reason that the record is the best testimony, and it must be first shown that the record is lost or destroyed before outside testimony will be permitted to prove the same.

Mr. Smith: If the Court pleases, this is the record itself; it hasn't been lost because we have it right here.

Commissioner: Well, he ought not to be custodian of the records.

Mr. Smith: Well, there are a great many things during the administration of the Cherokee Courts that I don't understand.

Commissioner: I suppose the records of the Cherokee Court ought to show the appointment of this man as administrator; they objected to the letters from the fact that they were not duly attested. I don't know whether the Cherokee Nation has been in the habit of attesting letters by seal, by a Clerk with a seal as they do in God's country. Well, let the testimony go in for what it is worth.

Mr. Smith: I would like to prove-- I suppose I might ask if there is any gentleman here who knows Mr. Tom Buggington's signature. (To Mr. Hastings) You will admit this is T.M. Buffington's signature; of course you are both familiar with it.

Mr. Hastings: I think it is; that is his name anyway.

Mr. Hastings (To Witness): The mother of Ned Lyons and Elias and another sister, who are applicants here, died before 1880, didn't she? A I don't remember whether she did or not.

Q You know she died? A Yes, sir, she died.

Q Jeff Lyons married a citizen a second time, a recognized citizen?
A Let me see, I don't remember, but he married the last time to that woman, the mother of these children died.
Q You don't know whether his second wife was a recognized citizen; wasn't she? A Yes, sir, I guess so.
Q Did she die before Jeff did, his second wife? A I forget whether he married any more or not; he was a widower when he died.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Ned Lyons, D #251, Elias Lyons D #253, and Rachel Landrum, D #252 as Cherokee Freedmen:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Smith, of firm of Mellette & Smith, Attorneys for applicants:
Mr. W.W. Hastings, for the Cherokee Nation.

MR. HASTINGS: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and offer in testimony a certified copy of the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, filed in case of Altha and Oscar Moore, D #357, showing that Jefferson Lyons presented a petition and was granted a license to marry Lou Eza Buffington by R. T. Carey, Clerk of Delaware District on the 12th day of February, 1879.

MR. SMITH: Applicants object to the introduction of that testimony as not tending to prove any issue in this case, and for the further reason that it is not the best testimony.

ALLEN LYNCH, called as a witness on the part of the Cherokee Nation, sworn and examined by Commissioner T.B. Needles, testified as follows:

Q Your name is Allen Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q Post-office? A Vinita.
Q What district do you live in? A In Delaware.
Q Are you a recognized Freedman of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
BY W.W. HASTINGS:
Q Did you know Jefferson Lyons during his life time? A Yes, sir.
Q He was the father of Elias? A Yes, sir.
Q Ned? A Yes, sir.
Q And Rachel Landrum? A Yes, sir.
Q Now do you know when the mother of these three children I have just called died? A Well, about, yes, sir.
Q Well, about when? A Well I don't know whether I could tell you just exactly the time.
Q Well before '79? A (No response.)
Q Who was Jeff Lyons last wife? A You asked me that question before but I forgot; his last wife was Lou Eza Buffington, but I had forgotten it when you asked me before.

Q And he married her about 1879? A Somewhere along about there.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of NED LYONS as a Cherokee Freedman.

G.W. CLARK, being called as a witness on the part of the Cherokee Nation and being duly sworn by Commissioner T.B. Needles, testified as follows:

APPEARANCES:

Messrs. Mellette & Smith, for applicants;
Mr. W.W. Hastings, for Cherokee Nation.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A G.W. Clark.

Q What is your age? A 59 coming birth-day.

Q Mr. Clark, you lived in the Cherokee Nation before the war, did you? A Yes, sir, all my life.

Q You went out of the Nation did you during the war? A Oh, I was occasionally in Arkansas, on the Arkansas line.

Q You were in the army? A Yes, sir, in and out of it.

Q In the Northern Army? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you mustered out? A Mustered out Fort Gibson.

Q Now, where did you live the first year after the war, 1865?

A I moved on the river; I lived here, my early days I lived at Tahlequah, Tahlequah district.

Q In '65 where did you live? A The latter part of 1865; I went back there after I was married; I was married in Saline District, on Grand river, on the 8th day of June, and I moved up here and located on the west side of grand river.

Q And where did you live in '66? A I made acrop there in '66.

Q Where did you live in '67? A In '67 I moved up the river from there; I moved there in the fall of '65 and left that place in the fall of '66.

Q Did you know a colored man who went by the name of Jeff Lyons or Jeff Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have a son by the name of Ned? A Yes, sir.

Q And another one by the name of Elias? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first see him after the war? A '68.

Q How far did he stay from you? A He stayed about two miles, two or three miles down on the river, about three miles.

Q Did you know him well? A Yes, sir, well acquainted with old Jeff.

Q Did you ever hire him? A Yes, sir, stacked wheat for me for years.

Q You knew when he came back then? A He came back in the spring of '68, because he stacked wheat for me that year, and he was talk-imp about coming back.

Q You lived there for years afterwards? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew him well? A Yes, sir.

Q He is dead now I believe isn't he? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q About how old is Ned, about, now? A Well, I don't know, he ought to be a young man now, pretty good sized, he was a boy like then.

Q Well how big a boy was he in '68? A Well, they was a small chunk of a boy; I have been to his place near there a many of a time and got him to work.

Q Which is the older Ned or Elias? A I don't know; I don't know as I know Elias.

Q Did he have any girls? A I think he ~~did~~ had.

Q How many? A I disremember, I know he had one; I don't know how many children he did have.

Q Well, can't you remember, you know the family, how many members there were; can't you remember how many girls and boys there were?

A I think there were four or five children.

Q You think there were more than this three? A Yes, sir.

Q You are not certain about that? A No, sir, I am not certain how many his family got to be.

Q He lived close to you and worked for you; what is the reason you can't remember about how many he had? A I never mixed up with them; I just come to hire Jeff. I never went there and mixed up with tith them; just like you do at my place I never noticed.

Q All you say about this is you can't tell which one is the biggest? A I don't know whether I could or not.

Q Can't you think which is the oldest Ned or Elias? A No, sir, I don't believe I could, that is long off.

Q Well, you know all about exactly what you did? A Not everything I do.

Q I am going to ask you now about what you do; you keep up with your moves, you know the dates that you made them ~~with~~ and all about them afterwards? A No, sir, I don't know ~~about~~ the exact dates.

Q With regard to your own business; you know about in regard to other people's; you don't remember that far back? A No, sir.

Q It is right hard to remember what other people were doing 35 or 36 years ago? A Yes, sir, it is a pretty long swear anyway; but I remember this old gentleman as much as anything else; me and him trafficed together; he brought a good mule with him down there and I swapped him a cow and kinda swindled him.

Q How much do you think you got away with him on that? A I don't know.

Q Well, now, Judge, if anything you may have heard about Jeff Lyons coming back after the war; you don't know when he came back?

A Yes, sir, I know he come back to the neighborhood and he said.

Q Well, outside of what he said, you don't know when he came back to the Cherokee Nation. A No, sir.

Q You saw him first in 1868? A Yes, sir.

Q You can't say of your own personal knowledge how long Jefferson Lyons had been back in the Cherokee Nation at the time you saw him in '68 can you? A I ~~didn't~~ know exactly how to answer that.

Q You know what your personal knowledge is confined to? A Well it is just like you, Mr. Smith, I know when you came to Vinita, if you lived anywhere around Vinita, before that, I don't know.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Now Mr. Clark, I was going to ask you if you were telling the members of his family, while he lived there at his place? A What?

Q You were asked about the members of Jeff Lyons' family while he was living there? A Yes, sir.

Q You remember how many of them were born before they come down there and you remember how many were born afterwards? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember how many he had when he come there?

A No, sir, I don't.

Q Is your mother's? A My mother's ain't I know.
Q Did you draw any Cherokee money? A Yes, sir, he drew at the wallace payment, he was dead before the last payment.

The 1880 Authenticated Roll of Freedmen of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of applicant's father not found thereon.

- Q Anybody here know anything about you? A Al Lynch.

The Wallace Roll of Freedmen of the Cherokee Nation examined and name of applicant's father found thereon, page 126 #2654, Mike Moore, Cooweescoowee.

- Q Did you get your strip payment money? A No, sir.
Q Your name is not on any of the rolls then, is it?
A Yes, sir, I guess so.
Q Well, what roll? A I don't know whether it is or not.

ALLEN LYNCH, being sworn and examined by Commissioner T.B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Allen Lynch.
Q What is your age, Mr. Lynch? A 69 years old.
Q Your post office? A Vinita.
Q Do you know the applicant, Altha Moore? A Yes, sir.
Q What was his father's name? A Mike Moore.
Q Mother's name was Fanny? A His wife's name, Fanny.
Q Was Mike Moore and brother of Ned Lyons? A Yes, sir.
Q How did it happen that the name of the applicant's father was named Moore and his brother named Lyons? A ~~Mike~~ Mike's father, Anderson, died before the war; Mike was born before the war, about the time of the war, or during the war; this man Lyons, Jeff; Ross we used to call him, married this widow, and that is how comes this Ned Lyons and these others Moore. Mike and Ned are brothers, but half brothers, by different fathers.
Q They were half brothers? A Yes, sir.
Q You state that the testimony as to the citizenship of Mike Moore would be the same as that in the case of the application of Ned Lyons? A Yes, sir.
Q Mike Moore is now deceased? A Yes, sir.

Altha Moore, et al.--2.

Q Do you know whether Mike Moore and Fanny Moore were ever married or not? A Yes, sir, they were married and lived together and died.

Q Lived together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Is Fanny Moore, the mother of the two children, a citizen?

A No, sir.

(It develops that the applicant has a twin brother present, who is included in this application.)

Q What is that boy's (indicating) name? A Oscar.

Q Oscar Moore and Altha Moore are the same age? A Yes, sir.

Q Are both the children of Mike Moore and Fanny Moore?

A Yes, sir.

ALTHA MOORE, the Applicant, re-called:

Q Where were you born? A Grand river.

Q Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Your brother Oscar born there too was he? A Yes, sir/

Q About the same time? A Yes, sir, I guess might have been a little difference.

Q Have you and your brother Oscar always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

BY W. W. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q What was your step-father's name? A Brice.

Q Brice what? A Houston Brice.

Q Did you know Jeff Lyons or Jeff Ross? A Waa'n't born then.

Q He died before you were born? A Yes, sir; I never saw him.

Q Well was he any relation to you? A I guess he was.

ALLEN LYNCH, re-called, further testified:

By COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Was Mike Moore a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Bob Daniel.

Q Was he taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war?

A Yes, sir, he was small.

Q Where was he taken to? A Kansas.

Q Did he return at the same time his brother, Ned Lyons, did?

A It was Elias, Ned was born down here.

Q Mike was older than Ned Lyons? A Yes, sir.

Q When did Mike Moore return to the Cherokee Nation? A He come down with Jeff Lyons in '66, his step-father.

Q Was Mike Moore a minor when he was taken out of the Cherokee Nation? A His mother was alive.

Q But Mike Moore?himself? A Yes, sir.

Q Mike was taken out of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q How old was he? A He must have been four or five years old, I could not tell you exactly, three or four, four or five years old.

Q Was his father taken out? A Yes, sir.

Q He was taken with his father? A No; his father if I don't make a mistake, his father went before he did.

Q What was Mike Moore's father's name? A Anderson, he belonged to old man Taylor; he never did come back to this country; I never did see him since the war.

Q Who brought Mike back? A Old man Jeff Lyons, we called him Jeff Ross, but he changed his name.

Q But of your own knowledge he brought him back in '66?

A Yes, sir.

BY W. W. HASTINGS:

Q Who come back with Jeff Lyons? A I don't know just exactly who come back with him, I don't remember.

Q Do you remember what time of the year he come back? A He come back before Christmas in '66.

Q Did he bring any with him? A His family.

Q Of whom did his family consist? A Aniky and Mike and that Elias was a baby and then another one I forget just who it was.

Q You testified in the Ned Lyons case that this same Jeff Lyons went back in January, '67, and got a load of goods for Bob Daniels?

Altha Moore, et al.--3.

A Yes, sir.

Q That is the same man? A Yes, sir.

Q He was Michael Moore's step-father? A Yes, sir.

Q He is known as both Jeff Lyons and Jeff Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Jeff Lyson was not a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir.

Q Jeff Lyons though was a slave of a Cherokee prior to the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q You claim that these boys' father came back to the Ark when Jeff Lyons came? Yes, sir, I know it was.

Q You swear positively that was in 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q Jeff Lyons went to Tahlequah in 1871 before the Bob Daniels Court and he was rejected at that time? A I don't know about that.

Q You know he went down there? A No, sir, I didn't know either.

Q He lived up in this same neighborhood ~~xxx~~ ~~did~~ with you?

A You see I was up at Aaron Thompson's, I was not there when they all went to see about it.

Q You remember knowing that he went down there? A I remember the time, but whether he went I don't know.

Q You never heard him say what became of his citizenship?

A No, sir, I didn't ask him.

Q To what point did he come when he returned in 1866?

A Well my first knowing of him he come over there to Thompson's Ferry, that is the Thompson Ford and come from the Brick, Doctor Thompson place.

Q And was over there when you saw him, with his family?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did he and his family live there? A Yes, sir, right there.

Q What year? A That whole year, yes, sir; I don't think they moved away until the next fall. I don't know just exactly, they raised a crop there in '67.

~~Q On that Doctor Thompson place? A Yes, sir.~~

W. W. HASTINGS: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and offer in testimony a part of the record found on page 63 of the minutes of the special Court of Commission, Supreme Court, 1871, of the Cherokee Nation, the same being taken from the proceedings of the Court had on Tuesday June 6th, 1871, as follows:

"Case of Jefferson Lyons and family; the Court decides upon evidence they are debarred of rights of Cherokee citizenship under the 9th Article of the Treaty of July, 1866."

The Representatives also desire to introduce a certified copy of the records of the Executive Office showing that license was granted upon petition to Jefferson Lyons to marry Lou Eza Buffington by R. T. Carey, Clerk of Delaware District, the 12th day of February, 1879.

COM'R NEEDLES: Reference is made to the testimony taken in the matter of the application of enrollment of Ned Lyons, D. Card #251. The record in said case will be made part of the record in the case now under consideration, and a copy of the same will be filed.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Altha and Oscar Moore, each 17 years of age, apply for the enrollment of themselves as Cherokee Freedmen. Their names are not found upon any roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this Commission. They aver that their father was Mike Moore and mother Fanny Moore. They make satisfactory proof of the marriage of Mike Moore to Fanny Moore, and that they are the lineal descendants. The name of Mike Moore is identified upon the Wallace roll, but not upon any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Altha Moore, et al.--4.

By reason of the fact that the father and mother's names are not upon the authenticated roll of 1880, they will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card for the further consideration of the Commission.

Q Where did you live in the year of '66? A We lived on the same place, Bob Daniels place.
Q How long did you live there? A We stayed there until the winter of '67.
Q You know a colored man that used to live in that neighborhood by the name of Mose Hardrick? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you see Mose Hardrick in the year of '65? A No, sir.
Q Did you see him in the year of '66? A No, sir.
Q When, if you know, did Mose Hardrick return to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well the first time I saw him was in the spring of '67.
Q About what time in the spring? A Well it was along about April or May, as well as I can remember.
Q You know where he come from? A Well he said he come from Kansas. I don't know just what part.
Q You know who he came with? A Yes, sir.
Q Well tell us? A Andy Frye and Uncle Tobe Schrimsher and old uncle Peter Williams and Much Bene, he is dead now though.
Q Had Andy Frye been down here before? A No sir, not that I know of, no sir.
Q You never saw him there until in the spring of '67?
A Spring of '67 is the first time I ever saw him.

BY BROWN:

- Q Mr. Moore, you know Millie Frye? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know when Millie Frye and Andy Frye married? A No, sir
I don't.

Q About when? A I don't know at all. I couldn't tell you.

Q Were they married when war came up? A I couldn't tell you that, I never saw them until ~~after~~ they come there.

Q You never knew her until after the war? A Not until she moved there in the fall of '65 or '66.

Q Well now you say Andy Frye returned in '67? A '66.

Q You said '67 awhile ago? A '66, if I said '67 it is a mistake.

Q '66 is when they returned; you say Mose Hardrick returned with him? A No, sir, he didn't come with Andy.

Q Didn't you state awhile ago that Andy Frye and Peter Williams and some man named Schrimsher returned to the Cherokee nation with Mose Hardrick? A No, sir, if I did I don't remember that part of it, because he never come until after Andy come, in the spring of '67.

Q Andy is on the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Andy come in the spring of '67? A Fall of '66 I say, when Andy come it was in the fall of '66.

Q About how many weeks was that after Andy come until Mose Hardrick returned? A Oh I couldn't say as to the number of weeks, but it was in the spring.

Q Well about how many weeks would you think? A I don't know.

Q How many months? A Oh it would be to the best of my recollection it would be about 5 or 4 or 5 or 6 months, I wouldn't say positively because I don't know exactly.

Q How did you fix the month in which Mose Hardrick returned to the Cherokee nation? A How did I fix it?

Q Yes, sir. A I don't understand what you mean by that.

Q You said he returned in about April or May? A I said as well as I remember it was April or May; it was after grass was up.

Q You remember the grass being up? A Yes, sir.

Q How does the fact that the grass was up connect with in your mind with Mose Hardrick's return? A I tell you about my recollection of it being in the spring of '67; Mose Hardrick, Andy Frye and my step-father and Arch Landrum, Uncle Reuben Downing, they all of them went to Lucy Hilderbrands in the spring of '67 to a census taker.

Q To a census taker? A Yes, sir, to a census taker; that was in '67, what month was that? A That was about June or July as well as I remember.

Q They took a census in '67 did they? A I reckon they did, that's what they said; they all went off; I couldn't say what they did.

Q Who returned to the Cherokee nation with Mose Hardrick? A Old man Jeff and my uncle.

Q What is his name? A Tom Moore, and Uncle Butler McNair as well as I remember, and I didn't know who else of them moved right on the Doctor Thompson place.

Q That was the first time your uncle Thomas Moore had been to this country wasn't it? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he the Thomas H. Moore that lived up there now? A No, that is my brother.

Q The Thomas H. Moore that lives up there now he come back with his father didn't he? A He come back with me and my stepfather; that's my brother.

Q Were you a witness in this case before the Kern-Clifton Commission? A No, sir.

Q Were you a witness in this case before John A. Wallace when the Wallace Roll was made? A No, sir.

Q You knew the same folks then that you know now didn't you? A Yes, sir.

Q In what year was the Wallace payment? A Wallace payment, it seems to me like it was in, I declare that's kinder slipped my mind, it was '94 though I think; I forget just what year that was.

Q Your best judgment is it was '94? A I don't say positively.

Q How old is your oldest child Mr. Moore? A How old is my oldest child; my oldest child is about 26 years old I think.

Q In what year was it born? A What year was she born?

Q Yes, sir? A Born in '73 or '4

Q About 26 years old now? A I think she is; she aint quite 26; she will be 26 her birthday.

Q You don't know much about dates do you Mr. Moore? A I dont know just to come down to dates; of course I have to kind of think over the time a little but I never keep no dates.

Q After you think you don't know much more about it then do you?

Mr. HASTINGS: Don't answer that; I object to it; it is irrelevant and immaterial and nonsensical.

BY COMMISSION: Objection is sustained.

BY HASTINGS:

Q Now Nelso, in answer to a question awhile ago from me you stated that Andy Frye come down with Mose Hardrick in the spring of '67? Did you intend to say that? A No, sir, I didn't intend to say it, Andy Frye and uncle Tobe Schrimsher and uncle Peter Williams and them come down in the spring of '66, but Mose Hardrick didn't come with them; I didn't intend to say that, because I know that wasn't so.

Q Who did you intend to say Mose Hardrick come with? A Uncle Tom and Uncle Butler and Uncle Jeff Lyons.

BY BROWN:

Q You testified in the Ned Lyons case didn't you? A Ned Lyons?

Q Yes, sir, you know Ned Lyons? A I know him, but I never did testify in it.

Q Didn't you testify in his case in which you testified to the return of old man Lyons? A No I didn't.

Q You swear that positively? A Yes, sir, if I did I don't know when it was.

Q Why did you mention the time that Andy Frye and Peter Williams returned to the Cherokee Nation? A I was asked about that.

Q By whom? A Didn't you ask me that?

Q In your direct examination, when Mr Hastings asked you who returned to the Cherokee Nation, with Mose Hardrick, why did you mention the name of Andy Frye and Peter Williams? A Because he asked me when did he come.

Q Why did you state the time of Andy Frye and Peter Williams return in answer to that question? A I was asked the question.

Q That's why you stated it? A Time they come.

Q That's the time they come; all right, that's all.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a part of the record from a docket of the doubtful cases of citizens tried in the Cherokee Nation in 1871, which shows the following:

"Mose Hardrick and family, too late, decided against defendant June 6, 1871."

The same being taken from a page at the top of which appears the following:

"Delaware,

Colored Doubtful Roll"

Said book being labeled,

"Docket of Doubtful Cases, Cherokee Citizenship, tried in 1871."

On the fly leaf of said book appears the following,

"Docket of applicants Cherokee Citizenship, 1871, Honorable Chief Justice M. K. Daniel, W. H. Turner, Clerk."

BY BROWN,

Objected to, for the reason that the page upon which it occurs has the head line "Doubtful roll of Colored People" and for the further reason that it is incompetent and for the further reason that the Cherokee Nation has not shown that the applicant was present at the sitting.

BY COMMISSION: Objection will be duly noted.

BY HASTINGS:

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from page 35 of Records of the Cherokee Nation entitled

"Docket of the Chambers Commission on Citizenship:"
"Moses Hardrick appl'd 3rd Jany. '78; set for 10 July continued, 24 July."

A marginal note in red ink at the side of this entry is as follows:

"Decree adverse to claimant."

BY. BROWN: This is objected to on the grounds that while this record shows that the case was set for the 10th of July and continued until the 24th of July, it does not show that this application was ever heard; and for the further reason that the Cherokee Nation has not proven that the applicant Moses Hardrick in this case ever applied to the Cherokee Court for admission to citizenship.

BY COMMISSION: Objection will be duly noted.

BY HASTINGS: I reckon there is no ~~objection~~ contention that these records are part of the records of the Cherokee Nation.

BY BROWN: Oh no.

BY COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed and made a part of the record in the case at bar, and the following Freedmen Doubtful cases: 201, 351, 272, 320, 321 and 192.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., MAY 24, 1904.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of THOMAS MAYFIELD, ET AL., as Cherokee freedmen.

APPEARANCES:

For Applicants, Starr & Patten.
For Cherokee Nation, J. S. Davenport and L. B. Bell.

By Mr. Davenport:

The representatives of the Cherokee Nation desire to introduce the entry in the book of assessment for 1868, which refers to Warren Adams, and ask that it be read and copied in the record, so that the book may be returned.

By Mr. Patten:

Attorneys for applicant object to this, upon the same ground as previously stated in the other objections in the same record.

On behalf of Commissioners:

The request of the attorneys for the Nation will be granted and the evidence considered for what it is worth.

Pursuant to the above, the following was read into the record from the book above referred to:

No. of Statement.	Name	No. of Horses	Value	No. of Cattle.
8	Adams, Warren	3	60	1
Value	No. of Hogs	Average value of all	Average Per. Property.
12	1	Value 3	17
Total	Deduct Constitutional exemption			Remarks.
92	200			(Ditto) "Country"

Q Has that entry been changed, Mr. Ernest, since you turned it in to the Country Clerk? A No, sir.

Q I wish you would examine the book which you have before you, and see if you find any assessment in 1868 of Nathan Duffin? A Yes, sir.

Geo. H. Lesley, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, he made the above and foregoing copy, and that the above and foregoing is an excerpt copy of the record of proceedings had on May 24 and 25, 1906, in the matter of the application for the enrollment, as Cherokee freedmen, of Thomas Mayfield, et al., and that the same is a true and correct copy of that part of the original record of proceedings.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the consolidated applications for the enrollment of MOSES HARDRICK, ET AL., F R 574 et al., and GEORGE IRONS, ET AL., F R 36 et al.

APPEARANCES:

For Applicants, Starr & Patten.

For Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings and J.S. Davenport.

The records of this office show that on April 5, 1906, the Cherokee Freedmen enrollment cases of Moses Hardrick, et al., were remanded to this office for rehearing and readjudication; that on May 11, 1906, the Cherokee Freedmen enrollment cases of George Irons, et al., were remanded to this office for rehearing and readjudication; that on May 24, 1906, the applicants, their attorneys, and the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation were notified that these cases would be set for hearing on this date at which time the following proceedings were had, which proceedings are made a part of the record in each of the above cases.

Testimony taken on behalf of applicants.

J. H. WALTERS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A J. H. Walters.
- Q Where do you live? A At Iola, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived there? A Since the 19th of July, 1861.
- Q What is your age? A 62 the 5th day of last March.
- Q Were you a soldier in the Civil War? A I was.
- Q When were you mustered out of service? A The 19th of September, 1865.
- Q Where were you living in the year 1866? A I was living one mile north of Iola.
- Q Were you acquainted with a colored man in that neighborhood by the name of Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir, I was.
- Q Where did he live at that time? A The time that I knew him he lived one mile due west of where I lived on the bank of the Neosho River.
- Q Did he ever work for you or anything that would make you better acquainted with him? A Yes sir, he cut some 50 or 60 cord of cord wood for me in the early part of 1866.
- Q When was the last time that you remember of seeing him in that neighborhood up there? A I don't have any recollection of him after that, probably in March.
- Q Do you know whether or not it was a general presumption in the neighborhood that he had left?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to as being clearly inadmissible because this witness can only testify of his own personal knowledge.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A No I cannot say that I heard that he had left there. I didn't see him and that is all I know about it.
- Q Didn't see him after that time? A No sir.
- Q Have you lived in that neighborhood ever since? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you seen him in that community since? A No sir, not until I met him here today.
- Q Do you know of there being a house built in that neighborhood known as the Dan Horville house a good many years ago? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember when that house was built? A In the spring of 1866. It was about a half mile from my residence and I quarried the rock for the foundation and cellar.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Now this has been 40 years ago and all you want to be understood testifying about is that after this man cut wood for you that you don't know what become of him after you think you saw him about March 1866? A I lost sight of him.
- Q Never made any inquiry and had no occasion? A No sir.
- Q And don't know what become of him? A No sir.
- Q Now there were a great number of people that you perhaps knew 40 years ago that you don't know what become of them. Some went to one place and some others, and others may have remained there? A Yes sir, I think that might have been the case.

W I T N E S S   R E C U S E D .

FELIX LORANCE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A Felix Lorange.
- Q Where do you live? A I live in Elk County, Kansas.
- Q How old are you? A I am 58 years old last 31st day of April.
- Q Were you ever in the army? A Yes sir, I wasn't in the army.
- Q Where were you living in the year 1865? A Well in the spring of 1865 I was at my father's farm in Allen County, Kansas, in the spring, and I left there. Up until that time I had lived with my father on that farm from 1857 until then. Then in the spring of 1865 I left and I went on the second day of April, 1865, I was sworn into the army, but failed to be mustered in. Then I taken a team and went on the plains and drove a six mule team in the spring of 1866. I stayed there until June, 1866, when I come back to my father's place.
- Q Did you know about that time a colored man by the name of Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Jeff Lyons? A I knew a darkey called Jeff, for instance we called a negro named Jeff, we called him "Nigger Jeff."
- Q Did you know one named "Nigger Butler?" A Yes sir.
- Q And one named "Nigger Tom" or Tom Moore? A I knew Tom, but not his other name.
- Q Do you remember where Moses Hardrick lived in the year 1866? A Yes sir, he lived on my father's farm, northwest corner of my father's farm in Allen County, that is up until the latter part of the year, he left there in the fall of 1866.
- Q Is this Mose Hardrick the same as the applicant in this case?
- A This man right here.

- Q You could identify him could you? A After I looked at him awhile when he was there he wasn't lame or crippled up.
- Q Were you acquainted with him at that time? A Yes sir, he worked there on my father's farm, I think it was in the latter part of 1862 he come there, and '62, '63, '64, and up until the spring of '65 he worked there with me a good part of the time. I would say pretty near half of the time he worked for my father.
- Q Did he work there in the fall of 1866? A The first part of it.
- Q Where did Jeff Lyons live? A I don't know.
- Q Do you remember how long Mose Hardrick remained up there in that neighborhood? A He come there if I am not mistaken in the latter part of 1862 and left in the fall of 1866. That is he was there when I went on the plains and was there in the same cabin when I come back and he left in the fall of 1866.
- Q During that time where did he live, what kind of a house? A A log house a biggest part of the time.
- Q What did he live in the rest of the time? A In a tent or wagon sheet, made for a tent, the first part.
- Q Do you know about the time that he left that neighborhood in Kansas? A Yes sir, it was in the fall. It was in the fall, from October up, until sometime, it might have been as late as November.
- Q In what year was it? A 1866.
- Q Do you know when he left that neighborhood in Kansas, whether he took his effects with him? A Took all he had, didn't leave anything there on the farm.
- Q Do you know where he lived after, or where he started to? A He said he was going to the Nation, I never followed him to see, and that is the way he talked all the time to us.
- Q Do you remember when Dan Horville's house was built? A Well I was there but I don't remember any thing about the dates at all. I didn't work on it any when it was built.
- Q You remember what year it was built? A No sir, I couldn't tell you. I was right close there, but I don't remember when it was built.
- Q Did you ever see Hardrick in that neighborhood up there after the time you say he left? A No sir.
- Q Have you lived in that immediate vicinity ever since? A No sir, I lived in Elk County.
- Q How long did you continue to live there after that time? A I left there the 18th day of February, I taken a claim in Elk County and probably the first part of February I left there in 1868.
- Q How do you fix that it was in 1866 that they left up there, rather than 1865 or '64? A Well now my brothers come home out of the army in the spring of 1865, after they come home then I went and I made an effort to get in the army, I was sworn in on about the first or second day of April, and I failed to get in, and then I went on the plains and I stayed out west until June, 1866. The spring after my brothers come home out of the war I went in to be a brave bad soldier and I tried to get in.
- Q When did you return? A June, 1866.
- Q Was it that same year or different years these parties left?
- A That same year.
- Q Was that the way you remember it? A Yes sir, that is the way. When I come back he left, I farmed the place he left, I farmed it in 1867 and he farmed it in 1866. He put it in corn in 1866 the next year I farmed that ground.
- Q The following year you farmed that ground? A Yes sir.
- Q When was that? A 1867.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q When were you married? A The first time in 1870.
- Q You were not married then? A Nosir, I was just 18 years old. I was born in 1848.
- Q All you know is that you never saw that fellow after the fall of 1866? A No sir, I never saw him and never heard tell of him until this case. He said he was coming to the Nation and live.
- Q You mentioned a man named Jeff and Butler and "Nigger Tom?" A Yes sir.
- Q Did they leave and come with him? A I never saw them afterwards.
- Q I asked did they leave? A I don't know, there was a bunch left at the same time, Mose left.
- Q You didn't have any knowledge about Jeff, you don't know where he lived? A No sir.
- Q Are you prepared to say he come off with Mose? A I don't know, there was a bunch left there.
- Q Are you prepared to say where Butler lived? A No sir, I don't know whether he lived with Mose or not.
- Q How about this man Tom? A I don't know anything about him.
- Q Did you ever see either of these after Mose left? A No sir.
- Q Are you certain of that? A Pretty so, I never saw one that I remember of.
- Q Have you ever had occasion to have your memory refreshed of these affairs for these 40 years? A Not until this come up.
- Q Who directed your attention to it? A I don't know what the man's name was, he was a dark complexed, heavy set man. I forget his name, he told me but I forget it.
- Q How long ago was it? A A couple of months, I expect since I saw him.
- Q Did you know Moses' wife's name? A I think her name was Patience.
- Q Did he have any children up there? A 3 or 4 there, little bit of fellows. Big enough to run around like that.
- Q Do you know how old the oldest one was when he left? A I don't know, I would not be positive but there was 3 or 4.
- Q Do you know of the youngest one? A Nosir.
- Q Do you know whether they were boys or girls? A I don't know that, he had a small family there. He lived in their own house and we lived in ours.
- Q You never made any record of the date they left? A Nothing only memory from the time I come off of the plains.
- Q You don't know of him coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Never saw him from the time he left there.
- Q You don't know whether ~~ix~~ he come on this side or not? A He might have went to St. Louis and might have not for all I know, he left father's place. I have never seen him until here.
- Q Did Mose ever live on that Eastwood place west of the Neosho River? A I don't remember.
- Q Did he ever live on that Nowville place? A I don't think he did, but I don't remember.
- Q Did you ever see this fellow Jeff's wife? A I don't think I did, if I did I don't remember her.
- Q Did he have any children? A I don't know whether he did or not.
- Q Did you ever see Butler McNair's wife? A I don't think I did.
- Q Did he have any children? A I don't know.
- Q Did you ever see Tom's wife? A I don't think I did, if I did I don't remember it.
- Q When were you told what Mose's wife name was? A No sir, she used to be my mother's wash woman, and they called her Patience andus kids would kind of make a little game of it.
- Q If she did your washing you don't remember the children's names?
- A No sir.

- Q You don't know how many there were? A No sir.
- Q Do you know whether they were boys or girls? A I think the older ones were boys but I am not positive.
- Q How long did your father live, is he dead now? A He has been dead about 20 years.
- Q Was he living in 1872? A Yes sir.
- Q In 1876? A Yes sir.
- Q Who was living on your father's place in 1872? A He was there.
- Q Your father? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they have any tenants on the place that year? A I don't think they did. I don't remember whether they had any. I wasn't at home in 1872.
- Q Did you ever go back there at all? A I come back to see father occasionally but didn't pay any attention to the tenants. I had a brother-in-law that stayed there some.
- Q You don't know who was there,--what of those years between them or who attended your father's farm? A I don't remember, some years there were tenants there but I don't remember.
- Q Did you have a farm during those years, 1872 to 1876? A Yes sir, I had one all the time from 1868.
- Q Who cultivated your farm? A I did myself, and sometimes had hired men.
- Q Who worked for you at that time? A I don't remember.
- Q It is mighty hard to remember those things? A yes, unless you have got something to go by.
- Q You would not undertake to remember it? A No sir. I don't suppose I would remember Mose unless it was by my brothers coming out of the army and my going on the plains. And coming back.
- Q Suppose he says he come in the spring, would he know any more about it than you? A My recollection is he came after the corn was shocked up.
- Q If he came in the spring, it was 1866, because you know he was there in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't know when he got here? A No sir, I don't know whether he ever got here until this time.

JAMES L. CHRISTY, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A James L. Christy.
- Q Where do you live? A In Allen County, Kansas.
- Q Is that near Iola? A Yes sir, I lived 11 1/4 miles northwest of Iola. Now.
- Q Were you enlisted as a soldier during the Civil War? A Yes sir.
- Q When were you mustered out? A August 16, 1864.
- Q Where were you living in 1866? A Two miles north of Iola.
- Q At that time were you or were you not well acquainted in that neighborhood? A Yes sir, I think I knew everything in the County.
- Q Did you at that time ever know a colored man named Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever know a colored man named Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Butler McNair? A yes sir.
- Q Tom Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know where these people that I have just mentioned were living in the year 1866? A I remember right Butler McNair was living on the south side of Deer Creek about three miles and a half I judge north and a little east of Iola on a widow woman's place named Pace.
- Q Where was Mose Hardrick living? A On a man's place named Lorance.

- Q How far was that from where you lived? A About a mile and a half.
- Q Did you see these people frequently? A Yes sir, with them every week.
- Q Do you know how long Mose Hardrick continued to remain in that community? A Why I don't know the exact date he left there, I got acquainted with Mose in 1865.
- Q How did you get acquainted with him in 1865? A He worked some for my father, I was at home living with my father and my father hired a good deal of help, had quite a farm there and Mose Hardrick would work for him, sometimes I think all three of these colored fellows, but Jeff Lyons, and in thrashing they would help thrash, and I got acquainted with them that way.
- Q When did they leave that community up there? A To the best of my knowledge sometime in October.
- Q What year? A 1866.
- Q Do you know where they started when they left there? A It was my understanding they were coming to the Nation.
- Q Did they take their effects with them when they left, moved completely out? A I don't know, I know they riged up in wagons, and whether they took all I don't know.
- Q Did you continue to live in that community for a considerable length of time after that? A Yes sir.
- Q How long did you live in that community continuously after that? A I guess I lived right there for 10 years.
- Q Did you ever see these people after that time you say they left? A No sir, I never did.
- Q What time of the year do you think it was they left? A I think it was along sometime in October, I don't know just what time, but it was sometime in the early fall of 1866.
- Q Did you ever see them there after that time? A No sir.
- Q How do you place it or remember that it was in 1866 rather than 1865 or '67? A Well a man by the name of Cornell ran a thrashing machine a good bit in our settlement and the neighbors would help one another, and I had some wheat in that year myself on my father's place, the first year I put out any wheat, and come with the thrashing machine we wanted Mose Hardrick and some of these colored fellows to help us thrash and they said they couldn't do it because they were fixing to move, and that was sometime the last of September or first of October.
- Q Did they say where they were going? A My understanding was to the Nation.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You think that was in October? A Yes sir, and there was another circumstance made me tell that. In that winter before, January and February, 1866, I hunted a good deal and I killed 13 deer and I took the hides off and put them away and kept them trying to get somebody to tan them and Tom Moore was at my house one day and saw these skins and said he would tan them for me.
- Q Was that in January or February, 1866? A No sir, it was in August.
- Q Why couldn't that have been in August, 1867? A because I wasn't right at that place in August 1867.
- Q Where were you in August, 1867? A I was about a mile east of there. I got married in 1867 and I moved east of there.
- Q What time in 1867 did you get married? A November, 1867.
- Q Then you were not married in August, 1867? A No sir.
- Q And you were not married in October, 1867? A No sir.
- Q Were you on your father's place? A I was on my father's place part of the time.
- Q How old did you say you were? A I didn't state but I will be 66 the 12th day of July

- Q You lived at your father's place after the war up until you were married in November, 1866? A That was my home, I wasn't there all the time.
- Q That was your head-quarters? A Yes sir.
- Q Now you of course don't know where these parties went? A No sir.
- Q You never saw them any more until you saw them down here? A Never seen them until I saw Mose Hardrick here today.
- Q I believe you have mentioned Jeff Lyons, Butler McNair and Tom Moore in connection with Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir.
- Q You state they all left together? A That was my understanding.
- Q You are as positive about one as the other? A Yes sir.
- Q What was Butler McNair Wife's name? A I think it was Betsey.
- Q Did they have any children? A I don't think they did.
- Q What was Jeff Lyon's wife's name? A I don't know.
- Q Did they have any children? A I don't know.
- Q Were you ever at his house? A No sir, I don't know as I was at his house.
- Q Then you didn't see him when he was loading his wagon? A No sir.
- Q And you didn't see Butler McNair? A He had his wagon loaded.
- Q And that was in October, 1866? A Yes sir, my understanding was they were all coming together.
- Q You don't know that? A I am not positive as to the date but I am pretty sure they all left together.
- Q You are not positive as to the date but you are positive as to them leaving all together, A Yes sir.
- Q You didn't know Tom Moore's wife? A I have seen her.
- Q You don't know her name? A No sir.
- Q Do you know what place he lived? A On Coover's place at Carlile.
- Q You don't know whether Tom had any children or not? A It seems to me that he had some children, but I would not say positive.
- Q Well now did your father raise any wheat in 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he raise some in 1865? A We tried to raise some in 1865 but I think that was the year the grass hoppers come and cleaned it out, and then in the fall of 1865 I sowed some wheat and that did pretty well.
- Q Did you raise some in 1868? A Yes sir, I think we did.
- Q Did you raise any in 1869? A I think maybe we did. We generally sowed wheat every year.
- Q Well did you? A We sowed every year.
- Q I mean did you have it sown on your place? A No sir, not on my place.
- Q Did you have a place in 1869? A No sir, not myself, the place I was on belonged to my father.
- Q Did he have some wheat in 1869? A I think he did.
- Q Do you know who thrashed that wheat for him in 1869? A Yes sir, I can tell you who runed that thrashing machine over that way.
- Q The same man? A No sir.
- Q Well who did? A Old John Corneel done our thrashing from 1861 up until about 1869 or '70. And then Lew Osborne and Nate Wisdom thrashed in there for 21 years.
- Q Do you know whether it was 1869 or '70? A I think it was 1869.
- Q Are you positive about that? A Yes sir, I am pretty positive.
- Q What time in 1869? A I think it was in the fall.
- Q You ~~xx~~ were not down at Mose Hardrick's when he left? A No sir, but I was there several times and heard of his leaving.
- Q You heard of his having? A Yes sir.
- Q Didn't see him leave? A No sir, didn't see any of them leave.
- Q In other words they just dropped out of your mind but you didn't see them going? A Yes sir, they told me they were going and I sold Tom Moore a span of ponies to come with just a few days before they left.

- Q But you don't know whether he and Mose come together, didn't see them start? A Didn't see them start, no sir, but my understanding was that they all were to get together, to be at Humbolt.
- Q What has refreshed your memory recently, it has been 40 years since then? A Well I don't about that but when this case come up----
- Q You talked with the other witnesses when you come down? A Yes sir, I talked with these witnesses as I come down.
- Q And have you talked with Mose Hardrick? A Yes sir, I talked with Mose Hardrick.
- Q What other of these people have you talked with? A I don't know, I don't know any of them but Mose.
- Q Talk with Mr. Starr? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A This morning the first time I ever seen him.
- Q Who did you talk with up in Kansas and who got you to come here? A Well the man I talked to up in Kansas was Parrymore.
- Q Is he down here? A No sir, I seen him at Iola. I can tell you just how it come up---
- Q I asked you who you talked to? A Well I talked to Parrymore about it and told him what I knowed about it.
- Q And the reast of you witnesses talked it over coming down here? A We didn't talk it over. Only two come with me.
- Q Who? A A man named Morse and a man named Byrd.
- Q Do you know any of the hands that helped you thrash in 1867? A Yes sir, I can tell you some of the hands, one of them was here today and some of them are dead.
- Q Who was that? A John Walter.
- Q Who helped you in 1868? A Why John Walter I guess.
- Q Are you positive about that? A Well we always changed work.
- Q You had been in the habit of changing work are you positive you changed that time? A Well I don't know for sure.
- Q You know Mose Hardrick didn't leave in the spring but was there as late as October of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q If he testified he come in the spring he didn't come in the spring of 1866, it was some spring after that time, because he was up there at your place in the spring of 1866? A Why he was up there until the fall of 1866.
- Q If he testified he come in the Spring, it was some spring after that? A He was mistaken, not that spring.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q At the time these parties left that neighborhood in Kansas were you married or single? A I was single.
- Q This Mose Hardrick you speak of is he the same person who is the applicant in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q You spoke on your cross-examination something about some one tanning some deer hides for you? A That was Tom Moore.
- Q Did that instance help to refresh your memory? A Yes sir.
- Q In what way? A In the year that he taned them. I know what year it was.
- Q How do you happen to recall that instance of him tanning those hides for you? Well after he got them taned he took them all away and I never got but one little hide.
- Q Did he take them all away? A Yes sir.
- Q You remember you lost your hides? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you or do you not positively remember that it was in 1866 that these people left? A Yes sir.
- Q You spoke on your cross-examination of selling some ponies to Tom Moors, do you remember whether or not you sold them to him for any purpose or how he come to buy them from you? A Well I didn't have any need for them, I was making a pretty good thing out of them and he wanted a couple of ponies and I sold them to him.

Q Do you know what he bought them for?

Mr. Hastings: I object to that because Moore is not a party to this case.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

A I don't know what he bought them for.

Q Are you testifying from facts yourself or what people told you to say? A I am testifying from what I know and from not what nobody told me.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Was it the next year after the grass hoppers were bad in Kansas that you speak of Mose Hardrick helped you thrashed? A Yes sir, it was in 1865 that the grass hoppers come and hurt our wheat. We sowed wheat in the fall of 1865,--no it was in 1864 the grass hoppers come and destroyed the wheat, the same year I got out of the army and in the fall of 1864 we sowed again and in 1865 there was some grass hoppers there, damaged the wheat early in the spring and it was the next year after they damaged it the grass hoppers were bad up there that Mose Left? A The last grass hoppers were there in the spring along--

Q I am asking you the relative times, whether it was the next year afterwards? A Yes sir, the next the year afterwards. The grass hoppers left in the spring and it was the next fall afterwards.

Q Don't you know the grass hoppers were bad there in the fall, or in the year of 1866? A No sir, not bad in 1866.

Q Didn't hurt your crop in 1866? A No sir, it was in 1865.

Q But anyhow it was the next year after the grass hoppers were there? A Yes sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

Q Do you remember when the Dan Horville house was built? A Yes sir.

Q What year was it built in? A In the spring of 1866 they commenced it.

Q Are you pretty positive that it was in the fall and not in the spring of 1866 that these people left? A Yes sir, I am pretty sure it was sometime in the fall. I am not positive as to the exact date but I am pretty sure it was in the fall.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far from Iola was the Dan Horville house? A It is a mile and a half from the center of the square

Q How a mile and a half south from the center of the square, who lives there? A Davis Parsons.

Q When did they build a house down there? A Well sir I think Davis Parsons built a house there in 1857.

Q Now say east of there a mile and a half, who built a house out there? A Wasn't any there.

Q Now out in that neighborhood? A Wasn't any settlement up there them days.

Q When was the first house built there? A Old Lyman Rowe built the first house east of there.

Q When was that? A In the fall of 1859.

Q What I am trying to get at there was nothing to impress it on your mind of any body building a house around there? A Well yes I know, there was a lot of houses built around there.

You mean to sit up here and tell when those houses were built without any thing to fix it on your memory? A I am the oldest settler in that country.

- Q Now are you willing to testify independently without anything to fix it definitely upon your mind about when these houses were built there? A Well not all of them but the first ones I know, who built them and where they were built.
- Q There is nothing to attach your memory or impress it upon your memory? A No sir, not all over the country.
- Q Why then was the Dan Horville house? A He built the finest house in the country.
- Q Well aint there lots of fine houses around in that country? A Yes sir, there is now, but he built the first.
- Q You never made any record of when the house was built? A No sir, nothing only just in my mind.

W I T N E S S    E X C U S E D .

J. C. THOMAS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. STARR:

- Q What is your name? A J. C. Thomas.
- Q What is your age? A 64.
- Q What is your post office? A Iola.
- Q Kansas? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you lived in or around Iola? Kansas? A Ever since 1864.
- Q Where were you living in the spring of 1865? A I lived at Iola, near there, right in a half mile of the town.
- Q What direction from town? A West of town at the mill.
- Q Were you acquainted at that time with a colored man named Jeff Lyon? A I didn't know him by that name.
- Q By what name did you know him? A By Jeff.
- Q Did you know his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q What was her name? A Mahala, she done my washing until I was married.
- Q Is there any circumstance by which you fix that it was in 1865 that you lived near these people, and that they did your washing? A She never done my washing after 1865, January 5, I was married January 5, 1865, she never did my washing after that.
- Q Well did you buy a place in 1865? A Yes sir, I bought the farm I am living on now.
- Q What time in 1865 did you buy it? A In April sometime, I think the 29th.
- Q Did you get a deed to that farm? A Yes sir.

Mr. Starr: Mr. Hastings we want to have a notation made of this deed.

Mr. Hastings: I have no objection whatever.

On behalf of the Commissioner: There is exhibited a deed dated April 29, 1865, signed by Jacob Pierson and his wife, Lyddie Pierson, conveying certain land described there in to John C. Thomas. This deed was acknowledged before Wm. S. Newbury, a Notary Public, Allen County, Kansas, on April 29 1865. The deed is returned to the witness.

- Q Now where was Jeff and Mahala at the time you bought this place

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because he has made no connection between the two as yet.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A He was living on Mr. Cowhorn's place.

- Q How far was that from where you lived? A On part of the place; there was a lot cut off of his place.
- Q How long did you continue to live at that place? A From 1865 until the spring of 1866.
- Q Then where did you move? A On to this place.
- Q Then when you moved on this place in the spring of 1866 where was Jeff and Mahala living? A I think they were living on the Cowhorn place.
- Q You at that time moved on the place mentioned in this deed? A Yes sir, the first of March.
- Q What became of Jeff and Mahala after that? A I don't know sir, I haven't seen them since.
- Q How long did they continue to live there after that, after you moved on to this other place? A I don't know sir, they may have lived there all summer, I couldn't give the date but I never seen them after the spring of 1866.
- Q Did they leave that part of the country in 1866? A
- Mr. Hastings: Objected to for the reason that the witness says he doesn't know and didn't see them after the spring.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted:

- A I never see them after that, don't know where they went.
- Q Never saw them since? A No sir.
- Q Now what was your understanding as to where they went?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because he says he doesn't know where they went and I suppose he doesn't want to testify where they went.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted:

- A My understanding was that they come down here. I asked why they left there so quick, I didn't think they would leave at all, and I was told by whoever I asked that they left to come down here in time to get their claim.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You don't know who you talked with? A No sir.
- Q And you don't know of your own personal knowledge when they left? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You cannot begin to testify and you are not going to testify? A No sir.
- Q All you know is that after you moved on this other place you never saw them after the spring of 1866? A No sir.
- Q And you don't know whether they left that spring, or summer or when? A No sir.
- Q All you remember is that you didn't remember of seeing them after you moved? A No sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

ELIZABETH THOMAS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. STARR:

- Q What is your name? A My name is Elizabeth Thomas.
- Q What is your age? A I am 64.
- Q What is your post office? A Iola, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived in or around Iola, Kansas? A Well since 1858, the fall of 1858.

- Q Where were you living in 1865? A Living right in Iola, well it wasn't inside of the corporate limits but close there, about 100 yards.
- Q Are you acquainted with a colored man named Jeff Lyons in 1865? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his wife Mahala? A Yes sir, she lived there close.
- Q How far did they live from where you lived? A It is hardly a quarter of a mile, I don't know really how far it was, not over that.
- Q Did you know them there in 1865? A I never saw them until here.
- Q When did you leave the place? A In the spring of 1866.
- Q Did you see them around there after the time you left? A Yes sir, before we left.
- Q What became of them after that? A They came to the Nation, to the Cherokee Nation I suppose.
- Q Now when was it that they came to the Cherokee Nation? A Well sir-----

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because the witness has already stated that she didn't know, and that she never saw them after the spring of 1866.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A Well I can't give the date when they come but it was shortly after we moved to our place. We moved there in the spring of 1866. We were married in 1865 and come on our place in the spring of 1866.
- Q And it was after that shortly you say they came to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, it was a very short time after that, but still I can't give you the date when they came.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You don't know where they come of your own knowledge? A I am right this way, I am like everybody else, that is where they said they were coming. We didn't go with them.
- Q You didn't see them when they left there? A We went from that vicinity.
- Q Did you see them when they left? A No sir.
- Q They just dropped out of your sight and you didn't see them after the spring of 1866? A Yes sir, I said we moved on our place in 1866.
- Q Didn't you say they dropped out of your sight in the spring of 1866? A I said I hadn't been back to visit where I lived.
- Q Didn't you say you didn't see them after the spring of 1866? A I don't think I did.
- Q Now you ought to be absolutely frank with me, you don't know of your own personal knowledge whatever became of them? A The folks--

- On behalf of the Commissioner: Answer his question, yes or no.
- A I didn't know that they were coming down here.
- Q You lost sight of them in the spring of 1866? A Yes sir, that is what the folks said.
- Q Now you are determined to say that? A Well it is just heresay, the same as our neighbors, everybody knows.
- Q Who lived on your place in 1867? A We lived there ourselves.
- Q Did you have any tenant? A No sir.
- Q Did you have any one in 1875? A No sir.
- Q Have you ever had one since? A One year we moved off our place and moved to a mill and ran a mill that one summer.
- Q What time did you move on this place in the summer? A In the spring, the first of March.

- Q Then after you moved there the first of March you never saw Jeff and his wife? A I don't remember of seeing them.
- Q You don't know where they were of your own personal knowledge?
- A No sir.
- Q Did they have any children? A Yes sir, one.
- Q What was its name? A Its name has slipped my mind.
- Q Boy or girl? A Boy.
- Q About how old? A Well I should judge he was 5 or 6 years old, I don't know that is just guess work.
- Q They only had one that you knew? A The only one that was with them, I have been told that she had older children that were not with her.
- Q That had only one there and it was 5 or 6? A Yes sir.
- Q That was Jeff and Mahala? A I don't know, it was called theirs.
- Q Do you know where it was born? A No sir.
- Q Did they have any born while there? A No sir.
- Q You know that? A Yes sir, I know that.
- Q This one you knew is 5 or 6 years old? A I judge it was.
- Q You never saw but the one? A That is all I had any knowledge of. If she ever told me anything about her older ones I have forgot it

BY MR. STARR:

- Q Now Mrs. Thomas you started to say awhile ago what the folks said about where these people went when they left there?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to for the reason that this witness has already testified that she doesn't know of her own personal knowledge where they went?

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- Q Go ahead and tell what they, what you started to say? A I said that is what the people said, that they had gone to the Cherokee country.
- Q Was that the same year you moved on the last place?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because that is as clearly and leading question as can possible be put.

ON Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A We have never lived on but one place, we live right where we moved when we went to housekeeping.
- Q Was that the same year you moved on this place that these people were talking about Jeff and Mahala coming to the Cherokee Nation?
- A To the best of my knowledge it was.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Was it a month after you moved on your place? A It was more than a month.
- Q Two months? A I think it was <sup>that</sup> well this Jeff just tended a crop that year.
- Q You don't know this? A I know they had to hire another hand, they said Jeff was gone.
- Q In making that crop? A Yes sir.
- Q Making a crop of corn? A Yes sir, a mixed crop I guess.
- Q That is what you recollect about it? A Yes sir, I wasn't on that place, I just seen the family once in a while.

On Motion of the Commissioner this case was here continued for further hearing until June 22, 1906, at 8:45 A. M.

On June 22, 1906, in pursuance of continuance heretofore had in this case, the hour of 8:45 A. M. having arrived, this case was called for further hearing, and the following proceedings were had on this day.

R. J. MORRIS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q What is your name? A R. J. Morris.
- Q Where do you live? A Iola, Allen County, Kansas.
- Q How old are you? A Past 61.
- Q How long have you lived there? A A Little bit over 50 years.
- Q Were you a soldier in the Civil War? A No sir.
- Q Did you know a man by the name of Mose Hardrick, a colored man about war time? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with him? A personally acquainted with him in 1864, we were out together in Price's Raid., there is where I got personally acquainted with Mose.
- Q Did you continue to know him after that time? A I did for a year or two.
- Q Do you know where he lived in the year 1866? A He lived on a farm owned by Eli Lorange.
- Q Where were you living at that time? A Two miles northwest on Deer Creek.
- Q Were you pretty well acquainted with him? A Yes sir, very well acquainted with him.
- Q How frequently did you see him during the year 1866? A I probably see him once a week, maybe twice or three times. I went to town pretty often then and most every Saturday I would see Mose in town.
- Q Did you know Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir, I knew the man, I wasn't so much acquainted with him as I was with Mose.
- Q Did you know Tom Moore? A Yes sir, very well acquainted with Tom.
- Q Did you know Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did these other people live? Jeff Lyons, where did he live?
- A Jeff Lyons lived on Cowhorn's place, joined right up to Iola on the southwest.
- Q Was that close in the neighborhood where you lived? A Probably five miles.
- Q Where did Butler live? A On Deer Creek about 4 miles from me.
- Q Where did Tom live? A On Coover's place, a mile north of where Butler lived.
- Q Do you know how long these people continued to live in that neighborhood? A They were there until the fall of 1866.
- Q And where did they go, if you know? A I don't know, they left ~~there and said--they left there at that time along some~~ there and said--they were talking of coming back home, I suppose the Territory. They left there at that time along sometime in October or November, I couldn't say which month.
- Q Now about how do you fix it that this was in the fall of 1866, rather than 1867 or '65 that they left? A Well I was at that time a single man, I was married in 1867.
- Q And about how long before you were married did they leave? A A year.
- Q And what time in the year 1867 were you married? A In the latter part, in the fall, or rather in the winter, along in November.
- Q Do you know when the Dan Horville house was built up in that community? A I couldn't say as to that, it was built in the early days.
- Q You don't know what year? A No sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q It is pretty long to remember when people's houses were built around there? A well I will tell you that was about the finest house put up in that country then.
- Q But you cannot remember? A No sir, I couldn't say what year.
- Q You would not like to say from an independent memory? A No sir.
- Q You say you were only slightly acquainted with Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir, only slightly acquainted with him, never me thim very much.
- Q You perhaps knew there was a colored man by that name? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't know the members of his family? A No sir.
- Q You don't know anything about the members of Tom Moore's family? A I knew his wife, a girl Rose, an adopted girl.
- Q How old was Rose? A She was just a little bit of a girl.
- Q About what age? A Probably 7 or 8 years old.
- Q Well now what place did Tom live on? A On Coover's place.
- Q About how far was that from where you lived? A About 4 miles.
- Q Well was that settlement around Iola pretty thickly settled? A Yes sir, totable.
- Q You had no special reason to remember Tom Moore and you are testifying from your independent recollection? A Nothing more than that he had a mare I used to want and I would try to trade for that mare.
- Q You made no note or nothing of that? A No sir.
- Q You are just testifying from your own independent recollection? A Yes sir.
- Q And these people, you could be mistaken as to the time you last saw them? A Yes sir, it is possible.
- Q You are not going to state it here and swear positively as to that? A Only as to my recollection.
- Q You have no record guide you? A No sir.
- Q And the same is true of Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
- Q And of the others you have testified? A Yes sir, I would not attempt to say positively.
- Q You might be mistaken some 3 or 4 months, possible a year? A I don't think I am mistaken as to the time they left there.
- Q It is possible you could be though? A Yes sir.
- Q Because it is 40 years ago? A Yes sir, long time ago, I know it was they left there before I was married.
- Q You have got nothing that connects your marriage with them? A No sir.
- Q They didn't attend your marriage or anything of that kind? A No sir.
- Q I mean did work for you about your marriage? A No sir, I didn't ask them anything about it, I asked the woman, she consented and we got married.
- Q Well I know, you often times thought have been around there? A They would have been there at the wedding.
- Q I say there is nothing in the way of who cooked the wedding dinner or anything of that kind to connect one circumstance with the other? A No sir.
- Q As I understand you these were colored people living there in the country that you knew? A Yes sir.
- Q You knew a great man there, colored people there? A Yes sir.
- Q And these people dropped out of your sight about the time you indicated? A Yes sir.
- Q You are not going to testify as to where they went to? A No sir.
- Q You never saw them in the Cherokee Nation until recently? A No sir.
- Q Some of them you have never seen? A No sir, and never will see unless I happen to go to the same place in the happy hunting ground.

- Q Might for aught you know? A Yes sir, we might meet in the happy hunting ground.
- Q They left there at the same time Butler McNair? A Yes sir, all disappeared at the same time.

- Q What others lived there, now named them all? A I have named all I recollect of.

- Q Now lets go over them again so we can get them more together, all that were living in that house at that time? A I couldn't tell you all of them. That has been a long time ago and I couldn't be positive to state but all of them people were living in that house.
- Q It is a long time to testify about? A Yes sir.
- Q And you don't want to be positive about that? A Yes sir, I am positive I saw Uncle Mose Hardrick there because I knew him so well.
- Q Tell us who else and all you saw there? A I seen Tom Moore there, I seen Uncle Mose Hardrick's children.
- Q Well who else? A I seen Aunt Sallie Lyons.
- Q Was that Jeff Lyons' wife? A I think it was. It has been so long ago, there was a whole lot of them there, that was Mike Moore's mother.
- Q What was her name? A I think it was Aunt Salie.
- Q You knew her before the war? A No sir, I used to run with Mike Moore, I knew him, raised with him and went with him.
- Q His mother was named Sarah? A Not Sarah, I think it was Salie it has been so long I forget, ---No Mahala that was it.
- Q Who told you? A I just happened to think of it.
- Q You just heard one of those boys back there say it, didn't you? A No sir, but that was her name.
- Q She was living there then? A Yes sir.
- Q Well where was Bob Daniels living? A I don't recollect. It has been so long, I would not come up and say who all lived there exactly except old Uncle Mose and then people I know personally a long while.
- Q You are ready to testify about them? A Yes sir, you too.
- Q But you are not ready to testify what children Mose had? A Yes sir, I can testify to that.
- Q Give them here? A I cannot give them all.
- Q Then you are not ready to testify? A Yes sir, I am about Eliza Hardrick.
- Q Did he have any others? A Yes sir, two or three more
- Q What were their names? A I don't recollect it, --there was Cy.
- Q He was there at that time? A I don't recollect whether Cy was there at that time. I knowed Uncle Mose had two or three children but that was Eliza, she was the oldest.
- Q What I am trying to get at, you say Mose had some two or three other children there at that time and I am asking you the names of any of them except Eliza, that was there in January, 1867?
- A I don't recollect the names.
- Q But you know he had them? A Yes sir, I know he had them.
- Q Was he living up stairs or down stairs? A I don't recollect that.
- Q Do you remember who was living up stairs? A No sir.
- Q Do you know who was living down stairs in it? A No sir, I don't recollect whether they were living up stairs or down stairs because I didn't live there myself.

WILLIAM BIRD, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A William Bird.
- Q Where do you live? A Allen County, Kansas.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representative of the Cherokee Nation and call the attention of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that no notice was served upon the representative of the Cherokee Nation that the testimony of the witness William Bird was expected to be taken in this case. That notice was received by the representative of the Cherokee Nation only upon June 18; that this witness was expected to give testimony in this case, and no affidavit was filed as to what he is expected to testify to and his name was not included in a list of witnesses in the motion to reopen; and that it is unfair to the Cherokee Nation for notice to be given only three days in advance of the date the case is set for hearing of non-resident witnesses, and for these reasons object to the witness testifying in the case.

Mr. Patten: The Attorneys for applicants ask in reply to the motion of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation, that the letter written to the Honorable Commissioner on June 16, 1906, advising the Commissioner of the names and post office addresses of the witnesses now sought to be introduced be filed and made a part of the record in this case. We further contend that the introduction of this witness is not unfair for the reason that his name and post office address have been previously furnished the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation, and if there is any unfairness it is because his name and post office address is at all required to be furnished being since the applicants in this case are not entitled to and are not in a position to require the Cherokee Nation to furnish the names or post office address of a single witness. And further we would call attention to the Departmental letter in the Thomas Mayfield case, dated April 12, 1906, that shows that the affidavits of witnesses sought to be introduced on new hearing are not required previous to the introduction of such witnesses.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The records of this office show that under date of June 18, 1906, there was received a letter from Messrs. Starr & Patten, Attorneys in this case, dated June 16, 1906, advising that they expected to introduce at the hearing in the cases of Moses Hardrick, et al., the testimony of William Bird of Iola, Kansas, and that they had on that date advised the Attorneys of the Cherokee Nation thereof, giving the name and address of said witness.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: The records of this office show that on May 24, 1906, the Attorneys for applicant were notified that the Freedman enrollment case of Moses Hardrick, et al., would be taken up for hearing at the offices of the Commissioner on June 21, 1906, and that they would be required to furnish this office with the names and addresses of such witnesses as they proposed to introduce in addition to the witnesses who signed affidavits filed with the motion to reopen the case, in sufficient time for this office to give the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation at least two full weeks notice of the names and addresses of the witnesses proposed to be introduced. It is advised therein in accordance with the Department's direction to this office of April 12, 1906 (I.T.D. 4071-1906), in the cases of Thomas Mayfield, et al., in view of the advise to the Attorneys and of the Department's direction to this office in the Mayfield cases the motion of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation will be sustained, and the testimony of the witness William Bird will not be taken.

Mr. Starr: To which the applicants except.

- Q Did Mike Moore go to that school? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he go there when you did? A Yes sir.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representative of the Cherokee Nation and object to all of these leading questions put to this witness as the past few questions have been.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A Yes sir, Mike went there then.
- Q And that was when? A That was in the spring.
- Q Of what year? A '67 or '66, '67 I think it was.
- Q Do you remember the occasion of the death of Harvey Frye? A Yes sir.
- Q When was that? A In March.
- Q Of what year? A '67. They dismissed school for us all to go and attend the funeral.
- Q Where was he buried? A He was buried right at that graveyard on the hill, I think on the east side of the house if I mistake not, it has been so long.
- Q Who dug that grave, do you know or not? A Uncle Jeff Lyon and Lewis Howe.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Mose Hardrick ever lose any other children? A Any of his children.
- Q Did Andy Frye lost any other children? A Yes sir, lost one more, girl.
- Q After that? A Just before or after that.
- Q What year did the other one die? A I don't know.
- Q Don't have any idea about that? A No sir, I don't know.
- Q You don't know whether it was one year before, or two years after? A No sir, I don't.
- Q It may have been 5 years afterwards? A I couldn't tell.
- Q You have got no idea about that? A No sir.
- Q You had no education before this, you couldn't read and write at this time? A No sir.
- Q You would not like to be positive about this like that? A No sir.
- Q Did Mose Hardrick lose any children? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did Jeff Lyons ever lose any? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did Nels Moore ever lose any? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did anybody else in that country ever lose any? A Not at that time you speak of.
- Q I don't mean at that time, did Mose, Jeff or any of your neighbors in that country at any time after that have any children to die? A They had some to die.

was the payment I could tell you.
I think they paid once in '80.

-27-

- Q Well how long afterwards? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q Don't you know the date Hoss lost his children? A No sir, I don't.
- Q But they were after that time? A Yes sir, I suppose they were.
- Q Well how long did you live there in that neighborhood after that?
- A Why we moved away from there, we didn't live so long awhile before we moved away.
- Q About how many years? A I guess it was a year, or it may have been a little longer.
- Q May have been two or three years? A Yes sir, before we moved away from there, no not quite that long, probably a year or two years.
- Q Probably two years? A Yes sir, before we moved away from there.
- Q How far did you move from there? A I don't know.
- Q In the same neighborhood? A No sir, we moved on the filmore Hicks place.
- Q How far from this Thompson place? A I don't know just how far.
- Q About 5 or 6 miles? A Yes sir, I guess it was.
- Q Do you know what year you moved down there? A No sir, I don't.
- Q How long did you live down there? A About two seasons.
- Q Do you know what year you left down there? A No sir.
- Q It is a pretty long time ago to testify about things that happened then, aint it? A A good while.
- Q Were you married afterwards or were you married at that time?
- A Married afterwards.
- Q What year were you married? A I was married in, I would not be positive, I was married in '74.
- Q You would not be positive about that? A I think it was.
- Q Do you know what year they made the Wallace Roll? A If I mistake not I think it was in '95 or '96, something like that.
- Q That is when they made the Wallace Roll? A I think it was.
- Q How when did they make the Kern-Clifton roll? A I disremember, I won't be positive about that.
- Q You don't know what year the freedmen drew their first money do you? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You don't recollect the years of any of the payments? A There was one payment I could tell you and that was the 1880 payment. I think they paid once in '80.
- Q In that same year of 1880? A I think they paid off money that year.
- Q What time of the year? A I don't remember.
- Q You don't recollect it? A No sir.
- Q Don't know whether it was spring, fall, summer or winter? A No sir.
- Q Don't know where you were living? A Yes sir, I was living on Spring Creek.
- Q You said you were living on the Johnson Thompson place, when did he come back there after the war? A I don't know.
- Q Don't you have any idea? A No sir.
- Q Well you knew Johnson Thompson? A I was just acquainted with him, they would say it was him.
- Q He was afterwards a merchant up there? A He was?
- Q Wasn't he? A I suppose so.
- Q Don't you know that? A They say he was a merchant.
- Q Didn't you never see him? A I saw him at a distance but never went to his store.
- Q Didn't you never know where he lived? A Johnson Thompson's place was on this side of the river and the old place we moved on was on the east side of the river.
- Q How far were those two places apart? A They are not very far apart, the river is between them.

- Q And you claim you lived at one place and the river is just between you and the other? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't have any idea at all when Johnson Thompson returned to that place? A No sir.
- Q Don't have the slightest idea about it? A I could have a slight idea but that would not do me any good to tell it.
- Q What is your judgment about it? A I don't know, I couldn't tell you.
- Q You have got no judgment at all about it? A When he returned? Yes? A No sir, I have seen him.
- Q How did Mose come down there? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q You don't have any idea? A No sir.
- Q Did he have a wife? A Not when I saw him.
- Q Well how many years afterwards before he brought his wife? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q As much as 3 or 4? A I don't know.
- Q Is that your judgment? A I couldn't tell you when I saw Mose Hardrick, I saw him personally---
- Q How many years after that before you saw his wife and family?
- A I guess probably a month, or two or three months when I saw his family.
- Q Where were you living when you saw his family? A Down on the river below there. I was staying with my Aunt on the Reuben Downing place.
- Q I thought you lived at the Dr. Thompson place? A I did when I saw him, but when I saw his wife I am telling you.
- Q When did you leave the Dr. Thompson place? A I don't know.
- Q How long after Christmas? A Quite awhile.
- Q Two or three months? A I couldn't tell just when it was we left that place.
- Q What is your best judgment about the time you left there? A Well I don't know, you see we went to school there.
- Q There on the Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q You said that started up in March, so you were still on the Thompson place in March? A Yes sir.
- Q And you yet hadn't seen Mose Hardrick's wife when you left that place? A Yes sir, I was at my aunt's before.
- Q That was after you left the Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q Then that was after March? A I suppose so, when I saw his wife.
- Q Then he didn't have any wife there when you first saw him? A No sir, I saw him personally.
- Q Anybody else with him? A Nobody with him when I saw him.
- Q Were you living in one of Dr. Thompson's house? A We were living there in the old brick house.
- Q Where did he come from? A Come from across the river when he come there.
- Q He wasn't living in that house? A No sir, not the first time.
- Q He wasn't living there until after you left? A After we left he moved there.
- Q Anyhow up until the time you left and you stayed there until after March, 1867, he never lived in that Dr. Thompson house?
- A No sir, he wasn't there when I left, I suppose he moved in after we left.
- Q Well you never saw Jeff Lyons there at all? A Yes sir.
- Q Then did you see him there? A I saw Jeff there just a little before Christmas or just after Christmas.
- Q Did he have his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q The first time you saw him? A Yes sir.
- Q Where were they living? A Right there on the same place.
- Q On the Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they live in the same house? A They lived in a little brick house. He moved in where she taught school in the little brick house.
- Q That was Jeff? A Yes sir.
- Q What was Jeff's wife's name? A Patience.

- Q That was Jeff Lyon's wife? A Mahala I mean.
Q Now you say it was Mahala, you see her? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see Butler McNair there? A No sir.
Q You didn't see Tom Moore? A No sir.
Q They never come there while you were at the Thompson place? A No sir.
Q Now if I recollect right, you lived there at the Thompson place until after they started school there, and then afterwards moved down on the Downing place? A No sir, I didn't move down there, just went down there to stay a week or two with my aunt.
Q You don't know where Mose come from when he come there? A No sir, I don't.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q How old are you? A I am 54 years old.
Q Your post office Catale? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Johnson Thompson. A Yes sir.
Q Was he living up there just across the river from this Fr. Thompson place? A I didn't see him.
Q Did you see him the next spring? A No sir.

BY MR. STARR:

- Q Was it in the fall of the same year that the Horse Creek fight occurred upon Horse Creek in the Cherokee Nation that you saw Jeff Lyons and Moses Hardrick up there?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to by the representative of the Cherokee Nation as this question is about as leading as one could possibly be, because it places the material facts in the mouth of the witness and allows him to answer it by yes or no.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A Yes sir.
Q Is that the way you fix the date that you saw them up there?

Mr. Hastings: Objected to because that is leading.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

- A Yes sir, that is how come me to remember.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Have you ever testified in this case before? A No sir.
Q How far do you live from Mose Hardrick now? A 40 miles I reckon.
Q Have you lived that distance from him for the last 5 years?
A Yes sir.
Q Have you seen him frequently during that time? A Yes sir, I have seen him.
Q Did you see him a number of times when the Commission was making the Cherokee roll out in camp? A Yes sir.
Q Did he ever say anything to you at that time about getting you to testify for him? A No sir.

~~WIT~~ WITNESS EXCUSED.

- Q Then where did you go? A Moved across the river to the Bob Daniels place.
- Q Was that across the river? A Yes sir, on the south side of the river.
- Q How long did you stay there? A I don't know exactly how long we stayed there, just a short time.
- Q Where did you come to from there? A Fort Gibson.
- Q Then how long did you stay at Fort Gibson? A During that winter until the next spring.
- Q Stayed there from the winter of 1866 until the spring of 1867?
- A Stayed there until the spring of '66, until the winter of '66 to the spring, then we moved back.
- Q Then you remained in Fort Gibson until the spring of '66?
- A No sir, we were up-----
- Q How long did you remain in Fort Gibson? A Stayed there,--We remained there a couple of months maybe a little longer, I don't know.
- Q Well what time did you go there? A Went there that winter, winter after Christmas and stayed there until spring, then we moved back up to this Daniels place.
- Q To the Bob Daniels place? A Yes sir.
- Q Which Bob Daniels place did you move to? A The one on the east side of the river.
- Q How far was that from the Dr. Thompson place? A About a mile and a half south I reckon.

- Q Now about what time in the spring did you go to this Daniels place? A It was along the time to farm, to make a crop.
- Q Did you make a crop there in the spring of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Where were you in the spring of 1867? A There on this same place.
- Q Did you make a crop there in the spring of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q When did Bob Daniels come back? A In the fall of '66.
- Q Did he move back on this place in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir, we had to move out and he moved in.
- Q About what month? A I don't know what month.

- Q They moved in there in the fall of 1866 when you moved out?
- A Yes sir.
- Q About what month was that? A It was in the fall.
- Q How long after that now was it before you saw Jeff Lyons and his wife down here? A Why as near as I remember along in the spring of '67.
- Q That is when you saw Jeff Lyons and his wife? A No sir, saw Jeff along that winter.
- Q About how long after you moved out of this Bob Daniels house before you saw Jeff Lyons? A They were all living there before, Jeff and them.
- Q What time was it Jeff come there? A In the winter.
- Q You say Bob Daniels came up there in the fall of 1866 with his family and you moved out and they moved in? A Yes sir.
- Q How long after you moved out of Bob Daniels house and he moved in was it that you saw Jeff and Mahala and Wose and the others?
- A They were all living there.
- Q Haven't you already swore that you didn't see them until the winter of 1866? A Yes sir, I seed them in the winter of '66.
- Q Well now you moved out of the Bob Daniel house in the fall of 1866? A As near as I remember.
- Q Well the fall come before winter, didn't it? A That was in the fall we moved out of there.
- Q Then you saw Jeff Lyons and his wife and Mike about Christmas time of that winter, is that it? A Yes sir.
- Q Now where had you moved to when you moved out of the Bob Daniels house, did you move to another house in the same place? A Yes sir, a little bit of a house.
- Q A log house or cabin? A Yes sir.
- Q And you were living in that and Bob Daniels was living in the main house? A Yes sir.
- Q When you saw Jeff and his wife and one Hardrick and Wose's wife, is that the way of it, along about Christmas time? A They all lived there before that.
- Q Haven't you swore that you never saw them until the winter? A I saw them the winter of '66.
- Q Haven't you swore that you moved out of the Bob Daniels house in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q Now don't the fall come before winter? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you had moved out of the Bob Daniels house, the main house in a smaller house when you first saw Jeff and Wose and their wives? A I saw them before that: Them people were all living there before we moved out.
- Q You moved out of the house in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.
- Q You are a half brother of Mike, are you? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you any kin to Wels? A Yes sir.

- Q Have you and Nels been discussing the case? A No sir.
- Q Didn't I see you not half an hour ago down there talking about it? A I don't know whether you did or not.
- Q Were you not? A I don't know.
- Q Do you deny talking about it? A No sir, might have been talking about something else.
- Q This same man Nels is a witness here? A Yes sir.
- Q You have talked about it? A Yes sir.
- Q You and Andy vry have talked about it? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
- Q Certain of that? A Yes sir.
- Q I am glad you are certain of something. What year were you married? A Married in '91.
- Q Was that the first time you were ever married? A Yes sir.

- Q Yes, in the last few days? A No sir, he didn't tell me.
- Q Was it ever been discussed? A No sir, I don't know nothing about it.
- Q Has it ever been discussed in your presence and hearing? A I have been knowing it.
- Q Has it been discussed in the last day or two in your hearing that I was likely to ask that question? A No sir.
- Q You never heard the Wallace roll mentioned in the last two or three days? A Might have heard it mentioned but I never kept no count of that.
- Q Did you stay on the Bob Daniels place the following year after Bob Daniels returned in the fall? A No sir.
- Q How long did you stay there after Bob Daniels come back? A Short time, a week or two, maybe a month.
- Q Then where did you go? A Right where we have been living ever since.
- Q How far is that from them? A About three miles.
- Q What direction? A Why it is northeast.
- Q What time did you move up there, what time of the year? A We moved up there in the xx spring.
- Q I thought you said you stayed there a week or two after Bob Daniels come back and he come in the fall? A Well now it may have been, I may be mistaken.
- Q It is a long time ago hint it now? A Yes sir.
- Q You were a small boy at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q You had no reason to fix these things on your mind and you didn't know you were going to testify about 40 years afterwards? A No sir.
- Q So you might be mistaken about it? A Yes sir.

BY MR. STARR:

- Q When did you say you were born? A '51.

- Q And about two weeks attendance in this other case, your mileage and time only amounted to about $12.50? A That is all I got out of the mule.
- BY MR. HASTINGS:
- Q Did the Cherokee Nation pay you anything more or offer to pay you anything more than $2.00 per day, and your mileage? A Mr. Bell told me to make it 4 days, and I didn't claim anything.
- Q Who paid you? A Roland brought the check to me and we went down to the bank and got the money.
- Q Did you sign a pay roll? A No sir.
- Q When was that? A It was along, I can't tell what time but I sure come down here, it was when that Crap Lynch's daughter, Bettie Cash was up.
- Q Did Gale Starr give you that check? A No sir.
- Q Was it while he was a stenographer for the Cherokee Nation? A I didn't know, he was an official for the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Didn't you never know he was? A No sir.
- Q Never heard of it? A No sir, never heard of him being an official for the Cherokee Nation. I know he was called an Attorney at Law but I never knew he was an official.
- Q You never heard of that? A No sir.
- Q Well whose name was signed to that check? A I don't know sir? I never looked on the check to see whose name? Me and Roland went to the bank and he shoved his in and I shoved mine in and we got the money.
- Q Do you know when it was? A I don't know, you know when that case of Bettie Cash was up.
- Q Did the Cherokee Nation ask you to swear anything else but the truth in the Bettie Cash case? A Only the truth and that is all I swore.
- Q Was the amount you got what you were entitled to for your time and mileage, how far do you live from Vinita? A I considered that paid me for the time and mileage.
- Q How far do you live from Vinita? A 14 miles.
- Q And it is 65 miles from Vinita to Muskogee, in the neighborhood of 80 miles, and you say you got a check for $12.50? A Yes sir.
- Q And you got pay for 4 days? A That is what he told me to claim, and I told you I didn't claim nothing.
- Q Didn't you sign a pay roll? A I don't think I did. I never seen the check until Roland give it to me.
- Q Did you sign a pay roll? A I never signed nothing.
- Q Do you swear that? A I never signed nothing.
- Q You sign your name don't you? A No sir.
- Q Did you touch the pen to it? A No sir. I never seen the check until Roland give it to me.
- Q I am talking about the pay roll? A What pay roll?
- Q The pay roll so that the check might issue on it? A I don't understand it yet.
- Q You can't sign your name? A No sir.

- Q When you don't know how much the amount of the check was? A The amount must have been that, they give me the money.
- Q You came from your home and went up to Vinita and took the train and you were out a day there and a day here and a day going back, then you were out three days and 80 miles? A Yes sir.
- Q And according to that you were out three days and 80 miles and you didn't get but $12.50? A That was all.
- Q Did you make those other fellows you have testified for pay you? A Which?
- Q You have testified in a good many cases? A Yes sir, they paid me.
- Q All of them? A Some of them did and some didn't.
- Q How much did you get in the gam Landrum case? A I have forgotten.
- Q What other case? A There was several cases, I don't recollect who I did witness for.
- Q You don't remember any other cases? A No sir.
- Q Now you said awhile ago when it wasn't taken down that you thought the mule was worth more than $25.00 at the time you took it? A I said I couldn't get more than that because he was balky.
- Q What did you think he was worth when you were getting it? A About $30.00.
- Q And you sold it $5.00 cheaper? A Yes sir, he wouldn't pull an empty wagon.
- Q Then you made a business of charging all those fellows you testified for? A Yes sir, I charged them, some paid me, and some didn't.
- Q Were some to pay you in the event they got on? A They promised to pay me, didn't say when. Maybe they will pay me yet.
- Q Were any to pay you after the cases were decided? A I don't know whether they were or not.
- Q Do you remember any other case that you testified in? Did you testify in the Alexander Rowe case? A Where did he live?
- Q Post office Ketchum? A No sir.
- Q Never testified in that case? A No sir.
- Q Well he never paid you nothing? A No sir.
- Q Did you testify in the Aaron Martin case? A Yes sir.
- Q Is that the one you got the mule in? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you testify in the Sarah Ann Martin case, or was that a part of the Aaron Martin case? A No, that was separate.
- Q What did you get in that case for testifying? A I don't recollect, got two or three dollars from Sarah Ann.
- Q Did you testify in the Elias Downing case? A No sir.
- Q You swear you didn't testify in that case? A I don't think I did. I ain't going to swear nothing unless I know what I am swearing.
- Q Now do you know? A I don't know whether I did or not, I cannot recollect, it has been so long.
- Q Did you testify in the Peyton Martin case? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he pay you? A Yes sir, three or four dollars.
- Q Do you know, do you remember how much he paid you? A About three dollars.
- Q You just followed this Commission from place to place and stayed there in constant attendance in order to testify while they were at Vinita and Chelsea? A I testified for Aaron Martin folks at Vinita.
- Q Is that the only place you testified? A Never testified for any one in Chelsea in my life. When I would go home they would come after me and maybe they would come about twice or three times before I would go, because I have to work.

- Q How much did Aaron promise to pay you the first time you testified and didn't pay it? A He promised to give me $10.00 for witnessing for his family.
- Q Where were you going to witness at? A In the Kern-Clifton Court.
- Q Witness for him then for $10.00? A Yes sir.
- Q And you didn't get it? A No sir.
- Q How long did you stay up there at Yinita witnessing before this Commission when it was there? A I didn't stay there all the time, I went back and forwards.
- Q What was the longest you ever stayed up there? A Not over two days at a time.
- Q How long were you there when you testified for Aaron? A About two days then, I went home and come back again, I believe I went back and forward 3 or 4 times before the case come up, then I witnessed for them.
- Q Did you get any other mules in any other cases besides that one? A No sir, mules were too high, I couldn't go and get a mule every time.
- Q What is the most you ever got for witnessing in a case? A That mule was the biggest salary I ever got for witnessing.
- Q What did you get from George W. Lynch for witnessing for him whose post office is Yinita and whose age was then 48? A I don't think I witnessed for George W. Lynch.
- Q You don't think you ever witnessed for him? A No sir.
- Q Did you witness for Harriet Tucker? A She was in the Aaron Martin family.
- Q Did your wife ever get anything for testifying in these cases? A She got two or three dollars from some of them.
- Q It was your habit to make them pay you in the case in which you testified? A Yes sir, I wanted my time.
- Q Didn't make any difference, if you were there you made them pay you when you went in to testify? A No sir, if the Commission ordered me I never made them pay me.
- Q If you were hanging around you charged them if you testified? A No sir, if they wanted me to testify for them I went in and testified.
- Q Who are paying you now? A These men got me to come and witness for them, I expect them to pay me.
- Q How much did they say they would pay you? A I don't know, they haven't said.
- Q Did they pay your fare? A Yes sir.
- Q Who? A This man.
- Q Who are these men? A Starr & Patten.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q In the case you testified in, in which you got a mule to secure you for your fees, did you promise or agree to tell anything else besides the truth for receiving that mule? A No sir.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

THOMAS H. MOORE RECALLED:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A Thomas H. Moore.
- Q Did you testify in this case awhile ago? A Yes sir.
- Q Is there any other statement that you desire to make other than what you have made? A Yes sir.
- Q What is it? A I want to withdraw one I made a statement in '66, I want to make it '67.
- Q What was that about? A Bob Daniels moving in in '66, in '67 is when he moved in.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Who did you talk to about this since you left the stand? A I got to studying it over myself.
- Q You talked to Mr. Patten about it? A Just now, yes sir.
- Q Before you come back on the stand? A No sir.
- Q You swear that you haven't talked to him out there in the hall before you come back on the stand? A No sir.
- Q How did he know, how did he come to call you back here then? A I come back myself. I got to studying about where we were at that time and I knew that I made a mistake.
- Q Were you not right out there when Andy Frye was on the stand and heard him? A No sir, I didn't see him. I got to studying about where we were living at that time and knewed it was in '67 because we come from there down to this school house.
- Q All these witnesses are out here in the hall? A Yes sir.
- Q You have all been talking about it out here in the hall? A Yes sir.
- Q You have talked to Starr or Patten out here in the hall about this case? A No sir.
- Q You testified that you saw Nose Hardrick here in the winter of 1866, in February? A '67 I mean.
- Q You swore awhile ago 1866 and Mr. Patten asked you over and over? A I know I did, that is what I am trying to get straight. We lived up where I live now and we come down to this school all this time.
- Q Mr. Patten asked you to be positive whether it was '66 or '67 and he asked you a number of times, and didn't you say it was in February, 1866? A I did and it was a mistake, if I said so I didn't mean to say it.
- Q How long was it after you left the stand before you found out the mistake? A I got to studying about where we lived at and where I live now and when I come to this school, back and forwards and it was in that year.
- Q Then it was in the fall of 1867 instead of 1866 that you moved over there? A Yes sir.
- Q And it was in the fall of 1867 Bob Daniels moved in and you out? A Yes sir.
- Q You are certain that that was November I believe you said? A Did I say November.
- Q You said fall, October or November? A It was in that fall anyhow.
- Q Of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q That is when Bob Daniels moved his family up there? A Yes sir.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

APPLICANTS REST.

The following testimony was taken on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching the witness Andy Frye we desire that the judgment of the Commission and the action of the Secretary thereon in the Sam Landrum case, Freedman doubtful 292 be made a part of the record in this case.

Mr. Starr: The applicants object to the introduction of the judgment and the record in the Sam Landrum case.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The objection will be sustained.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: Attorneys for applicants and Cherokee Nation agree that a statement showing the present status of the Cherokee Freedman enrollment case of Sam Landrum be made.

The records of this office show that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated July 1, 1903, rejecting, among others, the application of Sam Landrum for the enrollment of himself and family as Cherokee freedmen was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior on December 5, 1903 (I.T.D. 8326-1903), and that a motion said case was filed May 29, 1906.

ELIZA A. STROUT, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Eliza A. Strout.
- Q How old are you? A 80.
- Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
- Q What was your maiden name? A Daniels.
- Q Were you a daughter of Bob Daniels? A Yes sir.
- Q Is he the same Bob Daniels who was a member of the Supreme Court in the Cherokee Nation in 1871? A Yes sir.
- Q You are a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q Through who do you get your Cherokee blood? A Father and mother both.
- Q Did your parents own some slaves before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know at any time a negro woman by the name of Mahala, who afterwards married Jeff Lyons? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know her before the war? Yes sir, I can remember her before the war, that is before she left us.
- Q Who did she belong to? A My parents.
- Q Did she have any children before the war? Yes sir.
- Q What was the child's name? A She had one named Wash, I don't know whether I know them all or not, and one named Peggy and one named Anaka by a man named Lynch, who left the country, and after that she had this Mike Moore.
- Q He was born before the war? Yes sir.
- Q He was a slave of your parents? A Yes sir.
- Q She wasn't the wife of Jeff before the war? A No sir, she came back here with Jeff.
- Q How did you people leave the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes sir, we went to the Choctaw Nation.
- Q Now when did you folks come back from the Choctaw Nation to the Cherokee Nation and where to first? A When we first come back we come to Tahlequah in the fall of 1866 and we stayed there all winter and then come back up home on Grand River in March, 1867.
- Q How far was your home place from what was known as the Dr. Thompson place? A Just about a mile.
- Q Was it on the same side of the river? A Yes sir, on the east side.
- Q And about a mile from the Dr. Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Johnson Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q He was a Cherokee? A Yes sir, he married my sister.
- Q Do you know where the Johnson Thompson place was? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was this Dr. Thompson place with reference now to your father's place and the Johnson Thompson place? A It was right between the two.
- Q Then you had to go by the Dr. Thompson place in order to go to your Aunts, who was Mrs. Johnson Thompson? A Yes sir, on the road, went right by the house.
- Q Did you visit backwards and forwards frequently? A Yes sir.

- Q How was Mahala and Jeff Lyons back up there in that neighborhood at the Dr. Thompson place or any other place when you people moved up there? A We never did see her.
- Q Was she in that neighborhood at that time? A No sir.
- Q She was your old slave?? A No sir, she was not there.
- Q Could your old slave have been there at that Dr. Thompson place, and you pass backwards and forward from your place over to your aunts visiting, as you frequently did, without your knowing it? A No sir, I don't think she could.
- Q Your father is the same person who was a member of the Supreme Court and passed upon this case in 1871? A I don't know whether he passed on it or not, I guess the record shows it.
- Q He was a member of the Supreme Court in 1871? A Yes sir.
- Q Was he living there in 1871 on this place, did he continue to live up there? A Yes sir, my father died in 1872.
- Q He lived there until he died? A Yes sir.
- Q You know how long afterwards before you first heard of Mahala coming back there? A No sir, I don't know exactly how long but I don't think it was right soon. I am pretty certain it was not.
- Q It was sometime? A Yes sir, I don't know but I always thought it was 1868.
- Q Did you hear after they come back where they come from? A It was always my impression they come from Kansas.
- Q That was your impression from knowledge you gained at that time? A Yes sir.

BY MR. PATTER:

- Q I believe you say you are about 50 years old? A Yes sir.
- Q How old were you at the close of the war? A I guess I was about 12 years old when I come home.
- Q When was that? A I just now said it was in 1867.
- Q What time of the year? A In March when we come down on the river.
- Q You say Mahala was the slave of your father? A Yes sir.
- Q You say she had one child before the war? A She had more than one.
- Q Can you give the name of one? A She might have had more than I know of.
- Q You remember of them before the war? A Yes sir, I remember seeing them, said they were her children.
- Q How old were you at that time? A At what time.
- Q Just about the time you say she had these children before the war? A What difference does it make if I told you how old I was and when I was born.
- Q I asked you how old you were about the time the war began? A I guess I was about 6 or 8 years old.
- Q That has been about 45 years ago now hasn't it? A Yes sir, in 1861.
- Q And you were about 6 years old at that time? A I guess so.
- Q And you remember things that occurred, that happened, when you were 6 years old, that occurred 45 years ago? A I remember when Mahala left us, it was during the war.
- Q And you were only about 10 years old at the close of the war? A I can remember when I was 6 years old.
- Q Whose slave did you say Mahala was? A I guess she belonged to my father and mother both.
- Q Did she belong to them at the commencement of the war? A Yes sir.
- Q And they were Cherokee citizens? A Yes sir.
- Q Now you say you came back home there in the spring of 1867, in March? A Yes sir.

- Q Do you know where Judge Clark was living when you came back?
- A Yes sir, he was living right across the river from us. If he wasn't living there when we come back he was pretty soon because I remember him and his wife coming to our house to visit us.
- Q Do you remember where L. F. Bell was living when you come back?
- A No sir, I know where he lived afterwards.
- Q Where you moved to when you come back how far was that from the Dr. Thompson place? A A mile.
- Q How frequently were you by the Dr. Thompson place? A I don't know whether we went every day or not, but we went often because Johnson Thompson, a wife was my mother's sister, and so was Dr. Thompson's wife.
- Q Did you go by the house? A Yes sir.
- Q Was it on the road? A Yes sir, of course it was on the road.
- Q Who lived on the Dr. Thompson place at that time? A I don't know who all, there was a lot of darkies living there.
- Q Can you name them? A I knowed Andy Frye and Al Lynch.
- Q Who else? A I don't remember anybody else.
- Q Can you give the names, are you certain that Al Lynch lived there? A Yes sir, I used to see him, I don't think he was married then.
- Q You are certain that was the spring of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q Who else besides Addy Frye and Al Lynch? A I don't remember there was an old colored man named Tobe Schrimsher.
- Q Were there any one else besides those three? A I don't remember anybody else.
- Q Do you remember whether Butler McHair was there? A I don't know anybody by that name.
- Q Or Tom Moore? A Yes sir, I know him, he wasn't living there.
- Q Old man Tom Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q How do you know he wasn't living there? A Because I didn't see him.
- Q The fact that you didn't see a certain person in a certain neighborhood is conclusive to you that you didn't see him? A I don't see how he could be there without my seeing him when I passed there.
- Q Didn't you say just now that there was a number of colored people living there in that house that you didn't know who they were?
- A I said I didn't know them but I knew Tom Moore and his wife, belonged to my father.
- Q You were about 10 years old? A I said I was about 12.
- Q There were some colored people living at that house and you didn't know who they were? A I know Tom Moore wasn't there.
- Q Do you undertake to swear Mahalia wasn't there? A If she had been there I would have seen her.
- Q Do you undertake to say you know you saw everybody that lived there? A I guess I saw them but I didn't know the names.
- Q How do you know you saw them all? A I know I must have.
- Q You are just guessing at that, taking it as a conclusion? A Now are you stating from what you actually know or what you take as matter of fact that you ought to know because you went by there frequently? A I don't know as I have to answer any such foolish questions as that.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: Just answer as near as possible the question as asked.

- A I know I saw them when they all come back, and it wasn't when we come back. I saw them afterwards, about 1868 or '67.
- Q Well now when was the first time you ever saw Mahalia? A Well I don't know exactly, she wasn't there when we come back.
- Q I am not asking you that question? A I couldn't tell you just the date I saw her.

- Q You say you saw her when they all come back? A I saw them when they were living there.
- Q About when was that? A I don't know when it was.
- Q Was it 1868 or 1869? A It was 1867 or '68.
- Q What time in 1867? A I always thought it was 1868.
- Q Do you know what year it was that they lived on that Dr. Thompson place? A I know it was not in 1866.
- Q I am not asking you whether you saw them in 1866? A Well I told you I didn't know whether it was 1867 or '68.
- Q Do you know what time of the year it was you first saw them on that Dr. Thompson place? A No sir, I don't remember that.
- Q Do you remember when they first moved on that Dr. Thompson place? A No sir.
- Q You don't know anything about where they come from Kansas? A I know they were not on that Dr. Thompson place.
- Q You don't undertake to say that they were not in the Cherokee Nation when you come back? A No sir, I don't.
- Q But you undertake to say that Mahala was not on that Dr. Thompson place in March, 1867, just because you didn't see her? A I would have seen her if there.
- Q Who lived on that place or in the house prededing your father? The place you moved to, just before him? A There was a colored man named Arch Landrum.
- Q Did he move in there just before you folks moved in? A Yes sir.
- Q Did Nelson Moore ever live in that house, if you know? A No sir.
- Q You don't remember when he lived there? A No sir.
- Q Tom Moore I mean instead of Nelson? A They all lived in what used to be the colored people's house, but not in the house we lived in.
- Q Was any one living in that house when you folks moved down there, the place you moved into when you came back there in 1867? A My father was in Tahlequah and went up there to get the folks out of the house so we could move in.
- Q Who did he get out? A Arch Landrum.
- Q You are certain it was Arch Landrum? A That is what my father said.
- Q Didn't say whether Arch was the only one? A Didn't say about that.
- Q What time of the year was it? A I don't know exactly, it was between Christmas and March. It couldn't have been very long.
- Q You came shortly after he came down there? A Yes sir.
- Q As a matter of fact didn't you move in that place in the fall of 1867 instead of the spring? A No sir.
- Q How do you remember it was spring instead of the fall? A Because they went to making a crop.
- Q How do you remember it was 1867? A How do you remember anything?
- Q I am asking you? A (No response)
- Q You are testifying to these facts, things that occurred when you were 17 years old, from your own independent recollection regardless of anything that would impress it upon your mind? A You just undertake to say it was 1867? A Well I said it was 1867, and I said it two or three times.
- Q Have you any circumstance to connect your memory with that makes you absolutely know it was 1867, or some positive of it? A I don't know any more than anybody knows one year from another.
- Q Have you a pretty good faculty for remembering things that occurred in 1860 or '62? A Sometimes I do and sometimes I don't.
- Q Do you know when the Fern-Clifton roll was made? A No sir.
- Q You don't remember that do you? A No sir.
- Q Do you know when the Wallace roll was made? A Wasn't in '60. I don't know.
- Q Some of these dates are pretty hard to remember, aren't they? A Indeed without they want to remember anything, they ought to remember it.
- Q How do you happen to think you got to remember it was the spring of 1867 your folks moved on his place, is that the reason you remember it? A No sir.

- Q There was nothing at that time to impress it upon you to remember it was 1867? A Well I know when the war closed, and how long we stayed down south before we come home, and then we came to Tahlequah and stayed there until the spring of '67.
- Q How long were you at Tahlequah? A I don't know what month in the fall, and we stayed there that winter.
- Q You came to Tahlequah in the fall? A Yes sir, in the fall of 1866.
- Q Where were you when the war closed? A In the Choctaw Nation.
- Q How long did you stay in the Choctaw Nation? A About three years, we went there during the war.
- Q What year did you go there? A I think it must have been in 1862.
- Q And you stayed there three years? A Stayed there until 1865.
- Q What time in 1862 did you go? A I don't know.
- Q You don't remember that? A No sir.
- Q Do you remember the occasion of going? A Yes sir.
- Q You say you stayed there about three years? A We stayed there until 1865.
- Q What time in 1865? A I don't know, I think it was in the spring.
- Q And where did you go from there? A Back to Tahlequah in the fall, and how I know it was in the fall because we gathered Hickory Nuts all along the road.
- Q How long did you stay at Tahlequah before you came down there? A I told you from that time until March.
- Q The following March? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you came to Tahlequah in 1865? A '65?
- Q Didn't you say you left the Choctaw Nation in 1865? A I said the war closed in 1865 and we came to Tahlequah in 1866.
- Q Do you know what year you were born in? A 1860 so my mother said, I don't know whether I was or not.
- Q You are going on 51 now? A Yes sir, I will be 51 next August.

WITNESSES EXCUSED:

JAMES R. DUNLAP, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What time in 1866 did you move there? A Sometime in the spring, May or June.
- Q Did you get acquainted after moving there in that vicinity with a colored man named Butler McNair? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his wife? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they live there in that vicinity? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you at that time live in the town or in the country? A I lived in the country there.
- Q About how far did Butler McNair live from you? A About a mile.
- Q Live in a cabin over there? A Yes sir.
- Q Well Mr. Dunlap when was your first child born? A January 21, 1867.
- Q Do you know who attended her wife and waited on her during that confinement? A After her confinement Aunt Betsy Butler was with my wife.
- Q Was that Butler McNair's wife? A Yes sir.
- Q Was that after this confinement you speak of? A Yes sir.
- Q Was that the first child your wife had? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you positive that Betsy, the wife of Butler McNair, waited on your wife after this confinement? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you a record of the birth of that child? A Yes sir.

- Q Did you bring that with you? A Yes sir.
- Q What does that record disclose? A You read it.
- Q Is this from your family record, your Bible? A Yes sir.
- Q It shows birth, Orion Dunlap was born in Allen County, Kansas, January 21, 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q That is the date of his birth? A Yes sir.
- Q And you are positive that Betsey, the wife of Butler McNair waited on your wife during her sickness following her confinement? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember how long she stayed there after that? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you remember how long they stayed in that vicinity? A No sir, I don't.
- Q And you have refreshed your memory from the date of the record of the birth have you? A Not exclusively, I was married January 21, 1866, and my oldest child was born January 22, 1867.
- Q And you are positive that Butler McNair's wife Betsey was there? A Yes sir.
- Q You are not prepared to say how much longer they remained there? A No sir, I couldn't do that.
- Q Did you know a colored man as named Tom Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you last remember of seeing him up there with reference to the birth of this child? A Well sir, I don't remember anything particular about them after harvest was over in the summer of 1866. I helped harvest with Tom Moore, but when he left I couldn't tell you.
- Q They didn't live on your place? A No sir.

Mr. Patten: The Attorneys for applicants now move the Honorable Commissioner to strike from the record all the testimony relative to Butler McNair given by this witness, for the reason that there is no contention that she came to the Cherokee Nation at the same time that Butler McNair did.

Mr. Hastings: In answer to that motion the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation reply that practically every witness that has been introduced by these attorneys from Kansas have testified that all four of these parties left there with their effects at the same time, left that community.

On behalf of the Commissioner: The motion and reply will be noted.

MR. PATTEN:

- Q Were you very well acquainted with any of those colored people around there? A Not intimately acquainted.
- Q How long had you known this Betsey McNair at this time? A I came there the spring of 1866, and I didn't have any acquaintance with the old lady until I went after her to stay with my wife.
- Q There is no question but what she waited on your wife at that time? A No question in my mind.
- Q Do you know whether she was married or single? A She claimed to be the wife of Butler, lived with him.
- Q Did you ever know him? A Yes sir.
- Q How far did they live from you? A About a mile.
- Q When was the last time you saw Tom Moore? A The last I remember of him is when we helped harvest there in 1866. Mostly colored people there and I just come into the country there and we swapped work around and cut our wheat.

J. A. THOMPSON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A J. A. Thompson.
- Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
- Q What is your age? A I will be 56 years old the first day of next August.
- Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q What was your father's name? A Johnson Thompson.
- Q Have you a brother named Tommy Thompson, T. F. Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you go during the Civil war? A We went south, on Red River.
- Q Where did you return after the war? A Back there on our old place.
- Q Where was that? A On Grand River, known now by the Ketchum place.
- Q By Ketchum post office? A Yes sir, near there.
- Q That is the same place that is generally known as the Johnson Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q How far is that from the Dr. Thompson place? A About a mile.
- Q On the same side of the river? A No sir.
- Q How far from the Bob Daniels place? A That was a short mile further south, on the south side of the river.
- Q Was the Bob Daniels place and Dr. Thompson place on the same side of the river? A Yes sir.
- Q And both on the opposite side of the river from your father's place? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Mrs. Streut, daughter of Bob Daniels? A Yes sir, first cousin of mine.
- Q Do you know when Bob Daniels come back up there? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A In 1867.
- Q What time of the year? A Early in the spring.
- Q What time did you people come back to this Johnson Thompson place? A I think it was in October, in 1866.
- Q Did you ever know Mose Hardrick a colored man before the war? A No sir.
- Q Did you know Jeff Lyons before the war? A No sir.
- Q Did you know Mahala, Jeff's wife? A Yes sir, she belonged to Bob Daniels before the war.
- Q Did Daniels live up there before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q And you were neighbors before the war as well as relatives? A Yes sir, lived at the same place.
- Q Right at the same places you described? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you knew Mahala well did you? A Yes sir.
- Q Now I will ask you when you first knew of Mahala, who was the wife of Jeff Lyons, and who before the war was the slave of your Uncle Bob Daniels, after the war? A Well that was along in the fall of '67. They stopped in our yard, I don't know exactly how long, camped there.
- Q Was that when they come back to the country? A Yes sir.
- Q You say that was in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you positive they were not there during the winter of 1866? A I don't think they were, if they were I didn't see them.
- Q Did they say they were from Kansas in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q You remember when Mose Hardrick come? A Not exactly, but he landed in there pretty much the same time, but I didn't see him when he landed.
- Q Did you see him there before you saw Mahala and Jeff? A No sir.
- Q Did you know a child of Mahala named Mike? A Yes sir.

- Q Did he come back with his mother? A I don't remember him. We were talking about him to day, I don't remember when he come or how he come.
- Q Did you see him there before you saw his mother? A No sir.
- Q You saw him afterwards? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Butler McNair? A I wasn't acquainted with him.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q When was it you say you first saw Jeff and Mahala? A I think it was in the fall of 1867.
- Q Who were they living at that time? A Camped in our yard there on our place.
- Q That was in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q When was the first time you saw Hose? A It was sometime after that I think, I would not be positive. I don't remember much about hose because he went across the river.
- Q Was it about the same time? A Pretty much the same time.
- Q How how long did they camp with you there when they went into camp. A Yes sir.
- Q Had they just moved in from some place? A Come in from Kansas I suppose.
- Q Was this on the same side of the river as the Dr. Thompson place?
- A No sir.
- Q What was across the river from the Dr. Thompson place? A Yes sir.
- Q That was in the fall of the year? A Yes sir.
- Q An you think it was what year? A 1867.
- Q Do you remember when that Horse Creek fight was? A No sir. Been a great deal of dispute about that, a great many claim it was in 1867 and a good many in 1866.
- Q When do you claim? A I don't claim.
- Q Were you in the country? A There were two fights on Horse Creek.
- Q Well with reference to what is known as the Horse Creek fight, if one or the other was, what time with reference to that was it Jeff Lyons and wife were camped there? Was it before or afterwards?
- A Well I don't know, you see directly after the war we didn't run around any, we were afraid to go out any, we stayed at home.
- Q You don't know whether it was before or after? A Well it must have been then this Horse Creek fight was, I think it was in the summer time sometime and this was in the fall.
- Q The same fall? A I couldn't tell positively.
- Q What is your best judgment about it? A Well I hate to say.
- Q It is pretty hard to remember those things that occurred that long ago? A Yes sir, a long time. There were two fights there, one occurred before we come there.
- Q Did those two fights both occur the same year? A I couldn't tell you that.
- Q Where did they move to when they moved away? A Across the river.
- Q Did they move on the Dr. Thompson place? A I think they moved on a place they got from Uncle Jeter or Uncle Robert, and I think he lived there until he died to my best judgment.
- Q What place was that you say? A They settled a place in there near Uncle Robert or sorter between the two places.
- Q What time did they move in on that place? A I don't know exactly. You see we made a crop up there in 1867 and after we gathered the crop, father sent Tommy and I to school in Arkansas.
- Q You started in the fall of 1867? A Yes sir.
- Q When did they make a crop on that new place, Jeff? A He surely couldn't have made any crop earlier than 1868.
- Q In your judgment Jeff Lyons didn't get down to the Territory early enough to make a crop until 1868? A Yes sir.

- Q Do you know whether or not he ever lived on the Dr. Thompson place?
A He might have rented some ground from Uncle Jeter.
Q I mean live there? A I don't remember of him living there.
Q There were several families living there, and I thought one of them families were Andy Frye and another fellow that attended to our boats there, his name was Tobe Schrimsher, and there was another fellow or two there.
Q Do you remember about the time that Andy Frye lived on that Dr. Thompson place with reference to the time they were living there,-- what time was it Jeff and Mahala were camped there? A That was along in 1867.
Q I mean regardless of dates, at the time Jeff was camped there in your yard where was Andy Frye living? A I think on Uncle Jeter's place.
Q That was about the time Tobe Schrimsher was there? A Well I don't know whether schrimsher was there then or not, I rather believe schrimsher had left before then. A little thing happened there before then, somebody stole Uncle Robert paniel's horse and schrimsher was running our boats, and they stole our boats and after that father and Uncle Robert gave schrimsher a jacking up and I think he left.
Q Disregarding what year it was, you said it was in the fall of the year? A Yes sir.
Q And that was on the other side of the river from the Dr. Thompson place? A Yes sir.
Q What time of the year did they leave that place and move? A I couldn't say, couldn't tell you.
Q Where were you living when they moved? A I don't know whether we were there or had gone to school.
Q What year was it you first went to school in Arkansas? A It was in 1867. After we got through gathering corn we went.
Q How do you remember that was 1867? A A thousand things happened to make a person remember it.
Q To remember it was 1867 instead of 1866 or '65? A Couldn't have been 1866 because we didn't come up there until late in the fall of 1866.
Q How do you remember it was 1866 you come up there instead of '65?
A We were afraid to go up there.
Q How long after the war closed before you were afraid to come up there? A We come as soon as we thought it was healthy.
Q This occurred about 40 years ago? A Yes sir.
Q You were how old? A About 16 years old.
Q You think then, you are pretty positive it is highly improbable that you could be mistaken just a year or two? A I don't think I could be. You see they come up there the same year Uncle Robert paniels moved up, he moved there in the spring of 1867 and they got there in the fall of 1867.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

On motion of the Commissioner this case was here continued until June 23, 1906, at 8:45 A. M.

June 23, 1906: In pursuance of continuance heretofore had in this case, the hour of 8:45 A. M., having arrived on this day, this case was called for further hearing at which time the following proceedings were had:

T. P. THOMPSON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A T. P. Thompson.
- Q How old are you? A Going on 59 years old.
- Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
- Q What was your father's name? A Johnson Thompson.
- Q Are you a brother to Jim Thompson who was on the stand here yesterday? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know Bob Daniels in his life time? A Yes sir.
- Q Was his wife any relation to you? A She was an Aunt of mine, a sister to my mother.
- Q Were they Cherokees? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever live in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Where? A On Grand River.
- Q How far from Vinita? A East about 15 miles.
- Q Down near where the present Ketchum post office is? A Yes sir, right at that post office.
- Q On which side of the river did your folks live? A On the west side.
- Q On which side did Bob Daniels live? A Dr. Thompson place is right on the river and Daniels place was about a mile southeast.
- Q On the opposite side of the river from you? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you people go out during the war? A Yes sir.
- Q What time did you return? A We returned in the fall or winter of 1866.
- Q And what time did Daniels people return to the place up there on the river? A They came back in the spring of 1867.
- Q Did you know Mrs. Strout that was on the stand? A Yes sir.
- Q That was her father? A Yes sir, he lived there.
- Q Then each of your families returned back to these old places? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know a negro woman by the name of Mahala that belonged to the Daniels before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Who did she marry during the war, or who did you know her to be the wife of after the war, if you know her at all? A The wife of Jeff Lyons after the war.
- Q Did she have any children before the war? A I think she did, I would not be certain about that.
- Q Don't know of a child named Mike Moore? A Yes sir.
- Q Now how far is this Dr. Thompson place from your place? A About a mile, just across the river.
- Q You say you knew Mahala who belonged to your aunt Mr. Daniels before the war? A Yes sir.
- Q Now what is your best judgment of the time that you first saw them, that they returned here after the war? A Well as to that I couldn't possibly say for certain. They come back after we did but I couldn't say whether it was the year we did or the year following.
- Q Well what is your best judgment about it? A Well I don't know what my best judgment would be.
- Q Well you don't want to be positive about it, is that as I understand you? A No sir, because I am not.
- Q Did you make an affidavit in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q And in that affidavit did you want to be understood to say that these people returned in 1866? A No sir, I don't want to be understood that way.
- Q Who prepared it? A A young man named Blue I believe.
- Q With whom did you talk about it. Did you talk to J. C. Starr about it? A Yes sir, I mentioned it to Mr. Starr yesterday.
- Q Did you ever talk to him prior to yesterday? A Yes sir, we met in the post office a time or two and talked about it up there at Vinita.

- Q Did you tell him that you didn't want to be understood as saying in your affidavit that they returned in 1866? A Yes sir, because I wasn't certain about that. That was to the best of my knowledge.
- Q You didn't intend to say 1866? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Well then Mr. Thompson what you want to be understood as saying in this case is then that you are uncertain as to whether it was 1866 or '67, is that what you mean? A Yes sir, I am uncertain. I don't want to be understood as saying 1866 or nothing else.
- Q Now you would not want to be understood as positively swearing that it was not 1866? A NO sir.
- Q Nor you would not want to be understood as positively swearing it was 1867? A No sir.
- Q Wasn't it about 3 or 4 days ago you talked to Mr. Starr at Vinita? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you talk to Mr. Starr any time about this at the time you made this affidavit? A Not that I remember of. I don't think Mr. Starr had anything to do with the affidavit at all.
- Q Did you testify before John W. Wallace in the Wallace Court for these people? A I didn't know the gentleman, he was up in Mr. Starr's office.
- Q The Wallace Court in 1869? A No sir, I think not.
- Q You don't remember whether you did or not? A No sir, I don't think I have ever testified in freedman cases before. I don't remember of it.

I T N E S S E X C U S E D .

Mr. Hastings: I desire to make an inquiry of the Commissioner as to whether or not all of the testimony of all these consolidated cases heretofore taken and taken now, including the testimony of Nelson Moore, and the cases of Moses Hardrick, F. D. 314, at a prior hearing will be considered a part of the testimony of this entire case.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: All of the testimony and records in each of the separate cases which are now consolidated under the two hears, consolidated cases of Moses Hardrick, et al., and George Irons, et al., will be made a part of the record in this consolidated case.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching Tobias Bean, I desire to introduce the record of assessment of Monroe Township, Anderson County, Kansas, copied from the original records and filed in the cases of Thomas Mayfield, et al., F. R. 541, with reference to Warren Adams for the year 1868.

Mr. Patten: To which applicants object for the reason that there is no testimony to identify Warren Adams, the man of whom Tobias Bean testified with the name of Warren Adams sought to be introduced and for the further reason that the record in the Mayfield case shows that the assessment record of Monroe Township, Anderson County, Kansas, was never authenticated for the year 1868 by the Assessor.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: A stenographic report was made of the record of the proceedings had May 24, 1906, in the cases of Thomas Mayfield, et al., at which time there was introduced in the record, the record of the assessment of one Warren Adams, the original census record being exhibited at that time. The stenographer's notes have not yet been transcribed, but as soon as done so a copy of that part of the proceedings relating to the census of Warren Adams in Monroe Township, Anderson County, Kansas, will be filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching Frank Ross, one of the witnesses who has heretofore testified in this case, we desire to have noted in the record what action has been taken by the Secretary of the Interior in the following cases, Freedman Doubtful 498, being the case of Henry C. Hayden, et al., Freedman Doubtful 535, being the case of Charity Trow, Freedman Doubtful 631, being the case of Nancy Ross, et al., Freedman Doubtful 578, being the case of Katie Thorton, et al., Freedman Doubtful 201, being the case of Sarah Bean, Freedman Doubtful 765, being the case of Leah Winfield et al., Freedman Doubtful 777, being the case of Calvin Ross, et al., Freedman Doubtful 1007, being the case of Jesse Hicks, et al., Freedman Doubtful 1009, being the case of George Ross. All of said cases being freed on cases and the record in all of said cases showing that the said Frank Ross testified in all of them, and the representative of the Cherokee Nation contend that all of them have been rejected by the Commission and finally rejected by the Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. Starr: To which applicants object and move that the Cherokee Nation be required to state in each instance what particular testimony given by Frank Ross in said cases is false.

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation states that in each case where he swore that the applicants returned in 1866 is false, and was so found by the Commission and by the Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. Starr: The applicants contend that a general statement is not sufficient and move that the Nation be required to specify in each instance what testimony is false.

Mr. Hibby, Commissioner: The objection of Attorneys for applicants will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: The ruling of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes is excepted to for the reason that it is contended on behalf of the Cherokee Nation that if this same witness Frank Ross has testified in all of the above cited cases, and for the applicants, and if the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes had decided adversely to them, and these decisions have been affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, that this tends to show what weight is given by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, and the Secretary of the Interior to the testimony of the said Frank Ross, and therefore tends to impeach and discredit him.

Mr. Starr: Replying to this argument the Attorneys for applicants desire to state that unless it is shown specifically wherein said witness testified falsely in each of said cases it would not tend to discredit him for the reason that said witness might not have testified to a mere point in any of said cases.

Mr. Hastings: In answer to that argument the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation now offer to have the full testimony of the said Frank Ross in each of said cases referred to filed and made a part of this record so it will show the different points to which he has testified.

Mr. Starr: To which applicants object.

Mr. Hibby, Commissioner: The objection will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching and discrediting the statements of the applicant, Moses Hardrick, the representative of the Cherokee Nation desires to have the record of the decision of the Commission and the action of the Department thereon in the following freedmen cases. All of them being cases in which the said Moses Hardrick testified on behalf of the applicant and all of them being rejected by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior: Freedman doubtful 283, being that of Moses Ross. Freedman doubtful 287, Jim Alberty, et al. Freedman doubtful 317, Charles Martin et al., Freedman doubtful 597, Jane Looney, Freedman doubtful 631, Nancy Ross, et al. Freedman doubtful 662, Cynthia Hoard, et al., Freedman doubtful 921, Elijah Watie or Tinnon. Freedman doubtful 946 Andy Ross. Freedman doubtful 952, Charles Brown, et al. Freedman doubtful 1009. George Ross, Freedman doubtful 1020, Kissie Newman, et al. Freedman doubtful 1023, Ned Foreman. Freedman rejected 85, Malzy Corban, et al. In all of which the said Moses Hardrick testified for the applicants.

Mr. Starr: In reply to this motion the applicants make the same objection and the same motion as was made with reference to Frank Ross.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: The objection will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: For the reasons hereinabove stated the ruling of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes is excepted to.

Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of impeaching and discrediting the testimony of Anderson Lynch, a witness who has heretofore testified for the applicants in this case, the representative of the Cherokee Nation asks that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and of the Secretary of the Interior rejecting the following applicants, in all of which cases the said Anderson Lynch testified, be shown in this record. Freedman doubtful 493, being the case of Alex Johnson, et al., in which the said Anderson Lynch was especially impeached. Freedman doubtful 828, John May, et al. Freedman doubtful 280, Harvey Martin, et al. Freedman doubtful 732, Joseph Lynch, et al. Freedman doubtful 309, William Vann et al. Freedman doubtful 374, Ab Buffington, Freedman doubtful 566, Aggie Little, et al. Freedman doubtful 617, Rosa Shobe, et al. Freedman doubtful 79, Mary Hemmitte. Freedman doubtful 734, John Towers. Freedman doubtful 860, Annie Elms, et al. Freedman doubtful 281, Arthur Martin, Freedman doubtful 880 Perry Adams, et al. Freedman doubtful 285, Isabell Brown. Freedman doubtful 286, Rachel Todd, et al. Freedman doubtful 1015, Amanda Brown. Freedman doubtful 728, Martha Lyons. Freedman doubtful 375, William Buffington. Freedman rejected 85, Malzy Corbin, et al.

Mr. Starr: Attorneys for applicants make the same objections in this case as were made with reference to Frank Ross and Moses Hardrick.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: The objection will be sustained.

Mr. Hastings: The representative of the Cherokee Nation except to the ruling of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for the reasons hereinbefore set forth.

Mr. Starr: We would like to examine the records of the Cherokee Supreme Court and citizenship Courts that are now in the possession of the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hastings: And for what purpose?

Mr. Starr: For the purpose of seeing if there is any record in said Court that we might desire to offer.

Mr. Hastings: The representative of the Cherokee Nation decline to turn over to Citizenship lawyers the records in his possession for their use in making motions which they do not regard as meritorious generally in citizenship cases, but if there is any judgment of any Court in the possession of the Commission relevant to this case, they have no objections whatever to that judgment being taken from the records and introduced in this case.

Mr. Starr: Attorneys for applicants move that the Honorable Commissioner require these records to be turned over to him and be placed in his official custody so that both the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation and applicants may have access to them.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: It is requested that the Attorneys for applicants indicate the records in the possession of the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation to which they refer.

Mr. Starr: It is the record referred to in the matter of the application of Andy Webber. The Chambers Court of 1878, being the same record referred to in the case of Andy Webber last Thursday.

Mr. Hastings: In reply to this the representative of the Cherokee Nation state that they are not trying the Andy Webber case, and that that is not a part of this case and not a part of this record: that the Andy Webber case was tried and closed on Thursday last.

Mr. Starr: I mean the record referred to in that case. The book referred to in that case.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The record of proceedings had by and before the Chambers Court or Commission on Citizenship are in possession of this office and when a decision is rendered in this case official notice will be taken of any proceedings had before said Court with reference to any applicants in this consolidated case.

Mr. Starr: The applicants request that the case of George W. Lynch be not closed at this time, and that they be given an opportunity to furnish the Commissioner with a list of witnesses, and move that the case be set for trial at some date convenient to the Commissioner, at which time testimony may be taken on the question of the return of George W. Lynch after the promulgation of the Treaty of July 19, 1866. That we do not represent George Irons, Betty Hayes and Richard Nere, and so far as the other cases are concerned they may be closed.

Mr. Hastings: The representative of the Cherokee Nation object to any continuance of the case of George W. Lynch for the reason that they have agreed that all of the descendants of Moses Hardrick and Jeff and Abala Lyons would be consolidated in this case when it was gone into and the testimony has been taken without any reference being made to any separate case for George W. Lynch, and the applicants closed the taking of their testimony and the Cherokee Nation has introduced testimony upon its side and the testimony of all parties have been introduced and now for the first time they ask for a continuance in this case. In fact no notice has been given of any witness they expected to testify in it. They have shown no diligence in the procurement of any witnesses, they have not given the name of any witness and do not say what they expect to prove by witnesses, and therefore the motion should not be granted.

Mr. Starr: Replying to this argument of the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation we desire to call the attention of the Commission to our motion to reopen this consolidated case which shows the parties we represented at the time and we desire to state further that we never represented George W. Lynch until here a few days ago.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: The records of this office show that the motion made for the reopening of the consolidated cases of George Irons, et al., included the following applications for enrollment:

George Irons, et al.,	F R	36
Bettie Mayes,	F D	87
Richard Nero,	F D	1328
Ned Lyons,	F D	251
Rachel Landrum	F D	252
Elias Lyons,	F D	253
Altha Moore, et al.,	F D	357
George W. Lynch,	F D	731.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: George W. Lynch is in this case.

Mr. Starr: George W. Lynch has a different status, he came from the south and the others come from the north.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: I know, but he was in this case.

Mr. Hastings: Yes sir.

Mr. Bixby, Commissioner: The Department's instructions seem to be explicit, I think we will have to deny the motion. The motion is denied.

Winnie Irons & Geo. Irons. vs Allen Lynch.

In this case in answer to notice issued from this office June 4th, 1889, Allen Lynch came before the Agency, and exhibited letters of Administration from J. L. Ward, Judge of Delaware District, Cherokee Nation, granted to him October 1st, 1888, and it further appears that he was duly qualified as such as Adm. of Jeff Lyons deceased. In view of this fact this office does not feel warranted in passing upon the citizenship of Jeff Lyons, deceased. The question of citizenship belongs exclusively to the Cherokee Courts, & therefore this Agency

--: D E C I S I O N :--

The record in this case shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Jennanna Irons for, among others, her husband, George Irons, stepchildren, Bertha and Bettie Irons, and stepgrandchild, Elenora Nivens; by Bettie Mayes for herself; by Emmet Starr for Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons); by Ned Lyons for, among others, himself, by Rachel Landrum for herself; by Elias Lyons for himself and minor child, Nelson J. Lyons; by Altha Moore for himself and brother, Oscar Moore; and by George W. Lynch for himself and minor children, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch. As the others included in said above mentioned applications have been differently classified, their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision. Copies of the testimony of M. W. and M. M. Couch taken at Vinita, Indian Territory, October 1, 1901, in re application of William Lane for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 396, and of Nelson Moore taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 5, 1902, in re application of Moses Hardrick for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman case No. D 314, are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicants, George Irons, Bettie Mayes and Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons), are all children of one Nero Irons, deceased; that the said applicants, George Irons and Bettie Mayes, were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; and that the applicants, Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons), possess rights to enrollment as Creek freedmen, are included in a partial roll of Creek freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 13, 1902, opposite Nos. 2173 and 2238, respectively, and have selected and accepted their allotment of lands in said Nation. The minor applicants, Bertha and Bettie Irons, are children of the applicant, George Irons, and one Winnie Irons, nee Lyons, deceased, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the said Winnie Irons, deceased, was born since 1866, and was the daughter of Jeff and Mahala Lyons, both deceased; and that the said Jeff and Mahala Lyons were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree. The minor applicant, Elenora Nivens, is an illegitimate child of the applicant, Bertha Irons, and after ample opportunity having been afforded it is not established that she possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother.

The evidence further shows that the applicants, Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum and Elias Lyons, are children of the above mentioned Jeff and Mahala Lyons, deceased, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents. The minor applicant, Nelson J. Lyons, is a child of the applicant, Elias Lyons, and one Martha Lyons, was born since 1880, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as their descendant. In Cherokee freedman case No. R. 363, the Commission has heretofore found that the said Martha Lyons possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 28, 1904 (Departmental letter I. T. D. 4226-04), its finding was approved by the Department.

The evidence further shows that the minor applicants, Altha and Oscar Moore are the children of one Mike Moore, deceased, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said father; and that the said Mike Moore, deceased, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, was taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto (he returned with his stepfather and mother, the said Jeff and Mahala Lyons), within the time specified in said above mentioned Whitmire decree.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, George W. Lynch (son of the said Mahala Lyons, deceased), was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, was taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree. The minor applicants, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch, are the children of the applicant, George W. Lynch, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said father.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any applicant herein born during or subsequent to said below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

The evidence in this case establishes that the applicant, George Irons, after the close of the rebellion, returned to the Cherokee Nation in company with, among others, his brother, Alexander Irons. In Cherokee freedman case No. D 181, the Commission has heretofore found that the said Alexander Irons did not, after the close of said rebellion, return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 23, 1904 (Departmental letter I. T. D. 8590-04), its finding was approved by the Department. The evidence in this case further shows that the said Jeff and Mahala Lyons and Mike Moore, through whom some of the applicants herein claim their rights to enrollment, returned, after the close of the rebellion, to the Cherokee Nation, in company with, among others, one Moses Hardrick. In Cherokee freedman case No. D 314, the Commission has heretofore found that the said Moses Hardrick did not, after the close of the rebellion, return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in said Whitmire decree, and on October 13, 1904 (Departmental Letter I. T. D. 8968-04), said finding was approved by the Department.

In connection with above findings attention is called to the testimony of the applicant, George W. Lynch, taken June 13, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, when, to the question--"Where were you in 1866?" he replied--"Part of the time I was in Van Buren and my brother came down there and said my mother (Mahala Lyons) wanted him to bring me home (to the Cherokee Nation) and he did". His witnesses at that time did not testify as to his return. More than three years later, said applicant again testified before the Commission as to his return after the rebellion, and to the question--"Was your mother living in the Cherokee Nation when you got back here?" answered--"I didn't see her at that time..... I heard they (his mother and others) were camped up there on the river, but I don't know it". On this occasion one of said applicant's witnesses, Columbus McNair, testified that he saw the applicant in the Cherokee Nation in the years 1865, 1866, and particularly, at a certain place on Grand River, during the year 1868. Applicant testified that he left the Cherokee Nation in January, 1867, and did not return to said Nation until sometime during the year 1873.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of George Irons, Bertha Irons, Bettie Irons, Elenora Nivens, Bettie Hayes, Richard Nero (or Irons), Mollie Nero (or Irons), Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum, Elias Lyons, Nelson J. Lyons, Altha Moore, Oscar Moore, George W. Lynch, Rosetta Lynch and Eliza Lynch, as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

D E C I S I O N.

THE RECORD IN THIS CONSOLIDATED CASE SHOWS: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Moses Hardrick for himself; by Celia Hardrick for her husband Silas Hardrick; by Lewis Bean for his wife, Sarah Bean; by Mary Hardrick for her husband, Nelson Hardrick, and his minor children, Malinda and LeRoy Hardrick; by William Hardrick for himself and minor children, Mabel and Leona Hardrick; by Eliza J. Hardrick for herself and minor children, Arthur, Ethel, Mattie and Claud Lynch; by Mary Hardrick for herself and minor children Ames, and Jackson Lenien; by Jennanna Irons for her husband, George Irons, and his children Bertha and Bettie Irons and grand child, Elnora Nivens; by Bettie Mayes for herself; by Emmet Starr for Richard and Mollie Nero (or Orens); by Ned Lyons for himself; by Rachel Landrum for herself; by Elias Lyons for himself and minor child Nelson J. Lyons; by Altha Moore for himself and brother, Oscar Moore and by George W. Lynch for himself and minor children Rosetta and Eliza Lynch.

The record further shows that on April 20, 1904, and April 18, 1906, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision herein denying the above named applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, that said decisions were duly forwarded to the Department for consideration, and that the former decision was affirmed by the Department on October 13, 1904 (I.T.D. 6968-1904); and that thereafter, to-wit, on April 5, 1906 (I.T.D. 5398-1906) and May 11, 1906 (I.T.D. 4667-1906) respectively; on motions of the applicants the Department rescinded its decision of October 13, 1904, and remanded the records in this now consolidated case for further testimony and readjudication. Further proceedings in the matter of said applications were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory on June 21, 22 and 23, 1906.

The record in this consolidated case shows that the aboved named applicants neither claim nor possess any rights to Cherokee freedmen citizenship other than as below indicated, to-wit: Moses, Eliza J. and Mary Hardrick, George Irons, Bettie Mayes and George W. Lynch by virtue of having complied with certain provisions of the Treaty of 1866; Silas Hardrick, Sarah Bean, Nelson and William Hardrick as descendants of the said Moses Hardrick and his former wife one Patient or Patience Hardrick, now deceased, Malinda and LeRoy Hardrick as descendants of the applicant Nelson Hardrick and his former wife one Minnie Hardrick, deceased; Mable and Leona Hardrick as descendants of the applicant William Hardrick; Arthur, Mattie and Claud Lynch as descendants of the applicant Eliza J. Hardrick and one Charlie Lynch and Ethel Lynch as a descendant of the said applicant Eliza J. Hardrick and one John Ross, deceased; Amos and Jackson Lenien as descendants of the applicant Mary Hardrick and one Mose Lenien; Bertha and Bettie Irons as descendants of the applicant, George Irons and one Winnie Irons nee Lyons, deceased; Elnora Nivens as the descendant of Bertha Irons and Harrison Nivens; Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum and Eliza Lyons as descendants of Jefferson and Mahala Lyons, both deceased; Nelson J. Lyons as the descendant of the applicant of Elias Pyons, Altha and Oscar Moore as the descendants of one Mike Moore, deceased; and Rosetta and Eliza Lynch as the descendants of the applicant George W. Lynch.

A reexamination of the records in this now consolidated case made prior to the rendition of the decision heretofore referred to, convinces this office that the findings therein are eminently correct. Hence, if said decisions are to be reversed it must be upon the evidence submitted since said records were returned to this office for readjudication.

Since this case was remanded twenty-two witnesses have been introduced by the parties hereto, all of whom testified from unaided memory alone to events that necessarily must have happened thirty-eight or forty years before. A For reasons most obvious such testimony can give but little aid in determining whether or not material facts at issue herein occurred on or prior to February 11, 1867, or subsequent thereto.

For reasons below stated this office is of the opinion that the respective rights of the parties hereto can be properly adjudicated without attempting to reconcile the conflicting statements of the many witnesses introduced herein or determine which array of witnesses is entitled to the greater credit.

Subsequent to the rendition of the latter of the two decisions herein before referred to there came into the possession of this office a roll of the Cherokee people made from a census taken in 1867.

This roll was made under authority of Section 12, Treaty of 1866, for the purpose of ascertaining the number of Cherokee citizens in order that the representation of the Cherokee Nation in the General Council provided for by said Treaty might be properly apportioned.

Section 12 of said Treaty reads in part as follows:

"After the ratification of this Treaty, and as soon as may be deemed practicable by the Secretary of the Interior, and prior to the first session of said council, a census or enumeration of each tribe lawfully resident in said (Indian) Territory shall be taken under the direction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who, for that purpose, is hereby authorized to designate and appoint competent persons, whose compensation shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior and paid by the United States."

Under authority of this provision the Commissioner of Indian Affairs appointed one W. Tompkins to take the census of the Cherokee Tribe. In taking this census Mr. Tompkins followed the political divisions of the Cherokee Nation. The roll made from this census is contained in four substantial well preserved volumes, the names of the Cherokee citizens, at that time, appearing in their respective districts, said districts being divided in four volumes, as follows, to-wit:

Going Snake and Delaware Districts	Volume 1,
Tahlequah and Saline Districts	Volume 2,
Canadian and Delaware Districts	Volume 3,
Flint, Sequoyah and Koo-wees-koo-wee Districts,	Volume 4.

The citizens of the Cherokee Nation were classified by the census taker under four heads, namely: Indians, Whites, Halfbreeds and Colored. In his recapitulation of the census taken Mr. Tompkins found there were 13566 Cherokee citizens residing in their nation divided under the foregoing heads, as follows: Indians 9588, Whites, 47, Halfbreeds 2650, and Colored 1281.

The certificate of the census taker is found on the last page of volume four and reads as follows, to-wit:

"I certify that the foregoing is a true and correct census or enumeration of the Cherokee Indians residing in their Nation:-- taken in obedience to your appointment per telegram dated June 10, 1867, and instructions dated July 1, 1867, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 12th, Section 1st of a Treaty made with the Cherokee Nation dated July 19, 1866.

W. Tompkins,

Special U. S. Commissioner to take census of Cherokee Indians."

This roll is considered reliable for the reason that the census from which it was made was taken by disinterested parties and for a purpose that makes it highly improbable that any reason existed for placing on said roll the name of any person not entitled, or excluding therefrom the name of any person not entitled to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. The question as to whether or not those claiming under Article 9 of the Treaty of 1866 had complied with the provisions thereof was, at that time, easily determined, especially so as to the date of return, inasmuch as this census was taken only a few months after the time limited by said Article 9 of the Treaty for the return of Cherokee freedmen, had expired.

An examination of the roll fails to show the names of any of the above named applicants, or of any of the aforementioned deceased ancestors, enumerated thereon.

In connection with the taking of the census above referred to attention is invited to page 9 of the record herein, wherein will be found the following questions and answers, to-wit:

- "Q How does the fact that the grass was up connect with in your mind, with Mose Hardrick's return? A I tell you about my recollection of it being in the spring of '67; Mose Hardrick, Andy Fry and my stepfather and Arch Landrum, uncle Ruben Downing, they all of them went to Lucy Hilderbrands in the spring of '67 to a census taker.
- Q To a census taker? A Yes sir to a census taker; that was in '67.
- Q What month was that? A That was about June or July as well as I remember.
- Q They took census in '67 did they? A I reckon they did that's what they said; they all went off I couldn't say what they did."

Of the persons named by this witness only one, Arch Landrum, can be identified on the roll of 1867. The Testimony of this witness is considered as evidence practically conclusive that the applicant, Moses Hardrick, was not overlooked by the census taker in 1867. Hence, the failure of his name to appear upon said roll must be due to the fact that in 1867 it was considered that he was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The Daniels Court in 1871, found that the applicant, Moses Hardrick and his family, and the said Jefferson Lyons, deceased, and his family, returned to the Cherokee Nation too late to entitle them to citizenship under the Treaty of 1866. This Court also found that Thomas Moore and family, whom it is alleged returned with the Hardrick and Lyons families, came too late. In the case of Butler McNair,, however, who, it is testified, was also a member of this Company, it is found that he returned within the time provided by said Treaty.

The Chambers Court in an opinion rendered on August 9, 1878 held that the applicant, Moses Hardrick (Hardwicke) did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time limited by the provisions of Article 9 of the Treaty of 1866. A Certified copy of said opinion is made a part of the record herein (331-332).

On June 24, 1904, there was filed with this office an affidavit showing the death of the applicant, Malinda Hardrick, on July 31, 1902.

Excepting the Wallace & Kern-Clifton rolls, none of the applicants herein, nor any ancestors through whom by any possibility they might obtain rights to Cherokee freedman citizenship can be identified on any Cherokee roll in the custody of this office.

FINDINGS AND FACT CONCLUSION: It is considered that the evidence in this case shows that neither the applicants, Moses, Eliza J. and Mary Hardrick, George Irons, Bettie Mayes and George W. Lynch, nor the deceased ancestors hereinbefore named, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee, etc. vs the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of freedmen to said Nation; and that all the applicants herein except those last above named, were born since the close of the rebellion and obtained no rights to Cherokee Freedmen citizenship through their ancestors.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That for the additional reasons set out herein the former decisions of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in this case should be affirmed, and that under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and Section 3 of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), Moses Hardrick, Silas Hardrick, Sarah Bean; Nelson Hardrick; LeRoy Hardrick; Eliza J. Hardrick, Arthur Lynch; Ethel Lynch; Mattie Lynch; Claud Lynch; Mary Hardrick; Amos Lonien; Jackson Lonien, George Irons; Bertha Irons; Bettie Irons; Elnora Nivens; Bettie Mayes; Richard Nero; Mollie Nero; Ned Lyons; Rachel Landrum; Elias Lyons; Nelson J. Lyons, Altha Moore; Oscar Moore; George W. Lynch; Resetta Lynch and Eliza Lynch are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied. And that under the provisions of Section 25 of the Act of Congress (Cherokee Agreement) approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), the application for the enrollment of Malinda Hardrick should be, and the same is hereby dismissed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR:

LAND
30879-1905

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON. July 3, 1905

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 18, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by Jennanna Irons for her husband , George Irons, her step-children, Bertha and Bettie Irons, and her step-grandchild, Elnora Nivens; by Bettie Mayes for herself; by Emmet Starr for Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons); by Ned Lyons for himself; by Rachel Landrum for herself; by Elias Lyons for himself and his minor child, Nelson J. Lyons; by Altha Moore for himself and brother Oscar Moore, and by George W. Lynch for himself and his minor children, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch.

April 18, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicants George Irons, Bettie Mayes and Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons) are all the children of one Nero Irons, deceased; that the applicants, George Irons and Bettie Mayes were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the war of the rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; and that the applicants, Richard and Mollie Nero (or Irons) are included in a partial list of Creek Freedmen approved by the department March 13, 1902, at Nos. 2173 and 2238 respectively, and have accepted their allotments of lands in the Creek Nation. The minor applicants, Bertha and Bettie Irons, are children of the applicant, George Irons, and Minnie Irons, born Lyons, deceased, were born since 1880 and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their parents; that Minnie Irons, deceased, was born since 1866 and was the daughter of Jeff and Mahala Lyons, both deceased; that Jeff and Mahala Lyons were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the war, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867. The minor applicant, Elmore Wivens, is an illegitimate child of Bertha Irons and after ample opportunity it has not been established that she possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her mother.

The record further shows that the applicants, Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum and Elias Lyons are children of Jeff and Mahala Lyons, deceased, were born since the beginning of the war, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their parents. The minor applicant, Nelson J. Lyons, is a child of Elias Lyons and one Martha Lyons, was born since 1880 and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as their descendant.

On May 28, 1904, the Department approved the rejection of the Cherokee Freedman case of Martha Lyons (I.T.D. 4226-1904)

The evidence further shows that the minor applicants Altha and Oscar Moore, are the children of one Mike Moore, deceased, were born since 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said father; that Mike Moore was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war was taken from the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, George W. Lynch, (son of Mahala Lyons), was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war, was taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867. The minor applicants, Rosetta and Eliza Lynch, are the children of the applicant, George W. Lynch, were born since 1880 and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their father.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On April 18, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitted the record in the consolidated case of George Irons, et al., including its decision of the same date, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of George, Bertha, and Bettie Irons; Elnora Eivens; Bettie Mayes; Richard and Mollie Nero; Ned, Elias, and Nelson J. Lyons; Rachel Landrum; Altha and Oscar Moore, and George W., Rosetta, and Eliza Lynch as Cherokee freedmen.

Reporting July 3, 1905, the Indian Office recommended that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes be approved. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

On September 7, 1905, the attorneys for the applicants filed a motion for a review of the commission's decision relative to George Irons et al. On the same date they also filed a motion for a review of the decision relative to Elias Lyons et al.

Under date of February 15, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of Altha and Oscar Moore, and on February 16, 1906, also filed a motion for a new trial in the case of George Irons, et al.

The motions for review filed September 7, 1905, are hereby dismissed.

A consideration of the motions for a new trial, together with the record, shows a sufficient reason for a review and rejudication of the consolidated case. You are therefore directed to reopen the case and permit the applicants and the attorneys for the nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mahala Lyons, and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens. You will also fully advise all parties in interest of the points in issue.

Under date of April 27, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants forwarded a request to the Department that in the event of favorable action upon the motions for review in this case, it be considered with the case of Moses Hirdrick et al., which was remanded to you for rehearing on April 5, 1906, as the principal ancestors in both cases are alleged to have returned from Kansas in the same party, and the testimony in both cases being practically the same, the applicants, who are poor people, would avoid great expense.

In the absence of further material objections, you will grant said request.

The record, together with the motions, are returned herewith

Respectfully,

Sir:-

On May 10, 1906, the Indian Office transmitted to the Department a letter from the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation dated February 24, 1906, forwarding brief in the Cherokee freedman enrollment case of George Irons et al.

The records of the Department show that on May 11, 1906, the consolidated Cherokee Freedman case of George Irons et al. was remanded to you for a rehearing. In view of this action, the communication from the attorneys, together with said brief, is transmitted to be filed with the papers in said case.

The Honorable,

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

We are in receipt of a letter from our Washington D C associates advising us that the Honorable Secretary of the Interior has granted a motion for rehearing in the following consolidated Cherokee Freedmen enrollment cases:

George Irons et al F. R. 36
Bettie Mayes----- F. D. 87
Richard Mero (or Irons) F D 1326
Wed Lyons F D 251
Rachel Landrum F D 262
Elias Lyons et al F D 253
Altha Moore et al F D 347
George W. Lynch et al F D 731

We have neglected to advise you that since Mr. Bulger retired from our firm that under our agreement with him we are to try this case and we therefore request that you enter our firm as Attorneys for these applicants.

We recently wrote the Department that we would like to have this case sent back for rehearing as early as possible in order to try it in connection with the Hardrick cases advising the Department that Moses Hardrick, Jeff Lyons, Mahala Lyons, Mike Moore, Thomas Moore and Butler McNair all left South Iola Kansas in the Summer or early fall of 1866 and came to the Cherokee Nation in the same crowd and at the same time.

You are therefore earnestly requested to set these cases for the same date as the Moses Hardrick et al cases and the same witnesses submitted by us in the Hardrick cases may be considered as our witnesses submitted to you for the trial of the above described cases.

We are ready for the trial of these cases and would be glad to have an early hearing and would like to have these cases tried at Vinita, a motion to that effect being now pending in your office in the Hardrick cases.

Respectfully,

Starr & Patten

Attorneys for applicants.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 24, 1906.

Starr and Patten,

Attorneys for George Irons, et al.

Vinita, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that this office is in receipt of Departmental letter of May 11, 1906, referring to the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 18, 1905, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of the applicants embraced in the Cherokee freedmen consolidated cases of George Irons, et al., and advising that on September 7, 1905, attorneys for applicants filed a motion for review of the Commission's decision relative to George Irons et al., that on the same date they filed a motion for review of the decision relative to Elias Lyons, et al.; that on February 15, 1906, the attorneys filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of Altha and Oscar Moore, and that on February 16, 1906, they filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of George Irons, et al.

The motions for review filed September 7, 1905, were dismissed by the Department, and sufficient reason being shown to the Department, a rehearing is ordered in the case to "permit the applicants and the attorneys for the Nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit, relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee Nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mahala Lyons and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens".

The Department further states that on April 26, 1906, attorneys for applicants forwarded a request that in the event of favorable action upon the motion for review in the Irons case, it be considered with the case of Moses Hardrick, et al., which was remanded to this office for rehearing April 5, 1906. The Department directs this office "in the absence of further material objections you will grant said request".

You are therefore hereby notified that on Thursday, June 21, 1906, at nine o'clock A.M., this case will be taken up for hearing at the General Offices of the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory. There appears to be no objection to this case being consolidated with those of Moses Hardrick, et al., and in your letter of May 19, 1906, it is stated that the ancestors through whom the principal applicants in both cases claim Cherokee freedman citizenship, returned to the Cherokee Nation at the same time.

In your letter of May 16, 1906, you advise the names and addresses of the witnesses you propose to introduce in the Hardrick cases, and you are advised that you will be permitted to introduce the testimony of the witnesses named by you, in the Irons cases, if you so desire. If it is your desire to introduce in the Irons cases witnesses other than those mentioned by you in your letter of May 16, you will be required to furnish this office the names and addresses of the additional witnesses proposed to be introduced, in sufficient time to enable this office to give the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation at least two full weeks notice of such additional witnesses.

The Cherokee Nation will be permitted to appear on the above date and introduce in rebuttal, such witnesses as it desires in these cases.

For your information a copy of Departmental letter referred to is enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that this office is in receipt of Departmental letter of May 11, 1906, referring to the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 18, 1905, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of the applicants embraced in the Cherokee freedmen consolidated cases of George Irons, et al., and advising that on September 7, 1905, attorneys for applicants filed a motion for review of the Commission's decision relative to George Irons et al.; that on the same date they filed a motion for review of the decision relative to Elias Lyons, et al.; that on February 15, 1906 the attorneys filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of Altha and Oscar Moore, and that on February 16, 1906, they filed a motion for a new trial in the cases of George Irons, et al.

The motions for review filed September 7, 1905, were dismissed by the Department, and sufficient reason being shown to the Department a rehearing is ordered in the case to "permit the applicants and the attorneys for the Nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee Nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mahala Lyons and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens."

Bell, Hastings and Davenport--2.

The Department further states that on April 26, 1906, attorneys for applicants forwarded a request that in the event of favorable action upon the motion for review in the Irons case, it be considered with the case of Moses Hardrick, et al., which was remanded to this office for rehearing April 5, 1906. The Department directs this office "in the absence of further material objections you will grant said request."

Y

You are therefore notified that these cases will be taken up for hearing at the General Offices of the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock A.M., on Thursday, June 21, 1906. There appears to be no objection to the Irons cases being consolidated with the Hardrick cases.

In a letter dated May 19, 1906, from Starr and.

Bell, Hastings and Davenport--3

Patten, attorneys for applicants, they advise that it is claimed that the principal applicants in each of these cases, and their ancestors, returned to the Cherokee Nation at the same time. In their letter of May 16, 1906, they advise the names and addresses of witnesses which they propose to introduce in the Hardrick cases, of which you are advised in a separate letter of even date. The attorneys for the applicants have this day been notified that they will be permitted to appear before the offices of the Commissioner on the above date and introduce in both these consolidated cases the testimony of the witnesses named in their letter of May 16. They have been also notified that if they desire to introduce in the Irons cases testimony of any witnesses in addition to those named in their letter of May 16, they will be required to advise this office in sufficient time to give you at least two full weeks notice of the additional witnesses proposed to be introduced. The Cherokee Nation will also be permitted to appear on the above date and introduce in rebuttal such testimony as it desires in this case.

Dear Sir:

In connection with your Cherokee freedmen enrollment case you are advised that this office is in receipt of Departmental letter of May 11, 1906, in which a motion filed by your attorneys September 7, 1905, for review of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in your case, is denied. A motion filed with the Department February 15, 1906, for a new trial in your case is granted by the Department, and the record in the case returned to this office and a rehearing ordered to "permit the applicants and the attorneys for the Nation to offer such testimony as they may desire to submit relative to the time of the return to the Cherokee Nation of George Irons, Jeff and Mahala Lyons and Mike Moore, and also as to whether they have been slaves of Cherokee citizens."

The Department states that on April 27, 1906, the attorneys for the applicants in the cases with which your application was consolidated, requested, in the event of favorable action upon the motion filed in the case, that they be considered with the cases of Moses Hardrick, et al. which were remanded to this office for rehearing April 5, 1906. The Department directs this office "in the absence of further material objections, you will grant said request."

You are therefore hereby notified that your attorneys, Starr & Patten, Vinita, Indian Territory, have this day been notified that they will be permitted to appear before the offices of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at nine o'clock, A.M., on Thursday, June 21, 1906, and introduce in your case the testimony of the witnesses mentioned in their letter to this office of May 16, 1906, in reference to the cases of Moses Hardrick, et al. There appears to be no objection to the request of your attorneys that your case be consolidated with those of Moses Hardrick, et al., and the attorneys have been so advised.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from Commissioner Bixby, dated February 13, 1907, enclosing the record on the re-hearing of the application for the enrollment of Moses Hardrick, et al., as Cherokee freedmen, together with his decision, dated February 13, 1907, dismissing the application for the enrollment of Malinda Hardrick, and rejecting the applications for the enrollment of Moses and Silas Hardrick, Sarah Bean, Wilson, Le Roy, William, Mable, Leona and Eliza J. Hardrick, Arthur, Ethel Mattie and Claud Lynch, Mary Hardrick, Ames and Jackson Lenien, George, Bertha, and Bettie Irens, Elnera Nivens, Bettie Mayes, Richard and Mollie New, Ned Lyons, Rachel Landrum, Elias and Nelson J. Lyons, Altha and Oscar Moore, George W., Rosetta and Eliza Lynch.

There was also filed in this Office on February 25, 1907, an appeal from the Commissioner's decision, together with brief and argument in support thereof, filed in the Office on February 25, 1907, by McGowan, Serren & Nohun, attorneys for the applicants.

The Office has examined the testimony taken at the re-hearing of this case, and is of the opinion that it supports the decision rendered by the Commissioner in this matter. It therefore respectfully recommends that the decision of the Commissioner, rejecting the above named applicants, be affirmed.

Copies of the following testimony, decisions, and Departmental letters are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case: Its decision rendered by the Commission on March 3, 1904, and Departmental letter of May 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 3470-04), in the case of Ed Vann, C.F.D. 560; its decisions rendered by the Commission on July 10, 1903, and June 23, 1904, and of Departmental letters of May 11, and November 12, 1904 (I.T.D. 2412, 2504-04), in the cases of Jesse Vann et al., C.F.D. 254 (R 302), and Emma Purtle C.F.D. 265; its decisions rendered by the Commission on March 5, and April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letters of June 2, 23, and 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 4386, 5028-5034-04), in the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645 (R 443), Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653 (R 399), William Holt, C.F.D. 694 (R 398), and Moses Holt, C.F.D. 165; its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of June 21, 1904 (I.T.D. 4733-04); in the consolidated case of Katie Thornton et al., C.F.D. 578 et al., (R. 410-R 411-R 412-R 413-R 414); of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, June 3, 1901, its decision rendered by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letter of October 31, 1904, (I.T.D. 8138-04), in the consolidated case of Katie Flackwell, et al., including, among others, the application of Mary Riley, C.F.D. 624; of its decision rendered by the Commission on November 23, 1904, in the consolidated case of Andrew T. Watie, C.F.D. 502, et al., and of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Edward Derrick, C.F.D. 818, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, Elizabeth Weigs, et al., C.F.D. 391, Samuel Peck, et al., C.F.D. 775, David Johnson, C.F.D. 356, Abraham Ward, C.F.D. 607 (R 283), and of Peter Ward, C.F.D. 613, (R 282).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge and Thelma Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge, and one Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks Sr., D 350, infra.), both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Williams, Trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicants, Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and to the said Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Pearl, Jesse, Myrtle and Henry C. Ridge, and Ida Jones, are children of the said affidavit showing the birth, on February 13, 1902, of Beatrice Curls, child of the applicant, Riley Curls; and by Ophelia Thompson for herself and minor children, Alpha, Libbie, Hirschel, Harvey and Clyde Thompson.

Copies of the following testimony, decisions, and Departmental letters are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case: Its decision rendered by the Commission on March 2, 1904, and Departmental letter of May 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 3470-04), in the case of Ed Vann, C.F.D. 560; its decisions rendered by the Commission on July 10, 1903, and June 23, 1904, and of Departmental letters of May 11, and November 12, 1904 (I.T.D. 2412, 5394-04), in the cases of Jesse Vann et al., C.F.D. 254 (R 302), and Emma Partle C.F.D. 265; its decisions rendered by the Commission on March 5, and April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letters of June 2, 23, and 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 4380, 5020-5034-04), in the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645 (R 443), Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 538 (R 399), William Holt, C.F.D. 694 (R 398), and Moses Holt, C.F.D. 165; its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of June 21, 1904 (I.T.D. 4733-04); in the consolidated case of Katie Thornton et al., C.F.D. 578 et al., (R. 410-R 411-R 412-R 413-R 414); of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, June 8, 1901, its decision rendered by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letter of October 31, 1904, (I.T.D. 8138-04), in the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell, et al., including, among others, the application of Mary Riley, C.F.D. 624; of its decision rendered by the Commission on November 23, 1904, in the consolidated case of Andrew T. Vatie, C.F.D. 502, et al., and of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Edward Derrick, C.F.D. 518, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, Elizabeth Peigs, et al., C.F.D. 391, Samuel Beck, et al., C.F.D. 775, David Johnson, C.F.D. 356, Abraham Ward, C.F.D. 607 (R 233), and of Peter Ward, C.F.D. 613, (R 262).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge and Elsie Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge, and one Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks Sr., D 350, infra.), both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Williams, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicants, Katie Ridge and Ary Lynch, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and to the said Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Pearl, Jesse, Myrtle and Henry C. Ridge, and Ida Jones, are children of the said applicants, Corneline and Laura Ridge, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the applicants, Joseph, Percy, Herbert, Edward, and Earl Milton, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, and William Townsend, are children of the applicant Phoebe Johnson, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother; that the applicants, Lee, Eddie, and Stella Martin, and Cornelias Jones, are children of the applicant Ida Jones, were born since 1866, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said applicants Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin, possess any rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother, and the applicant Cornelias Jones, possesses no rights to enrollment other than as his mother's descendants; that the applicant Elnora Vann, is a child of the applicant Ary Lynch, and the said Jesse Ridge, deceased, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; that the applicant Jesse Farnett, is a child of the applicant Maud Riley, was born since 1866, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said Jesse Farnett possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said mother, and that the applicant John T. Riley, is a child of the said applicant Maud Riley, and one William Riley, (said William Riley's rights to enrollment are considered below, C. F. D. 303), was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said parents; that the applicant Josephine Vann, is a child of the said applicant Rosa Vann, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother (In C.F.D. 660, the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 17, 1904, Departmental letter I.F.D. 3470-04, said finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant Nellie Townsend, is a daughter of one Jesse Vann, and one Mary Furtie, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 204 and 208 the Commission found that the said Jesse Vann and Mary Furtie possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on May 22, and November 12, 1904, Departmental letters I.F.D. 317 and 318, said findings were approved by the Department); and that the applicants, Rosa, George and Arthur Townsend, are children of the said applicant William and Nellie Townsend, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicants Bettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt

Hawkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, and Katie Davis, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie and Susie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, Nettie Downing, deceased, and Mary Ridge, deceased, (In re Mary Ridge see preceding paragraph), and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants.

THE EVIDENCE FURTHER SHOWS: That one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased, were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria and Millie McNair, all deceased, and the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and the applicants, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Flick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson, and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree, for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicant, Ruth Riley, is a daughter of Henry Thornton, deceased, and Fannie Thornton, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 573, 580 and 581, the Commission found that the said Katie Thornton and one Maggie Curls and one Joseph Thornton, full sister and brother of the said applicant, Ruth Riley, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on June 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant, Hannah Riley, was born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, and was the daughter of a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion, and that the applicants, Lillie

Nathanial, Joseph, Ollie, Viola, Mabel, Elnora, Ideller, Luther D., Frank, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola, Earl B., Clarence (In C. F. D. 624, the Commission found that one Mary Riley, wife of the applicant Frank Riley, and mother of the applicants, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola and Earl B. Riley, and grandmother of the applicant, Clarence Riley, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on October 31, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Samuel, James B., Amanda, Mariah, Maggie, Calvin, Bertha, Ada and Leona Riley, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie and Jimmie Scott, Delilah, Allie, Luman, Jesse, Alfred, Nola, Della, Ella, Harrison, Rebecca, Lufe Wilbert and Arch Johnson, Henrietta, Irvin, Harry, Roy, Dan, Willie, Tracy, Jesse and Haine Ward, Lenora Odine Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J., and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth and Elnora Melton, Julius, Riley, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Beatrice Curle, (One Nancy Curle, C.F.D. 429, who was denied enrollment by the Commission is the mother of the six last mentioned applicants), Ophelia, Alpha, Libbie, Mischel, Harvey, and Clyde Thompson, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Jerry, Jane, Ruth and Hannah Riley, Fannie Scott, Lottie Johnson, Daniel and Sandy Thompson, and Elsie and Amanda Ward, and of the said Riley McNair, deceased, Maria McNair, deceased, and Willie McNair, deceased, Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as such descendants.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the first below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any of the said applicants herein born during or subsequent to the said first below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and none of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1895.

THE EVIDENCE HEREIN FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curle, died prior to September 1, 1900. Affidavits to that effect are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1900 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

The applicants, Katie and Cornelius Ridge and Floche Johnson, testify that they, together with Mary and Jesse Ridge, both deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, remained a few months, and then removed to Joplin, Missouri, where they resided for a number of years. That they returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 is controverted by the testimony of witnesses who were in a position to know the matters of which they testify. In view of the fact that the burden of proof is on the applicants, and they must show by satisfactory evidence that their rights to enrollment are perfect, it is considered that these applicants have wholly failed in this, and that their applications come within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers, (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Martha Albert et al., (I.T.D. 4732-04), and Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04); and, granting that said above named parties did return to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, as contended, it is further considered that they did not establish such a residence in said Nation as was contemplated by the treaty of 1866, and are, therefore, within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales and Susan Brown (I.T.D. 1850-04), and Thomas Mayfield et al. (I.T.D. 6963-04).

The testimony in re return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, of the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, and Sallie Miller, and of the said Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, is contradictory in itself, and contradicted by the testimony of witnesses in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, hence, it is unsatisfactory, and the first above mentioned rulings of the Department are considered applicable. In this connection attention is called to the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645, Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653, William Holt, C.F.D. 694, and Moses Holt, C.F.R. 185, mother and brothers of the three applicants first named in this paragraph. The material facts as established by the evidence in the several cases embracing this family, are practically the same, and the Commission found that the said Esther, Tecumseh, William and Moses Holt, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and its findings were duly approved by the Department. Granting that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and the said Buck Bushyhead and Nettie Downing, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the interval between the close of the rebellion and February 11, 1867, they must have remained but a short time, as, by the testimony of the applicants themselves, and that of disinterested witnesses, it is shown that during a period beginning immediately subsequent to the year 1867, they, for a number of years, continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, consequently, the ruling of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales, Susan Brown and Thomas Mayfield, et al., supra., is also applicable to them.

Sam Webber, Lewis Whitmire, and Daniel and Reuben Sanders, testify that Anderson Johnson returned to the Cherokee Nation with them in the summer of 1865, but for reasons more fully set out below, it is not considered that their testimony is either convincing or satisfactory. That these four witnesses complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, there is no doubt. They were admitted to citizenship by the Chambers Court, and are identified on the 1880 roll. Without calling attention to the many cases in which the above named witnesses have been successfully contradicted and repeatedly impeached, it is considered by this office, that, after hearing the testimony of numerous witnesses, interested and disinterested, and after the examination of exhibits filed and made a part of the record in freedman cases, it can identify each and every member of the party of freedmen known as the Webber-Whitmire-Sanders detachment, or colony, who complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, and it is fully convinced that Anderson Johnson was not a member of that party. In support of this position attention is called to the fact that the personnel of the above mentioned party was thoroughly gone into by the Chambers Court, in 1878-9, and numerous witnesses, among others, the said Lewis Whitmire, examined on behalf of both parties, and that, too, at a time when the facts must have been fresh in their minds, and no particular advantage was to be had by misrepresenting who were included in said party, with one accord testify as to who composed this colony of freedmen, and the said Anderson Johnson is never named as one of them. By reason of changed conditions, the experience of the former Commission and of this office, in their investigations relative to the personnel of said colony of freedmen, has been somewhat different from that of the Chambers Court, but generally the conclusions reached have been the same. It seems to have been the policy of those witnesses appearing before the Commission, who were members of the above mentioned colony of freedmen, to add to said colony as occasion required, but after an examination of a great number of freedmen cases in which the above named witnesses testified, it cannot be found that they ever included Anderson Johnson as a member of this colony, until they were called upon as witnesses in behalf of his descendants, although they were often asked to, and as often did, name those who returned with them in 1866.

As to the return of Riley McNair, deceased, to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion: Moses Hardrick, in behalf of the descendants of the said Riley McNair, testifies that, after the rebellion, he and Riley McNair returned to the Cherokee Nation together. In C.F.D. 314, the Commission found that the said Moses Hardrick did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on October 13, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. It was several months after the above indicated trip before Riley McNair moved his wife and family to the Cherokee Nation. One Emma Purtle, daughter of the said Riley and Maria McNair, removed from the Cherokee Nation during, and returned thereto after, the rebellion, with her father's family. In C.F.D. 265, the Commission found that the said Emma Purtle did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 12, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. The said Columbus Rogers, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, with the said McNair-Riley family.

NOT ORIGINAL - IF AVAILABLE COPY

The applicant, Jane Riley, testifies that she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, and is corroborated by her witness, Jack Landrum. No credit can be given the testimony of the said Jack Landrum, as he has been repeatedly contradicted and impeached, (See, in particular, C. F. D. 493-D 664 and D 863). In C. F. D. 578 ( R 410 ), he swore, point blank, that Katie Thornton, applicant therein, and her husband, Henry Thornton, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the winter of 1866, and that he hauled logs to help build their house. In this case it was conclusively shown by the testimony of disinterested witnesses, that the said Katie and Henry Thornton did not leave Garnett, Kansas, after the rebellion, prior to March 1, 1871, and on this testimony the Commission denied the applicant, Katie Thornton, the right to enrollment, and its action was duly approved by the Department. Attention is further called to the fact that the said applicant, Jane Riley, and one Ben Landrum, deceased, are the parents of the applicants Charles Landrum and Bettie McIntosh, and that the said two last named applicants were born in 1866 and 1868, respectively. It is shown by the testimony of several disinterested witnesses, and a certified copy of the record of certain proceedings had before the District Court of Woodson County, Kansas, that the said Ben Landrum, continuously lived near Garnett, Kansas, during the years 1866, '67 and '68.

The applicant Daniel Thompson, testifies that on his return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, he found his son, Andrew Watie, at Fort Gibson. In C. F. D. 502, the Commission found that the said Andrew Watie did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitmire decree. The applicants Sandy Thompson and Amanda Ward, returned with their father, the said Daniel Thompson.

In connection with those applicants herein who claim through Jess Ridge, deceased, and the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Henry Ridge, Daniel Thompson, and Robert Foster, attention is called to the fact that the Commission on Cherokee Citizenship of 1878-9, decided that the said Jess Ridge, since deceased, and the four applicants last above named, were not entitled to Cherokee citizenship, a certified copy of the proceedings of said Commission in re above named parties, being filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The applicant, Elick Ward, swears that he was raised by one Peter Ward, and after the rebellion returned to the Cherokee Nation with the said Peter Ward and one Abraham Ward. In C. F. D. 613 ( R 202 ), and D 607 ( R 283 ), the Commission found that the said Peter and Abraham Ward did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on April 29, 1904, its findings were approved by the Department.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I. T. D. 5843, 11776-04), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, by Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, and Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe (Milton) Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, and Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett and John C. Riley, Rosa Vann and Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Mollie Townsend, Rosa Townsend, George Townsend, and Arthur Townsend, Tettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks and Elmer Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Sallie Miller, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson and Luella Johnson, Eliza Hawkins and Tyndle B. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, Katie Davis, Moses Riley, Lillie Riley, Andrew Riley, Nathaniel Riley, Jesse Riley, Joseph Riley, Ollie Riley, Viola Riley, Mabel Riley, Elnora Riley, Ideller Riley, Luther D. Riley, Frank Riley, Lottie Riley, Fannie Riley, James Riley, Ralph Riley, Arizona Riley, Inola Riley, Earl E. Riley, Clarence Riley, Jerry Riley, Samuel Riley, James E. Riley, Amanda Riley, Mariah Riley, Maggie Riley, Calvin Riley, Bertina Riley, Ada Riley, and Leona Riley, Fannie Scott, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie Scott, and Jimmie Scott, Delilah Johnson, Allie Johnson, Luman Johnson, Jesse Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Nola Johnson, Della Johnson, Ella Johnson, Harrison Johnson, Lottie Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Luford Johnson, Wilbert Johnson and Arch Johnson, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick Ward, Amanda Ward, Henrietta Ward, Irvin Ward, Harry Ward, Roy Ward, Dan Ward, Effie Ward, Troy Ward, Jesse Ward and Paine Ward, Sandy Thompson, Ruth Riley, Lenora Odine Riley, and Hannah Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J. Wagoner and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth Melton and Elnora Melton, Julius Curls, Riley Curls, Willie Curls, Edward Curls, James Curls, George Curls, Stephenia Curls and Beatrice Curls, Ophelia Thompson, Alpha Thompson, Libbie Thompson, Hirschel Thompson, Harvey Thompson and Clyde Thompson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the applications for the enrollment of Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, her and the same are, hereby dismissed, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716).

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Katie Ridge for herself; by Cornelius Ridge for himself, and children, Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle
Ridge, and his wife, Laura Ridge as a citizen by intermarriage;
by Phoebe Johnson for herself and minor children, Joseph, Percy,

Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton; by Henry C. Ridge for himself; by Ida Jones for herself and minor children, Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin. Thereafter, on June 27, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on June 3, 1902, of Cornelias Jones, child of the applicant, Ida Jones; by Charles J. Lynch for, among others, his wife, Ary Lynch, as a citizen by intermarriage. The others included in said application have been heretofore disposed of, and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Walter Vann for, among others, his wife, Elnora Vann; the others included in said application have been otherwise disposed of and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Maud Riley for herself and minor child, Jesse Barnett. Thereafter, on April 9, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on October 26, 1901, of John C. Riley, child of the applicant, Maud Riley; by Rosa Vann for herself and minor child Josephine Vann; by William Townsend for himself; by Dennis Hicks Sr., for himself, by intermarriage, and his wife, Bettie Hicks and minor children, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks; by Eliza Hawkins for herself and minor child, Tyndie E. Hawkins; by Joseph Hicks for himself and wife, Susie Hicks (by intermarriage), and minor child, Otto A. Hicks; by Katie Hicks for herself; by James A. Hicks for himself; by Joshua Holt for himself and wife, Jane Holt, and minor stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beeson, and minor children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Ruth Chinnett for herself and minor children, Martha, and Lillie Chinnett; subsequent to filing her application herein and prior to September 1, 1902, the applicant Ruth Chinnett was married to one George Vann, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Ruth Vann; by Frank Johnson for himself. Thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on February 7, 1902, of Luella Johnson, child of the applicant Frank Johnson; and by Frances Johnson for herself and minor children, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson.

The records of this office further show that on October 13, 1905, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision herein, denying, among others, all of said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen and citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, which decision was duly forwarded to the Department, and that, thereafter, on July 9, 1906 (I.T.D. 17884-1905), motions having been filed with the Department for a rehearing of this case, the same was remanded to the Commissioner for rehearing and readjudication, the Department stating that it "considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under Article 9 of the treaty of 1866."

In accordance with this direction the Commissioner consolidated the following cases, and further proceedings were had therein at Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 14, 1906; Katie Ridge, D 295; Cornelius Ridge et al. D 586; Phoebe Johnson et al. D 589; Henry C. Ridge D 638; Ida Jones et al. D 647; Ary Lynch R 70; Elnora Vann R 113; Maud Riley et al. D 591; Rosa Vann et al. D 594; William Townsend D 636; Leroy Hicks et al. D 355; Eliza Hawkins et al. D 358; Joseph Hicks et al. D 360; Katie Hicks D 361, and James A. Hicks D 362.

Although the principal applicants included herein other than the applicants in the above mentioned consolidated case, and their attorneys, have several times been notified by letter and in person, of the Department's action in remanding their cases for rehearing, and to submit such evidence as they desired to present in their behalf, they have failed to do so. Their rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen will therefore be adjudicated in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge and one Mary Ridge, both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion and did not return thereto and establish an actual, personal, bona fide residence therein as provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat. 137); that the applicants Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than by reason of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and the said Jesse Ridge deceased, and the applicant Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge and Joseph, Percy Herbert, Serena, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida and Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann (In C. F. D. 660 the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 7, 1904-I.T.D. 3470-1904- said finding was approved by the Department), William Townsend, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks, (Their father, Dennis Hicks, case D 350 infra.) Eliza and Tyndle E. Hawkins Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, were born since 1866 and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen except as descendants of the said Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of Jesse Hicks and Mary Ridge (Hicks) deceased.

After ample opportunity afforded the applicants, Lee Eddie and Stella Martin and Jesse Barnett, it is not shown by satisfactory evidence that they possess any right to enrollment other than as descendants of their mothers, the said Ida Jones and Maud. The minor applicant John C. Riley is a child of William Riley, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was rejected by the Commissioner on February 27, 1907, and the applicant herein, Maud Riley, and possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman other than as a descendant of his said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicant, Dennis Hicks Sr., neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than by virtue of his marriage to the applicant, Bettie Hicks; that the applicants Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Anderson Johnson, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906; that the applicants Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson (In C.F.D. 853 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, on April 22, 1905, that Rebecca Webber, mother of Frank Johnson, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and its finding was approved by the Department June 25, 1906-I.T.D. 7712-8846-1906), and Frances Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, were born since the war of the rebellion; are descendants of the applicants Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie Hicks and Joshua Holt, and of Anderson Johnson deceased, and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants. The applicant Luella Johnson, is a child of the said Frank Johnson and Charlotte Johnson, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on July 21, 1904 and its action affirmed by the Department September 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7192-7993-1904). No one of the applicants herein nor any ancestor through whom they claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I.T. D. 5848-11776-1904), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr. Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucelia (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

In the matter of the application of Dennis Hicks for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and five children as Cherokee Freedmen. Dennis Hicks, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackbridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A Dennis Hicks.

Q Have you that license, A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District, December 12, 1892, as well as it can be made out, authorizing marriage between himself and Mrs. Mary Hicks, nee Ridge. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the 12th day of December, 1892, by the Rev. A.W. Lewis, and it is endorsed as having been recorded on the 12th day of December, 1892. This is filed herewith.

By J.S. Davenport, Cherokee attorney: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation present protest against the introduction of the marriage certificate, under §659, page 329, of the Compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1892.

Commissioner: This protest will be considered in the final determination of the case.

- Q Now give me the name of your second wife? A Her name is Bettie Holt.
Q Is she living now? A Yes, sir.
Q Was this wife ever married except to you? A No, sir.
Q How old is your present wife? A She is 56 years old.
Q When were you and she married? A About 2 years ago.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A I have at this Court down here, I haven't it with me, it is down at the house.

 Q You claim that Bettie Holt is a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell how long; all her life though pretty near I suppose.
 Q Give me the name of her father? A I don't know him, sir.
 Q Give me the name of her mother? A Her name is Easter Hill.
 Q Is she alive? A Yes, sir.
 Q Was this wife ever married before she married you? A Why I think so, I don't know.
 Q Give me the names of these children, begin with the oldest; those five children.
 A Commence at Leroy Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A He is about 19 years old.
 Q What is the next child? A Dennis Hicks, Jr.
 Q How old is Dennis? A Dennis is about 17, going on 18 I believe he is.
 Q Give me the name of the next child? A The next one is Delana Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A She is about, I think she is at 14 years old.
 Q Give me the name of the next child? A Mabel Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A She is about 12.
 Q The next child? A Elmer.
 Q How old is that child? A Nine, going on 10.
 Q Are these children all living now? A Yes, sir, all at home.
 Q Are these children of your first wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q Are you on any roll of the Cherokee Nation? A Me myself, no sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the applicant, Dennis Hicks, nor Mary, his first wife, not identified on said roll.

The 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee ~~Nation~~ Freedmen examined and the applicants not identified thereon.

Q Did your wife ever draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you draw Cherokee strip money for these children? A Yes, sir; no, sir, they didn't give her this last money; the children did.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Dennis Hicks not on said roll.

Mary Hicks not on said roll.

Leroy Hicks not on page 120 No. 2976, Delaware District.

Dennis Hicks, Jr., on page 120 No. 2977, Delaware District; as Dennis Hicks.

Delana Hicks, on page 120 No. 2979, Delaware District; as Delaney Hicks;

Mabel Hicks, on page 120, No. 2979, Delaware District;

Elmer Hicks, on page 120, No. 2980, Delaware District.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the name of Bettie Hicks not identified thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined and the applicant Bettie Hicks, identified thereon, page 163, #4035, Coowescoowee District, as Bettie Holt.

Commissioner: What I would like particularly to know at this point is the status of the applicant's first wife, whereby things whatever claim he may have as an int. married man and the claims of all of these children.

Mr. Edgar Smith, attorney for applicant: That is what I want to clear up.

Mr. Smith: Who was your first wife? A Mary Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Katie Ridge.

Q Who was her father? A Henry Ridge.

Q Did she have any sisters or brothers? A Yes, sir.

Q Who were her sisters and brothers? A Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Ridge, and Jesse Ridge, he is dead though.

Q Do you know Katie Ridge yourself? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A I knowed her first in time of the war.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on the river.

Q What river? A Grand river.

Q How far from Vinita? A About 16, about 18 miles.

Q Has she been here during the sitting of the Commission at this place? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she made an application for the enrollment of herself or not? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you and your wife live together here in the Cherokee Nation? A We lived together about 29 years in all; no, we lived together, between 29 years since we married; it is about 29 or '7 years.

Q Was that up to the time of her death? A Yes, sir, up to the time she died.

Q Where did she die? A Herein Vinita; I don't know just exactly how many years.

Q You yourself don't know where your wife was during the war or in 1866? A Why she was during the war at Springfield.

Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge when she came back? A They came back right after the war; they left the place where they were and said they were coming to the Nation, that is all I know about it.

Q What place was that? A Springfield, out in the country about four miles from Springfield; we lived right on the same house; we lived in that house about a year together.

Q When was it they said that, when did they leave and tell you they were coming back? A The year after they brought corn in down here to Gibson for the Indians, my father-in-law was hauling corn down here for them and the next fall they moved, said they were coming to the Nation.

Commissioner: That was Springfield, Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: Are you able to state what year that was in? A That was the year the war closed they hauled the corn in, and the next fall they moved.

Q And said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I didn't see them for a good while after that.

Q And when did you next see her? A When I came here in 1872, or I first met her again in Joplin, that is before I came down here, and I married down here in 1872.

Q Where did you marry? A Down here on Grand river.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that time? A No, sir, I haven't, I went backwards and forwards to Joplin, I took my family up there one, they were up there about two months, came to visit me; I was a blacksmith and I had to work out for a living.

Q And you were there about how long? A She was there about two months, I was there about six months.

Q Is there anyone here who knows who your wife's mother was? A Yes sir, everybody present.

Q Well we don't want all of them; who knows who your wife's mother was? A I can see Fred Martin and Mrs. Amy Bean.

Mr. J. S. Davenport: Cherokee attorney: How long have you lived back and forth at Joplin? A I worked back and forth there about three or four years myself; the most of the time she was away, all the time, and I wasn't there, I never was away from here but a few months at a time.

Q That was your place of business, of work? A Yes, sir, yes, sir, there is where I worked.

Commissioner: What was your wife doing up at Joplin at that time? A They lived up there a little while, they were living up there.

Q How far is Joplin from Springfield? A It is 75 or 80 miles.

Q How long had you been there when you met them at Joplin? A He, they were there when I went there, there was a great boom there and I went down there.

Q In what year was it you moved? A That was in '72.

Mr. Davenport: You say they were living there when you moved over there? A Yes, sir, they hadn't been there long though.

Q How long did they stay there after you met them? A They came right away that fall, I went down in the spring and they came away that fall.

Q How do you know that? A They said they hadn't, I don't know anything about it.

Mr. Smith: You stated I believe when they left Springfield the first time they stated they were coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Mr. Davenport: The next time you saw them after they left Springfield and said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, was at Joplin, Missouri? A Yes, sir, that was a good while after they left Springfield.

Q They left Springfield and said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, but the next time you saw them was in Joplin, Missouri, and in the same state of Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Any Bean, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Any Bean.

Q How old are you? A 45.

Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Mr. Smith: Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Well, I really don't know, I guess about 27 or 28 years ago I first got acquainted with him.

Q Did you know his first wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Mary Hicks.

Q What was her name before she married him? A Ridge.

Q Was she her mother? A Kate Ridge.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on yonder side of Grand river.

Q What post office? A Spavinaw I think that is her post office name.

Q Do you know whether she is the same Kate Ridge who applied here the other day for enrollment? A Yes sir, she is the same one applied up at the other table.

Mr. Smith: I will just ask to have the copies of the testimony in the Ridge case filed with this case.

Fred Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Fred Martin.

Q How old are you? A 43.

Q What is your post-office? A Spavinaw.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Q Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant here? A I do.

Q Do you know his wife, his present wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her name? A Bettie Hicks; it was Bettie Holt before she married her.

Q How long has he been married to her? A I don't know just exactly how long he has been married, something over 2 years.

Q Do you know them as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q They are living together in that way, are they? A Yes, sir.

Q They are recognized in the community as husband and wife?

Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A Well, I don't know, I have known her a long time.

Q Was she ever married before she married this man? A I don't know.

Q Has she any children? A She has one to my personal knowledge.
Q But you don't know whether she has ever been married or not?
A No, sir, I don't know whether she has ever married.
Q Have you ever known her to live with another man as husband and wife? A No, sir, except Dennis.

Dennis Dick, re-called, testified:

Mr. Smith: Dennis, your present wife claims to be entitled to be enrolled upon the freedmen roll in her own right? A Yes, sir.
Q What proof does she depend upon in her case? A Is that proof present this evening or not? A I don't know that it is, I think they are out west somewhere.
Q She will have to get that proof and make it in addition to the proof in your case, and it will be one case then.

Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five minor children. The applicant is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married in accordance with Cherokee law to his first wife, now deceased, one Mary Ridge, in 1892, they having previously been married according to the testimony, under United States law. The applicant is a colored man and he claims as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He states that neither he or his first wife ~~was~~ were ever previously married. He is not upon any roll, and his first wife is not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1896, or upon the Kerns-Clifton roll.

Q How old was your wife Mary Ridge when she died? A She was about 42.

The Wallace roll examined, and Mary Hicks, identified thereon, page 118, No. 2485, Coowascoowee District.

She is identified on the Wallace roll. Reference is made to the testimony as to her status, and also to the case of her mother, Katie Ridge, Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card D295, and the applicant will now be listed on a doubtful card as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage.

His present wife, for whom he makes application, Bettie Hick, is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or 1896. But little testimony has so far been taken in her case, and to await further identification of the ~~present~~ status of this woman, she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. The applicant's marriage to his second wife will also enter into his own rights as far as he may possess a right by intermarriage, and it has been established by satisfactory testimony, but it is not entirely clear whether she was previously married or not, so far as it may affect his rights.

As for the five children named in the testimony, they are all five identified ~~in the testimony~~ on the Kerns-Clifton roll. These are the applicant's children by his first wife, Mary Ridge. They are living and to await the determination of her status, and for the further consideration of their case, they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card.

The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post-office address.

Mr. Smith: Do you know whether your present wife was ever married before she married you? A I don't know, sir.

A Yes sir.

Q Where were you when the Civil War commenced? A I was at Webbers Falls Cherokee Nation.

Q Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation first after the war?

A '66, in August.

Q Who was with you? A Andy Daugherty, my mother and two brothers.

Q What was your brother's name? A Tecumseh Holt and James Holt.

Q Where is James Holt? A I have not saw James Holt for twenty years.

Q You don't know where he is? A No sir.

Q Where is Tecumseh Holt? A He is here somewhere.

Q Where does he live? A Vinita.

Q What is your mother's name? A Esther Holt.

Q What was your father's name? A Jonas Pack.

Q Where did he die? A He died when the emigrants left this Nation going to California in about 1849.

Q You spoke of your mother and yourself and brother Tecumseh and another brother named James coming here to the Cherokee Nation after the war in '66, where did you come to? A Came to Big Creek.

Q Near what point as the country is developed now? A I don't understand you.

Q I mean to say at what point on Big Creek did you come? A Near about in the settlement you have reference to?

Q Yes? A Up there about where Reuben Johnson lives and Mike Whitmire.

Q Near what place is that now? A It was on George Duffin.

Q I mean as to what post-office is it now? A Near Edna, Kansas.

Q How far is it from where Hayden is now? A I don't know, Hudson may be closer I think, Hudson post-office is near than Edna, Kansas.

Q You think it is nearer what is now Hudson? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you live there at that place you have mentioned?

A I lived there off and on and go there and work and come back again.

Q Well you were then about how old? A I can't tell exactly how old I was about that time.

Q Where was your mother when the Civil War commenced? A Webberville Falls, Cherokee Nation.

Q Did she or did she not go out at the same time you did? A She went out at the same time I did.

Examined by Com'r Needles:

Q Do you live in Vinita? A Yes, sir.

Q Why didn't you appear before the Commission at Vinita when we were there? A My mother was sick and she wasn't able to get there; that's just the reason I didn't appear at that Commission.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Your present wife is the only wife you have ever had? A Yes sir.

Q You testified that you married her in 1889? A 1889.

Q Your oldest child is 19 years of age, you have given, Laura?

A Yes sir, she is my step-child, my wife's child, Laura and Ella both.

Q Didn't you apply for your daughter Laura and Ella to be put on the Kern-Clifton roll? A I applied for them, yes, sir.

Q Did you then say anything about their being your step-children? A I think I did, I am not certain.

Q What was your wife's maidenname? A Jane Johnson.

Q Where was she born? A Big Creek, Indian Territory, Cooweescoowee District.

Q How old is she? A I think she is now about 32 years old, 30 or 32.

Q Who was her father? A Anderson Johnson.

Q Who was her mother? A Dinah Johnson.

COM'R NEEDLES: Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two step-children, Laura and Ball Beason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896, upon examination neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah, being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two childrens', Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

Q Was he a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q Was he an Indian? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did he live? A On Honey Creek.

Q Was Katie taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war?

A I don't know.

Q Where did you first see her after the war? A On Honey Creek.

Q When was that? A In '66.

Q Has she been living there ever since? A No sir, she left there once.

Q She went to Joplin didn't she? A Yes sir.

Q Has she been living here for the last 20 years? A Yes sir.

Q Her master was who? A Herman Ridge.

Q Was he a single man when he was killed? A I don't know.

Q Do you know of him ever living outside of the Cherokee Nation?

A I think he did.

Q Was he living in Arkansas? A Yes sir.

Q Was that before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Who did he ~~living~~ live with in Arkansas, his father and mother?

A I don't know.

By L. B. Bell:

Q You saw this woman there? A At the old place. Dr. Somebody owned it then.

Q Was he there? A No sir.

Q How far is that from Southwest City? A Taint very far, I don't know exactly.

Q Is it half a mile? A Yes sir several miles.

Q Were you ever at the place before? A Yes sir, been there lots of times before.

Q What was you doing there? A I went to Mr. Woodall's shop and staid at Mr. Ridge's every time I went to the shop.

Q Where did you go to from the shop? A On Baties Prairie.

Q When did you come here first after the war? A The first time I came was in '65, and then moved here in '66.

Q What time in '66 did you move here? A In February.

APPLICANT recalled: Examined by Commissioner Needles:

Q Did you get your strip money? A Yes sir.

The Kerns Clifton roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant identified thereon as follows:

By Com'r Needles: Katie Ridge applies for herself; she is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896 but she is identified on the Kerns Clifton roll; she makes satisfactory proof as to her residence and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card for the reason that her name is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880, and from the further fact that her citizenship is contested by the Cherokee representatives. When the Commission arrives at a conclusion in her case she will be notified by mail.

Chas. vonWeise, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

Supplemental testimony.

Applicant present.

Cherokee Nation present, by its attorneys.

ANDERSON LYNCH, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner
Needles, testified as follows:

Q Your name is Anderson Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q How old are you? A About 64.

Q What is your post-office address? A Vinita.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q You know Katie Ridge? A I didn't know her when I first saw her, when I first saw her they were up there on Honey Creek and someone said that was the Ridges.

Q What year was that? A That was along in the fall of '66, I think it was.

Q You saw her in the fall of 1866 then? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, after they came down here, I got acquainted with them; he said it was some of the Ridges that was up there on Honey Creek.

Q Do you know the Katie Ridge, the applicant here, and the same woman you saw on Honey Creek in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir, I don't know all the Ridges, all I know about them is what Simon was telling me.

Q Simon who? A Simon Lynch.

Q Did you know them before the war? A No sir, he knew them.

By L.B. Bell: Cherokee attorney: Where were you going in '66?

A Going up to southwest city.

Q How far is Southwest City from where they were living? A I don't know, sir, I never noticed; the first time I ever had been there, and I just went along with Simon.

Q About what time of the year was it? A It was along in the fall like.

Q Can you recollect then how far it was from where they lived to Southwest? A No, sir, I expect Simon knows, he was acquainted up there and I wasn't.

Q You went on there to Southwest City did you? A Yes, sir.

Q Now where was Southwest City, in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri?

A It was in Missouri or Arkansas, I don't know which, it was across the line.

Q In what district do you live? A Delaware.
Q ~~Now~~ Do you want to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Who do you want to apply for, anybody besides yourself? A Baby.
Q Just your baby? A Yes sir.
Q Do you want to apply for your husband? A No sir.
Q He is not a Cherokee Freedman? A No sir.
Q Just yourself and one child? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A All my life.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Dennis Hicks.
Q Is he alive? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Mary Hicks.
Q Is she alive? A No sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A Five years.
Q Does your father claim to be a Cherokee Freedman? A No sir.
Q Was your mother a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q How old was your mother when she died? A 41.
Q To whom did she belong before the war? A They said she belonged to John Ridge.
Q Did she belong to John Ridge at the time ~~you~~ the war broke out?
A I don't know.
Q Is that your understanding? A I don't know anything about it, I never heard ~~them~~ say.
Q Give me the name of your child? A Tyndle E. Hawkins.

A Well, sir, I could not describe the house at all.
Q Did he get water out of a spring or well? A Out of a spring.
Q You remember that do you? A Yes, sir, it appears to me like that is right.
Q Are you certain? A No, sir, I am not right positive but seems to me like there was a spring.
Q Did Dr. Polston have a farm there? A Yes, sir.
Q How many acres? A I don't hardly remember, don't seem to me

Cornelius Ridge et al, 3.

like there was an orchard; might have been, I won't be sure.

Q Who did you say your Master was? A Herman Ridge.

Q Now, where was Herman living? A Well, sir, I don't know where he was living; he was an intermarried man.

Q He had no home in the Nation did he? A The last account I know of Herman was that when he joined the army.

Q Well, where was he living just before he joined the army?

Q I don't know sir, I could not tell you?

Q Well now, you came back here did you with your father and mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what was the first point you came to? A In the Nation?

AQ Yes. A On Honey Creek.

Q Now, what place on Honey Creek did you return? A Well, I don't know the name of the place at all, but as near as I can remember it was about probably three or four miles down the creek from where South West City now is.

Q That is the point you came to was it? A Yes, sir.

Q That was near your old home? A Yes, sir.

Q You come right back to the old home didn't you? A No, sir, not right exactly.

Q Well about how far from your old home? A It don't, it must have been, probably a mile and a half from the old Ridge place.

Q Did you build a house? A No, sir.

Q How did you live there? A Went into a house that was there.

Q That was vacant? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there? A Well, sir, I expect we were there something like three or four months.

Q Then where did you go? A Went to Missouri.

Q Joplin? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married at Joplin, weren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A Ida.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is Ida? A Ida's about, I don't know, 24 or 25 I guess.

Q Well, isn't Henry older than Ida? A No, sir; he is younger.

Q And where was Ida born? A Ida was born on Grand river.

Q Near what place? A On Lynch's prairie.

Q How long after the war was it until you come down to Lynch's prairie? A How long after the war you ask me?

Q That is the question. A I don't know, something about like three or four years.

Q George Clark was living right near you then? A Yes, sir, George Clark was living there.

Q Then the only time you claim to have come back to the Cherokee Nation before that was when you were up on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived there you say about two or three months? A Yes sir.

Q Now, what kind of a house was that you moved into? A It was a log house.

Q Now, what direction from the old Polston was that log house that you moved into? A Well, if I am not mistaken and kinda turned around I say out south.

Q Did you go to the old place while you were there? A Polston place; yes, sir.

Q Who was living there? A Dr. Polston.

Q Was his wife there with him? A Now, I am not right sure; let me think over that a little; yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Did she have any children there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know their names? A No, sir, I don't.

Q What did you do for a living down there? A Didn't do anything.

Q Do you remember any citizen you saw down around there? A No, sir, I don't remember any one.

Q Where did you get anything to eat? A Brought provisions with us.

Q And just camped out down there in a house? A No, sir, we lived down there in a house.

Cornelius Ridge, et al, 4.

Q You never worked for anybody? A Never done a day's work for anybody as I knows of.

Q Well, what year were you there? A We were there in the fall.

Q About what month? A Well, sir, I don't know hardly, I expect though it was in or near the month of October, September or October, somewhere along about there.

Q Were you up about that town there while you were down there on Honey Creek? A No, sir.

Q You didn't go to any town? A No, sir; what do you mean, South-west City?

Q Yes, sir. A No, sir, there wasn't no town there; we come right past there and there wasn't no town there.

Q Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house, any people living anywhere around you? A No, sir, none that I know of; none that I was acquainted with except Polston.

Q None except polsten? A No, sir, that I can remember now.

Q You don't remember any of those Indians that were living about you? A No, sir; I don't remember, there was none living there as I know of.

Q Was there any field connected with your house you lived in?

A No, sir.

Q What did you get water out of, creek, spring or well?

A Spring.

Q What direction was the spring from the house? A Well, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't remember? A Appears to me though like the spring was east, not to be positive.

Q How far was the home place from Honey Creek? A I presume something near a mile and a half.

Q Were you north or south of the creek? A Well I would say south.

Q Dennis Hicks' wife your sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q Where was she born, before the war or after, and when? A She was born before the war, I don't know where she was born at.

Q Did she go this round with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your mother was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father? A Yes, sir; I think though Dennis' wife was born in Arkansas.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Well, now in all these round you went your father and mother and all the members of your family would go with them? A Yes, sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Well, you apply for your wife as an intermarried citizen do you?

A Yes sir.

Q When were you married to her? A I don't know sir, about '67 I guess.

Q Have you been living withher continually since that time?

A Ye, sir.

Q Living with her now? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you married? A Married in Missouri.

Q She is a state woman? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living in 1867? A In Missouri.

Q Joplin is in Missouri, isn't it? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q At that time, Cornelius, did you leave the Cherokee Nation after you came here in 1866; how long did you stay here in 1866? A We came in in 1866 and left after Christmas.

Cornelius Ridge et al 5.

Q Were you a married or unmarried man at the time you came here in 1867? A Unmarried.
Q Why did you leave the Nation, the Cherokee Nation, at that time? A We didn't have anything to live on.
Q Where did you go to? A Went to Joplin, Missouri.
Q How long did you stay there? A About three or four years, I presume.
Q And then where did you go to? A Came on Grand river.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In the Cherokee Nation.
Q Have you been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since. A Yes, sir.
Q In the meantime you had married? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you bring your wife back here with you when you came? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What time did you say you came back? A From Missouri?
Q Yes. A In about three or four years I guess.
Q After you went up there? A Yes, sir.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Cornelius Ridge applies for the enrollment of himself and three children, Pearl, Jessie and Myrtle, as Cherokee Freedmen; he also applies for the enrollment of his wife, Laura, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896, but he and his children are duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton pay roll, and he upon the Wallace roll. He avers that he was married to his wife, Laura, a state woman in the year 1867, and has lived with her continuously ever since that time. He makes satisfactory proof as to his residence, and in this connection, as requested by Counsel that the testimony taken in the present case be made a part of the record in the application of Dennis Hicks who was listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedmen card D #356, and it is ordered that the testimony taken in the application of Watie Ridge for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, who was duly listed for enrollment on D Card #295, be made part of the record in the present case and a copy of the same be filed in the case of the applicant, Cornelius Ridge. The said Cornelius Ridge and his children as enumerated herein will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card, and his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. The applicant will be notified by mail as to the final decision of the Commission.

Appearances:

Mr. Mellette, of Mellette & Smith, attorneys for appl't.
Mr. L.B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation,
and Mr. W.W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

W.H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.

Q What is your age? A 48.

Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living here when the war began? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.

Q For when did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.

Q Where did you come to? A Came to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.

Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey Creek? A About a mile and a half.

Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.

Q Well did you live there when the war began, or how come you to go on that place? A We lived on Whitewater in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from Dr. Polston, my father did.

Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.

Q Was there any town there at that time, near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over near the line that they called Honey Creek.

Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about 2 years.

Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.

Q And you left it? A Yes sir.

Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.

Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.

Q Were you acquainted with one Katie Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.

Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.

Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.

Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washbourn place at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Was there any Freedmen living on that place by that name? A No sir.

Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.

Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 5 or 6 miles.

Q When did Dr. Polston re-buy that place after you bought it from him or did he ever? A He went right on the place when we left it in '68.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville Arkansas.

Q Where was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved some part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q How do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he came from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when the, - no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washbourn place that you knew of? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. FELLETT:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 48 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1866, that right?

A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days?

A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 13 year old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q What place are you talking about as the one that ~~exist~~ colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly; the brakes of Honey Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 13 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q Then did you return? A In '65.

Q What time in '65? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Choctaw Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. BELL:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas, near the Blains' place,

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee nation in '66? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge etc (sup'1)3

MRS. M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BULL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A M. M. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of a Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 9th article of the treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokees? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I knew them in Fayetteville, Arkansas

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Eneous Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '58, spring of '58.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washbourn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q This home that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Vatie? A Yes sir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Could you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there that I know of; she had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. MELLETT:

Q Mrs. Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until in 58 did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, say? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Katie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all; they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge's brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you claim to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my present husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.

Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I ~~left~~ lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.

Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?

Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Why it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.

Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri, - I saw her husband.

Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.

Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.

Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; ~~xx~~ I didn't see any of his family at that time.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.

Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Watie place. That's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, I was horseback and not the wagon; I was with Stan Watie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family. A And I stopped and spoke

JOHN W. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified

Q What gentlemen your name, your age and post-office? A Grove post-office; my name is John R. Shields; my age is 53.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A I guess not.
Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right citizenship to another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of these that got behind. I am not a citizen at all.
Q Are you a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.
Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Line Road", line between the Cherokee Nation and Missouri.
Q Were you living 2 miles north of South west City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest
City at the present time.
Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.
Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the Creek; there was no town or village there at all.
Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.
Q Who was the first man that went there? A Alex Strothers and J.P.
Laneyance were the first men to put up stores.
Q Was there a post-office established there? A Well they kept a post-office there in the store, in the hands of Mr. Strothers I think the post-office was handled.
Q Will the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

10. The following information is for your information only. It is not to be used for any other purpose.

Q What was the place called then? A Honey Creek. did it
Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.
Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years
perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when,
I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. MELLETT: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M.
Bell, aged 69, post-office Needmore, or Vinita, either one.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation are you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with the exception of a few intervals I have been here since '39.
Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.
Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.
Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware
District.
Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.
Q Name what they were if you can do it? A ~~His first~~ His first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rolen Ridge was the next, Herman, Eneous, Andrew, Susan Washbourn, Flora Polston, constituted
the family.
Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee Nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.
Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.
Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '50 sometime, that
I was there.
Q That in Benton county? A In Benton County.
Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.
Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.
Q You were acquainted with Herman Ridge were you? A Yes sir.
Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?
A He was between 35 and 30; he was 25 I reckon; between that and 30.
Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '63 I believe, or
'62, in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.
Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man; had no family of his own.
Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.
Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.
Q ~~Where~~ Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.
Q Do you know of his ever having a farm, location or home or habitation in the Cherokee Nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.
Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes
sir.
Q They were closely related to you were they? A Yes sir.
Q By blood, friendship, social matters or what? A Yes sir.

standing that we are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

BY MR. BELLETTE:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district down here near Stilwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware District.

Q That's in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q Now were you there and know all about this personally; did you see that? A I saw Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family?

Q Yes. A Left the country on that account, that's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q All you know is that they were out of the Territory? A Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you now if a Mrs. Ridge, the mother of Herman Ridge, who lived in Benton County, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back and forth from where she was to their farm to keep it up? A I know nothing of that.

Q Didn't she take supplies from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville to live on? A She might have done so, but I knew nothing of that.

L. B. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell, 62 years old, Vinita.

Q Where were you born? A Well I was born in the State of Georgia I and my Haversham County, they tell me; I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation here? A Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Adair farm in 1843 when the whole world was flooded, I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '4.

Q Do you remember the Ridge family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A Yes, I know what they called the old Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A Oh lots of times.

Q Now who lived there, occupied it? A Old Peter, -the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he killed a man there and run off and had to go to California, left there and never came back any more. Then an old man named Peter, an old slave of his that he had there, remained on the place 5 or 6 years, then it passed into the hands of Dr. Polston, who married Flora, the youngest girl of John Ridge's family; they lived there until '61 probably lived there 3 or or 4 years.

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge as far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first; next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he came and joined our command, that is the Confederate Army, General Katie was a kinsman of his and he joined the 8th regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, his wife died in about 1868; his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. MELLETT:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee nation in the conduct of these Freedmen cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. MELLETT: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, keep this Katie up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. MELLETT:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time that you were there while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q How the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A At Fayetteville?

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I knew her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn who was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville?

A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Ridge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went; I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the Territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Ridge family in '56? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen is he not? A He is not living now.

Q He did move back into here as a citizen after the war? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if they were not temporarily outside of the Cherokee Nation because it was unsafe for them to live in the Cherokee Nation?

Kate Ridge (sup'1) 8

okee Nation? A. Well I don't know; I know they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q. You don't know what legal steps were taken by these people, Washbourns and or Polatons to re-establish their citizenship? A. No sir.

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES: The testimony will be filed in Kate Ridge, Cherokee Freedmen D 296, and D 353 and D 356, and D 389 and D 300, D 360, D 361, D 362 and D 363.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Hallette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F. D 496, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Elisa Hawkins, D 358;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 536, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1426, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 ( I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father the said Cornelius Ridge had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman

December 22, 1908.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated October 13, 1908, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by Katie Ridge for herself; by Cornelius Ridge for himself and wife Laura Ridge (by intermarriage) and his minor children, Pearl, Jesse, and Myrtle Ridge; by Phoebe Milton Johnson for herself and her minor children, Joseph, Percy, Herbert, Berena, and Pearl Milton; by Henry C. Ridge for himself; by Ida Jones for herself and her minor children, Lee, Edie, Stella, and Cornelius Jones; by Charles J. Lynch for his wife, Amy Lynch (by intermarriage) by Walter Vann for his wife, Elvora Vann; by Wanda Riley for herself and her minor children, Jesse Barnett and John C. Riley; by Rosa Vann for herself and her minor child, Josephine Vann; by William Townsend for himself; by Mollie Townsend for herself and her minor children, Rosa, George, Arthur, and Ethel Townsend; by Dennis Hicks for himself (by intermarriage) and wife Bettie Hicks and his minor children, Leroy, Dennis, Jr., Delana, Nabel, and Elmer Hicks; by Joshua Holt for himself and wife,

Jane Helt and minor step-children, Laura and Ella Beeson and minor children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Mamcella (Marcella) Helt; by Sallie Miller for herself; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Ruth Chinnett and for herself and her minor children, Martha, and Little Chinnett; by Frank Johnson for himself and his minor child, Lillie Johnson; by Eliza Hawkins for herself and her minor child, Tyndie M. Hawkins; by Joseph Hicks for himself and wife, Susie Hicks (by intermarriage) and minor child, Otto A. Hicks; by Katie Hicks for herself; by James A. Hicks for himself; by Frances Johnson for herself and her minor children, Nettie, Katie, Clarence, and Wilda Johnson; by Anna Butler for herself and her minor child, Esther Owen, and her adult brother, Howard Bushyhead; by Katie Davis for herself; by Moses Riley for himself and minor child, Lillie Riley; by Andrew Riley for himself and his minor child, Nathaniel Riley; by Jesse Riley for himself and his minor children, Joseph, Ollie, Viola, Mable, Elmora, Ideller, and Luther D. Riley; by Frank Riley for himself and his minor children, Lettie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Clarence, Inola and Earl E. Riley; by Jerry Riley for himself and his minor children, Samuel, James E., Amanda, Mariah, Maggie, Calvin, Bertha, Ada and Leona Riley; by Fannie Scott for herself and her minor children, Charles Wesley Miller, and Bessie, and Jimmie Scott; by Delilah Johnson for herself and her minor children, Allie, Luman, Jesse, Alfred, Nela, Della, Ella and Harrison Johnson; by Lettie Johnson for herself and her minor children, Rebecca, Luferd, Wilbert, and Arch Johnson; by Jane Riley for herself; by Daniel Thompson for himself; by Eliek Ward for himself and wife, Amanda Ward, and his minor children, Irvin, Harry, Roy, Dan, Effie, Troy, Jesse, and Haine Ward; by Sandy Thompson for himself; by Ruth Riley for herself, and her minor child, Lenora Odine Riley; by Hannah Riley for herself; by Charles Landrum for himself; by Bettie McIntosh for herself; by William Riley for himself; by Carrie Gibson for herself; by Cora J. October 13, 1906, the Commissioner decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Jesse Ridge, deceased, and Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks, Sr.), deceased; that they were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation, during the War, and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that the applicants, Laura Ridge, and Amy Lynch neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than those obtained by marriage to the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants Dennis Hicks, Sr., and Susie Hicks neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than by virtue of their marriage to Bettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Helt and Hallie Miller (children of one Esther Helt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion; were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the War, and did not return on or before February 11, 1867; that one Riley McWair and one Maria McWair, both deceased were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Millie McWair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria, and Millie McWair, all deceased, and Moses, Andrew, Jesse, and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Ellick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that all the other applicants were born since 1866, are descendants of the foregoing and possess no rights to enrollment except as such descendants, or have failed after ample opportunity afforded to establish such a right. None is identified on the 1860 authenticated Cherokee roll, or the Cherokee census roll of 1896, nor can an ancestor be so identified.

There is also enclosed a letter from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitting a motion in behalf of the applicants and three communications from G. F. Fogle enclosing motions in their behalf which have been carefully considered.

In view of the record the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On October 13, 1905, you transmitted the record, together with your decision of the same date, in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of Katie Ridge et al. (Cherokee freedmen D. 295). Said decision was adverse to all the applicants.

Reporting December 22, 1905, the Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The attorneys for the applicants have filed a number of motions and briefs in this case, and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation has filed his answer.

A consideration of these motions, together with the record, leads the Department to the opinion that the case should be remanded for a further hearing.

The Department considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under article 9 of the treaty of 1866, being first those persons and their descendants who returned from the neighborhood of Joplin, Mo.; second, those who returned from near Fort Scott, Kans., and third, those who returned from Garnett, Kans.

Having divided this case along the lines indicated, you will permit the attorneys for the applicants and for the nation to submit such proper evidence as they may see fit regarding the rights of these applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

The record is returned.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Marcella (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedman, together with the decision of the Commissioner, dated February 28, 1907, rejecting said application.

Secretary 2-

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedmen, case No. D 536, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57606-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D.7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father, the said Cornelius Ridge, had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

Secretary--3

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman citizenship, the case of Knoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee freedman 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, be reopened, and the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee Freedman citizenship, be reversed.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

LAND
21941-1907

March 4, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated February 28, 1907, relative to applications for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Sr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elmera Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks, Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Deeson, Ella Deeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Mausalia (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedmen, together with the decision of the Commissioner of February 28, 1907, rejecting the applications.

The Office has examined the record in this case and finds the conclusions of the Commissioner to be correct, and recommends that his decision be approved.

In connection herewith the Commissioner invites attention to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, wherein the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-1904), found that one Laura Daniels (nee Ridge), daughter of Cornelius Ridge, a party applicant herein, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Department on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3807.

Mr. Birby now reports that Laura Daniels was born since 1866 and that her right to enrollment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrollment by the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman."

This being an error, as indicated by the case herewith transmitted, the Commissioner now recommends that the Department reverse its decision in the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., so far as it relates to Laura Daniels, and that her name be stricken from the roll.

The Office concurs in this recommendation.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On March 4, 1907 (Land 21941-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated February 23, 1907, relative to proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrolment of Laura (Katie) Ridge, et al., together with your decision of the same date rejecting the application.

The Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department considers said decision correct and it is hereby affirmed.

In connection herewith you call attention to one Laura Daniels, a party applicant in this case, who appears on a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907. You report that she was enrolled and that her enrolment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrolment in the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman." You state that this is an error and you recommend that if the Department affirm your decision as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee citizenship that the case of Beech Daniels, et al., be reopened and that the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee freedmanship, be reversed.

In accordance with your recommendation the Department rescinds its decision and reverses your decision in the case of Beech Daniels in so far as said decisions apply to the enrollment of Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, and her name is canceled from the roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907, as of this date.

Your office and the Indian Office are requested to make your records conform to this action.

The papers in the case, together with a carbon copy hereof, have been sent to the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

Jesse H. Wilson,

Acting Secretary.

Supplemental testimony.

Applicant present.

Cherokee Nation present, by its attorneys.

ANDERSON LYNCH, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner
Needles, testified as follows:

- Q Your name is Anderson Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A About 64.
Q What is your post-office address? A Vinita.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q You know Mattie Ridge? A I didn't know her when I first saw her.
When I first saw they they were up there on Honey Creek and someone said that was the Ridges.
Q What year was that? A That was along in the fall of '66, I think it was.
Q You saw her in the fall of 1866 then? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, after they came down here, I got acquainted with them; he said it was some of the Ridges that was up there on Honey Creek.
Q Do you know the Mattie Ridge, the applicant here, as the same woman you saw on Honey Creek in the fall of 1866? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir, I don't know all the Ridges, all I know about them is what Simon was telling me.
Q Simon who? A Simon Lynch.
Q Did you know them before the war? A No, sir, he knew them.
By L.I. Bell, Cherokee attorney: Where were you going in '66?
A Going up to Southwest City.
Q How far is Southwest City from where they were living? A I don't know, sir, I never noticed; the first time I ever was down there,
and I just went along with Simon.
Q About what time of the year was it? A It was long in the fall like.
Q Can you recollect, early or late? A It was early, it wasn't so cold, I was know we slept out, we were going up there.
Q You don't recollect then how far it was from where they lived to Southwest? A No, sir, I expect Simon knows, he was acquainted up there and I wasn't.
Q You went on from there to Southwest City did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Now where was Southwest City, in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri?
A It was in Missouri or Arkansas, I don't know which, it was across the line.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., May 12, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Dennis Hicks for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and five children as Cherokee Freedmen.

Dennis Hicks, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A Dennis Hicks.
Q How old are you? A I am 52 years old the 15th of June.
Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.
Q In what district do you live? A Coowescoowee; well I live in Salina, or Delaware it is; my home is in Coowescoowee.
Q Do you want to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir, not unless you will accept my certificate; I am not a freedman.
Q You want to apply? A Yes, sir, I want to apply.
Q As a Freedman? A No, sir, intermarried.
Q You are an African are you? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is it you want to apply for besides yourself? A Five minor children.
Q And have you a wife you want to apply for? A She will apply for herself I guess.
Q We would rather the family would come together? A Well.
Q You apply for yourself, your wife and five minor children?
A Yes, sir, the wife of them children though is dead.
Q You apply for yourself as an intermarried man do you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here since 1872.
Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
Q Give me the name of your first wife? A Mary Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q What was she, a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you and her marry? A 1872.
Q How long has she been dead? A Been dead four years.
Q Did you and she live together until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of her father? A Henry Ridge.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A About 18 years.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Katie Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A No, sir.
Q Did you get out a Cherokee license when you married this woman?
A Later on I did; a preacher married us in the first place.
Q Have you that license? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Coowescoowee district, December 12, 1892, as well as it can be made out, authorizing marriage between himself and Mrs. Mary Hicks, nee Ridge. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the 12th day of December, 1892, by the Rev. A. W. Lewis, and it is endorsed as having been recorded on the 12th day of December, 1892. This is filed here by J. S. Davenport, Cherokee attorney: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation present protest against the introduction of the marriage certificate, under §659, page 329, of the Compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1892.

Commissioner: This protest will be considered in the final determination of the case.

- Q Now give me the name of your second wife? A Her name is Bettie Holt.
Q Is she living now? A Yes, sir.
Q Was this first wife ever married except to you? A No, sir.

- Q How old is your present wife? A She is 36 years old.
 Q When were you and she married? A About 2 years ago.
 Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A I have at this Court down here, I haven't it with me, it is down at the house.
 Q You claim that Bettie Tolt is a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you how long, all her life though pretty near I suppose.
 Q Give me the name of her father? A I don't know him, sir.
 Q Give me the name of her mother? A Her name is Easter Hill.
 Q Is she alive? A Yes, sir.
 Q Was this wife ever married before she married you? A Why I think so, I don't know.
 Q Give me the names of these children, begin with the oldest; these five children.
 Q Commence at Leroy Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A He is about 19 years old.
 Q What is the next child? A Dennis Hicks, Jr.
 Q How old is Dennis? A Dennis is about 17, going on 18 I believe he is.
 Q Give me the name of the next child? A The next one is Delana Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A She is about, I think she is at 14 years old.
 Q Give me the name of the next child? A Label Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A She is about 12.
 Q The next child? A Elmer.
 Q How old is that child? A Nine, going on 10.
 Q Are these children all living now? A Yes, sir, all at home.
 Q Are these children of your first wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q Are you on any roll of the Cherokee Nation? A No myself, no sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the applicant Dennis Hicks, nor Mary, his first wife, not identified on said roll.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and applicants not identified thereon.

- Q Did your wife ever draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes for these children?
 A Yes, sir; no, sir, they didn't give her this last money; the children did.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Dennis Hicks not on said rolls.

Mary Hicks not on said roll.

Leroy Hicks on page 120 No. 2976, Delaware District;

Dennis Hicks, Jr., on page 120, No. 2977, Delaware district;

as Dennis Hicks.

Delana Hicks on page 120, No. 2978, Delaware District as Delaney Hicks.

Label Hicks on page 120 No. 2979, Delaware district.

Elmer Hicks on page 120, No. 2980, Delaware district.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the name of Bettie Hicks not identified thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicant Bettie Hicks identified thereon, page 163, No. 4035, Cooweescoowee district, as Bettie Tolt.

Commissioner: That I would like particularly to know at this point is the status of the applicant's first wife, whereby hinges whatever claim he may have as an intermarried man and the claims of all these children.

Mr. Edgar Smith, attorney for applicant: That is what I want to clear up.
 Mr. Smith: Who was your first wife? A Mary Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Katie Ridge.

Q Who was her father? A Henry Ridge.

Q Did she have any sisters or brothers? A Yes, sir.

Q Who were her sisters and brothers? A Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Ridge, and Jesse Ridge, he is dead though.

Q Do you know Katie Ridge yourself? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A I knowed her first in time of the war.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on the river.

Q What river? A Grand river.

Q How far from Vinita? A About 16, about 18 miles.

Q Has she been here during the sitting of the Commission at this place? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she made an application for the enrollment of herself or not? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you and your wife live together here in the Cherokee Nation? A We lived together about 29 years in all; no, we lived together, been 29 years since we married; it is about 29 or '7 years.

Q Was that up to the time of her death? A Yes, sir, up to the time she died.

Q Where did she die? A Here in Vinita; I don't know just exactly how many years.

Q You yourself don't know where your wife was during the war or in 1866? A Why she was during the war at Springfield.

Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge when she came back?

A They came back right after the war; they left the place where they were and said they were coming to the Nation, that is all I know about it.

Q What place was that? A Springfield, out in the country about four miles from Springfield; we lived right on the same house; we lived in that house about a year together.

Q When was it they said that, when did they leave and tell you they were coming back? A The year after they brought corn in down here to citizen for the Indians, my father-in-law was hauling corn down here to ~~citizen~~ for them, and the next fall they moved, said they were coming to the Nation.

Commissioner: That was Springfield, Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: Are you able to state what year that was in? A That was the year the war closed they hauled the corn in, and the next fall they moved.

Q And said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I didn't see them for a good while after that.

Q And when did you next see her? A When I came here in 1872, or I first met them again in Joplin, that is before I came down here, and I married down here in 1872.

Q Where did you marry? A Down here on Grand River.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that time?

A No, sir, I haven't, I went backwards and forwards to Joplin, I took my family up there once, they were up there about two months, came to visit me; I was a blacksmith and I had to work out for a living.

Q And you were there about how long? A She was there about two months, I was there about six months.

Q Is there any one here who knows who your wife's mother was?

A Yes, sir, everybody present.

Q Well we don't want all of them; who knows who your wife's mother was? A I can use Fred Martin and Mrs. Amy Bonn.

Mr. J. S. Daysenport, Cherokee Attorney: How long have you lived back and forth at Joplin? A I worked back and forth there about three or four years myself; the most of the time she was away, all the time, and I wasn't there, I never was away from here but a few months at a time.

Q That was your place of business, of work? A Yes, sir, yes, sir,

there is where I worked.

Commissioner: What was your wife doing up at Joplin at that time?

A They lived up there a little while, they were living up there.

Q How far is Joplin from Springfield? A It is 75 or 80 miles.

Q How long had you been there when you met them at Joplin? A He, they were there when I went there, there was a great boom there and I went down there.

Q In what year was it you moved? A That was in '72.

Mr. Davenport: You say they were living there when you moved over there? A Yes, sir, they hadn't been there long though.

Q How long did they stay there after you met them? A They came right away that fall, I went down in the spring and they came away that fall.

Q How do you know that? A They said they hadn't, I don't know anything about it.

Q Mr. Smith: You stated I believe, when they left Springfield the first time they stated they were coming to the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: The next time you saw them after they left Springfield you said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, was at Joplin, Missouri? A Yes, sir, that was a good while after they left Springfield.

Q They left Springfield and said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, but the next time you saw them was in Joplin, Missouri, and in the same state of Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Amy Bean, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Amy Bean.

Q How old are you? A 45.

Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Mr. Smith: Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Well, I really don't know, I guess about 27 or 8 years ago I first got acquainted with him.

Q Did you know his first wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Mary Hicks.

Q What was her name before she married him? A Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Kate Ridge.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on yonder side of Grand river.

Q What post office? A Spavinaw I think that is her post office name.

Q Do you know whether she is the same Kate Ridge who applied here the other day for enrollment? A Yes, sir, she is the same one applied up at the other table.

Mr. Smith: I will just ask to have the copies of the testimony in the Ridge case filed with this case.

Fred Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Fred Martin.

Q How old are you? A 43.

Q What is your post-office? A Spavinaw.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Q Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant in this case? A I do.

Q Did you know his wife, his present wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her name? A Bettie Hicks; it was Bettie Holt before he married her.

Q How long has he been married to her? A I don't know just exactly how long he has been married, something over 2 years.

Q Do you know them as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q They are living together in that way, are they? A Yes, sir.

Q They are recognized in the community as husband and wife?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A Well, I don't know, I have known her a long time.

Q Was she ever married before she married this man? A I don't know.

Q Has she any children? A She has one to my personal knowledge.

Q But you don't know whether she has ever been married or not?

A No, sir, I don't know whether she has ever married.

Q Have you ever known her to live with another man as husband and wife? A No, sir, except Dennis.

Dennia Hicks, recalled, testified:

Mr. Smith: Dennis, your present wife claims to be entitled to be enrolled upon the freedman roll in her own right? A Yes, sir.

Q What proof does she depend upon in her case? Is that proof present this evening or not? A I don't know that it is, I think they are out west somewhere.

Q She will have to get that proof and make it in addition to the proof in your case, and it will all be one case then.

Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five minor children. The applicant is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married in accordance with the Cherokee laws to his first wife, now deceased, one Mary Ridge, in 1892, they having previously been married according to the testimony under United States law. The applicant is a colored man and he claims as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He states that neither he or his first wife were ever previously married. He is not upon any roll, and his first wife is not upon the roll of 1830 or upon that of 1896, or upon the Burns-Clifton roll. Q How old was your wife, Mary Ridge, when she died? A She was about 42.

The Wallace roll examined, and Mary Hicks identified thereon, page 118, No. 2485, Cooweescoowee district.

She is identified on the Wallace roll. Reference is made to the testimony as to her status, and also to the case of her mother, Katie Ridge, Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card D 295 and the applicant will now be listed on a doubtful card as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage.

His present wife, for whom he makes application, Bettie Hicks, is identified on the Burns-Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1830 or 1896. But little testimony has so far been taken in her case, and to await further identification of the status of this woman, she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. The applicant's marriage to his second wife will also enter into his own right as far as he may possess a right by intermarriage, and it has been established by satisfactory testimony, but it is not entirely clear whether she was previously married or not, so far as it may affect his rights.

As for the five children named in the testimony, they are all five identified on the Burns-Clifton roll. These are the applicant's children by his first wife, Mary Ridge. They are living and to await the determination of her status, and for the further consideration of their case, they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card. The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post office address.

Mr. Smith: Do you know whether your present wife was ever married before she married you? A I don't know, sir.

Q Do you know how long that was before the war? A No, sir, I don't.

Q When did you see this applicant, Bettie, in the Cherokee Nation after the war closed? A I saw her in Fort Gibson.

Q When was that? A That was when the Refugees was drawing; I was in there cooking for the refugees, cook for the Commissary clerk.

Q What were the Refugees doing? A They was issuing rations and the Clerk was issuing rations to them and I was cook for him.

Q And you mean the people that had gone out of the Nation during the war? A Yes, sir, that was all getting back to their home s.

Q Had you been out or remain in the Nation? A I remained in the Nation; I just went out on Elyar Town and come back before peace was made.

Q Are you yourself a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir; I am nothing else, I am half Cherokee and Freed an too.

Q Are you a recognized citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q On the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir, always has been.

Q Can you state what year it was that they were issuing these rations? A No, sir, I can't exactly state, it was just after peace was made and they ordered them all to come in.

Q When you saw her? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did they issue these rations and keep that up as well as you remember? A I don't know exactly how long; they stopped and begin; I could not tell how long I cooked about two years right along there.

Q Right soon after peace was declared? A Yes, sir, right after peace was declared.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q Was she a grown young woman then? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, you saw her owner one time before the war when her Mistress come up to your Mistress' house? A Yes sir.

Q What was she doing up there? A She was waiting on her.

Q How many girls would she usually carry with her? A She sometimes would have one.

Q How many waiters did she have up there? A One.

Q Didn't you testify in the Sallie Miller case yesterday?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now when you testified in that case yesterday, didn't you testify that Sallie Miller was with Mrs. Holt when she visited your mistress at Fort Gibson as the waiting girl for Mrs. Holt? A Yes, sir, that is right.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Did Mrs. Holt; what do you mean by that, now you saw Mrs. Holt brought Sallie up there? S sometimes bring Sallie and sometimes bring Bettie.

Q Did she make more than one visit? A Yes, sir, she visited more than once.

Q Well when you spoke of Mrs. Holt having brought Sallie up there as her waiting girl was that the same trip you are talking about now? A No, sir; they come up several times, come on the steam boat named pilot.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q They came quite often to visit Mrs. Nivens? A Several times, we went down there several times.

Q She carried you with her? A No, sir, not every time.

Q Then you have been down there and seen her? A Yes, sir; I have been to Mrs. Holt's that is right.

Q And Holt's lived in Flint District didn't they? A The Holts I am talking about lived at the Falls.

Q You don't know whether they had ever lived up in Flint district?

A No, sir.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first see this applicant, Bettie Hicks, in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A About '79, I believe.

Q Where was that? A Vinita.

Q Have you known her, or rather have you known anything of her whereabouts since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you seen her often or a few times? A Often from the time I come to Vinita.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q Where was Bill Holt living when you knew this woman at this place?

Q His home was, Bill Holt, was down here on the Arkansas, where I saw this woman.

Q What part of the Arkansas? A George Whitmire had a cattle ranch there and that is the first time I saw this woman, in Canadian District, I reckon.

Q Near what point that you can name? A It was not far from the old ranch there.

Q I don't know where the Whitmire Ranch was? A It was on the Arkansas river there, I know I saw Bettie distinctly.

Q On what side of the Arkansas did you see this Bettie as a slave of Bill Holt? A I don't know which side; I think it was on the other side.

Q You were there at his place wasn't you? A No, sir, he was at our place.

Q Did he have all his darkies down there? A He didn't have all of them. I saw Bettie.

Q Where was Bettie when you saw her? A I don't know.

Q How old was she when the war broke out? A She was grown woman.

Q Grown woman? A Looked like to me.

Q And you don't know where it was you saw her? A I don't know, I know distinctly I saw her when I went to Kansas.

Q How many sisters had Bettie? A She had Sallie.

Q Which is the older Sallie or Bettie? A I don't know, I think Sallie is the oldest.

Q And you don't know which side of the river Bill Holt's place was on? A No, sir.

Q Which side of the river was Whitmire's ranch? A On the North side.

Q And Vian Creek? A On this side I reckon.

Q And on which side of the river was Bill Whitmire's ranch on?

A On the East side, towards Fort Smith.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1890 or census roll of 1896, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two children's Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

SAM WEBBER, being sworn by Com'r Needles, testified as follows: By Mr. Brown:

- Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.
Q Mr. Webber, do you know Anderson Johnson and Dinah Johnson, the mother and father of this applicant? A Yes, sir.
Q You know whether they were ever married or not?
A I couldn't tell you about the wedding, they were living together as man and wife.
Q So recognized by the community? A Yes, sir.
Q Were they living together as man and wife at the time this applicant was born? A Yes, sir.
Q You know this girl's sister, Mary Johnson? A Yes, sir.
Q At the time she was born were they living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you testify for Jane Holt in the Joshua Holt case? A I did 5 years ago, I didn't this time.
Q You testified a while ago in the Mary Johnson case? A Yes, sir.
Q You didn't say anything about their marriage then? A No one asked me; I didn't have no right to unless they asked me.
Q When did you first see Anderson Johnson and the mother of this girl living together as husband and wife? A They come and settled down there; he married her somewhere and brought her there, I don't know where he married her.
Q When was it? A I don't believe I can tell you just when that was.
Q How long after the war was it? A I couldn't tell you that and be positive in it.
Q Was Anderson Johnson married man when he first come there?
A No, sir, he was a single man.
Q It was sometime after that when he married? A Yes, sir.
Q Had he been married up to that time? A Up to what time?
Q Up to the time he first come up there after the war in '66 as you testified a while ago? A He was single when he come down.

Q You don't remember how long after that when you saw him living with this woman? A No, sir, I couldn't say positive, but they was living together as man and wife on the creek there when he got killed, and had been for several years.

Q You remember just what year he got killed? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember just about how long after he come down there?

A No, sir.

Q The circumstance of his getting killed isn't as great as the circumstance of your first seeing him after the war? A I don't know, it might be greater for all I know, but I never paid no particular attention.

Q About what is the first date that you are willing to swear that you saw them living together as husband and wife? A I tell you I never paid no attention to it, so many people married, I can't keep the dates of all of them, of of course I didn't rtry.

Q I am not asking you, Mr. Webber, the exact date, but how long ago, now when they first began living together, but about how many years ago are you willing to testify you saw them living together?

A I don't know, I couldn't be positive about that.

Q Did they have any children when you first saw them living together as husband and wife? A When I first saw them they didn't have any.

Q Do you have any idea how old this woman is, (indicating applicant)

A No, sir, not exactly.

By Com'r Needles: Well, Mr. Webber, how long did they live together as husband and wife according to your best recollection, your knowledge? A I declare I couldn't answer that correct.

Q Did they raise a family there? A Raised them right there on the creek, three children.

Q While they were living together as man and wife they raised a family? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings: You don't know where he got the woman?

A No, sir, I couldn't tell you.

Q How far did they live from you? A About 10 miles I guess, as near as I can guess at it.

Q Boys or girls? A I don't hardly remember.
Q You don't remember? A No, sir.
Q What kind of a house did Dr. Polston live in, on Peter's Prairie?
A Well, sir, I could not describe the house at all.
Q Did he get water out of a spring or well? A Out of a spring.
Q You remember that do you? A Yes, sir, it appears to me like that is right.
Q Are you certain? A No, sir, I am not right positive but seems to me like there was a spring.
Q Did Dr. Polston have a farm there? A Yes, sir.
Q Have an orchard? A I don't hardly remember, don't seem to me

Cornelius Ridge et al, 3.

like there was an orchard; might have been, I won't be sure.

Q Who did you say your Master was? A Herman Ridge.

Q Now, where was Herman living? A Well, sir, I don't know where he was living; he was an intermarried man.

Q He had no home in the Nation did he? A The last account I know of Herman was that when he joined the army.

Q Well, where was he living just before he joined the army?

Q I don't know sir, I could not tell you?

Q Well now, you came back here did you with your father and mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what was the first point you came to? A In the Nation?

AQ Yes. A On Honey Creek.

Q Now, what place on Honey Creek did you return? A Well, I don't know the name of the place at all, but as near as I can remember it was about probably three or four miles down the creek from where South West City now is.

Q That is the point you came to was it? A Yes, sir.

Q That was near your old home? A Yes, sir.

Q You come right back to the old home didn't you? A No, sir, not right exactly.

Q Well about how far from your old home? A It don't, it must have been, probably a mile and a half from the old Ridge place.

Q Did you build a house? A No, sir.

Q How did you live there? A Went into a house that was there.

Q That was vacant? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there? A Well, sir, I expect we were there something like three or four months.

Q Then where did you go? A Went to Missouri.

Q Joplin? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married at Joplin, weren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A Ida.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is Ida? A Ida's about, I don't know, 24 or 25 I guess.

Q Well, isn't Henry older than Ida? A No, sir; he is younger.

Q And where was Ida born? A Ida was born on Grand river.

Q Near what place? A On Lynch's prairie.

Q How long after the war was it until you come down to Lynch's prairie? A How long after the war you ask me?

Q That is the question. A I don't know, something about like three or four years.

Q George Clark was living right near you then? A Yes, sir, George Clark was living there.

Q Then the only time you claim to have come back to the Cherokee Nation before that was when you were up on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived there you say about two or three months? A Yes sir.

Q Now, what kind of a house was that you moved into? A It was a log house.

Q Now, what direction from the old Polston was that log house that you moved into? A Well, if I am not mistaken and kinda turned around I say out south.

Q Did you go to the old place while you were there? A Polston place; yes, sir.

Q Who was living there? A Dr. Polston.

Q Was his wife there with him? A Now, I am not right sure; let me think over that a little; yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Did she have any children there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know their names? A No, sir, I don't.

Q What did you do for a living down there? A Didn't do anything.

Q Do you remember any citizen you saw down around there? A No, sir, I don't remember any one.

Q Where did you get anything to eat? A Brought provisions with us.

Q And just camped out down there in a house? A No, sir, we lived down there in a house.

Cornelius Ridge, et al, 4.

Q You never worked for anybody? A Never done a day's work for anybody as I knows of.

Q Well, what year were you there? A We were there in the fall.

Q About what month? A Well, sir, I don't know hardly, I expect though it was in or near the month of October, September or October, somewhere along about there.

Q Were you up about that town there while you were down there on Honey Creek? A No, sir.

Q You didn't go to any town? A No, sir; what do you mean, South-west City?

Q Yes, sir. A No, sir, there wasn't no town there; we come right past there and there wasn't no town there.

Q Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house, any people living anywhere around you? A No, sir, none that I know of; none that I was acquainted with except Polston.

Q None except polston? A No, sir, that I can remember now.

Q You don't remember any of those Indians that were living about you? A No, sir; I don't remember, there was none living there as I know of.

Q Was there any field connected with your house you lived in?

A No, sir.

Q What did you get water out of, creek, spring or well?

A Spring.

Q What direction was the spring from the house? A Well, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't remember? A Appears to me though like the spring was east, not to be positive.

Q How far was the home place from Honey Creek? A I presume something near a mile and a half.

Q Were you north or south of the creek? A Well I would say south.

Q Dennis Hicks' wife your sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q Where was she born, before the war or after, and when? A She was born before the war, I don't know where she was born at.

Q Did she go this round with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your mother was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father? A Yes, sir; I think though Dennis' wife was born in Arkansas.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Well, now in all these round you went your father and mother and all the members of your family would go with them? A Yes, sir.

BY COM' R NEEDLES:

Q Well, you apply for your wife as an intermarried citizen do you?

A Yes sir.

Q When were you married to her? A I don't know sir, about '67 I guess.

- Q Yes. A In about three or four years I guess.
- Q After you went up there? A Yes, sir.

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES:--Cornelius Ridge applies for the enrollment of himself and three children, Pearl, Jessie and Myrtle, as Cherokee Freedmen; he also applies for the enrollment of his wife, Laura, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896, but he and his children are duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton pay roll, and he upon the Wallace roll. He avers that he was married to his wife, Laura, a state woman in the year 1867, and has lived with her continuously ever since that time. He makes satisfactory proof as to his residence, and in this connection, as requested by Counsel that the testimony taken in the present case be made a part of the record in the application of Dennis Hicks who was listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedman card D #365, and it is ordered that the testimony taken in the application of Watie Ridge for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, who was duly listed for enrollment on D. Card #295, be made part of the record in the present case and a copy of the same be filed in the case of the applicant, Cornelius Ridge. The said Cornelius Ridge and his children as enumerated herein will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card, and his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. The applicant will be notified by mail as to the final decision of the Commission.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SALLIE MILLER as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Counsel for applicant;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SIMON MCKENZIE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Simon McKenzie.

Q Where do you live? A I live up Pryor Creek, about five miles north of Prior Creek.

Q What is your age? A I am 59.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here all my life, only few times I have been out of the Nation.

Q Well, you were out of the Nation; when you were out of the Nation what places were you in? A when I was out of the Nation I lived at Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q About what year did you live in Fort Scott, Kansas? A I lived from 1865 down to 1866, '67 and down to spring of '68.

Q During the years you lived there did you become acquainted with Sallie Miller, or Holt, or Walker? A Yes, sir, I was acquainted with one lady named at that time Sallie Holt.

Q Well, did you know her family at that time, her mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was her mother's name? A Aunt Easter Holt.

Q Did you know any of her brothers? A Tecumseh and I forget the other one's name, was another one.

Q Do you know whether it was Mose or Joshua? A Yes, sir, Mose and Joshua.

Q Did you know any of her sisters? A Yes, sir, but I forget their names.

Q Now, where were they living, if you know, during the years you lived at Fort Scott? A They lived in an old Government building
right in Fort Scott.

Q You went there in 1865? A In '65

Q How long had you been there before you knew these people, or got acquainted with them? A I was there about a month or two or three months, I could not state the time.

Q Well, where were they living when you left Fort Scott, Kansas, if you know? A Well, Aunt Easter was living in an old Government building.

Q Have you seen any of them since that time? A No, sir.

MR. MELLETTE: Now, Mr. McKenzie, you don't know that the woman who is an applicant here for enrollment is the woman whom you say you saw up at Fort Scott, Kansas, at the close of the war, do you?

A I don't know the woman.

Q You don't know that that is the same woman? A In the same name.

Q It is not the same name? A She name Holt.

Q Well, you don't know that this is the same woman that you knew up there, do you? A Well, it was a daughter of Easter Holt, it was a Sallie woman.

Q Well, you don't know anything about this applicant; you have never seen this applicant here? A I haven't seen her here.

Q Well, you have never seen her since she has made application here for enrollment have you? A No, sir.

Q Now, when did you leave Fort Scott, Kansas? A I left there early in '68, in the spring.

Q In the spring of '68? A Yes, sir.

Q What were you doing up there at Fort Scott? A I was working there at Fort Scott, for Billy Shanahan, stone mason, doing public work there.

Q Did you keep track of these colored people? A All I saw.

Q Did you ever testify in this case before? A I guess I did.

Q When? A Not long ago at Fort Gibson.

Q You give testimony up at Fort Gibson? A I think I did.

Q How long ago? A I don't know exactly whether it was last month.

Q How old are you, Mr. McKenzie? A I am 59.

Q Well, it has been 35 or 6 years ago then since you saw them up there at Kansas? A Yes, sir, I guess so, I never kept count of the time.

Q Well say 35; well, Mr. McKenzie, can you remember just about the time you saw these people up there 35 years ago? A Well, I guess I could remember it, I stated before.

Q There is no reason why you paid particular attention to them?

A No, just seeing them pass and repassing about.

Q You left there in the spring of '68? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, they could left there a year before that and you not remember it 35 years afterwards? A Didn't I saw they back and forth all the time I was up there, off and on.

Q Well, now, off and on there, you saw them? A Every week.

Q Can you remember 35 years ago you saw these people every weeks?

A I guess so, I wouldn't be here if I didn't thought I could testify nothing.

Q Well, you feel because you are here you have to testify something?

A I don't know.

Q Well, I want to know if you can remember 35 years ago you saw these people every week? A I did while I was living in Fort Scott most every week.

Q Is it possible they might have left there a year before you did?

A If they did they went back in a short time.

Q What were you paying so particular attention to those people for?

A I could not tell you.

Q You just watched them? A Well, just seeing them pass and pass every day.

Q Who else did you see up there at Fort Scott? A Why I see good many.

Q What other colored people? A Good many. Good many other colored people, but I don't know their names.

Q Well, now, give the name of some other colored person you saw up there except this family? A I could not give their name.

Q There were a great many colored people in Fort Scott?

A Yes, sir.

Q And of all the colored people that was in Fort Scott this family is the only one you remember the names? A Yes, sir; of course I was passing there and some lived out in the country.

Q Well, who else lived in the Government building there?

A Good many families.

Q Good many families? A Yes, sir.

Q Why don't you remember the names of the other colored people?

A Because the boys I remember them, and part lived in town.

Q Why can't you remember the names of some other colored people you saw there some time? A Well, I could if I wanted to state the whole thing I can, there was Bill Thompson.

Q Who is Bill Thompson? A There he is (pointing to a man in the audience.)

Q And who else was there? A Bill was blacksmith; Tom Brown.
Q Was it Tom Brown or Bill Brown? A Tom Brown
Q When did they leave there? A I don't know.
Q Were they there when you left? A I don't know; they lived out at the edge of town; of course when I left town I went out about three miles of town and a family lived there by the name of Campbell, worked right there at Fort Scott. I know the whole generation if you will give me time to call the name over, the whole generation of them.
Q What makes you remember seeing these people there all the time you were there? A I saw them off and on, because I was working in town; Tom Brown was a blacksmith, worked in town.
Q When was the last time you remember seeing this Sallie Miller? A Well, I saw when I left Fort Scott.
Q Did you see her the day you left? A No, sir; I didn't see her the day before I left.
Q How long before you left did you see her? A Oh, short time, maybe a week or two weeks.
Q You remember then of seeing her two weeks before you left? A Yes, might have been two weeks, and maybe longer and not so long.
Q Maybe a year too? (No response.)
Q Was it a year? A No, sir, I don't think it was a year; if she left there at all she went west, went towards Mapleton.
Q How do you know she went to Mapleton? A Well, if she left at all.
Q What makes you think that? A That was the talk.
Q How was that? A That is why I found out by talking with her brother.
Q You got a letter? A No, sir, talking with her brother.
Q You are testifying to what her brother told you?
A That is how I found out where she went, if she went off at all.
Q That is the reason you are swearing that she was there all the time you were there? A No, sir; I know it.

WILLIAM MARGRAVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Margrave.
Q What is your age, Mr. Margrave? A My age is --430--about 82; I am away along in the 83 year.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Margrave? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A Since 1854.
Q Since you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you become acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts or Holt? A Yes, sir.
Q You know the old lady's name? A Yes, sir; do you mean the mother?
Q Yes, sir; what was her name? A Easter Holt.
Q How many of the children do you remember, Mr. Margrave? A Let's see, there was Mose, Cumsh, Sallie and Josh.
Q When did you become acquainted with the family? A I am not positive, I think they came there along towards the close of the Civil war, if they didn't they came there very shortly afterwards.
Q Well, now, where did they live with reference to where your home was? A Well, most of the time they lived in, I should judge, about a hundred yards, except Mose he lived, after he married, he lived about 50 yards.
Q Well, now, where is Mose Holt living now, do you know?
A Lives right there by me in Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where Josh is living? A I do not, he has been away from there a good many years, I don't know how long.
Q Well, about how many years has it been since Josh moved away from there? A Of course that would be from guess work, something I never took no count of; I don't think he has made his home in Fort Scott for the last 15 years, I might not be correct about it.

Q About how long has it been since Tecumseh moved away from there?

Q That maybe all the way from five, sir, seven or eight years, not longer than that.

Q Well, when did Bettie leave there, about when did she leave?

A That is quite a while ago, I could not tell that.

Q Well, did Sallie Holt marry while she was up there? A Yes, married twice.

Q What was her first husband's name? A Walker he died and then she married a Miller.

Q Do you know what Miller's first name was, or what he was known by up there? A Stepney I believe it is.

Q Have you seen Sallie Miller, the applicant, since you been down here? A I saw her this morning, spoke to her.

Q Did you recognize her as the same woman you knew up there as Sallie Holt? A Well, she lived right there near me for I expect 30 years, I don't know that it was that long; of course I knew her as well as I knew anybody in Fort Scott.

Q About how long ago was it since Sallie left Fort Scott?

A Well, now, I can't tell you.

Q Well, you came from there in -? A Seven, eight or ten years.

Q Do you know where Aunt Raster Holt is living now, whether she is living or dead? A I saw her I think about a year ago up in Fort Scott, I have never heard of her dying.

Q When did she move away, if at all, from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A It comes to those dates-

Q About how long? A I would think it was six or seven years ago.

Q You got acquainted with this family as I understand you, sometime about the close of the war? A Yes, sir, I knew them by sight and afterwards got acquainted with them.

Q They afterwards lived right near you? A Yes, sir. It was right close to me, I don't think it was over a hundred yards from where I now live.

Q And they lived there then in your neighborhood from the time you got acquainted with them up until a few years ago? A Yes, just as I stated.

MR. MELLETT: Now, where was Sallie Miller in the fall of '65? A I don't think I could tell just that because-

Q Well, now, where was she in '66? A The family was there, I am satisfied they were in Fort Scott in '66.

Q I am talking about Sallie Miller now? A I know you do; one of the family might have went away.

Q You can't say that Sallie Miller, or Sallie Holt, was not here in the Cherokee Nation in 1866 can you? A No, sir, I cannot; I know the family was living up there at that time. One of the family could go off and I would not know anything about that; go off and return again.

Q Isn't it a fact that she was down here in '66, and didn't go back up to Kansas for a couple of years after '66, about '68?

A No, I don't know.

Q You don't know? A No.

Q That might be true, might it not? A Yes, the family was there, I know they didn't all come here; might be such a thing as she did, of course not looking for a thing of that kind I might not know.

Q Well, these people might have come down in the Territory from time to time without you knowing their business, might they not, 35 years ago? A You mean one at the time?

Q Yes, or two at the time? A Of course they might.

Q Sallie Miller's husband died up there, one of them? A Walker.

Q Didn't she take some children back from here the first time she went back? A Children; I don't know anything about it.

JOHN FORBES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John Forbes.

- Q What is your age, Mr. Forbes? A 56.
- Q Where do you live? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 35 years.
- Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was the old lady's name, if you know Mr. Forbes? A I don't exactly know what the old lady's name was.
- Q What was the children's names? A I have heard the names; well there was Mose and Josh and Mrs. Walker; well, there was one or two others.
- Q Do you know whether her name was Sallie Walker or what her first name was? A Her name was Sallie Walker.
- Q Did she marry a man by the name of Walker? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Walker at the time of his death, if you know? A I don't know where he died, but I was informed that he died; that I don't know where he died, away or whether he died in Fort Scott.
- Q Well, do you know whether or not she married after Walker's death? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who did she marry that time? A Man by the name of Miller?
- Q Do you remember his first name? A Well, I have heard it called Step Miller.
- Q What business did he follow? A Shoemaker.
- Q Well, did you know any of her brothers or sisters that you remember the names of? A Well, there was Bet or Bit, I think that is it; and there was Mose and Josh.
- Q Any one else you remember? A I think there was more than that.
- Q Do you know where Mose Holt is living now? A Living at Fort Scott.
- Q Do you know anything about where Josh is living? A No, sir.
- Q About when did Josh Holt move away from Fort Scott, Kansas? A Well, he moved away from there good many years ago, I don't know very well; I wasn't very well acquainted with him on that account.
- Q Well, when did the applicant, Sallie Miller now, formerly Sallie Holt, move away from there? A I could not say, I think the best of my judgment it was eight or ten years ago, but I could not--after I got acquainted with them in '70, then I was personally acquainted with them after that.
- Q Was the mother of them living there and keeping house when you got acquainted with them in '70? A I am not sure whether the mother was there, but she was there afterwards.
- Q Do you know what became of Bettie whether she is living up there or alive? A No, I do not.
- Q You don't remember what year they left but they left there a number of years after you got acquainted with them? A Yes, sir.
- MR. MELLETT: Mr. Forbes, you don't know where these people, any of them, were in 1866, '67 or '8, do you? A No, sir.
- Q Isn't it a fact that they came, after you knew them, that they came back and forth down here in the territory and back up to Kansas? A I didn't know anything about that; I think I heard some of them talking about going down to Fort Smith or going from Fort Smith, or something when I got acquainted with them.
- Q Fort Smith down here on the border? A Yes, sir; I wouldn't be positive of that; some little recollection in my mind but I wouldn't be positive.

JAMES BRIGHTEN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A James Brighten.

- Q Where do you live, Mr. Brighten? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 20 years.
Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, have you become acquainted with a family of colored people by the name of Holt?
A Yes, sir.
Q What members of the family are you acquainted with? A I know Mose, Mose lives there now, well I think any other one, George Maybe.
Q Did you ever know any of the girls? A Oh, I have seen them, I don't know.
Q You are not very well acquainted with them? A I knowed Mose well and knowed where they lived well; no, I am not well acquainted with the lady folks.
Q Did you ever know the mother? A No, sir.
MR. MURLETTE: You don't know where the women folks made their homes, whether they made it here and visited up there, or where they really belonged, do you? A No, sir.

WILLIAM SEXTON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows: On part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Sexton.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Sexton? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I have lived at Fort Scott ever since '69.
Q Well, since you came to Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A I did.
Q Did you know the mother, the old lady, or reputed mother of the family? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Her name was Easter Holt.
Q What were the names of the children, or as many as you can remember? A There was one by the name of Mose, Josh, and Cumsh and Jennie and Gallie; that's as many as I recollect.
Q Well, did you know Gallie Holt, if she was a grown woman?
A Gallie she was a woman when I got acquainted with her.
Q Josh, was he grown when you got acquainted with him?
A No, sir, he was a young man.
Q Would you know Gallie Holt if you would see her now?
A Yes, sir.
Q I wish you would look back through the audience and see if you see her? A Yes, sir.
Q You recognize her as being the same woman, Sallie Holt, you knew?
A Same woman.
Q Did she marry while she was living up at Fort Scott? A She was married when I got acquainted with her.
Q Do you know what her husband's name was? A Her husband's name was Walker.
Q Do you know whether Walker is living or dead? A He died.
Q Well, did she marry again? A She did.
Q Do you know who she married? A She married a man by the name of Miller.
Q Do you know his first name? A Stepney.
Q What was his business? A He was a shoemaker up there.
Q You knew Josh too up there did you? A Yes, sir.
Q And Tecumseh? A Tecumseh.
Q Did you know any other girls of the family, was there any other girls that you remember? A I do not.
Q Do you know whether or not there was a girl by the name of Bettie?
A I wouldn't be positive but it appears to me there was.
Q Were they living in Fort Scott when you went there in '69, Mr. Sexton? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, about how long after you went there did they continue to live in Fort Scott? A Now, I could not say; I didn't pay particular attention, sometime they would leave and sometimes they was there.

- Q Did they keep house while they were there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Sallie live there with Walker when he was living?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where is Mose living now? A Moses is living up there now.
Q About how long has it been since you remember of Josh and then living in Fort Scott? A Josh hasn't been there for some considerable time.
Q Well, about how long? A It has been, I should judge, some ten or 12 years.
Q Well, how long has it been since Tecumseh has been living there?
A She has lived there to the best of my recollection, it has been that long since I seen him there.
Q Do you know where he went when he left there? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether he went to Kansas City or not?
A No, sir, I do not.
Q Well, how long has it been since Sallie has been living there?
A I don't know.
Q Has she lived there any since she and Miller married? A Yes, sir.
MR. MILLETTE: Well, how long do you think it has been since Sallie Miller lived there regularly? A Well, now, I could not say positive, it has been since she left there regularly.
Q Well, isn't it a fact that she was back and forth ever since you have known her, to the Territory and back to Kansas, would come down here a stay a while and go back to Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q That is true? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know where any of these people were in '66? '67 or '68?
A No, sir; I came to Scott in '69.
MR. DAVENPORT: And they were living there when you came?
A They was there when I came.

TESTIMONY ON THE PART OF CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:

Mr. Mellette, of Mellette & Smith, attorneys for appl't.
Mr. L. B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation,
and Mr. W. W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

W. H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

- Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.
Q What is your age? A 48.
Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living here when the war begun? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.
Q How when did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.
Q Where did you come to? A Come to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.
Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey Creek? A About a mile and a half.
Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.
Q Well did you live there when the war begun, or how come you to go on that place? A We lived on Whitewater in the Cherokee Nation.
Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from Dr. Polston, my father did.
Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.
Q Was there any town there at that time, near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over near the line that they called Honey Creek.
Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about 2 years.
Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.
Q And you left it? A Yes sir.
Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.
Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.
Q Were you acquainted with one Katie Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.
Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.
Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.
Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washbourn place at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any Freedmen living on that place by that name? A No sir.
Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.
Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 5 or 6 miles.
Q When did Dr. Polston <sup>occupy</sup> that place after you bought it from him or did he ever? A He went right on the place when we left it in '68.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville Arkansas.

Q There was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q Now do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he come from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when the, - no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washbourn place that you knew of? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. NELLETT:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 48 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1866, that right?

A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days?

A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 13 year old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q What place are you talking about as the one they ~~called~~ colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly; the brakes of Honey Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 13 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q When did you return? A In '65.

Q What time in '65? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Choctaw Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. BELL:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas on Mike Blevins' place,

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee nation in '66? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge etc (sup'1)3

W. M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A W. M. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of a Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 9th article of the treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokees? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I knew them in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Eneas Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '58, spring of '58.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washbourn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q This home that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Katie? A Yes sir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Could you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there that I know of; she had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. MELLRETH:

Q Mrs. Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until in 58 did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, say? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Katie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all; they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge's brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you ~~didn't~~ became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my present husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.

Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I last lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.

Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?

Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Why it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.

Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri, - I saw her husband.

Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.

Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.

Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; I didn't see any of his family at that time.

Q When did you see Watie Ridge first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.

Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Watie place. That's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, I was horseback and met the wagon; I was with Stan Watie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN R. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Grove is my post-office; my name is John R. Shields; my age is 63.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A I guess not.

Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right somehow or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of these that got behind. I am not a citizen myself at all.

Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Line Road", line between the Cherokee nation and Missouri.

Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.

Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.

Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the Creek; there was no town or village there at all.

Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.

Q Who was the first man that went there? A Alex Strothers and J.P. Lawrence were the first men to put up stores.

Q Was there a post-office established there? A Well they kept a post-office there in the store, in the hands of Mr. Strothers I think the post-office was headed.

Q Well the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge (sup'l) 5

Q What was the place called then? A Honey Creek.                      did it
Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.
Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years
perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when,
I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. MELLETTE: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M.
Bell, aged 69, post-office Needmore, or Vinita, either one.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation are you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with the exception if a few intervals I have been here since '39.
Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.
Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.
Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware
District.
Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.
Q Name what they were if you can do it? A ~~He was~~ His first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rolen Ridge was the next, Herman, Eneous, Andrew, Susan Washbourn, Flora Polston, constituted
the family.
Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee Nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.
Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.
Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '50 sometime, that
I was there.
Q That in Benton county? A In Benton County.
Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.
Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.
Q You were acquainted with Herman Ridge were you? A Yes sir.
Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?
A He was between 35 and 30; he was 25 I reckon; between that and 30.
Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '63 I believe, or
'62, in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.
Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man; had no family of his own.
Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.
Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.
Q ~~Where~~ Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.
Q Do you know of his ever having a farm, location or home or habitation in the Cherokee nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.
Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes
sir.
Q They were closely related to you were they? A Yes sir.
Q By blood, friendship, social matters or what? A I don't know.

standing that we are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

BY MR. BELLETTE:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district down here near Stilwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware District.

Q That's in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q Now were you there and know all about this personally; did you see that? A I saw Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family?

Q Yes. A Left the country on that account, that's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q All you know is that they were out of the Territory? A Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you now if a Mrs. Ridge, the mother of Herman Ridge, who lived in Benton County, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back and forth from where he was to their farm to keep it up? A I know nothing of that.

Q Didn't she take supplies from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville to live on? A She might have done so, but I knew nothing of that.

L. B. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. W. F. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell, 62 years old, Vinita.

Q Where were you born? A Well I was born in the State of Georgia I guess, Haversham County, they tell me; I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation here? A Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Adair farm in 1843 when the whole world was flooded, I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '44.

Q Do you remember the Ridge family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A Yes, I know what they called the old Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A Oh lots of times.

Q Now who lived there, occupied it? A Old Peter, - the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he killed a man there and run off and had to go to California, left there and never came back any more. Then an old man named Peter, an old slave of his that he had there, remained on the place 5 or 6 years, then it passed into the hands of Dr. Polston, who married Flora, the youngest girl of John Ridges family; they lived there until '61 probably lived there 3 or or 4 years.

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge so far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I know him in Benton County, Arkansas first; next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he come and joined our command, that is the confederate Army, General Watie was a kinsman of his and he joined the ~~xx~~ regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, - his wife died in about 1868; his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. BELLETT:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee nation in the conduct of these Freedmen cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. BELLETTE: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, keep this Katie up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. BELLETTE:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time ~~that~~ ~~xxx~~ there while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q Now the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A At ~~xxxxxx~~ Fayetteville?

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I knew her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn who was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville?

A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Ridge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went; I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the Territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Ridge family in '58? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen is he not? A He is not living now.

Q He did move back into here as a citizen after the war? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if they were not temporarily outside of the Cherokee nation because it was unsafe for them to live in the Cherokee

Kato Ridge (sup'1) 8

okee Nation? A Well I don't know; I know they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

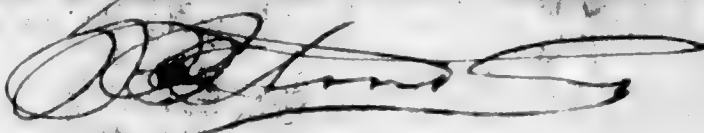

Q You don't know what legal steps were taken by these people, Washbourns and or Polstons to re-establish their citizenship? A
No sir.

COMMISSIONER MIDDLEB: The testimony will be filed in Kato
Ridge, Cherokee Freedom D 305, and D 355 and D 386, and D 589 and D 300, D 360, D 341, D 342 and D 368.

(Copies of this testimony have also been made for C.F.D. 676, D 342, D 343, D 344, D 345 and D 346. Stenog.)

W.D.Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

FILED
AUG 1 1902

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERKY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Joseph Hicks, D 360;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

-----

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

I, E. C. Bagwell, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath states that the above and foregoing is a true and perfect copy of the original testimony in the above entitled cause as filed with the Commission, which copy was made by me.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this July 29, 1902.

Copies of the following testimony, decisions, and Departmental letters are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case: Its decision rendered by the Commission on March 1, 1904, and Departmental letter of May 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 3470-04), in the case of Ed Vann, C.F.D. 560; its decisions rendered by the Commission on July 10, 1903, and June 23, 1904, and of Departmental letters of May 11, and November 12, 1904 (I.T.D. 2412, 3594-04), in the cases of Jesse Vann et al., C.F.D. 254 (R 302), and Emma Purtle C.F.D. 265; its decisions rendered by the Commission on March 5, and April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letters of June 2, 23, and 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 4386, 5025-5034-04), in the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645 (R 443), Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653 (R 399), William Holt, C.F.D. 694 (R 398), and Moses Holt, C.F.D. 185; its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904; and Departmental letter of June 21, 1904 (I.T.D. 4736-04); in the consolidated case of Katie Thornton et al., C.F.D. 576 et al., (R. 410-R 411-R 412-R 413-R 414); of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, June 8, 1901, its decision rendered by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letter of October 31, 1904, (I.T.D. 8138-04), in the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell, et al., including, among others, the application of Mary Riley, C.F.D. 624; of its decision rendered by the Commission on November 23, 1904, in the consolidated case of Andrew T. Vatie, C.F.D. 502, et al., and of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Edward Derrick, C.F.D. 818, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, Elizabeth Weigs, et al., C.F.D. 391, Samuel Beck, et al., C.F.D. 775, David Johnson, C.F.D. 356, Abraham Ward, C.F.D. 607 (R 233), and of Peter Ward, C.F.D. 615, (R 262).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge and George Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge, and one Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks Sr., D 356, infra.), both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicants, Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and to the said Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Pearl, Jesse, Myrtle and Henry C. Ridge, and Ida Jones, are children of the said applicants, Cornelius and Laura Ridge, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the applicants, Joseph, Percy, Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, and William Townsend, are children of the applicant Phoebe Johnson, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother; that the applicants, Lee, Eddie, and Stella Martin and Cornelias Jones, are children of the applicant Ida Jones, were born since 1866, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said applicants Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin, possess any rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother, and the applicant Cornelias Jones, possesses no rights to enrollment other than as his mother's descendants; that the applicant Minora Vann, is a child of the applicant Ary Lynch, and the said Jesse Ridge, deceased, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; that the applicant Jesse Barnett, is a child of the applicant Land Riley, was born since 1866, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said Jesse Barnett possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said mother, and that the applicant John C. Riley, is a child of the said applicant Land Riley, and one William Riley; (said William Riley's rights to enrollment are considered below, C. F. D. 363), was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said parents; that the applicant Josephine Vann, is a child of the said applicant Rosa Vann, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother (In C.F.D. 660, the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 17, 1904, Departmental letter I.T.D. 3470-04, said finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant Nellie Townsend, is a daughter of one Jesse Vann, and one Tom Partle, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 254 and 265 the Commission found that the said Jesse Vann and Tom Partle possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on May 11, and November 12, 1904, Departmental letters I.T.D. 2412-3594-04, said findings were approved by the Department); and that the applicants, Rosa, George and Arthur Townsend, are children of the said applicants William and Nellie Townsend, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicants Lottie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Lottie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, (children of One Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, supra., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation; that the applicants, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel, and Elmer Hicks, Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Paulcelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank and Lucilla Johnson (In C.F.D. 855 the Commission found that one Charlotte Beck, mother of the applicant, Luella Johnson, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on July 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Elize and Tyndie B. Hawkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, and Katie Davis, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie and Susie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, Nettie Downing, deceased, and Mary Ridge, deceased, (In re Mary Ridge see preceding paragraph), and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants.

THE EVIDENCE FURTHER SHOWS: That one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased, were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria and Millie McNair, all deceased, and the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and the applicants, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Ellick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson, and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree, for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicant, Ruth Riley, is a daughter of Henry Thornton, deceased, and Fattie Thornton, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 578, 580 and 581, the Commission found that the said Katie Thornton and one Maggie Curle and one Joseph Thornton, full sister and brother of the said applicant, Ruth Riley, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on June 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant, Hannah Riley, was born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, and was the slave of a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion; and that the applicants, Lillie

Nathanial, Joseph, Ollie, Viola, Mabel, Elnora, Ideller, Luther D., Frankl, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola, Earl E., Clarence (In C. F. D. 624, the Commission found that one Mary Riley wife of the applicant Frank Riley, and mother of the applicants, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola and Earl E. Riley, and grandmother of the applicant, Clarence Riley, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on October 31, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Samuel, James E., Amanda, Mariah, Maggie, Calvin, Bertha, Ada and Leona Riley, Charles Wesley Miller, Fessie and Jimmie Scott, Delilah, Allie, Luman, Jesse, Alfred, Nola, Della, Ella, Harrison, Rebecca, Luford, Wilbert and Arch Johnson, Henrietta, Irvin, Harry, Roy, Dan, Effie, Troy, Jesse and Marna Ward, Lenora Odine Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J., and Oval Vagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth and Elnora Welton, Julius, Riley, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Beatrice Curls, (One Nancy Curls, C.F.D. 429, who was denied enrollment by the Commission is the mother of the six last mentioned applicants), Ophelia, Alpha, Libbie, Hirschel, Harvey, and Clyde Thompson, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Jerry, Jane, Ruth and Hannah Riley, Fannie Scott, Lottie Johnson, Daniel and Sandy Thompson, and Eliok and Amanda Ward, and of the said Riley McNair, deceased, Marna McNair, deceased, and Millie McNair, deceased, Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as such descendants.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the first below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any of the said applicants herein born during or subsequent to the said first below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and none of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

THE EVIDENCE HEREIN FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, died prior to September 1, 1900. Affidavits to that effect are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

The applicants, Katie and Cornelius Ridge and Enche Johnson, testify that they, together with Mary and Jesse Ridge, both deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, remained a few months, and then removed to Joplin, Missouri, where they resided for a number of years. That they returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 is controverted by the testimony of witnesses who were in a position to know the matters of which they testify. In view of the fact that the burden of proof is on the applicants, and they must show by satisfactory evidence that their rights to enrollment are perfect, it is considered that these applicants have wholly failed in this, and that their applications come within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1460-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers, (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Martha Albert et al., (I.T.D. 4752-04), and Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04); and, granting that said above named parties did return to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, as contended, it is further considered that they did not establish such a residence in said Nation as was contemplated by the treaty of 1866, and are, therefore, within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales and Susan Brown (I.T.D. 1850-04), and Thomas Mayfield et al. (I.T.D. 6963-04).

The testimony in re return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, of the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, and Sallie Miller, and of the said Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Bettie Downing, deceased, is contradictory in itself, and contradicted by the testimony of witnesses in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, hence, it is unsatisfactory, and the first above mentioned rulings of the Department are considered applicable. In this connection attention is called to the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645, Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653, William Holt, C.F.D. 694, and Moses Holt, C.F.R. 185, mother and brothers of the three applicants first named in this paragraph. The material facts as established by the evidence in the several cases embracing this family, are practically the same, and the Commission found that the said Esther, Tecumseh, William and Moses Holt, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and its findings were duly approved by the Department. Granting that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and the said Buck Bushyhead and Bettie Downing, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the interval between the close of the rebellion and February 1st, 1866, they must have remained but a short time, as, by the testimony of the applicants themselves, and that of disinterested witnesses, it is shown that during a period beginning immediately subsequent to the year 1867, they, for a number of years, continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, consequently, the ruling of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales, Susan Brown and Thomas Mayfield, et al., supra., is also applicable to them.

Sam Webber, Lewis Whitmire, and Daniel and Reuben Sanders, testify that Anderson Johnson returned to the Cherokee Nation with them in the summer of 1866, but for reasons more fully set out below it is not considered that their testimony is either convincing or satisfactory. That these four witnesses complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, there is no doubt. They were admitted to citizenship by the Chambers Court, and are identified on the 1880 roll. Without calling attention to the many cases in which the above named witnesses have been successfully contradicted and repeatedly impeached, it is considered by this office, that, after hearing the testimony of numerous witnesses, interested and disinterested, and after the examination of many exhibits filed and made a part of the record in freedman cases, it can identify each and every member of the party of freedmen known as the Webber-Whitmire-Sanders detachment, or colony, who complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, and it is fully convinced that Anderson Johnson was not a member of that party. In support of this position attention is called to the fact that the personnel of the above mentioned party was thoroughly gone into by the Chambers Court, in 1878-9, and numerous witnesses, among others, the said Lewis Whitmire, examined on behalf of both parties, and that, too, at a time when the facts must have been fresh in their minds, and no particular advantage was to be had by misrepresenting who were included in said party, with one accord testify as to who composed this colony of freedmen, and the said Anderson Johnson is never named as one of them. By reason of changed conditions, the experience of the former Commission and of this office, in their investigations relative to the personnel of said colony of freedmen, has been somewhat different from that of the Chambers Court, but generally the conclusions reached have been the same. It seems to have been the policy of those witnesses appearing before the Commission, who were members of the above mentioned colony of freedmen, to add to said colony as occasion required, but after an examination of a great number of freedmen cases in which the above named witnesses testified, it cannot be found that they ever included Anderson Johnson as a member of this colony, until they were called upon as witnesses in behalf of his descendants, although they were often asked to, and as often did, name those who returned with them in 1866.

As to the return of Riley McNair, deceased, to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion: Moses Hardrick, in behalf of the descendants of the said Riley McNair, testifies that, after the rebellion, he and Riley McNair returned to the Cherokee Nation together. In C.F.D. 314, the Commission found that the said Moses Hardrick did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on October 13, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. It was several months after the above indicated trip before Riley McNair moved his wife and family to the Cherokee Nation. One Emma Purtle, daughter of the said Riley and Maria McNair, removed from the Cherokee Nation during, and returned thereto after, the rebellion, with her father's family. In C.F.D. 265, the Commission found that the said Emma Purtle did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 12, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. The said Columbus Rogers, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion with the said McNair-Riley family.

The applicant, Jane Riley, testifies that she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1863, and is corroborated by her witness, Jack Landrum. No credit can be given the testimony of the said Jack Landrum, as he has been repeatedly contradicted and impeached, (See, in particular, C. F. D. 493-D 664 and D 863). In C. F. D. 578 ( R 410 ), he swore, point blank, that Katie Thornton, applicant therein, and her husband, Henry Thornton, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the winter of 1868, and that he hauled logs to help build their house. In this case it was conclusively shown by the testimony of disinterested witnesses, that the said Katie and Henry Thornton did not leave Garnett, Kansas, after the rebellion, prior to March 1, 1871, and on this testimony the Commission denied the applicant, Katie Thornton, the right to enrollment, and its action was duly approved by the Department. Attention is further called to the fact that the said applicant, Jane Riley, and one Ben Landrum, deceased, are the parents of the applicants Charles Landrum and Bettie McIntosh, and that the said two last named applicants were born in 1880 and 1882, respectively. It is shown by the testimony of several disinterested witnesses, and a certified copy of the record of certain proceedings had before the District Court of Woodson County, Kansas, that the said Ben Landrum, continuously lived near Garnett, Kansas, during the years 1868, '69 and '70.

The applicant Daniel Thompson, testifies that on his return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, he found his son, Andrew Watie, at Fort Gibson. In C. F. D. 502, the Commission found that the said Andrew Watie did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitaire decree. The applicants Sandy Thompson and Amanda Ward, returned with their father, the said Daniel Thompson.

In connection with those applicants herein who claim through Jess Ridge, deceased, and the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Henry Ridge, Daniel Thompson, and Robert Foster, attention is called to the fact that the Commission on Cherokee Citizenship of 1878-9, decided that the said Jess Ridge, since deceased, and the four applicants last above named, were not entitled to Cherokee citizenship, a certified copy of the proceedings of said Commission in re above named parties, being filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The applicant, Ellick Ward, swears that he was raised by one Peter Ward, and after the rebellion returned to the Cherokee Nation with the said Peter Ward and one Abraham Ward. In C. F. D. 513 ( R 282 ), and D 607 ( R 283 ), the Commission found that the said Peter and Abraham Ward did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitaire decree, and on April 29, 1904, its findings were approved by the Department.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I. T. D. 3843, 11776-04), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, ex Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted Mattie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, and Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe (Milton) Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, and Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett and John C. Riley, Rosa Vann and Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Mollie Townsend, Rosa Townsend, George Townsend, and Arthur Townsend, Fattie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks and Elmer Hicks, Josina Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt and Maucellie (Marcella) Holt, Sallie Miller, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson and Luella Johnson, Eliza Hawkins and Tyndle D. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, Katie Davis, Moses Riley, Lillie Riley, Andrew Riley, Nathaniel Riley, Jesse Riley, Joseph Riley, Ollie Riley, Viola Riley, Mabel Riley, Elnora Riley, Ideller Riley, Luther D. Riley, Frank Riley, Lottie Riley, Fannie Riley, James Riley, Ralph Riley, Arizona Riley, Inola Riley, Earl E. Riley, Clarence Riley, Jerry Riley, Samuel Riley, James E. Riley, Amanda Riley, Mariah Riley, Maggie Riley, Calvin Riley, Bertha Riley, Ada Riley, and Leona Riley, Fannie Scott, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie Scott, and Jimmie Scott, Delilah Johnson, Allie Johnson, Luman Johnson, Jesse Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Nola Johnson, Della Johnson, Ella Johnson, Harrison Johnson, Lottie Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Luford Johnson, Wilbert Johnson and Arch Johnson, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick Ward, Amanda Ward, Henrietta Ward, Irvin Ward, Harry Ward, Roy Ward, Dan Ward, Effie Ward, Troy Ward, Jesse Ward and Paine Ward, Sandy Thompson, Ruth Riley, Lenora Odine Riley, and Hannah Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J. Wagoner and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth Melton and Elnora Melton, Julius Curls, Riley Curls, Willie Curls, Edward Curls, James Curls, George Curls, Stephenia Curls and Beatrice Curls, Ophelia Thompson, Alpha Thompson, Libbie Thompson, Hirschel Thompson, Harvey Thompson and Clyde Thompson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the applications for the enrollment of Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, he, and the same are, hereby dismissed, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716).

DECISION .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications
for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Katie Ridge for herself; by Cornelius Ridge for himself, and children, Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle
Ridge, and his wife, Laura Ridge as a citizen by intermarriage;
by Phoebe Johnson for herself and minor children, Joseph, Percy,

Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton; by Henry C. Ridge for himself; by Ida Jones for herself and minor children, Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin. Thereafter, on June 27, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on June 3, 1902, of Cornelias Jones, child of the applicant, Ida Jones; by Charles J. Lynch for, among others, his wife, Ary Lynch, as a citizen by intermarriage. The others included in said application have been heretofore disposed of, and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Walter Vann for, among others, his wife, Elnora Vann; the others included in said application have been otherwise disposed of and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Maud Riley for herself and minor child, Jesse Barnett. Thereafter, on April 9, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on October 26, 1901, of John C. Riley, child of the applicant, Maud Riley; by Rosa Vann for herself and minor child Josephine Vann; by William Townsend for himself; by Dennis Hicks Sr., for himself, by intermarriage, and his wife, Bettie Hicks and minor children, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks; by Eliza Hawkins for herself and minor child, Tyndle B. Hawkins; by Joseph Hicks for himself and wife Susie Hicks (by intermarriage), and minor child, Otto A. Hicks; by Katie Hicks for herself; by James A. Hicks for himself; by Joshua Holt for himself and wife, Jane Holt, and minor stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beeson, and minor children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Ruth Chinnett for herself and minor children, Martha, and Lillie Chinnett; subsequent to filing her application herein and prior to September 1, 1902, the applicant Ruth Chinnett was married to one George Vann, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Ruth Vann; by Frank Johnson for himself. Thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on February 7, 1902, of Luella Johnson, child of the applicant Frank Johnson; and by Frances Johnson for herself and minor children, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson.

The records of this office further show that on October 13, 1905, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision herein, denying, among others, all of said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen and citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, which decision was duly forwarded to the Department, and that, thereafter, on July 9, 1906 (I.T.D. 17884-1905), motions having been filed with the Department for a rehearing of this case, the same was remanded to the Commissioner for rehearing and readjudication, the Department stating that it "considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under Article 9 of the treaty of 1866."

In accordance with this direction the Commissioner consolidated the following cases, and further proceedings were had therein at Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 14, 1906; Katie Ridge, D 295; Cornelius Ridge et al. D 586; Phoebe Johnson et al. D 589; Henry C. Ridge D 638; Ida Jones et al. D 647; Ary Lynch R 70; Elnora Vann R 113; Maud Riley et al. D 591; Rosa Vann et al. D 594; William Townsend D 636; Leroy Hicks et al. D 355; Eliza Hawkins et al. D 358; Joseph Hicks et al. D 360; Katie Hicks D 361; and James A. Hicks D 362.

Although the principal applicants included herein other than the applicants in the above mentioned consolidated case, and their attorneys, have several times been notified by letter and in person, of the Department's action in remanding their cases for rehearing, and to submit such evidence as they desired to present in their behalf, they have failed to do so. Their right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen will therefore be adjudicated in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge and one Mary Ridge, both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion and did not return thereto and establish an actual, personal, bona fide residence therein as provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 ( 34 Stat. 137); that the applicants Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than by reason of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and the said Jesse Ridge deceased, and the applicant Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge and Joseph, Percy Herbert, Serena, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida and Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann ( In C. F. D. 660 the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 17, 1904-I.T.D. 3470-1904- said finding was approved by the Department), William Townsend, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks, ( Their father, Dennis Hicks, case D 350 infra.) Eliza and Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, were born since 1866 and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen except as descendants of the said Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of Jesse Hicks and Mary Ridge (Hicks) deceased.

After ample opportunity afforded the applicants, Lee Eddie and Stella Martin and Jesse Barnett, it is not shown by satisfactory evidence that they possess any right to enrollment other than as descendants of their mothers, the said Ida Jones and Maud. The minor applicant John C. Riley is a child of William Riley, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was rejected by the Commissioner on February 27, 1907, and the applicant herein, Maud Riley, and possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman other than as a descendant of his said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicant, Dennis Hicks Sr., neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than by virtue of his marriage to the applicant, Bettie Hicks; that the applicants Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Anderson Johnson, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time provided by section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906; that the applicants Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson (In C. F. D. 853 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, on April 22, 1908, that Rebecca Webber, mother of Frank Johnson, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and its finding was approved by the Department June 25, 1906-I.T. D. 7712-8846-1906), and Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, were born since the war of the rebellion; are descendants of the applicants Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie Hicks and Joshua Holt, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants. The applicant Luella Johnson, is a child of the said Frank Johnson and Charlotte Johnson, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on July 21, 1904 and its action affirmed by the Department September 22, 1904(I.T.D. 7192-7993-1904). No one of the applicants herein nor any ancestor through whom they claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I.T. D. 6846-11776-1904), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Gusie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias

Jones, Elmore Vann, Maud Wiley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Wiley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr. Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Marcelia (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Mattie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

cision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 ( I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father the said Cornelius Ridge had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

October 13, 1905, the Commissioner decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Jesse Ridge, deceased, and Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks, Sr), deceased; that they were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation, during the War, and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that the applicants, Laura Ridge, and Amy Lynch neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than those obtained by marriage to the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Dennis Hicks, Sr., and Susie Hicks neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than by virtue of their marriage to Bettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller (children of one Kather Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion; were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the War, and did not return on or before February 11, 1867; that one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lettie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria, and Millie McNair, all deceased, and Moses, Andrew, Jesse, and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lettie Johnson, and Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Ellick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson and Ben Lundrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that all the other applicants were born since 1866, are descendants of the foregoing and possess no rights to enrollment except as such descendants, or have failed after ample opportunity afforded to establish such a right. None is identified on the 1860 authenticated Cherokee roll, or the Cherokee census roll of 1896, nor can an ancestor be so identified.

There is also enclosed a letter from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitting a motion in behalf of the applicants and three communications from C. F. Fogle enclosing motions in their behalf which have been carefully considered.

In view of the record the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On October 13, 1905, you transmitted the record, together with your decision of the same date, in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of Katie Ridge et al. (Cherokee freedmen D. 295). Said decision was adverse to all the applicants.

Reporting December 22, 1905, the Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The attorneys for the applicants have filed a number of motions and briefs in this case, and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation has filed his answer.

A consideration of these motions, together with the record, leads the Department to the opinion that the case should be remanded for a further hearing.

The Department considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under article 9 of the treaty of 1866, being first those persons and their descendants who returned from the neighborhood of Joplin, Mo.; second, those who returned from near Fort Scott, Kans., and third, those who returned from Garnett, Kans.

Having divided this case along the lines indicated, you will permit the attorneys for the applicants and for the nation to submit such proper evidence as they may see fit regarding the rights of these applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

The record is returned.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos Ryan

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Sr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelius Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Marcellia (Marcellia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedman, together with the decision of the Commissioner, dated February 28, 1907, rejecting said application.

Secretary 2-

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedmen, case No. D 586, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D.7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father, the said Cornelius Ridge, had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

Secretary--3

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman citizenship, the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee freedman 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, be reopened, and the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee Freedman citizenship, be reversed.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On March 4, 1907 (Land 21941-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated February 28, 1907, relative to proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrolment of Laura (Katie) Ridge, et al., together with your decision of the same date rejecting the application.

The Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department considers said decision correct and it is hereby affirmed.

In connection herewith you call attention to one Laura Daniels, a party applicant in this case, who appears on a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907. You report that she was enrolled and that her enrolment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrolment in the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman." You state that this is an error and you recommend that if the Department affirm your decision as to the rights of the said Cernalia Ridge to Cherokee citizenship that the case of Noah Daniels, et al., be reopened and that the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee freedmanship, be reversed.

In accordance with your recommendation the Department rescinds its decision and reverses your decision in the case of Noah Daniels in so far as said decisions apply to the enrollment of Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, and her name is canceled from the roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907, as of this date.

Your office and the Indian Office are requested to make your records conform to this action.

The papers in the case, together with a carbon copy hereof, have been sent to the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

Jesse E. Wilson,

Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

LAND
21941-1907

March 4, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bizby, dated February 28, 1907, relative to applications for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Sr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elmera Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks, Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Elina Hawkins, Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucalia (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Bettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedmen, together with the decision of the Commissioner of February 28, 1907, rejecting the applications.

The Office has examined the record in this case and finds the conclusions of the Commissioner to be correct, and recommends that his decision be approved.

In connection herewith the Commissioner invites attention to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, wherein the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-1904), found that one Laura Daniels (nee Ridge), daughter of Cornelius Ridge, a party applicant herein, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Department on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

Mr. Bixby now reports that Laura Daniels was born since 1866 and that her right to enrollment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrollment by the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman."

This being an error, as indicated by the case herewith transmitted, the Commissioner now recommends that the Department reverse its decision in the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., so far as it relates to Laura Daniels, and that her name be stricken from the roll.

The Office concurs in this recommendation.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., May 13, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Dennis Hicks for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and five children as Cherokee Freedmen.

Dennis Hicks, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brockinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A Dennis Hicks.
Q How old are you? A I am 52 years old the 15th of June.
Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee; well I live in Saline, or Delaware it is; my home is in Cooweescoowee.
Q Do you want to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir, not unless you will accept my certificate; I am not a freedman.
Q You want to apply? A Yes, sir, I want to apply.
Q As a Freedman? A No, sir, intermarried.
Q You are an African are you? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is it you want to apply for besides yourself? A Five minor children.
Q And have you a wife you want to apply for? A She will apply for herself I guess.
Q We would rather the family would come together? A Well.
Q You apply for yourself, your wife and five minor children? A Yes, sir, the wife of them children though is dead.
Q You apply for yourself as an intermarried man do you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here since 1872.
Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
Q Give me the name of your first wife? A Mary Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q What was she, a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you and her marry? A 1872.
Q How long has she been dead? A Been dead four years.
Q Did you and she live together until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of her father? A Henry Ridge.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A About 18 years.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Katie Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A No, sir.
Q Did you get out a Cherokee license when you married this woman? A Later on I did; a preacher married me in the first place.
Q Have you that license? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee district, December 12, 1892, as well as it can be made out, authorizing marriage between himself and Mrs. Mary Hicks, nee Ridge. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the 12th day of December, 1892, by the Rev. A. W. Lewis, and it is endorsed as having been recorded on the 12th day of December, 1892. This is filed here.

Ex. 1 Support, Cherokee attorney: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation present protest against the introduction of the marriage certificate, under $659, page 329, of the Compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1892.

Commissioner: This protest will be considered in the final determination of the case.

- Q Now give me the name of your second wife? A Her name is Nettie Holt.
Q Is she living now? A Yes, sir.
Q Was this first wife ever married except to you? A No, sir.
Q Was this first wife ever married except to you?

- Q How old is your present wife? A She is 56 years old.
Q When were you and she married? A About 2 years ago.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A I have at this Court down here, I haven't it with me, it is down at the house.
Q You claim that Bettie Holt is a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you how long, all her life though pretty near I suppose.
Q Give me the name of her father? A I don't know him, sir.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Her name is Walter Hill.
Q Is she alive? A Yes, sir.
Q Was this wife ever married before she married you? A Why I think so, I don't know.
Q Give me the names of these children, begin with the oldest; those five children.
Q Commence at Leroy Hicks.
Q How old is that child? A He is about 19 years old.
Q What is the next child? A Dennis Hicks, Jr.
Q How old is Dennis? A Dennis is about 17, going on 18 I believe he is.
Q Give me the name of the next child? A The next one is Delana Hicks.
Q How old is that child? A She is about, I think she is at 14 years old.
Q Give me the name of the next child? A Label Hicks.
Q How old is that child? A She is about 12.
Q The next child? A Elmer.
Q How old is that child? A Nine, going on 10.
Q Are these children all living now? A Yes, sir, all at home.
Q Are these children of your first wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you on any roll of the Cherokee Nation? A No myself, no sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the applicant Dennis Hicks, nor Mary, his first wife, not identified on said roll.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and applicants not identified thereon.

- Q Did your wife ever draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes sir.
Q Did you draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes for these children?
A Yes, sir; no, sir, they didn't give her this last money; the children did.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Dennis Hicks not on said rolls.

Mary Hicks not on said roll.

Leroy Hicks on page 120 No. 2976, Delaware District;
Dennis Hicks, Jr., on page 120, No. 2977, Delaware district;
as Dennis Hicks.

Delana Hicks on page 120, No. 2978, Delaware District as Delaney Hicks.

Label Hicks on page 120 No. 2979, Delaware district.

Elmer Hicks on page 120, No. 2980, Delaware district.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the name of Bettie Hicks not identified thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicant Bettie Hicks identified thereon, page 163, No. 4055, Cooperscovee district, as Bettie Holt.

Commissioner: What I would like particularly to know at this point is the status of the applicant's first wife, whereby hinges whatever claim he may have as an intermarried man and the claims of all these children.

Mr. Edgar Smith, attorney for applicant: That is what I want to clear up.

Mr. Smith: Who was your first wife? A Mary Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Katie Ridge.
 Q Who was her father? A Henry Ridge.
 Q Did she have any sisters or brothers? A Yes, sir.
 Q Who were her sisters and brothers? A Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Ridge, and Jesse Ridge, he is dead though.
 Q Do you know Katie Ridge yourself? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long have you known her? A I knowed her first in time of the war.
 Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on the river.
 Q What river? A Grand river.
 Q How far from Vinita? A About 16, about 18 miles.
 Q Has she been here during the sitting of the Commission at this place? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know whether she made an application for the enrollment of herself or not? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long did you and your wife live together here in the Cherokee Nation? A We lived together about 29 years in all; no, we lived together, been 29 years since we married; it is about 29 or '7 years.
 Q Was that up to the time of her death? A Yes, sir, up to the time she died.
 Q Where did she die? A Here in Vinita; I don't know just exactly how many years.
 Q You yourself don't know where your wife was during the war, or in 1866? A Why she was during the war at Springfield.
 Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge when she came back? A They came back right after the war; they left the place where they were and said they were coming to the Nation, that is all I know about it.
 Q What place was that? A Springfield, out in the country about four miles from Springfield; we lived right on the same house; we live in that house about a year together.
 Q When was it they said that, when did they leave and tell you they were coming back? A The year after they brought corn in down here to Gibson for the Indians, my father-in-law was hauling corn down here in ~~Six~~ for them, and the next fall they moved, said they were coming to the Nation.
 Commissioner: That was Springfield, Missouri? A Yes, sir.
 Mr. Smith: Are you able to state what year that was in? A That was the year the war closed they hauled the corn in, and the next fall they moved.
 Q And said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I didn't see them for a good while after that.
 Q And when did you next see them? A When I came here in 1872, or I first met them again in Joplin, that is before I came down here, and I married down here in 1872.
 Q Where did you marry? A Down here on Grand River.
 Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that time? A No, sir, I haven't, I went backwards and forwards to Joplin, I took my family up there once, they were up there about two months, came to visit me; I was a blacksmith and I had to work out for a living.
 Q And you were there about how long? A She was there about two months, I was there about six months.
 Q Is there any one here who knows who your wife's mother was? A Yes, sir, everybody present.
 Q Well we don't want all of them; who knows who your wife's mother was? A I can use Fred Martin and Mrs. Amy Bean.
 Mr. J. S. Davenport, Cherokee Attorney: How long have you lived back and forth at Joplin? A I worked back and forth there about three or four years myself; the most of the time she was away, all the time, and I wasn't there, I never was away from here but a few months at a time.
 Q That was your place of business, of work? A Yes, sir, yes, sir,

there is where I worked.

Commissioner: What was your wife doing up at Joplin at that time?

A They lived up there a little while, they were living up there.

Q How far is Joplin from Springfield? A It is 75 or 80 miles.

Q How long had you been there when you met them at Joplin? A He, they were there when I went there, there was a great boom there and I went down there.

Q In what year was it you moved? A That was in '72.

Mr. Davenport: You say they were living there when you moved over there? A Yes, sir, they hadn't been there long though.

Q How long did they stay there after you met them? A They came right away that fall, I went down in the spring and they came away that fall.

Q How do you know that? A They said they hadn't, I don't know anything about it.

Q Mr. Smith: You stated I believe, when they left Springfield the first time they stated they were coming to the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: The next time you saw them after they left Springfield you said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, was at Joplin, Missouri? A Yes, sir, that was a good while after they left Springfield.

Q They left Springfield and said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, but the next time you saw them was in Joplin, Missouri, and in the same state of Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Amy Bean, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Amy Bean.

Q How old are you? A 45.

Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Mr. Smith: Do you know Dennis Hick's, the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Well, I really don't know, I guess about 27 or 28 years ago I first got acquainted with him.

Q Did you know his first wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Mary Hicks.

Q What was her name before she married him? A Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Kate Ridge.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on yonder side of Grand river.

Q What post office? A Spavinaw I think that is her post office name.

Q Do you know whether she is the same Kate Ridge who applied here the other day for enrollment? A Yes, sir, she is the same one applied up at the other table.

Mr. Smith: I will just ask to have the copies of the testimony on the Ridge case filed with this case.

Fred Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Fred Martin.

Q How old are you? A 43.

Q What is your post-office? A Spavinaw.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Q Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant here? A I do.

Q Did you know his wife, his present wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her name? A Bettie Hicks; it was Bettie Holt before he married her.

Q How long has he been married to her? A I don't know just exactly how long he has been married, something over 2 years.

Q Do you know them as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q They are living together in that way, are they? A Yes, sir.

Q They are recognized in the community as husband and wife?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A Well, I don't know, I have known her a long time.

Q Was she ever married before she married this man? A I don't know.

Q Has she any children? A She has one to my personal knowledge.

Q But you don't know whether she has ever been married or not?

A No, sir I don't know whether she has ever married.

Q Have you ever known her to live with another man as husband and wife? A No, sir, except Dennis.

Dennis Hicks, recalled, testified:

Mr. Smith: Dennis, your present wife claims to be entitled to be enrolled upon the freedman roll in her own right? A Yes, sir.

Q What proof does she depend upon in her case? Is that proof present this evening or not? A I don't know that it is, I think they are out west somewhere.

Q She will have to get that proof and make it in addition to the proof in your case, and it will all be one case then.

Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five minor children. The applicant is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married in accordance with the Cherokee laws to his first wife, now deceased, one Mary Ridge, in 1892, they having previously been married according to the testimony under United States law. The applicant is a colored man and he claims as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He states that neither he or his first wife were ever previously married. He is not upon any roll, and his first wife is not upon the roll of 1890 or upon that of 1896, or upon the Kerns-Clifton roll.

Q How old was your wife, Mary Ridge, when she died? A She was about 42.

The Wallace roll examined, and Mary Hicks identified thereon, page 118, No. 2485, Cooweescoowee district.

She is identified on the Wallace roll. Reference is made to the testimony as to her status, and also to the case of her mother, Katie Ridge, Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card D 295 and the applicant will now be listed on a doubtful card as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage.

His present wife, for whom he makes application, Bettie Hicks, is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1890 or 1896. But little testimony has so far been taken in her case, and to await further identification of the status of this woman, she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. The applicant's marriage to his second wife will also enter into his own right as far as he may possess a right by intermarriage, and it has been established by satisfactory testimony, but it is not entirely clear whether she was previously married or not, so far as it may effect his rights.

As for the five children named in the testimony, they are all five identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll. These are the applicant's children by his first wife, Mary Ridge. They are living and to await the determination of her status, and for the further consideration of their case, they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card.

The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post office address.

Mr. Smith: Do you know whether your present wife was ever married before she married you? A I don't know, sir.

APPENDICES:

Messrs. Smith and Mellette, for applicant;
Mr. Davenport, for Cherokee Nation.

POLLY NIVEN, being sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles testified as follows: EXAMINATION BY MR. SMITH, of Counsel for applicant:

- Q State your name? A Polly Nivens.
- Q Where do you live? A Fort Gibson.
- Q How long have you lived there? A All my life.
- Q Do you know Bettie Hicks this applicant? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you known her? A I know her just a while before the war.
- Q Was she a slave? A Yes, sir.
- Q Whom did she belong to? A Old Lady Holt I suppose.
- Q Was Mrs. Holt a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did she live before the war? A She lived at Wabbers Falls on this side of the river.
- Q Where was this applicant, Bettie Hicks, at the time the war commenced, do you know? A I don't know, sir.
- Q How long before the war had you seen her there at Holt's? A It was a good little while before the war; when the steam boats was running she was coming up to my Mistress' on a visit.
- Q Do you know how long that was before the war? A No, sir, I don't.
- Q When did you see this applicant, Bettie, in the Cherokee Nation after the war closed? A I saw her in Fort Gibson.
- Q When was that? A That was when the Refugees was drawing; I was in there cooking for the refugees, cook for the Commissary clerk.
- Q What were the Refugees doing? A They was issuing rations and the Clerk was issuing rations to them and I was cook for him.
- Q And you mean the people that had gone out of the Nation during the war? A Yes, sir, that was all getting back to their home s.
- Q Had you been out or remain in the Nation? A I remained in the Nation; I just went out on Ryar Town and come back before peace was made.
- Q Are you yourself a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir; I am nothing else, I am half Cherokee and Freed an too.
- Q Are you a recognized citizen? A Yes, sir.
- Q On the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir, always has been.
- Q Can you state what year it was that they were issuing those rations? A No, sir, I can't exactly state, it was just after peace was made and they ordered them all to come in.
- Q When you saw her? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long did they issue these rations and keep that up as well as you remember? A I don't know exactly how long; they stopped and begin; I could not tell how long I cooked about two years right along there.
- Q Right soon after peace was declared? A Yes, sir, right after peace was declared.
- BY MR. DAVENPORT:
- Q Was she a grown young woman then? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now, you saw her owner one time before the war when her Mistress come up to your Mistress' house? A Yes sir.
- Q What was she doing up there? A She was waiting on her.
- Q How many girls would she usually carry with her? A She sometimes would have one.
- Q How many waiters did she have up there? A One.
- Q Didn't you testify in the Sallie Miller case yesterday? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now when you testified in that case yesterday, didn't you testify that Sallie Miller was with Mrs. Holt when she visited your mistress at Fort Gibson as the waiting girl for Mrs. Holt? A Yes, sir, that is right.
- BY MR. SMITH:
- Q Did Mrs. Holt; what do you mean by that, now you saw Mrs. Holt brought Sallie up there? Sometimes bring Sallie and sometimes bring Bettie.
- Q Did she make more than one visit? A Yes, sir, she visited more than once.

Q Well when you spoke of Mrs. Holt having brought Sallie up there as her waiting girl was that the same trip you are talking about now? A No, sir; they come up several times, come on the steam boat named Pilot.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q They came quite often to visit Mrs. Nivens? A Several times, we went down there several times.

Q She carried you with her? A No, sir, not every time.

Q Then you have been down there and seen her? A Yes, sir; I have been to Mrs. Holt's that is right.

Q And Holt's lived in Flint District didn't they? A The Holts I am talking about lived at the Falls.

Q You don't know whether they had ever lived up in Flint district?

A No, sir.

Q Do you know whom she belonged to? A Belonged to Bill Holt.

Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first see this applicant, Bettie Hicks, in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A About '79 I believe.

Q Where was that? A Vinita.

Q Have you known her, or rather have you known anything of her whereabouts since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you seen her often or a few times? A Often from the time I come to Vinita.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q Where was Bill Holt living when you knew this woman at this place?

Q His home was, Bill Holt, was down here on the Arkansas, where I saw this woman.

Q What part of the Arkansas? A George Whitmire had a cattle ranch there and that is the first time I saw this woman, in Canadian District, I reckon.

Q Near what point that you can name? A It was not far from the old ranch there.

Q I don't know where the Whitmire Ranch was? A It was on the Arkansas river there, I know I saw Bettie distinctly.

Q On what side of the Arkansas did you see this Bettie as a slave of Bill Holt? A I don't know which side; I think it was on the other side.

Q You were there at his place wasn't you? A No, sir, he was at our place.

Q Did he have all his darkies down there? A He didn't have all of them, I saw Bettie.

Q Where was Bettie when you saw her? A I don't know.

Q How old was she when the war broke out? A She was a grown woman.

Q Grown woman? A Looked like to me.

Q And you don't know where it was you saw her? A I don't know, I know distinctly I saw her when I went to Kansas.

Q How many sisters had Bettie? A She had Sallie.

Q Which is the older Sallie or Bettie? A I don't know, I think Sallie is the oldest.

Q And you don't know which side of the river Bill Holt's place was on? A No, sir.

Q Which side of the river was Whitmire's ranch? A On the North side.

Q And Vian Creek? A On this side I reckon.

Q And on which side of the river was Bill Whitmire's ranch on?

A On the East side, towards Fort Smith.

COM'R NEEDLES:- Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Reason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or census roll of 1896, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Reason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two children's Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

SAM WEBBER, being sworn by Com'r Needles, testified as follows: By Mr. Brown:

- Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.
Q Mr. Webber, do you know Anderson Johnson and Dinah Johnson, the mother and father of this applicant? A Yes, sir.
Q You know whether they were ever married or not?
A I couldn't tell you about the wedding, they were living together as man and wife.
Q So recognized by the community? A Yes, sir.
Q Were they living together as man and wife at the time this applicant was born? A Yes, sir.
Q You know this girl's sister, Mary Johnson? A Yes, sir.
Q At the time she was born were they living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you testify for Jane Holt in the Joshua Holt case? A I did 5 years ago, I didn't this time.
Q You testified a while ago in the Mary Johnson case? A Yes, sir.
Q You didn't say anything about their marriage then? A No one asked me; I didn't have no right to unless they asked me.
Q When did you first see Anderson Johnson and the mother of this girl living together as husband and wife? A They come and settled down there; he married her somewhere and brought her there, I don't know where he married her.
Q When was it? A I don't believe I can tell you just when that was.
Q How long after the war was it? A I couldn't tell you that and be positive in it.
Q Was Anderson Johnson married man when he first came there?
A No, sir, he was a single man.
Q It was sometime after that when he married? A Yes, sir.
Q Had he been married up to that time? A Up to what time?
Q Up to the time he first came up there after the war in '66 as you testified a while ago? A He was single when he come down.

Q You don't remember how long after that when you saw him living with this woman? A No, sir, I couldn't say positive, but they was living together as man and wife on the creek there when he got killed, and had been for several years.

Q You remember just what year he got killed? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember just about how long after he come down there? A No, sir.

Q The circumstance of his getting killed isn't as great as the circumstance of your first seeing him after the war? A I don't know, it might be greater for all I know, but I never paid no particular attention.

Q About what is the first date that you are willing to swear that you saw them living together as husband and wife? A I tell you I never paid no attention to it, so many people married, I can't keep the dates of all of them, of of course I didn't rtry.

Q I am not asking you, Mr. Webber, the exact date, but how long ago, now when they first began living together, but about how many years ago are you willing to testify you saw them living together?

A I don't know, I couldn't be positive about that.

Q Did they have any children when you first saw them living together as husband and wife? A When I first saw them they didn't have any.

Q Do you have any idea how old this woman is, (indicating applicant)

A No, sir, not exactly.

By Com'r Needles: Well, Mr. Webber, how long did they live together as husband and wife according to your best recollection, your knowledge? A I declare I couldn't answer that correct.

Q Did they raise a family there? A Raised them right there on the creek, three children.

Q While they were living together as man and wife they raised a family? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings: You don't know where he got the woman?

A No, sir, I couldn't tell you.

Q How far did they live from you? A About 10 miles I guess, as near as I can guess at it.

By Com'r Needles, -

Katie Ridge applies for is rsself; she is not found on the authenticated roll of 1890 or the census roll of 1896 but she is identified on the Kerns Clifton roll; she makes satisfactory proof as to her residence and will be listed for enrrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card for the reason that her name is not found on the authenticated roll of 1890 and from the further fact that her citizenship is contested by the Cherokee representatives. When the Commission arrive at a conclusion in her case she will be notified by mail.

Chas. von Weise, being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

- Q Your name is Anderson Lynch? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A About 64.
Q What is your post-office address? A Vinita.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q You know Katie Ridge? A I didn't know her when I first saw her. When I first saw they they were up there on Honey Creek and someone said that was the Ridges.
Q What year was that? A That was along in the fall of '66, I think it was.
Q You saw her in the fall of 1866 then? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, after they came down here, I got acquainted with them; he said it was some of the Ridges that was up there on Honey Creek.
Q Do you know the Katie Ridge, the applicant here, as the same woman you saw on Honey Creek in the fall of 1866? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir, I don't know all the Ridges, all I know about them is what Simon was telling me.
Q Simon who? A Simon Lynch.
Q Do you know them before the war? A No, sir, he knew them.
By L.J. Bell, Cherokee attorney: Where were you going in '66?
A Going up to Southwest City.
Q How far is South West City from where they were living? A I don't know, sir, I never noticed; the first time I ever had been there, and I just went along with Simon.
Q About what time of the year was it? A It was long in the fall like.
Q Can you recollect early or late? A It was early, it wasn't so cold, I ~~don't~~ know we slept out, we were going up there.
Q You don't recollect then how far it was from where they lived to Southwest? A No, sir, I expect Simon knows, he was acquainted up there and I wasn't.
Q You went on from there to Southwest City did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Now where was Southwest City, in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri? A It was in Missouri or Arkansas, I don't know which, it was across the line.

Q Boys or girls? A I don't hardly remember.
Q You don't remember? A No, sir.
Q What kind of a house did Dr. Polston live in, on Peter's Prairie?
A Well, sir, I could not describe the house at all.
Q Did he get water out of a spring or well? A Out of a spring.
Q You remember that do you? A Yes, sir, it appears to me like that is right.
Q Are you certain? A No, sir, I am not right positive but seems to me like there was a spring.
Q Did Dr. Polston have a farm there? A Yes, sir.
Q Have an orchard? A I don't hardly remember, don't seem to me

Cornelius Ridge et al, 3.

like there was an orchard; might have been, I won't be sure.

Q Who did you say your Master was? A Herman Ridge.

Q Now, where was Herman living? A Well, sir, I don't know where he was living; he was an intermarried man.

Q He had no home in the Nation did he? A The last account I know of Herman was that when he joined the army.

Q Well, where was he living just before he joined the army?

Q I don't know sir, I could not tell you?

Q Well now, you came back here did you with your father and mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what was the first point you came to? A In the Nation?

AQ Yes. A On Honey Creek.

Q Now, what place on Honey Creek did you return? A Well, I don't know the name of the place at all, but as near as I can remember it was about probably three or four miles down the creek from where South West City now is.

Q That is the point you came to was it? A Yes, sir.

Q That was near your old home? A Yes, sir.

Q You come right back to the old home didn't you? A No, sir, not right exactly.

Q Well about how far from your old home? A It don't, it must have been, probably a mile and a half from the old Ridge place.

Q Did you build a house? A No, sir.

Q How did you live there? A Went into a house that was there.

Q The was vacant? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there? A Well, sir, I expect we were there some hing like three or four months.

Q Then where did you go? A Went to Missouri.

Q Joplin? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married at Joplin, weren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your oldestchild's name? A Ida.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is Ida? A Ida's about, I don't know, 24 or 25 I guess.

Q Well, isn't Henry older than Ida? A No, sir; he is younger.

Q And where was Ida born? A Ida was born on Grand river.

Q Near what place? A On Lynch's prairie.

Q How long after the war was it until you come down to Lynch's prairie? A How long after the war you ask me?

Q That is the question. A I don't know, something about like three or four years.

Q George Clark was living right near you then? A Yes, sir, George Clark was living there.

Q Then the only time you claim to have come back to the Cherokee Nation before that was when you were up on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived there you say about two or three months? A Yes sir.

Q Now, what kind of a house was that you moved into? A It was a log house.

Q Now, what direction from the old Polston was that log house that you moved into? A Well, if I am not mistaken and kinda turned around I say out south.

Q Did you go to the old place while you were there? A Polston place yes, sir.

Q Who was living there? A Dr. Polston.

Q Was his wife there with him? A Now, I am not right sure; let me think over that a little; yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Did she have any children there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know their names? A No, sir, I don't.

Q What did you do for a living down there? A Didn't do anything.

Q Do you remember any citizen you saw down around there? A No, sir. I don't remember any one.

Q Where did you get anything to eat? A Brought provisions with us.

Q And just camped out down there in a house? A No, sir, we lived down there in a house.

Cornelius Ridge, et al, 4.

Q You never worked for anybody? A Never done a day's work for anybody as I knows of.

Q Well, what year were you there? A We were there in the fall.

Q About what month? A Well, sir, I don't know hardly, I expect though it was in or near the month of October, September or October, somewhere along about there.

Q Were you up about that town there while you were down there on Honey Creek? A No, sir.

Q You didn't go to any town? A No, sir; what do you mean, South-west City?

Q Yes, sir. A No, sir, there wasn't no town there; we come right past there and there wasn't no town there.

Q Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house, any people living anywhere around you? A No, sir, none that I know of; none that I was acquainted with except Polston.

Q None except polston? A No, sir, that I can remember now.

Q You don't remember any of those Indians that were living about you? A No, sir; I don't remember, there was none living there as I know of.

Q Was there any field connected with your house you lived in?

A No, sir.

Q What did you get water out of, creek, spring or well?

A Spring.

Q What direction was the spring from the house? A Well, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't remember? A Appears to me though like the spring was east, not to be positive.

Q How far was the home place from Honey Creek? A I presume something near a mile and a half.

Q Were you north or south of the creek? A Well I would say south.

Q Dennis Hicks' wife your sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q Where was she born, before the war or after, and when? A She was born before the war, I don't know where she was born at.

Q Did she go this round with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your mother was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father? A Yes, sir; I think though Dennis' wife was born in Arkansas.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Well, now in all these round you went your father and mother and all the members of your family would go with them? A Yes, sir.

BY COTTER NEEDLES:

Q Well, you apply for your wife as an intermarried citizen, do you?

A Yes, sir.

Q When were you married to her? A I don't know sir, about '57 I guess.

Q Have you been living with her continuously since that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Living with her now? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What time did you say you came back? A From Missouri?
Q Yes. A In about three or four years I guess.
Q After you went up there? A Yes, sir.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Cornelius Ridge applies for the enrollment of himself and three children, Pearl, Jessie and Murtle, as Cherokee Freedmen; he also applies for the enrollment of his wife, Laura, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896, but he and his children are duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton pay roll, and he upon the Wallace roll. He avers that he was married to his wife, Laura, a state woman in the year 1867, and has lived with her continuously ever since that time. He makes satisfactorily proof as to his residence, and in this connection, as requested by Counsel that the testimony taken in the present case be made a part of the record in the application of Carrie Ficks who was listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedman card D #385, and it is ordered that the testimony taken in the application of Ratie Ridge for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, who was duly listed for enrollment on I. Card #295, be made part of the record in the present case and a copy of the same be filed in the case of the applicant, Cornelius Ridge. The said Cornelius Ridge and his children as enumerated herein will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card, and his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. The applicant will be notified by mail as to the final decision of the Commission.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 5th, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SALLIE MILLER as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Counsel for applicant;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SIMON MCKENZIE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Simon McKenzie.

Q Where do you live? A I live up Pryor Creek, about five miles north of Prior Creek.

Q What is your age? A I am 59.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here all my life, only few times I have been out of the Nation.

Q Well, you were out of the Nation; when you were out of the Nation what places were you in? A When I was out of the Nation I lived at Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q About what year did you live in Fort Scott, Kansas? A I lived from 1865 down to 1866, '67 and down to spring of '68.

Q During the years you lived there did you become acquainted with Sallie Miller, or Holt, or Walker? A Yes, sir, I was acquainted with one lady named at that time Sallie Holt.

Q Well, did you know her family at that time, her mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was her mother's name? A Aunt Easter Holt.

Q Did you know any of her brothers? A Tecumseh and I forget the other one's name, was another one.

Q Do you know whether it was Mose or Joshua? A Yes, sir, Mose and Joshua.

Q Did you know any of her sisters? A Yes, sir, but I forget their names.

Q Now, where were they living, if you know, during the years you lived at Fort Scott? A They lived in an old Government building
right in Fort Scott.

Q You went there in 1865? A In '65

Q How long had you been there before you knew these people, or got acquainted with them? A I was there about a month or two or three months, I could not state the time.

Q Well, where were they living when you left Fort Scott, Kansas, if you know? A Well, Aunt Easter was living in an old Government building.

Q Have you seen any of them since that time? A No, sir.

MR. MELLETTE: Now, Mr. McKenzie, you don't know that the woman who is an applicant here for enrollment is the woman whom you say you saw up at Fort Scott, Kansas, at the close of the war, do you?

A I don't know the woman.

Q You don't know that that is the same woman? A In the same name.

Q It is not the same name? A She name Holt.

Q Well, you don't know that this is the same woman that you knew up there, do you? A Well, it was a daughter of Easter Holt, it was a Sallie woman.

Q Well, you don't know anything about this applicant; you have never seen this applicant here? A I haven't seen her here.

Q Well, you have never seen her since she has made application here for enrollment have you? A No, sir.

Q Now, when did you leave Fort Scott, Kansas? A I left there early in '68, in the spring.

Q In the spring of '68? A Yes, sir.

Q What were you doing up there at Fort Scott? A I was working there at Fort Scott, for Billy Shanahan, stone mason, doing public work there.

Q Did you keep track of these colored people? A All I saw.

Q Did you ever testify in this case before? A I guess I did.

Q When? A Not long ago at Fort Gibson.

Q You give testimony up at Fort Gibson? A I think I did.

Q How long ago? A I don't know exactly whether it was last month.

Q How old are you, Mr. McKenzie? A I am 59.

Q Well, it has been 35 or 6 years ago then since you saw them up there at Kansas? A Yes, sir, I guess so, I never kept count of the time.

Q Well say 35; well, Mr. McKenzie, can you remember just about the time you saw these people up there 35 years ago? A Well, I guess I could remember it, I stated before.

Q There is no reason why you paid particular attention to them?

A No, just seeing them pass and repassing about.

Q You left there in the spring of '68? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, they could left there a year before that and you not remember it 35 years afterwards? A Didn't I saw they back and forth all the time I was up there, off and on.

Q Well, now, off and on there, you saw them? A Every week

Q Can you remember 35 years ago you saw these people every weeks?

A I guess so, I wouldn't be here if I didn't thought I could testify nothing.

Q Well, you feel because you are here you have to testify something?

A I don't know.

Q Well, I want to know if you can remember 35 years ago you saw these people every week? A I did while I was living in Fort Scott most every week.

Q Is it possible they might have left there a year before you did?

A If they did they went back in a short time.

Q What were you paying so particular attention to those people for?

A I could not tell you.

Q You just watched them? A Well, just seeing them pass and pass every day.

Q Who else did you see up there at Fort Scott? A Why I see good many.

Q What other colored people? A Good many. Good many other colored

Q ~~What~~ people, but I don't know their names.

Q Well, now, give the name of some other colored person you saw up there except this family? A I could not give their name.

Q There were a great many colored people in Fort Scott?

A Yes, sir.

Q And of all the colored people that was in Fort Scott this family is the only one you remember the names? A Yes, sir; of course I was passing there and some lived out in the country.

Q Well, who else lived in the Government building there?

A Good many families.

Q Good many families? A Yes, sir.

Q Why don't you remember the names of the other colored people?

A Because the boys I remember them, and part lived in town-

Q Why can't you remember the names of some other colored people you saw there some time? A Well, I could if I wanted to state the whole thing I can, there was Bill Thompson.

Q Who is Bill Thompson? A There he is (pointing to a man in the audience.)

- Q And who else was there? A Bill was blacksmith; Tom Brown.
Q Was it Tom Brown or Bill Brown? A Tom Brown.
Q When did they leave there? A I don't know.
Q Were they there when you left? A I don't know; they lived out at the edge of town; of course when I left town I went out about three miles of town and a family lived there by the name of Campbell, worked right there at Fort Scott. I know the whole generation if you will give me time to call the name over, the whole generation of them.
Q What makes you remember seeing these people there all the time you were there? A I saw them off and on, because I was working in town; Tom Brown was a blacksmith, worked in town.
Q When was the last time you remember seeing this Sallie Miller?
A Well, I saw when I left Fort Scott.
Q Did you see her the day you left? A No, sir; I didn't see her the day before I left.
Q How long before you left did you see her? A Oh, short time, maybe a week or two weeks.
Q You remember then of seeing her two weeks before you left?
A Yes, might have been two weeks, and maybe longer and not so long.
Q Maybe a year too? (No response.)
Q Was it a year? A No, sir, I don't think it was a year; if she left there at all she went west, went towards Mapleton.
Q How do you know she went to Mapleton? A Well, if she left at all.
Q What makes you think that? A That was the talk.
Q How was that? A That is why I found out by talking with her brother.
Q You got a letter? A No, sir, talking with her brother.
Q You are testifying to what her brother told you?
A That is how I found out where she went, if she went off at all.
Q That is the reason you are swearing that she was there all the time you were there? A No, sir; I know it.

WILLIAM MARGRAVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Margrave.
Q What is your age, Mr. Margrave? A My age is --130--about 82; I am away along in the 83 year.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Margrave? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A Since 1854.
Q Since you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you become acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts or Holt? A Yes, sir.
Q You know the old lady's name? A Yes, sir; do you mean the mother?
Q Yes, sir; what was her name? A Easter Holt.
Q How many of the children do you remember, Mr. Margrave? A Let's see, there was Mose, Cunch, Sallie and Josh.
Q When did you become acquainted with the family? A I am not positive, I think they came there along towards the close of the Civil war, if they didn't they came there very shortly afterwards.
Q Well, now, where did they live with reference to where your home was? A Well, most of the time they lived in, I should judge, about a hundred yards, except Mose he lived, after he married, he lived about 50 yards.
Q Well, now, where is Mose Holt living now, do you know?
A Lives right there by me in Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where Josh is living? A I do not, he has been away from there a good many years, I don't know how long.
Q Well, about how many years has it been since Josh moved away from there? A Of course that would be from guess work, something I never took no count of; I don't think he has made his home in Fort Scott for the last 15 years, I might not be correct about it.

Q About how long has it been since Tecumseh moved away from there?

Q That maybe all the way from five, sir, seven or eight years, not longer than that.

Q Well, when did Bettie leave there, about when did she leave?

A That is quite a while ago, I could not tell that.

Q Well, did Sallie Holt marry while she was up there? A Yes, married twice.

Q What was her first husband's name? A Walker he died and then she married a Miller.

Q Do you know what Miller's first name was, or what he was known by up there? A Stepney I believe it is.

Q Have you seen Sallie Miller, the applicant, since you been down here? A I saw her this morning, spoke to her.

Q Did you recognize her as the same woman you knew up there as Sallie Holt? A Well, she lived right there near me for I expect 30 years, I don't know that it was that long; of course I knew her as well as I knew anybody in Fort Scott.

Q About how long ago was it since Sallie left Fort Scott?

A Well, now, I can't tell you.

Q Well, you came from there in -. A Seven, eight or ten years.

Q Do you know where Aunt Raster Holt is living now, whether she is living or dead? A I saw her I think about a year ago up in Fort Scott, I have never heard of her dying.

Q When did she move away, if at all, from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A It comes to those dates-

Q About how long? A I would think it was six or seven years ago.

Q You got acquainted with this family as I understand you, sometime about the close of the war? A Yes, sir, I knew them by sight and afterwards got acquainted with them.

Q They afterwards lived right near you? A Yes, sir. It was right close to me, I don't think it was over a hundred yards from where I now live.

Q And they lived there then in your neighborhood from the time you got acquainted with them up until a few years ago? A Yes, just as I stated.

MR. MELLETT: Now, where was Sallie Miller in the fall of '65? A I don't think I could tell just that because-

Q Well, now, where was she in '66? A The family was there, I am satisfied they were in Fort Scott in '66.

Q I am talking about Sallie Miller now? A I know you do; one of the family might have went away.

Q You can't say that Sallie Miller, or Sallie Holt, was not here in the Cherokee Nation in 1866 can you? A No, sir, I can't; I know the family was living up there at that time. One of the family could go off and I would not know anything about that; go off and return again.

Q Isn't it a fact that she was down here in '66, and didn't go back up to Kansas for a couple of years after '66, about '68?

A No, I don't know.

Q You don't know? A No.

Q That might be true, might it not? A Yes, the family was there, I know they didn't all come here; might be such a thing as she did, of course not looking for a thing of that kind I might not know.

Q Well, these people might have come down in the Territory from time to time without you knowing their business, might they not, 35 years ago? A You mean one at the time?

Q Yes, or two at the time? A Of course they might.

Q Sallie Miller's husband died up there, one of them? A Walker.

Q Didn't she take some children back from here the first time she went back? A Children; I don't know anything about it.

JOHN FORBES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John Forbes.

Q What is your age, Mr. Forbes? A 56.

Q Where do you live? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 33 years.

Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the old lady's name, if you know Mr. Forbes? A I don't exactly know what the old lady's name was.

Q What was the children's names? A I have heard the names; well there was Mose and Josh and Mrs. Walker; well, there was one or two others.

Q Do you know whether her name was Sallie Walker or what her first name was? A Her name was Sallie Walker.

Q Did she marry a man by the name of Walker? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Walker at the time of his death, if you know?

A I don't know where he died, but I was informed that he died; that I don't know where he died, away or whether he died in Fort Scott.

Q Well, do you know whether or not she married after Walker's death?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she marry that time? A Man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you remember his first name? A Well, I have heard it called Step Miller.

Q What business did he follow? A Shoemaker.

Q Well, did you know any of her brothers or sisters that you remember the names of? A Well, there was Bet or Bit, I think that is it; and there was Mose and Josh.

Q Any one else you remember? A I think there was more than that.

Q Do you know where Mose Holt is living now? A Living at Fort Scott.

Q Do you know anything about where Josh is living? A No, sir.

Q About when did Josh Holt move away from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A Well, he moved away from there good many years ago, I don't know very well; I wasn't very well acquainted with him on that account.

Q Well, when did the applicant, Sallie Miller now, formerly Sallie Holt, move away from there? A I could not say, I think the best of my judgment it was eight or ten years ago, but I could not--after I got acquainted with them in '70, then I was personally acquainted with them after that.

Q Was the mother of them living there and keeping house when you got acquainted with them in '70? A I am not sure whether the mother was there, but she was there afterwards.

Q Do you know what became of Bettie whether she is living up there or alive? A No, I do not.

Q You don't remember what year they left but they left there a number of years after you got acquainted with them? A Yes, sir.

MR. MELLETT: Mr. Forbes, you don't know where these people, any of them, were in 1866, '67 or '8, do you? A No, sir.

Q Isn't it a fact that they came, after you knew them, that they came back and forth down here in the territory and back up to Kansas?

A I didn't know anything about that; I think I heard some of them talking about going down to Fort Smith or going from Fort Smith, or something when I got acquainted with them.

Q Fort Smith down here on the border? A Yes, sir; I wouldn't be positive of that; some little recollection in my mind but I wouldn't be positive.

JAMES BRIGHTEN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A James Brighten.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Brighten? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 20 years.
Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, have you become acquainted with a family of colored people by the name of Holt?

A Yes, sir.

Q What members of the family are you acquainted with? A I know Mose, Mose lives there now, well I think any other one, George Maybe.

Q Did you ever know any of the girls? A Oh, I have seen them, I don't know.

Q You are not very well acquainted with them? A I knowed Mose well and knowed where they lived well; no, I am not well acquainted with the lady folks.

Q Did you ever know the mother? A No, sir.

MR. MELLETTE: You don't know where the women folks made their homes, whether they made it here and visited up there, or where they really belonged, do you? A No, sir.

WILLIAM SEXTON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows: On part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Sexton.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Sexton? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I have lived at Fort Scott ever since '69.

Q Well, since you came to Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A I did.

Q Did you know the mother, the old lady, or reputed mother of the family? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Her name was Easter Holt.

Q What were the names of the children, or as many as you can remember? A There was one by the name of Mose, Josh, and Cums and Jennie and Sallie; that's as many as I recollect.

Q Well, did you know Sallie Holt, if she was a grown woman?

A Sallie she was a woman when I got acquainted with her.

Q Josh, was he grown when you got acquainted with him?

A No, sir, he was a young man.

Q Would you know Sallie Holt if you would see her now?

A Yes, sir.

Q I wish you would look back through the audience and see if you see her? A Yes, sir.

Q You recognize her as being the same woman, Sallie Holt, you knew?

A Same woman.

Q Did she marry while she was living up at Fort Scott? A She was married when I got acquainted with her.

Q Do you know what her husband's name was? A Her husband's name was Walker.

Q Do you know whether Walker is living or dead? A He died.

Q Well, did she marry again? A She did.

Q Do you know who she married? A She married a man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you know his first name? A Stepney.

Q What was his business? A He was a shoemaker up there.

Q You knew Josh too up there did you? A Yes, sir.

Q And Tecumseh? A Tecumseh.

Q Did you know any other girls of the family, was there any other girls that you remember? A I do not.

Q Do you know whether or not there was a girl by the name of Bettie?

A I wouldn't be positive but it appears to me there was.

Q Were they living in Fort Scott when you went there in '69, Mr. Sexton? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, about how long after you went there did they continue to live in Fort Scott? A Now, I could not say; I didn't pay particular attention, sometime they would leave and sometimes they was there.

Q Did they keep house while they were there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Sallie live there with Walker when he was living?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where is Mose living now? A Moses is living up there now.
Q About how long has it been since you remember of Josh and then living in Fort Scott? A Josh hasn't been there for some considerable time.
Q Well, about how long? A It has been, I should judge, some ten or 12 years.
Q Well, how long has it been since Tecumseh has been living there?
A She has lived there to the best of my recollection, it has been that long since I seen him there.
Q Do you know where he went when he left there? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether he went to Kansas City or not?
A No, sir, I do not.
Q Well, how long has it been since Sallie has been living there?
A I don't know.
Q Has she lived there any since she and Miller married? A Yes, sir.
MR. MELLETTE: Well, how long do you think it has been since Sallie Miller lived there regularly? A Well, now, I could not say positive, it has been since she left there regularly.
Q Well, isn't it a fact that she was back and forth ever since you have known her, to the territory and back to Kansas, would come down here a stay a while and go back to Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q That is true? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know where any of these people were in '66? '67 or '68?
A No, sir; I came to Scott in '69.
MR. DAVENPORT: And they were living there when you came?
A They was there when I came.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be made part of the record in Freedmen doubtful cases #953, #979, #980, #645, and in case of Bettie Hicks.

TESTIMONY ON THE PART OF CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:

Mr. Mellette, of Mellette & Smith, attorneys for appl't.

Mr. L.B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation,

and Mr. W.W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

W.H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.

Q What is your age? A 48.

Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living here when the war began? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.

Q How long did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.

Q Where did you come to? A Came to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.

Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey Creek? A About a mile and a half.

Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.

Q Well did you live there when the war began, or how come you to go on that place? A We lived on Whitewater in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from Dr. Polston, my father did.

Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.

Q Was there any town there at that time, near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over near the line that they called Honey Creek.

Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about 2 years.

Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.

Q And you left it? A Yes sir.

Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.

Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.

Q Were you acquainted with one Katie Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.

Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.

Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.

Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washbourn place at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Was there any Freedman living on that place by that name? A No sir.

Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.

Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 5 or 6 miles.

Q When did Dr. Polston <sup>occupy</sup> that place after you bought it from him or did he ever? A He went right on the place when we left it in '66.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville Arkansas.

Q Where was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place cash.

Q Now do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he come from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q How old a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when the, - no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washbourn place that you know of? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. NEEDLES:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 48 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1866, that right?

A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days?

A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 13 year-old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q The place are you talking about as the one that ~~was~~ colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly; the brakes of Honey Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 13 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q Then did you return? A In '65.

Q What time in '65? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Choctaw Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. BELL:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas on Mike Blevins' place,

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee nation in '66? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge cix (sup'1)3

MR. M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A M. M. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of a Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 9th article of the treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokees? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I knew them in Fayetteville, Arkansas

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Encous Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '58, spring of '58.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washbourn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q This home that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Vatie? A Yessir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Could you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there that I know of; she had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. MELLETT:

Q Mrs. Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until in '58 did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, say? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Vatie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all; they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge's brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you ~~again~~ became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my present husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.

Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I ~~left~~ lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.

Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?

Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Why it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.

Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri, - I saw her husband.

Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.

Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.

Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; ~~at~~ I didn't see any of his family at that time.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.

Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Watie place. That's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, I was horseback and met the wagon; I was with Stan Watie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN R. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. PHILL:

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Grow is my post-office; my name is John R. Shields; my age is 53.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A I guess not.

Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right somehow or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of these that got behind. I am not a citizen myself at all.

Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Line Road", line between the Cherokee nation and Missouri.

Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.

Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.

Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the Creek; there was no town or village there at all.

Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.

Q Who was the first man that went there? A Alex Strothers and J.F. Lawrence were the first men to put up stores.

Q Was there a post-office established there? A Well they kept a post-office there in the store, in the hands of Mr. Strothers I think the post-office was handled.

Q Well the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge (sup'l) 5

Q What was the place called then? A Honey Creek. did it
Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.
Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years
perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when,
I do not recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. MELLETTE: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M.
Bell, aged 69, post-office Needmore, or Vinita, either one.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation are you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee Nation? A Well with the exception of a few intervals I have been here since '39.
Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.
Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.
Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware
District.
Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.
Q Name what they were if you can do it? A ~~His first~~ His first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rolen Ridge was the next, Herman, Eneous, Andrew, Susan Washbourn, Flora Polston, constituted
the family.
Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee Nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.
Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.
Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '60 sometime, that
I was there.
Q That in Benton County? A In Benton County.
Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.
Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.
Q You were acquainted with Herman Ridge were you? A Yes sir.
Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?
He was between 25 and 30; he was 25 I reckon; between that and 30.
Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '63 I believe, or
'62, in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.
Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man; had no family of his own.
Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.
Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.
Q ~~How~~ Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.
Q Do you know of his ever having a farm, location or home or residation in the Cherokee Nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.
Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes
sir.
Q They were closely related to you were they? A Yes sir.
Q By blood, friendship, social matters or what? A It is my understanding that we are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

BY MR. BELLETTE:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district down here near Stilwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware district.

Q That is in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q Now were you there and know all about this personally; did you see that? A I saw Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family?

Q Yes. A Left the country on that account, that's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q All you know is that they were out of the Territory? A Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you now if a Mrs. Ridge, the mother of Herman Ridge, who lived in Benton County, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back and forth from where she was to their farm to keep it up? A I know nothing of that.

Q Didn't she take supplies from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville to live on? A She might have done so, but I knew nothing of that.

JOHN W. NEEDLES, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELLETTE:

Q What is your name? A L.B. Bell, 62 years old, Vinita.

Q Where were you born? A Well I was born in the State of Georgia I guess, Haversham County, they tell me; I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation here? A Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Adair farm in 1843 when the whole world was flooded, I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '44.

Q Do you remember the Ridge family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A Yes, I know what they called the old Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A Oh lots of times.

Q Now who lived there, occupied it? A Old Peter, -the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he killed a man there and run off and had to go to California, left there and never came back any more. Then an old man named Peter, an old slave of his that he had there, remained on the place 5 or 6 years, then it passed into the hands of Dr. Polston, who married Flora, the youngest girl of John Ridges family; they lived there until '61 probably lived there 3 or or 4 years.

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge so far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first; next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he come and joined our command, that is the Confederate Army, General Watie was a kinsman of his and he joined the 11 regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, - his wife died in about 1868; his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee nation in the conduct of these Freedmen cases: are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. MELLETTTE: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. MELL:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, keep this Katie up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time ~~that~~ ~~you~~ there while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q Now the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee Nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A ~~At Fayetteville~~ Fayetteville?

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I knew her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn who was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville? A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Ridge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went; I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the Territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Ridge family in '58? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen is he not? A He is not living now.

Q He did move back into here as a citizen after the war? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if they were not temporarily outside of the Cherokee Nation because it was unsafe for them to live in the Cherokee

Kate Ridge (sup'1) 3

okee Nation? A Well I don't know; I know they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

BY R. EASTINGS:

Q You don't know what legal steps were taken by these people, Washbarns and Polstons to re-establish their citizenship? A No sir.

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES: The testimony will be filed in Kate Ridge, Cherokee Freedman D 295, and D 355 and D 586, and D 589 and D 300, D 360, D 361, D 362 and D 358.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES
FILED
AUG 1 1902

902
ACTING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F. D. 438, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Katie Hicks, D 361;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitacre, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

-----
The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

affidavit showing the birth, on February 13, 1902, of Beatrice Curls, child of the applicant, Riley Curls; and by Ophelia Thompson for herself and minor children, Alpha, Libbie, Hirschel, Harvey and Clyde Thompson.

Copies of the following testimony, decisions, and Departmental letters are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case: Its decision rendered by the Commission on March 3, 1904, and Departmental letter of May 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 3470-C4), in the case of Ed Vann, C.F.D. 660; its decisions rendered by the Commission on July 10, 1903, and June 23, 1904, and of Departmental letters of May 11, and November 12, 1904 (I.T.D. 2412, 5594-C4), in the cases of Jesse Vann et al., C.F.D. 252 (R 302), and Emma Purtle C.F.D. 266; its decisions rendered by the Commission on March 5, and April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letters of June 2, 23, and 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 4386, 5029-5034-C4), in the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645 (R 443), Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653 (R 399), William Holt, C.F.D. 694 (R 398), and Moses Holt, C.F.D. 166; its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of June 21, 1904 (I.T.D. 4733-C4); in the consolidated case of Katie Thornton et al., C.F.D. 578 et al., (R. 410-R 411-R 412-R 413-R 414); of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, June 8, 1901, its decision rendered by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letter of October 31, 1904, (I.T.D. 8138-C4), in the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell, et al., including, among others, the application of Mary Riley, C.F.D. 624; of its decision rendered by the Commission on November 23, 1904, in the consolidated case of Andrew T. Watie, C.F.D. 502, et al., and of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Edward Derrick, C.F.D. 818, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, Elizabeth Peigs, et al., C.F.D. 391, Samuel Beck, et al., C.F.D. 775, David Johnson, C.F.D. 356, Abraham Ward, C.F.D. 607 (R 223), and of Peter Ward, C.F.D. 615, (R 262).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge and Freddie Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge, and one Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks Sr., D 355, infra.), both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Williams, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicants, Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and to the said Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Pearl, Jesse, Martie and Henry C. Ridge, and Ida Jones, are children of the said applicants, Cornelius and Laura Ridge, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the applicants, Joseph, Percy, Herbert, Merena and Pearl Milton, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, and William Townsend, are children of the applicant Phoebe Johnson, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother; that the applicants, Lee, Eddie, and Stella Martin and Cornelias Jones, are children of the applicant Ida Jones, were born since 1866, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said applicants Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin, possess any rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother, and the applicant Cornelias Jones, possesses no rights to enrollment other than as his mother's descendants; that the applicant Elmore Vann, is a child of the applicant Ary Lynch, and the said Jesse Ridge, deceased, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; that the applicant Jesse Barnett, is a child of the applicant Maud Riley, was born since 1866, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said Jesse Barnett, possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said mother, and that the applicant John S. Riley, is a child of the said applicant Maud Riley, and one William Riley, (said William Riley's rights to enrollment are considered below, U. S. D. 363), was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said parents; that the applicant Josephine Vann, is a child of the said applicant Rosa Vann, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother (In U. S. D. 560, the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 17, 1904, Departmental letter U. S. D. 3476-04, said finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant Lollie Townsend, is a daughter of one Jesse Vann, and one Rosa Partle, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In U. S. D. 234 and 205 the Commission found that the said Jesse Vann and Rosa Partle possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on May 11, and November 12, 1904, Departmental letters U. S. D. 3512-3594-04, said findings were approved by the Department); and that the applicants, Rosa, George and Arthur Townsend, are children of the said applicants William and Lollie Townsend, were born since 1866, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicants Lettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Lettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, (children of One Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, supra., for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation; that the applicants, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel, and Elmer Hicks, Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Meeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank and Luella Johnson (In C.F.D. 855 the Commission found that one Charlotte Beck, mother of the applicant, Luella Johnson, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on July 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Elize and Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, Anna Tutler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, and Katie Davis, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie and Susie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, Nettie Downing, deceased, and Mary Ridge, deceased, (In re Mary Ridge see preceding paragraph), and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants.

THE EVIDENCE FURTHER SHOWS: That one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased, were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria and Millie McNair, all deceased, and the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and the applicants, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Ellick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson, and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree, for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicant, Ruth Riley, is a daughter of Henry Thornton, deceased, and Fattie Thornton, was born since 1864, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 578, 580 and 581, the Commission found that the said Katie Thornton and one Maggie Curls and one Joseph Thornton, full sister and brother of the said applicant, Ruth Riley, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on June 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant, Hannah Riley, was born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, and was the slave of a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion; and that the applicants, Lillie

Nathaniel, Joseph, Ollie, Viola, Mabel, Elnora, Ideller, Luther D., Frank, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola, Earl E., Clarence (In C. F. D. 624, the Commission found that one Mary Riley, wife of the applicant Frank Riley, and mother of the applicants, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola and Earl E. Riley, and grandmother of the applicant, Clarence Riley, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on October 31, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Samuel, James E., Amanda, Mariah, Maggie, Calvin, Bertha, Ada and Leona Riley, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie and Jimmie Scott, Delilah, Allie, Luman, Jesse, Alfred, Nola, Della, Ella, Harrison, Rebecca, Lufer, Wilbert and Arch Johnson, Henrietta, Irvin, Harry, Roy, Dan, Effie, Troy, Jesse and Maine Ward, Lenora Odine Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J., and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth and Elnora Melton, Julius, Riley, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Beatrice Curls, (One Nancy Curls, C.F.D. 429, who was denied enrollment by the Commission is the mother of the six last mentioned applicants), Ophelia, Alpha, Bibbie, Hirschel, Harvey, and Clyde Thompson, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Jerry, Jane, Ruth and Hannah Riley, Fannie Scott, Lottie Johnson, Daniel and Sandy Thompson, and Ellick and Amanda Ward, and of the said Riley McNair, deceased, Maria McNair, deceased, and Millie McNair, deceased, Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as such descendants.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the first below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any of the said applicants herein born during or subsequent to the said first below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and none of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

THE EVIDENCE HEREIN FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, died prior to September 1, 1900, Affidavits to that effect are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

The applicants, Katie and Cornelius Ridge and Encete Johnson, testify that they, together with Mary and Jesse Edge, both deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1861, remained a few months, and then removed to Joplin, Missouri, where they resided for a number of years. That they returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 is controverted by the testimony of witnesses who were in a position to know the matters of which they testify. In view of the fact that the burden of proof is on the applicants and they must show by satisfactory evidence that their rights to enrollment are perfect, it is considered that these applicants have wholly failed in this, and that their applications come within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryans, et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers, (I.T.D. 2398-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Martha Albert et al., (I.T.D. 4732-04), and Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04); and, granting that said above named parties did return to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, as contended, it is further considered that they did not establish such a residence in said Nation as was contemplated by the treaty of 1866, and are, therefore, within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales and Susan Brown (I.T.D. 1850-04), and Thomas Mayfield et al. (I.T.D. 6968-04).

The testimony in re return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, of the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, and Sallie Miller, and of the said Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Bettie Downing, deceased, is contradictory in itself, and contradicted by the testimony of witnesses in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, hence, it is unsatisfactory, and the first above mentioned rulings of the Department are considered applicable. In this connection attention is called to the cases of Esther Holt, I.T.D. 645, Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653, William Holt, C.F.D. 694, and Moses Holt, C.F.R. 185, mother and brothers of the three applicants first named in this paragraph. The material facts as established by the evidence in the several cases embracing this family, are practically the same, and the Commission found that the said Esther, Tecumseh, William and Moses Holt, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and its findings were duly approved by the Department. Granting that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and the said Buck Bushyhead and Bettie Downing, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the interval between the close of the rebellion and February 11, 1869, they must have remained but a short time, as, by the testimony of the applicants themselves, and that of disinterested witnesses, it is shown that during a period beginning immediately subsequent to the year 1867, they, for a number of years, continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, consequently, the ruling of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales, Susan Brown and Thomas Mayfield, et al., supra., is also applicable to them.

Sam Webber, Lewis Whitmire, and Daniel and Reuben Sanders, testify that Anderson Johnson returned to the Cherokee Nation with them in the summer of 1866, but for reasons more fully set out below, it is not considered that their testimony is either convincing or satisfactory. That these four witnesses complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, there is no doubt. They were admitted to citizenship by the Chambers Court, and are admitted on the 1880 roll. Without calling attention to the many cases in which the above named witnesses have been successfully impeached and repeatedly impeached, it is considered by the Commission that, after hearing the testimony of numerous witnesses, interested and disinterested, and after the examination of their exhibits filed and made a part of the record in freedmen cases, it can identify each and every member of the party of the year known as the Webber-Whitmire-Sanders detachment, or colony, who complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, and it is fully convinced that Anderson Johnson was not a member of that party. In support of this position attention is called to the fact that the personnel of the above mentioned party was thoroughly gone into by the Chambers Court, in 1878-9, and numerous witnesses, among others, the said Lewis Whitmire, examined on behalf of both parties, and that, too, at a time when the facts must have been fresh in their minds, and no particular advantage was to be had by misrepresenting who were included in said party, with one accord testify as to who composed this colony of freedmen, and the said Anderson Johnson is never named as one of them. By reason of changed conditions, the experience of the former Commission and of this office, in their investigations relative to the personnel of said colony of freedmen, has been somewhat different from that of the Chambers Court, but generally the conclusions reached have been the same. It seems to have been the policy of those witnesses appearing before the Commission, who were members of the above mentioned colony of freedmen, to add to said colony as occasion required, but after an examination of a great number of freedmen cases in which the above named witnesses testified, it cannot be found that they ever included Anderson Johnson as a member of this colony until they were called upon as witnesses in behalf of his descendants, although they were often asked to, and as often did, name those who returned with them in 1866.

As to the return of Riley McNair, deceased, to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion: Moses Hardrick, father of the descendants of the said Riley McNair, testified that after the rebellion, he and Riley McNair returned to the Cherokee Nation together. In C.F.D. 314, the Commission found that the said Moses Hardrick did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on October 1, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. It was found that after the above indicated trip before Riley McNair returned to his family to the Cherokee Nation. One Emma Purtle, daughter of the said Riley and Maria McNair, removed from the Cherokee Nation during the rebellion, and returned thereto after the rebellion, to her father's family. In C.F.D. 265, the Commission found that the said Emma Purtle did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 12, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. The said Columbus Rogers, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, with the said McNair-Riley family.

The applicant, Jane Riley, testifies that she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1863, and is corroborated by her witness, Jack Landrum. No credit can be given the testimony of the said Jack Landrum, as he has been repeatedly contradicted and impeached, (See, in particular, C. F. D. 493-D 664 and D 863). In C. F. D. 578 ( R 410 ), he swore, point blank, that Katie Thornton, applicant therein, and her husband, Henry Thornton, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the winter of 1863, and that he hauled logs to help build their house. In this case it was conclusively shown by the testimony of disinterested witnesses, that the said Katie and Henry Thornton did not leave Garnett, Kansas, after the rebellion, prior to March 1, 1871, and on this testimony the Commission denied the applicant, Katie Thornton, the right to enrollment, and its action was duly approved by the Department. Attention is further called to the fact that the said applicant, Jane Riley, and one Ben Landrum, deceased, are the parents of the applicants Charles Landrum and Bettie McIntosh, and that the said two last named applicants were born in 1866 and 1868, respectively. It is shown by the testimony of several disinterested witnesses, and a certified copy of the record of certain proceedings had before the District Court of Woodson County, Kansas, that the said Ben Landrum, continuously lived near Garnett, Kansas, during the years 1863, '67 and '68.

The applicant Daniel Thompson, testifies that on his return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, he found his son, Andrew Watie, at Fort Gibson. In C. F. D. 502, the Commission found that the said Andrew Watie did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitmire decree. The applicants Sandy Thompson and Amanda Ward, returned with their father, the said Daniel Thompson.

In connection with these applicants herein who claim through Jess Ridge, deceased, and the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Henry Ridge, Daniel Thompson, and Robert Foster, attention is called to the fact that the Commission on Cherokee Citizenship of 1893-9, decided that the said Jess Ridge, since deceased, and the four applicants last above named, were not entitled to Cherokee citizenship, a certified copy of the proceedings of said Commission in re above named parties, being filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The applicant, Ellick Ward, swears that he was raised by one Peter Ward, and after the rebellion returned to the Cherokee Nation with the said Peter Ward and one Abraham Ward. In C. F. D. 113 ( R 282 ), and D 607 ( R 283 ), the Commission found that the said Peter and Abraham Ward did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on April 29, 1904, its findings were approved by the Department.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I. T. D. 5643, 11776-04), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, by Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted Mattie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, and Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe (Milton) Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, and Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett and John C. Riley, Rosa Vann and Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Mollie Townsend, Rosa Townsend, George Townsend, and Arthur Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks and Elmer Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Sallie Miller, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett and Willie Chinnett, Frank Johnson and Luella Johnson, Eliza Hawkins and Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, Mattie Davis, Moses Riley, Lillie Riley, Andrew Riley, Nathaniel Riley, Jesse Riley, Joseph Riley, Ollie Riley, Viola Riley, Mabel Riley, Elnora Riley, Ideller Riley, Luther D. Riley, Frank Riley, Lottie Riley, Fannie Riley, James Riley, Ralph Riley, Arizona Riley, Inola Riley, Earl E. Riley, Clarence Riley, Jerry Riley, Samuel Riley, James E. Riley, Amanda Riley, Mariah Riley, Maggie Riley, Calvin Riley, Bertha Riley, Ada Riley, and Leona Riley, Fannie Scott, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie Scott, and Jimmie Scott, Delilah Johnson, Allie Johnson, Luman Johnson, Jesse Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Nola Johnson, Della Johnson, Ella Johnson, Harrison Johnson, Lottie Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Luford Johnson, Wilbert Johnson and Arch Johnson, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick Ward, Amanda Ward, Henrietta Ward, Irvin Ward, Harry Ward, Roy Ward, Dan Ward, Effie Ward, Troy Ward, Jesse Ward and Faine Ward, Sandy Thompson, Ruth Riley, Lenora Odine Riley, and Hannah Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J. Wagner and Oval Wagner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth Melton and Elnora Melton, Julius Curls, Riley Curls, Willie Curls, Edward Curls, James Curls, George Curls, Stephenia Curls and Beatrice Curls, Ophelia Thompson, Alpha Thompson, Libbie Thompson, Hirschel Thompson, Harvey Thompson and Clyde Thompson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the applications for the enrollment of Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, do, and the same are, hereby dismissed, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716).

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications
for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Katie Ridge for herself; by Cornelius Ridge for himself, and children, Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle
Ridge, and his wife, Laura Ridge as a citizen by intermarriage;
by Phoebe Johnson for herself and minor children, Joseph, Percy,

Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton; by Henry C. Ridge for himself; by Ida Jones for herself and minor children, Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin. Thereafter, on June 27, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on June 3, 1902, of Cornelias Jones, child of the applicant, Ida Jones; by Charles J. Lynch for, among others, his wife, Ary Lynch, as a citizen by intermarriage. The others included in said application have been heretofore disposed of, and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Walter Vann for, among others, his wife, Elvora Vann; the others included in said application have been otherwise disposed of and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Maud Riley for herself and minor child, Jesse Barnett. Thereafter, on April 2, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on October 26, 1901, of John E. Riley, child of the applicant, Maud Riley; by Rosa Vann for herself and minor child Josephine Vann; by William Townsend for himself; by Dennis Hicks Sr., for himself, by intermarriage, and his wife, Bettie Hicks and minor children, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks; by Eliza Hawkins for herself and minor child, Tyndie S. Hawkins; by Joseph Hicks for himself and wife, Susie Hicks (by intermarriage), and minor child, Otto A. Hicks; by Katie Hicks for herself; by James A. Hicks for himself; by Joshua Holt for himself and wife, Jane Holt, and minor stepchildren, Laura and Ella Benson, and minor children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucellia (Maucellia) Holt; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Ruth Chinnett for herself and minor children, Martha, and Lillie Chinnett; subsequent to filing her application herein and prior to September 1, 1902, the applicant Ruth Chinnett was married to one George Vann, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Ruth Vann; by Frank Johnson for himself. Thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on February 7, 1902, of Luella Johnson, child of the applicant Frank Johnson; and by Frances Johnson for herself and minor children, Mattie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson.

The records of this office further show that on October 18, 1901, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision herein, denying, among others, all of said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen and citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, which decision was duly forwarded to the Department, and that, thereafter, on July 9, 1902 (I.T.D. 17 4-1902), motions having been filed with the Department for a rehearing of this case, the same was remanded to the Commissioner for rehearing and final adjudication, the Department stating that it "considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under Article 1 of the treaty of 1866."

In accordance with this direction the Commissioner consolidated the following cases, and further proceedings were had therein at Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 14, 1902; Mattie Ridge, D 280; Cornelius Ridge et al. D 281; Phoebe Johnson et al. D 282; Henry C. Ridge D 63; Ida Jones et al. D 647; Ary Lynch R 70; Elvora Vann R 113; Maud Riley et al. D 591; Rosa Vann et al. D 594; William Townsend D 636; Leroy Hicks et al. D 638; Eliza Hawkins et al. D 639; Joseph Hicks et al. D 640; Katie Hicks D 311; and James A. Hicks D 362.

Although the principal applicants included herein other than the applicants in the above mentioned consolidated case, and their attorneys, have several times been notified by letter and in person, of the Department's action in remanding their cases for rehearing, and to submit such evidence as they desired to present in their behalf, they have failed to do so. Their rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen will therefore be adjudicated in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge and one Mary Ridge, both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion and did not return thereto and establish an actual, personal, bona fide residence therein as provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 25, 1906 (34 Stat. 157); that the applicants Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch and Susie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than by reason of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and the said Jesse Ridge deceased, and the applicant Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge and Joseph, Percy Herbert, Serena, and Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida and Cornelius Jones, Elmore Vann, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann (In C. F. D. 350 the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 7, 1904-I.T.D. 3470-1904- said finding was approved by the Department), William Townsend, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Sabel and Elmer Hicks, (Their father, Dennis Hicks, case D 350 infra.) Eliza and Tyndie S. Jenkins Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, were born since 1865 and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen except as descendants of the said Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of Jesse Hicks and Mary Ridge (Hicks) deceased.

After ample opportunity afforded the applicants, Lee Eddie and Stella Martin and Jesse Barnett, it is not shown by satisfactory evidence that they possess any right to enrollment other than as descendants of their mothers, the said Ida Jones and Maud. The minor applicant John C. Riley is a child of William Riley, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was rejected by the Commissioner on February 27, 1907, and the applicant herein, Maud Riley, and possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman other than as a descendant of his said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicant, Dennis Hicks Sr., neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than by virtue of his marriage to the applicant, Bettie Hicks; that the applicants Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Anderson Johnson, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 25, 1906, that the applicants Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Reeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Maucellia (Maecellia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson (In C.F.D. 353 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, on April 22, 1905, that Rebecca Webber, mother of Frank Johnson, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and its finding was approved by the Department June 28, 1906-I.T.D. 7712-3646-1906), and Frances Wattie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, were born since the war of the rebellion; are descendants of the applicants Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie Hicks and Joshua Holt, and of Anderson Johnson deceased, and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants. The applicant Luella Johnson, is a child of the said Frank Johnson and Charlotte Johnson, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on July 21, 1904 and its action affirmed by the Department September 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7192-7493-1904). No one of the applicants herein nor any ancestor through whom they claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, can be identified on the Cherokee authentic tribal roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I.T.D. 5848-11776-1904), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 493), Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelius Jones, Elmore Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rena Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr. Talena Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndle H. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucelia (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Wattie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 536, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 ( I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907. *

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father the said Cornelius Ridge had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman *

October 13, 1906, the Commissioner decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Jesse Ridge, deceased, and Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks, Sr), deceased; that they were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation, during the War, and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that the applicants, Laura Ridge, and Amy Lynch neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than those obtained by marriage to the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Dennis Hicks, Sr., and Susie Hicks neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than by virtue of their marriage to Bettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Gellie Miller (children of one Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion; were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the War, and did not return on or before February 11, 1867; that one Riley McHair and one Maria McHair, both deceased were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Willie McHair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria, and Willie McHair, all deceased, and Moses, Andrew, Jesse, and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that all the other applicants were born since 1866, are descendants of the foregoing and possess no rights to enrollment except as such descendants, or have failed after ample opportunity afforded to establish such a right. None is identified on the 1860 authenticated Cherokee roll, or the Cherokee census roll of 1896, nor can an ancestor be so identified.

There is also enclosed a letter from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitting a motion in behalf of the applicants and three communications from G. F. Fogle enclosing motions in their behalf which have been carefully considered.

In view of the record the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On October 13, 1905, you transmitted the record, together with your decision of the same date, in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of Katie Ridge et al. (Cherokee freedmen D. 295). Said decision was adverse to all the applicants.

Reporting December 22, 1905, the Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The attorneys for the applicants have filed a number of motions and briefs in this case, and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation has filed his answer.

A consideration of these motions, together with the record, leads the Department to the opinion that the case should be remanded for a further hearing.

The Department considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under article 9 of the treaty of 1866, being first those persons and their descendants who returned from the neighborhood of Joplin, Mo.; second, those who returned from near Fort Scott, Kans., and third, those who returned from Garnett, Kans.

Having divided this case along the lines indicated, you will permit the attorneys for the applicants and for the nation to submit such proper evidence as they may see fit regarding the rights of these applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

The record is returned.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos Ryan

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Jr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Berona Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Addie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelius Jones, Elvora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks, Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Perkins, Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Yane Holt, Laura Beason, Ella Beason, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Marcella (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedmen, together with the decision of the Commissioner, dated February 26, 1907, rejecting said application.

Secretary 2-

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 586, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Knock Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57606-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father, the said Cornelius Ridge, has "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

Secretary--3

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman citizenship, the case of Knock Daniels, et al., Cherokee freedman 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, be reopened, and the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee Freedman citizenship, be reversed.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

March 4, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated February 28, 1907, relative to applications for the enrollment of Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks, Sr., Susie Hicks, Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Serena Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elnora Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Bettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks, Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Hawkins, Tyndle E. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson as Cherokee freedmen, together with the decision of the Commissioner of February 28, 1907, rejecting the applications.

The Office has examined the record in this case and finds the conclusions of the Commissioner to be correct, and recommends that his decision be approved.

In connection herewith the Commissioner invites attention to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, wherein the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-1904), found that one Laura Daniels (nee Ridge), daughter of Cornelius Ridge, a party applicant herein, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Department on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

Mr. Bixby now reports that Laura Daniels was born since 1866 and that her right to enrollment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrollment by the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman."

This being an error, as indicated by the case herewith transmitted, the Commissioner now recommends that the Department reverse its decision in the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., so far as it relates to Laura Daniels, and that her name be stricken from the roll.

The Office concurs in this recommendation.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On March 4, 1907 (Land 21941-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated February 28, 1907, relative to proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrolment of Laura (Katie) Ridge, et al., together with your decision of the same date rejecting the application.

The Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department considers said decision correct and it is hereby affirmed.

In connection herewith you call attention to one Laura Daniels, a party applicant in this case, who appears on a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907. You report that she was enrolled and that her enrolment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrolment in the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman". You state that this is an error and you recommend that if the Department affirm your decision as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee citizenship that the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., be reopened and that the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee freedmanship, be reversed.

In accordance with your recommendation the Department rescinds its decision and reverses your decision in the case of Enoch Daniels in so far as said decisions apply to the enrolment of Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, and her name is canceled from the roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907, as of this date.

Your office and the Indian Office are requested to make your records conform to this action.

The papers in the case, together with a carbon copy hereof, have been sent to the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

In the matter of the application of James A. Hicks for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman; he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A. James A. Hicks.
Q How old are you? A. 26.
Q What is your post office? A. Vinita.
Q In what district do you live in? A. Delaware.
Q Do you want to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A. Yes sir.
Q Who do you want to have enrolled besides yourself? A. No one.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. All my life.
Q Give me the name of your father? A. Dennis Hicks.
Q Is he alive? A. Yes sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A. Mary.
Q Is she dead? A. Yes sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A. About 5 years.
Q Are you upon the Kerns-Clifton and Wallace rolls? A. Yes sir.
Q Are you on the 1880 and 1896 rolls? A. No sir.

Rolls of 1880 and 1896 examined, applicant not found thereon.

Kerns-Clifton roll examined, applicant found as follows:
Page 180, No 2873, Jim Hicks, Delaware district.

Wallace roll examined, applicant identified as follows:
Page 112 No., 2487, James A. Hicks, Cooweescoowee district.

DENNIS HICKS, called and sworn as a witness, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A. Dennis Hicks.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., May 12, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Dennis Hicks for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and five children as Cherokee Freedmen.

Dennis Hicks, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A Dennis Hicks.
Q How old are you? A I am 52 years old the 15th of June.
Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee; well I live in Saline, or Delaware it is; my home is in Cooweescoowee.
Q Do you want to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir, not unless you will accept my certificate; I am not a freedman.
Q You want to apply? A Yes, sir, I want to apply.
Q As a Freedman? A No, sir, intermarried.
Q You are an African are you? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is it you want to apply for besides yourself? A Five minor children.
Q And have you a wife you want to apply for? A She will apply for herself I guess.
Q We would rather the family would come together? A Well.
Q You apply for yourself, your wife and five minor children? A Yes, sir, the wife of them children though is dead.
Q You apply for yourself as an intermarried man do you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here since 1872.
Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
Q Give us the name of your first wife? A Mary Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q What was she, a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you and her marry? A 1872.
Q How long has she been dead? A Been dead four years.
Q Did you and she live together until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of her father? A Henry Ridge.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A About 18 years.
Q Give us the name of her mother? A Katie Ridge.
Q Is she dead? A No, sir.
Q Did you get out a Cherokee license when you married this woman? A Later on I did; a preacher married me in the first place.
Q Have you that license? A Yes, sir.
- Commissioner: The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee district, December 12, 1892, as well as it can be made out, authorizing marriage between himself and Mrs. Mary Hicks, nee Ridge. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the 12th day of December, 1892, by the Rev. A. W. Lewis, and it is endorsed as having been recorded on the 22th day of December, 1892. This is filed here.
- W. J. Gibbons*, Cherokee attorney: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation present protest against the introduction of the marriage certificate, under §659, page 329, of the Compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1892.
- Commissioner: This protest will be considered in the final determination of the case.
- Q Now give me the name of your second wife? A Her name is Bettie Holt.
Q Is she living now? A Yes, sir.
Q Was this first wife ever married except to you? A No, sir.

Q How old is your present wife? A She is 56 years old.
 Q When were you and she married? A About 2 years ago.
 Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A I have at this Court down here, I haven't it with me, it is down at the house.
 Q You claim that Bettie Holt is a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you how long, all her life though pretty near I suppose.
 Q Give me the name of her father? A I don't know him, sir.
 Q Give me the name of her mother? A Her name is Master Hill.
 Q Is she alive? A Yes, sir.
 Q Was this wife ever married before she married you? A What I think so, I don't know.
 Q Give me the names of these children, begin with the oldest; these five children.
 Q Commence at Leroy Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A He is about 19 years old.
 Q What is the next child? A Dennis Hicks, Jr.
 Q How old is Dennis? A Dennis is about 17, going on 18 I believe he is.
 Q Give me the name of the next child? A The next one is Delena Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A She is about, I think she is at 14 years old.
 Q Give me the name of the next child? A Label Hicks.
 Q How old is that child? A She is about 12.
 Q The next child? A Elmer.
 Q How old is that child? A Nine, going on 10.
 Q Are these children all living now? A Yes, sir, all at home.
 Q Are these children of your first wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q Are you on any roll of the Cherokee Nation? A No myself, no sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the applicant Dennis Hicks, nor Mary, his first wife, not identified on said roll.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and applicants not identified thereon.

Q Did your wife ever draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you draw Cherokee strip money? A Yes for these children?
 A Yes, sir; no, sir, they didn't give her this last money; the children did.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Dennis Hicks not on said rolls.

Mary Hicks not on said roll.

Leroy Hicks on page 120 No. 2976, Delaware District;
 Dennis Hicks, Jr., on page 120, No. 2977, Delaware district;
 as Dennis Hicks.

Delena Hicks on page 120, No. 2978, Delaware District as Delaney Hicks.

Label Hicks on page 120 No. 2979, Delaware district.

Elmer Hicks on page 120, No. 2980, Delaware district.

The 1880 authenticated roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined, and the name of Bettie Hicks not identified thereon.

The Kerns-Clifton roll examined, and the applicant Bettie Hicks identified thereon, page 163, No. 4038, Coowascoowee district, as Bettie Holt.

Commissioner: What I would like particularly to know at this point is the status of the applicant's first wife, whereby hinges whatever claim he may have as an intermarried man and the claims of all these children.

Mr. Edgar Smith, attorney for applicant: That is what I want to clear up.

Mr. Smith: Who was your first wife? A Mary Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Katie Ridge.
 Q Who was her father? A Henry Ridge.
 Q Did she have any sisters or brothers? A Yes, sir.
 Q Who were her sisters and brothers? A Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Ridge, and Jesse Ridge, he is dead though.
 Q Do you know Katie Ridge yourself? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long have you known her? A I knowed her first in time of the war.
 Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on the river.
 Q What river? A Grand river.
 Q How far from Vinita? A About 16, about 18 miles.
 Q Has she been here during the sitting of the Commission at this place? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know whether she made an application for the enrollment of herself or not? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long did you and your wife live together here in the Cherokee Nation? A We lived together about 29 years in all; no, we lived together, been 29 years since we married; it is about 29 or '7 years.
 Q Was that up to the time of her death? A Yes, sir, up to the time she died.
 Q Where did she die? A Here in Vinita; I don't know just exactly how many years.
 Q You yourself don't know where your wife was during the war or in 1866? A Why she was during the war at Springfield.
 Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge when she came back? A They came back right after the war; they left the place where they were and said they were coming to the Nation, that is all I know about it.
 Q What place was that? A Springfield, out in the country about four miles from Springfield; we lived right on the same house; we lived in that house about a year together.
 Q When was it they said that, when did they leave and tell you they were coming back? A The year after they brought sperm in down here to cotton for the Indians, my father-in-law was hauling corn down here in stinks for them, and the next fall they moved, said they were coming to the Nation.
 Commissioner: That was Springfield, Missouri? A Yes, sir.
 Mr. Smith: Are you able to state what year that was in? A That was the year the war closed they hauled the corn in, and the next fall they moved.
 Q And said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I didn't see them for a good while after that.
 Q And when did you next see her? A When I came here in 1872, or I first met them again in Joplin, that is before I came down here, and I married down here in 1872.
 Q Where did you marry? A Down here on Grand River.
 Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that time? A No, sir, I haven't; I went backwards and forwards to Joplin, I took my family up there once, they were up there about two months, came to visit me; I was a blacksmith and I had to work out for a living.
 Q And you were there about how long? A She was there about two months, I was there about six months.
 Q Is there any one here who knows who your wife's mother was? A Yes, sir, everybody present.
 Q Well we don't want all of them; who knows who your wife's mother was? A I can use Fred Martin and Mrs. Amy Bean.
 Mr. J. S. Davenport, Cherokee Attorney: How long have you lived back and forth at Joplin? A I worked back and forth there about three or four years myself; the most of the time she was away, all the time, and I wasn't there; I never was away from here but a few months at a time.
 Q That was your place of business, of work? A Yes, sir, yes, sir,

there is where I worked.

Commissioner: What was your wife doing up at Joplin at that time?

A They lived up there a little while, they were living up there.

Q How far is Joplin from Springfield? A It is 75 or 80 miles.

Q How long had you been there when you met them at Joplin? A He, they were there when I went there, there was a great boom there and I went down there.

Q In what year was it you moved? A That was in '72.

Mr. Davenport: You say they were living there when you moved over there? A Yes, sir, they hadn't been there long though.

Q How long did they stay there after you met them? A They came right away that fall, I went down in the spring and they came away that fall.

Q How do you know that? A They said they hadn't, I don't know anything about it.

Q Mr. Smith: You stated I believe, when they left Springfield the first time they stated they were coming to the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: The next time you saw them after they left Springfield you said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, was at Joplin, Missouri? A Yes, sir, that was a good while after they left Springfield.

Q They left Springfield and said they were coming to the Cherokee Nation, but the next time you saw them was in Joplin, Missouri, and in the same state of Missouri? A Yes, sir.

Amy Bean, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Amy Bean.

Q How old are you? A 45.

Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Mr. Smith: Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Well, I really don't know, I guess about 27 or 28 years ago I first got acquainted with him.

Q Did you know his first wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Mary Hicks.

Q What was her name before she married him? A Ridge.

Q Who was her mother? A Kate Ridge.

Q Where does Kate Ridge live now? A She lives on yonder side of Grand River.

Q What post office? A Spavinaw I think that is her post office name.

Q Do you know whether she is the same Kate Ridge who applied here the other day for enrollment? A Yes, sir, she is the same one applied up at the other table.

Mr. Smith: I will just ask to have the copies of the testimony in the Ridge case filed with this case.

Fred Martin, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Fred Martin.

Q How old are you? A 43.

Q What is your post-office? A Spavinaw.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Q Do you know Dennis Hicks, the applicant here? A I do.

Q Did you know his wife, his present wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her name? A Bettie Hicks; it was Fattie Holt before he married her.

Q How long has he been married to her? A I don't know just exactly how long he has been married, something over 2 years.

Q Do you know them as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q They are living together in that way, are they? A Yes, sir.

Q They are recognized in the community as husband and wife?
A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A Well, I don't know, I have known her a long time.

Q Was she ever married before she married this man? A I don't know.

Q Has she any children? A She has one to my personal knowledge.

Q But you don't know whether she has ever been married or not?
A No, sir I don't know whether she has ever married.

Q Have you ever known her to live with another man as husband and wife? A No, sir, except Dennis.

Dennis Hicks, recalled, testified:

Mr. Smith: Dennis, your present wife claims to be entitled to be enrolled upon the freedman roll in her own right? A Yes, sir.

Q What proof does she depend upon in her case? Is that proof present this evening or not? A I don't know that it is, I think they are out west somewhere.

Q She will have to get that proof and make it in addition to the proof in your case, and it will all be one case then.

Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five minor children. The applicant is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married in accordance with the Cherokee laws to his first wife, now deceased, one Mary Ridge, in 1892, they having previously been married according to the testimony under United States law. The applicant is a colored man and he claims as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He states that neither he or his first wife were ever previously married. He is not upon any roll, and his first wife is not upon the roll of 1830 or upon that of 1896, or upon the Kerns-Clifton roll.

Q How old was your wife, Mary Ridge, when she died? A She was about 42.

The Wallace roll examined, and Mary Hicks identified thereon, page 118, No. 2485, Cooweescoowee district.

She is identified on the Wallace roll. Reference is made to the testimony as to her status, and also to the case of her mother, Katie Ridge, Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card D 295 and the applicant will now be listed on a doubtful card as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage.

His present wife, for whom he makes application, Bettie Hicks, is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1830 or 1896. But little testimony has so far been taken in her case, and to await further identification of the status of this woman, she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card. The applicant's marriage to his second wife will also enter into his own right as far as he may possess a right by intermarriage, and it has been established by satisfactory testimony, but it is not entirely clear whether she was previously married or not, so far as it may affect his rights.

As for the five children named in the testimony, they are all five identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll. These are the applicant's children by his first wife, Mary Ridge. They are living and to await the determination of her status, and for the further consideration of their case, they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card. The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post office address.

Mr. Smith: Do you know whether your present wife was ever married before she married you? A I don't know, sir.

A I was a good little while before the war; when the steam boats was running she was coming up to my Mistress' on a visit.

Q Do you know how long that was before the war? A No, sir, I dont

Q When did you see this applicant, Bettie, in the Cherokee Nation after the war closed? A I saw her in Fort Gibson.

Q When was that? A That was when the Refugees was drawing; I was in there cooking for the refugees, cook for the Commissary clerk

Q What were the Refugees doing? A They was issuing rations and the Clerk was issuing rations to them and I was cook for him.

Q And you mean the people that had gone out of the Nation during the war? A Yes, sir, that was all getting back to their homes.

Q Had you been out or remain in the Nation? A I remained in the Nation, I just went out on Bylar Town and come back before peace was made.

Q Are you yourself a Cherokee Freedman? A No, sir; I am nothing else, I am half Cherokee and Freed an too.

Q Are you a recognized citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q On the 1880 roll? A Yes, sir, always has been.

Q Can you state what year it was that they were issuing these rations? A No, sir, I can't exactly state, it was just after peace was made and they ordered them all to come in.

Q When you saw her? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did they issue these rations and keep that up as well as you remember? A I don't know exactly how long; they stopped and begin; I could not tell how long I cooked about two years right along there.

Q Right soon after peace was declared? A Yes, sir, right after peace was declared.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q Was she a grown young woman then? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, you saw her owner one time before the war when her Mistress come up to your Mistress' house? A Yes sir.

Q What was she doing up there? A She was waiting on her.

Q How many girls would she usually carry with her? A She come-times would have one.

Q How many waiters did she have up there? A One.

Q Didn't you testify in the Sallie Miller case yesterday?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now when you testified in that case yesterday, didn't you testify that Sallie Miller was with Mrs. Holt when she visited your mistress at Fort Gibson as the waiting girl for Mrs. Holt? A Yes, sir, that is right.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Did Mrs. Holt; what do you mean by that, now you saw Mrs. Holt brought Sallie up there? Sometimes bring Sallie and sometimes bring Bettie.

Q Did she make more than one visit? A Yes, sir, she visited more than once.

Q Well when you spoke of Mrs. Holt having brought Sallie up there as her waiting girl was that the same trip you are talking about now? A No, sir; they come up several times, come on the steam boat named pilot.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q They came quite often to visit Mrs. Nivens? A Several times, we went down there several times.

Q Who carried you with her? A No, sir, not every time.

Q Then you have been down there and seen her? A Yes, sir; I have been to Mrs. Holt's that is right.

Q And Holt's lived in Flint District didn't they? A The Holts I am talking about lived at the Falls.

Q You don't know whether they had ever lived up in Flint district?

A No, sir.

Q You were living when the war came up were you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been there? A I don't know, I don't suppose I had been there so very long; I don't know just how long I had been there.
Q Did Doctor Polston have a wife? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Her name was Flora.
Q Was she living then? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children had he when the war came up? A I don't remember.
Q Dr. Polston's wife was your Mistress? A She was a sister to my Master.
Q You don't know how many children he had? A No, sir.
Q Did he have any children? A Appears to me like there was one or two, I am not sure.
Q Boys or girls? A I don't hardly remember.
Q You don't remember? A No, sir.
Q What kind of a house did Dr. Polston live in, on Peter's Prairie? A Well, sir, I could not describe the house at all.
Q Did he get water out of a spring or well? A Out of a spring.
Q You remember that do you? A Yes, sir, it appears to me like that is right.
Q Are you certain? A No, sir, I am not right positive but seems to me like there was a spring.
Q Did Dr. Polston have a farm there? A Yes, sir.
Q I don't hardly remember, don't seem to me

Cornelius Ridge et al, 3.

like there was an orchard; might have been, I won't be sure.

Q Who did you say your Master was? A Herman Ridge.

Q Now, where was Herman living? A Well, sir, I don't know where he was living; he was an intermarried man.

Q He had no home in the Nation did he? A The last account I know of Herman was that when he joined the army.

Q Tell, where was he living just before he joined the army?

Q I don't know sir, I could not tell you?

Q Well now, you came back here did you with your father and mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what was the first point you came to? A In the Nation?

AQ Yes. A On Honey Creek.

Q Now, what place on Honey Creek did you return? A Well, I don't know the name of the place at all, but as near as I can remember it was about probably three or four miles down the creek from where South West City now is.

Q That is the point you came to was it? A Yes, sir.

Q That was near your old home? A Yes, sir.

Q You come right back to the old home didn't you? A No, sir, not right exactly.

Q Well about how far from your old home? A It don't, it must have been, probably a mile and a half from the old Ridge place.

Q Did you build a house? A No, sir.

Q How did you live there? A Went into a house that was there.

Q That was vacant? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there? A Well, sir, I expect we were there something like three or four months.

Q Then where did you go? A Went to Missouri.

Q Joplin? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married at Joplin, weren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A Ida.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is Ida? A Ida's about, I don't know, 24 or 25 I guess.

Q Well, isn't Henry older than Ida? A No, sir; he is younger.

Q And where was Ida born? A Ida was born on Grand river.

Q Near what place? A On Lynch's prairie.

Q How long after the war was it until you come down to Lynch's prairie? A How long after the war you ask me?

Q That is the question. A I don't know, something about like three or four years.

Q George Clark was living right near you then? A Yes, sir, George Clark was living there.

Q Then the only time you claim to have come back to the Cherokee Nation before that was when you were up on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived there you say about two or three months? A Yes sir.

Q Now, what kind of a house was that you moved into? A It was a log house.

Q Now, what direction from the old Polston was that log house that you moved into? A Well, if I am not mistaken and kinda turned around I say out south.

Q Did you go to the old place while you were there? A Polston place; yes, sir.

Q Who was living there? A Dr. Polston.

Q Was his wife there with him? A Now, I am not right sure; let me think over that a little; yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Did she have any children there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know their names? A No, sir, I don't.

Q What did you do for a living down there? A Didn't do anything.

Q Do you remember any citizen you saw down around there? A No, sir, I don't remember any one.

Q Where did you get anything to eat? A Brought provisions with us.

Q And just camped out down there in a house? A No, sir, we lived down there in a house.

Cornelius Ridge, et al, 4.

Q You never worked for anybody? A Never done a day's work for anybody as I knows of.

Q Well, what year were you there? A We were there in the fall.

Q About what month? A Well, sir, I don't know hardly, I expect though it was in or near the month of October, September or October, somewheres along about there.

Q Were you up about that town there while you were down there on Honey Creek? A No, sir.

Q You didn't go to any town? A No, sir; what do you mean, South-west City?

Q Yes, sir. A No, sir, there wasn't no town there; we come right past there and there wasn't no town there.

Q Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house, any people living anywhere around you? A No, sir, none that I know of; none that I was acquainted with except Polston.

Q None except Polston? A No, sir, that I can remember now.

Q You don't remember any of those Indians that were living about you? A No, sir; I don't remember, there was none living there as I know of.

Q Was there any field connected with your house you lived in?

A No, sir.

Q What did you get water out of, creek, spring or well?

A Spring.

Q What direction was the spring from the house? A Well, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't remember? A Appears to me though like the spring was east, not to be positive.

Q How far was the home place from Honey Creek? A I presume something near a mile and a half.

Q Were you north or south of the creek? A Well I would say south.

Q Dennis Hicks' wife your sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q Where was she born, before the war or after, and when? A She was born before the war, I don't know where she was born at.

Q Did she go this round with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your mother was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father? A Yes, sir; I think though Dennis' wife was born in Arkansas.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Well, now in all these round you want your father and mother and all the members of your family would go with them? A Yes, sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Well, you apply for your wife as an intermarried citizen do you?

A Yes sir.

Q When were you married to her? A I don't know sir, about '67 I guess.

Q Have you been living with her continuously since that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Living with her now? A Yes, sir.

- Q After you went up there? A Yes, sir.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Cornelius Ridge applies for the enrollment of himself and three children, Pearl, Jessie and Myrtle, as Cherokee Freedmen; he also applies for the enrollment of his wife, Laura, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896, but he and his children are duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton pay roll, and he upon the Wallace roll. He avers that he was married to his wife, Laura, a state woman in the year 1867, and has lived with her continuously ever since that time. He makes satisfactory proof as to his residence, and in this connection, as requested by Counsel that the testimony taken in the present case be made a part of the record in the application of Dennis Hicks who was listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedmen card D #355, and it is ordered that the testimony taken in the application of Watis Ridge for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, who was duly listed for enrollment on D. Card #295, be made part of the record in the present case and a copy of the same be filed in the case of the applicant, Cornelius Ridge. The said Cornelius Ridge and his children as enumerated herein will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card, and his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. The applicant will be notified by mail as to the final decision of the Commission.

Q How long has his mother? A She has been there about as long as he has.

Q How long has Tecumseh been there? A They come there together. They come there about the Wallace court, before the Wallace court, and been there ever since; Joshua lived there before that time.

Q The Wallace court was in 1889 wasn't it? A I guess so, I didn't take any particular notice.

JOSHUA HOLT, the Applicant, recalled. By Com'r Needles:

Q Joshua, did Anderson Johnson, your father-in-law, go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A He was a soldier.

Q In what army? A In the 44th or 48th United States Infantry Colored, 48th I think.

Q Where was he discharged, do you know? A I think he was discharged at Fort Leavenworth.

Q When did he return to the Cherokee Nation? A '66.

Q How do you know that? A I saw him on Big creek.

Q In '66? A Yes, sir.

Q Was his wife living there with him then? A Yes, sir.

Q Jane your wife living with him? A She was born on Big creek.

Q You saw him there in '66? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he there when you came or you come before him? A He was there when I come.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1830 or census roll of 1896, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two children's Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

- Q At the time she was born were they living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you testify for Jane Holt in the Joshua Holt case? A I did 5 years ago, I didn't this time.
- Q You testified a while ago in the Mary Johnson case? A Yes, sir.
- Q You didn't say anything about their marriage then? A No one asked me; I didn't have no right to unless they asked me.
- Q When did you first see Anderson Johnson and the mother of this girl living together as husband and wife? A They come and settled down there; he married her somewhere and brought her there, I don't know where he married her.
- Q When was it? A I don't believe I can tell you just when that was.
- Q How long after the war was it? A I couldn't tell you that and be positive in it.
- Q Was Anderson Johnson married man when he first came there?
- A No, sir, he was a single man.
- Q It was sometime after that when he married? A Yes, sir.
- Q Had he been married up to that time? A Up to what time?
- Q Up to the time he first came up there after the war in '66 as you testified a while ago? A He was single when he come down.

Q You don't remember how long after that when you saw him living with this woman? A No, sir, I couldn't say positive, but they was living together as man and wife on the creek there when he got killed, and had been for several years.

Q You remember just what year he got killed? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember just about how long after he come down there?

A No, sir.

Q The circumstance of his getting killed isn't as great as the circumstance of your first seeing him after the war? A I don't know, it might be greater for all I know, but I never paid no particular attention.

Q About what is the first date that you are willing to swear that you saw them living together as husband and wife? A I tell you I never paid no attention to it, so many people married, I can't keep the dates of all of them, of of course I didn't rtry.

Q I am not asking you, Mr. Webber, the exact date, but how long ago, now when they first began living together, but about how many years ago are you willing to testify you saw them living together?

A I don't know, I couldn't be positive about that.

Q Did they have any children when you first saw them living together as husband and wife? A When I first saw them they didn't have any

Q Do you have any idea how old this woman is, (indicating applicant

A No, sir, not exactly.

By Com'r Needles: Well, Mr. Webber, how long did they live together as husband and wife according to your best recollection, your knowledge? A I declare I couldn't answer that correct.

Q Did they raise a family there? A Raised them right there on the creek, three children.

Q While they were living together as man and wife they raised a family? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings: You don't know where he got the woman?

A No, sir, I couldn't tell you.

Q How far did they live from you? A About 10 miles I guess, as near as I can guess at it.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FREE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 5th, 1901.

EXHIBIT TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Simon McKenzie as a Cherokee free man, introduced on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Counsel for applicant;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SIMON MCKENZIE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Simon McKenzie.

Where do you live? A I live up Pryor Creek, about five miles north of Pryor Creek.

What is your age? A I am 54.

How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here all my life, only few times I have been out of the Nation.

Well, you were out of the Nation; when you were out of the Nation what places were you in? A When I was out of the Nation I lived at Fort Scott, Kansas.

About what year did you live at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I lived there 1865 down to 1866, '67 and down to spring of '68.

During the years you lived there did you become acquainted with Mallie Walker, or Holt, or Walker? A Yes, sir, I was acquainted with one lady named at that time Mallie Holt.

Did you know her family at that time, her mother?

A Yes, sir.

What was her mother's name? A Aunt Easter Holt.

Did you know any of her brothers? A Tecumseh and I forget the other one's name, was another one.

Did you know whether it was Mose or Joshua? A Yes, sir, Mose and Joshua.

Did you know any of her sisters? A Yes, sir, but I forget their names.

Where were they living, as you know, during the years you lived at Fort Scott? A They lived in an old Government building, right in Fort Scott.

You went there in 1865? A In '65.

How long had you been there before you knew these people, or got acquainted with them? A I was there about a month or two or three months, I could not state the time.

Well, where were they living when you left Fort Scott, Kansas, if you know? A Well, Aunt Easter was living in an old Government building.

Have you seen any of them since that time? A No, sir.

MR. MELLETT: Now, Mr. McKenzie, you don't know that the woman who is an applicant here for enrollment is the woman whom you say you saw up at Fort Scott, Kansas, at the close of the war, do you?

A I don't know the woman.

You don't know that that is the same woman? A In the same name.

It is not the same name? A She name Holt.

Well, you don't know that this is the same woman that you knew up there, do you? A Well, it was a daughter of Easter Holt, it was Mallie Holt.

Well, you don't know anything about this applicant; you have never seen this applicant here? A I haven't seen her here.

Q Well, you have never seen her since she has made application here for enrollment have you? A No, sir.

Q Now, when did you leave Fort Scott, Kansas? A I left there early in '68, in the spring.

Q In the Spring of '68? A Yes, sir.

Q What were you doing up there at Fort Scott? A I was working there at Fort Scott, for Billy Shanahan, stone mason, doing public work there.

Q Did you keep track of these colored people? A All I saw.

Q Did you ever testify in this case before? A I guess I did.

Q When? A Not long ago at Fort Gibson.

Q You give testimony up at Fort Gibson? A I think I did.

Q How long ago? A I don't know exactly whether it was last month.

Q How old are you, Mr. McKenzie? A I am 59.

Q Well, it has been 35 or 6 years ago then since you saw them up there at Kansas? A Yes, sir, I guess so, I never kept count of the time.

Q Well say 35; well, Mr. McKenzie, can you remember just about the time you saw these people up there 35 years ago A Well, I guess I could remember it, I stated before.

Q There is no reason why you paid particular attention to them? A No, just seeing them pass and repassing about.

Q You left there in the spring of '68? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, they could left there a year before that and you not remember it 35 years afterwards? A Didn't I saw they back and forth all the time I was up there, off and on.

Q Well, now, off and on there, you saw them? A Every week

Q Can you remember 35 years ago you saw these people every weeks? A I guess so, I wouldn't be here if I didn't thought I could testify nothing.

Q Well, you feel because you are here you have to testify something? A I don't know.

Q Well, I want to know if you can remember 35 years ago you saw these people every week? A I did while I was living in Fort Scott most every week.

Q Is it possible they might have left there a year before you did? A If they did they went back in a short time.

Q What were you paying so particular attention to those people for? A I could not tell you.

Q You just watched them? A Well, just seeing them pass and pass every day.

Q Who else did you see up there at Fort Scott? A Why I see good many.

Q What other colored people? A Good many. Good many other colored ~~that~~ people, but I don't know their names.

Q Well, now, give the name of some other colored person you saw up there except this family? A I could not give their name.

Q There were a great many colored people in Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q And of all the colored people that was in Fort Scott this family is the only one you remember the names? A Yes, sir; of course I was passing there and some lived out in the country.

Q Well, who else lived in the Government building there? A Good many families.

Q Good many families? A Yes, sir.

Q Why don't you remember the names of the other colored people? A Because the boys I remember them, and part lived in town.

Q Why can't you remember the names of some other colored people you saw there some time? A Well, I could if I wanted to state the whole thing I can, there was Bill Thompson.

Q Who is Bill Thompson? A There he is (pointing to a man in the audience.)

- Q And who else was there? A Bill was blacksmith; Tom Brown.
Q Was it Tom Brown or Bill Brown? A Tom Brown
Q when did they leave there? A I don't know.
Q Were they there when you left? A I don't know; they lived out at the edge of town; of course when I left town I went out about three miles of town and a family lived there by the name of Campbell, worked right there at Fort Scott. I know the whole generation if you will give me time to call the name over, the whole generation of them.
Q what makes you remember seeing these people there all the time you were there? A I saw them off and on, because I was working in town; Tom Brown was a blacksmith, worked in town.
Q When was the last time you remember seeing this Sallie Miller?
A Well, I saw when I left Fort Scott.
Q Did you see her the day you left? A No, sir; I didn't see her the day before I left.
Q How long before you left did you see her? A Oh, short time, maybe a week or two weeks.
Q You remember then of seeing her two weeks before you left?
A Yes, might have been two weeks, and maybe longer and not so long.
Q Maybe a year too? (No response.)
Q Was it a year? A No, sir, I don't think it was a year; if she left there at all she went west, went towards Mapleton.
Q How do you know she went to Mapleton? A Well, if she left at all.
Q What makes you think that? A That was the talk.
Q How was that? A That is why I found out by talking with her brother.
Q You got a letter? A No, sir, talking with her brother.
Q You are testifying to what her brother told you?
A That is how I found out where she went, if she went off at all.
Q That is the reason you are swearing that she was there all the time you were there? A No, sir; I know it.

WILLIAM MARGRAVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Margrave.
Q what is your age, Mr. Margrave? A My age is --130--about 82; I am away along in the 83 year.
Q where do you live, Mr. Margrave? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A Since 1854.
Q Since you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you become acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts or Holt? A Yes, sir.
Q You know the old lady's name? A Yes, sir; do you mean the mother?
Q Yes, sir; what was her name? A Easter Holt.
Q How many of the children do you remember, Mr. Margrave? A Let's see, there was Mose, Cums, Sallie and Josh.
Q When did you become acquainted with the family? A I am not positive, I think they came there along towards the close of the Civil war, if they didn't they came there very shortly afterwards.
Q Well, now, where did they live with reference to where your home was? A Well, most of the time they lived in, I should judge, about a hundred yards, except Mose he lived, after he married, he lived about 50 yards.
Q Well, now, where is Mose Holt living now, do you know?
A Lives right there by me in Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where Josh is living? A I do not, he has been away from there a good many years, I don't know how long.
Q Well, about how many years has it been since Josh moved away from there? A Of course that would be from guess work, something I never took no count of; I don't think he has made his home in Fort Scott for the last 15 years, I might not be correct about it.

Q About how long has it been since Tecumseh moved away from there?
Q That maybe all the way from five, sir, seven or eight years, not longer than that.

Q Well, when did Bettie leave there, about when did she leave?

A That is quite a while ago, I could not tell that.

Q Well, did Sallie Holt marry while she was up there? A Yes, married twice.

Q What was her first husband's name? A Walker he died and then she married a Miller.

Q Do you know what Miller's first name was, or what he was known by up there? A Stepney I believe it is.

Q Have you seen Sallie Miller, the applicant, since you been down here? A I saw her this morning, spoke to her.

Q Did you recognize her as the same woman you knew up there as Sallie Holt? A Well, she lived right there near me for I expect 30 years, I don't know that it was that long; of course I knew her as well as I knew anybody in Fort Scott.

Q About how long ago was it since Sallie left Fort Scott?

A Well, now, I can't tell you.

Q Well, you came from there in -? A Seven, eight or ten years.

Q Do you know where Aunt Raster Holt is living now, whether she is living or dead? A I saw her I think about a year ago up in Fort Scott, I have never heard of her dying.

Q When did she move away, if at all, from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A It comes to those dates-

Q About how long? A I would think it was six or seven years ago.

Q You got acquainted with this family as I understand you, sometime about the close of the war? A Yes, sir, I knew them by sight and afterwards got acquainted with them.

Q They afterwards lived right near you? A Yes, sir. It was right close to me, I don't think it was over a hundred yards from where I now live.

Q And they lived there then in your neighborhood from the time you got acquainted with them up until a few years ago? A Yes, just as I stated.

MR. MELLETT: Now, where was Sallie Miller in the fall of '65?

A I don't think I could tell just that because-

Q Well, now, where was she in '66? A The family was there, I am satisfied they were in Fort Scott in '66.

Q I am talking about Sallie Miller now? A I know you do; one of the family might have went away.

Q You can't say that Sallie Miller, or Sallie Holt, was not here in the Cherokee Nation in 1866 can you? A No, sir, I cannot; I know the family was living up there at that time. One of the family could go off and I would not know anything about that; go off and return again.

Q Isn't it a fact that she was down here in '66, and didn't go back up to Kansas for a couple of years after '66, about '68?

A No, I don't know.

Q You don't know? A No.

Q That might be true, might it not? A Yes, the family was there, I know they didn't all come here; might be such a thing as she did, of course not looking for a thing of that kind I might not know.

Q Well, these people might have come down in the Territory from time to time without you knowing their business, might they not, 35 years ago? A You mean one at the time?

Q Yes, or two at the time? A Of course they might.

Q Sallie Miller's husband died up there, one of them? A Walker.

Q Didn't she take some children back from here the first time she went back? A Children; I don't know anything about it.

JOHN FORBES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John Forbes.

Q What is your age, Mr. Forbes? A 56.

Q Where do you live? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 33 years.

Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the old lady's name, if you know Mr. Forbes? A I don't exactly know what the old lady's name was.

Q What was the children's names? A I have heard the names; well there was Mose and Josh and Mrs. Walker; well, there was one or two others.

Q Do you know whether her name was Sallie Walker or what her first name was? A Her name was Sallie Walker.

Q Did she marry a man by the name of Walker? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Walker at the time of his death, if you know?

A I don't know where he died, but I was informed that he died; that I don't know where he died, away or whether he died in Fort Scott.

Q Well, do you know whether or not she married after Walker's death?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she marry that time? A Man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you remember his first name? A Well, I have heard it called Step Miller.

Q What business did he follow? A Shoemaker.

Q Well, did you know any of her brothers or sisters that you remember the names of? A Well, there was Bet or Bit, I think that is it; and there was Mose and Josh.

Q Any one else you remember? A I think there was more than that.

Q Do you know where Mose Holt is living now? A Living at Fort Scott.

Q Do you know anything about where Josh is living? A No, sir.

Q About when did Josh Holt move away from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A Well, he moved away from there good many years ago, I don't know very well; I wasn't very well acquainted with him on that account.

Q Well, when did the applicant, Sallie Miller now, formerly Sallie Holt, move away from there? A I could not say, I think the best of my judgment it was eight or ten years ago, but I could not--after I got acquainted with them in '70, then I was personally acquainted with them after that.

Q Was the mother of them living there and keeping house when you got acquainted with them in '70? A I am not sure whether the mother was there, but she was there afterwards.

Q Do you know what became of Bettie whether she is living up there or alive? A No, I do not.

Q You don't remember what year they left but they left there a number of years after you got acquainted with them? A Yes, sir.

MR. MELLETT: Mr. Forbes, you don't know where these people, any of them, were in 1866, '67 or '8, do you? A No, sir.

Q Isn't it a fact that they came, after you knew them, that they came back and forth down here in the territory and back up to Kansas?

A I didn't know anything about that; I think I heard some of them talking about going down to Fort Smith or going from Fort Smith, or something when I got acquainted with them.

Q Fort Smith down here on the border? A Yes, sir; I wouldn't be positive of that; some little recollection in my mind but I wouldn't be positive.

JAMES BRIGHTEN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A James Brighten.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Brighten? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 20 years.
Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, have you become acquainted with a family of colored people by the name of Holt?
A Yes, sir.
Q What members of the family are you acquainted with? A I know Mose, Mose lives there now; well I think anyother one, George Maybe.
Q Did you ever know any of the girls? A Oh, I have seen them, I don't know.
Q You are not very well acquainted with them? A I knowed Mose well and knowed where they lived well; no, I am not well acquainted with the lady folks.
Q Did you ever know the mother? A No, sir.
MR. MELLETTE: You don't know where the women folks made their homes, whether they made it here and visited up there, or where they really belonged, do you? A No, sir.

WILLIAM SEXTON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows: On part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: what is your name? A William Sexton.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Sexton? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I have lived at Fort Scott ever since '69.
Q Well, since you came to Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A I did.
Q Did you know the mother, the old lady, or reputed mother of the family? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Her name was Easter Holt.
Q What were the names of the children, or as many as you can remember? A There was one by the name of Mose, Josh, and Cums and Jennie and Sallie; that's as many as I recollect.
Q Well, did you know Sallie Holt, if she was a grown woman?
A Sallie she was a woman when I got acquainted with her.
Q Josh, was he grown when you got acquainted with him?
A No, sir, he was a young man.
Q Would you know Sallie Holt if you would see her now?
A Yes, sir.
Q I wish you would look back through the audience and see if you see her? A Yes, sir.
Q You recognize her as being the same woman, Sallie Holt, you knew?
A Same woman.
Q Did she marry while she was living up at Fort Scott? A She was married when I got acquainted with her.
Q Do you know what her husband name was? A Her husband's name was Walker.
Q Do you know whether Walker is living or dead? A He died.
Q Well, did she marry again? A She did.
Q Do you know who she married? A She married a man by the name of Miller.
Q Do you know his first name? A Stepney.
Q What was his business? A He was a shoemaker up there.
Q You knew Josh too up there did you? A Yes, sir.
Q And Tecumseh? A Tecumseh.
Q Did you know any other girls of the family, was there any other girls that you remember? A I do not.
Q Do you know whether or not there was a girl by the name of Bettie?
A I wouldn't be positive but it appears to me there was.
Q Were they living in Fort Scott when you went there in '69, Mr. Sexton? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, about how long after you went there did they continue to live in Fort Scott? A Now, I could not say; I didn't pay particular attention, sometime they would leave and sometimes they was there.

- Q Did they keep house while they were there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Sallie live there with Walker when he was living?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where is Mose living now? A Moses is living up there now.
Q About how long has it been since you remember of Josh and then living in Fort Scott? A Josh hasn't been there for some considerable time.
Q Well, about how long? A It has been, I should judge, some ten or 12 years.
Q Well, how long has it been since Tecumseh has been living there?
A She has lived there to the best of my recollection, it has been that long since I seen him there.
Q Do you know where he went when he left there? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether he went to Kansas City or not?
A No, sir, I do not.
Q Well, how long has it been since Sallie has been living there?
A I don't know.
Q Has she lived there any since she and Miller married? A Yes, sir.
MR. MELLETTE: Well, how long do you think it has been since Sallie Miller lived there regularly? A Well, now, I could not say positive, it has been since she left there regularly.
Q Well, isn't it a fact that she was back and forth ever since you have known her, to the Territory and back to Kansas, would come down here a stay a while and go back to Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q That is true? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know where any of these people were in '66? '67 or '68?
A No, sir; I came to Scott in '69.
MR. DAVENPORT: And they were living there when you came?
A They was there when I came.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be made part of the record in Freedmen doubtful cases #953, #979, #980, #645, and in case of Bettie Hicks.

and Mr. W.W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

W.H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.

Q What is your age? A 48.

Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living here when the war began? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.

Q How long did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.

Q Where did you come to? A Came to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District,
Cherokee Nation.

Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey
Creek? A About a mile and a half.

Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.

Q Well did you live there when the war began, or how come you to go on that place? A We lived on Whitewater in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from
Dr. Polston, my father did.

Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.

Q Was there any town there at that time, near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over
near the line that they called Honey Creek.

Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about
2 years.

Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.

Q And you left it? A Yes sir.

Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.

Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.

Q Were you acquainted with one Katie Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.

Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.

Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.

Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washbourn place
at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Was there any Freedmen living on that place by that name? A No
sir.

Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.

Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 3
or 6 miles.

Q When did Dr. Polston <sup>occupy</sup> ~~re-occupy~~ that place after you bought it from him or did he ever? A He went right on the place when we left it in '68.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville Arkansas.

Q Where was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved ~~part~~ part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q Now do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he came from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when the, -- no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washbourn place that you knew of? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. BELLETTE:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 48 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1866, that right?

A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days?

A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 13 year old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q What place are you talking about as the one that ~~many~~ colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly; the brakes of Honey Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 13 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q When did you return? A In '65.

Q What time in '65? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Choctaw Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY COM'N NEEDLES:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. BELL:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas or Mike Blevins' place,

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee nation in '66? A Yes sir.

W. M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. SELL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A M. M. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of a Cherokee, and now claiming right as a Cherokee citizen under the 9th article of the treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I knew them in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was that? A I married Enekus Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '58, spring of '58.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washbourn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You later knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q This home that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Vatie? A Yessir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Could you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while she was there that I know of; she had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. NEEDLES:

Q Was Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until in '58 did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, say? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Katie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all; they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge's brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you ~~also~~ became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my present husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.

Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I ~~left~~ lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.

Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?

Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Why it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.

Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri, - I saw her husband.

Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.

Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.

Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; ~~at~~ I didn't see any of his family at that time.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.

Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Watie place. That's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, - was horseback and at the wagon: I was with Stan Watie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN R. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Grove is my post-office: my name is John R. Shields; my age is 53.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A I guess not.

Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right someone or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through we are one of these that got behind. I am not a citizen of all.

Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Line Road", line between the Cherokee nation and Missouri.

Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.

Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.

Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the Creek; there was no town or village there at all.

Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.

Q Who was the first man that went there? A Alex Strothers and J.P. Lawrence were the first men to put up stores.

Q Was there a post-office established there? A Well they kept a post-office there in the store, in the hands of Mr. Strothers I think the post-office was handled.

Q Well the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

Q That was the place called then? A Honey Creek. did it
Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.

Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years
perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when,
I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. MELLETT: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M.
Bell, aged 69, post-office Needmore, or Vinita, either one.

Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation are you? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with the exception of a few intervals I have been here since '39.

Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.

Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware
District.

Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.

Q Name what they were if you can do it? A ~~His first~~ His first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rolen Ridge was the next, Herman, Eneous, Andrew, Susan Washbourn, Flora Pol ton, constituted
the family.

Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee Nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.

Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.

Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '50 sometime, that I was there.

Q That in Benton county? A In Benton County.

Q Then you say they afterwards move to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.

Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.

Q You were acquainted with Herman Ridge were you? A Yes sir.

Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?
He was between 35 and 30; he was 25 I reckon; between that and 30.

Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '63 I believe, or
'62, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.

Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man; had no family of his own.

Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.

Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.

Q ~~Where~~ Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.

Q Do you know of his ever having a farm, location or home or habitation in the Cherokee nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.

Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes
sir.

Q They were closely related to you were they? A Yes sir.

Q By blood, friendship, social matters or what? A It is my uncer-standing what they are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

Rollin Ridge (cont'd) 3

BY MR. NEEDLES:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district down here near Stilwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delmon, District.

Q What is the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q What did they keep up their farm after they went to Benton County, Arkansas? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q Did you know him and know all about this personally; did you know him? A I saw Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family?

Q Yes. A Left the country on that account, that's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q How do you know that they were out of the Territory? A Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you now if a Mrs. Ridge, the mother of Herman Ridge, who lived in Benton County, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back to North from where she was to their farm to keep it up? A I know nothing of that.

Q Didn't you see a number from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville? A Yes, she might have done so, but I knew nothing of that.

Witness being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. NEEDLES:

Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell, 62 years old, Vinita.

Q Where were you born? A Well I was born in the State of Georgia I guess, Maysville County, they tell me; I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation here? A Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Adair farm in 1843 when the whole world was flooded, I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '44.

Q Do you remember the Ridge family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A Yes, I know what they called the old Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A Oh lots of times.

Q Now did you live there, occupied it? A Old Peter, -the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he killed a man there and run off and had to go to California, left there and never came back any more. Then an old man named Peter, an old slave of his that he had there, remained at the place 5 or 6 years, then it passed into the hands of Dr. Johnson, who married Flora, the youngest girl of John Ridge's family. They lived there until '61 probably lived there 3 or or 4 years.

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge so far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first; next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he came and joined our command, that is the confederate Army, General Watie was a kinsman of his and he joined the ~~ex~~ regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, - his wife died in about 1868; his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. MELLETTT:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee nation in the conduct of the Freedmen cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. MELLETTT: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, keep this Katie up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. MELLETTT:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time ~~that~~ ~~you~~ there while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q Now the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A At ~~Fayetteville~~ Fayetteville?

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I knew her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn who was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville? A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Ridge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went; I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the Territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Ridge family in '58? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen is he not? A He is not living now.

Q He did move back into here as a citizen after the war? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if they were not temporarily outside of the Cherokee Nation because it was unsafe for them to live in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know; I know they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

Kate Ridge (sup'1) 8

Y MR. HASTINGS:

Q You don't know what legal steps were taken by those people, Washbourns and or Polstons to re-establish their citizenship? A No sir.

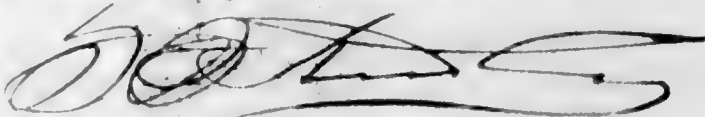

COMMISSIONER NEEDLES: The testimony will be filed in Katie Ridge, Cherokee Freedman D 293, and D355 and D 586, and D 589 and D 300, D 360, D 361, D 362 and D 358.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

13

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette C. Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmore, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F. D. 408, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Jas. A. Hicks, D 362;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1863, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decrees of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case re-opened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd of February, 1898, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and perfect transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

I, E. C. Bagwell, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath states that the above and foregoing is a true and perfect copy of the original testimony in the above entitled cause as filed with the Commission, which copy was made by me.

Copies of the following testimony, decisions, and Departmental letters are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case: Its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of May 17, 1904 (I.T.D. 3470-04), in the case of Ed Vann, C.F.D. 560; its decisions rendered by the Commission on July 10, 1903, and June 23, 1904, and of Departmental letters of May 11, and November 12, 1904 (I.T.D. 2412, 2594-04), in the cases of Jesse Vann et al., C.F.D. 254 (R 302), and Emma Purtle C.F.D. 265; its decisions rendered by the Commission on March 5, and April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letters of June 2, 23, and 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 4386, 5025-5034-04), in the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645 (R 443), Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653 (R 399), William Holt, C.F.D. 694 (R 396), and Moses Holt, C.F.D. 185; its decision rendered by the Commission on March 5, 1904, and Departmental letter of June 21, 1904 (I.T.D. 4736-04); in the consolidated case of Katie Thornton et al., C.F.D. 578 et al., (R. 410-F 411-R 412-R 413-R 414); of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, June 8, 1901, its decision rendered by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and of Departmental letter of October 31, 1904, (I.T.D. 8138-04), in the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell, et al., including, among others, the application of Mary Riley, C.F.D. 624; of its decision rendered by the Commission on November 23, 1904, in the consolidated case of Andrew T. Vatie, C.F.D. 502, et al., and of the testimony taken at different times and places in the cases of Edward Derrick, C.F.D. 818, Aaron Webber C.F.D. 216, Elizabeth Meigs, et al., C.F.D. 391, Samuel Beck, et al., C.F.D. 775, David Johnson, C.F.D. 356, Abraham Ward, C.F.D. 607 (R 283), and of Peter Ward, C.F.D. 613, (R 282).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge, and one Mary Ridge (later Hicks, former wife of Dennis Hicks Sr., D 355, infra.), both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Rosen Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that the applicants, Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and to the said Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants, Pearl, Jesse, Myrtle and Henry C. Ridge, and Ida Jones, are children of the said applicants, Cornelius and Laura Ridge, were born since 1860, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents; that the applicants, Joseph, Percy, Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, and William Townsend, are children of the applicant Phoebe Johnson, were born since 1860, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother; that the applicants, Lee, Eddie, and Stella Martin and Cornelias Jones, are children of the applicant Ida Jones, were born since 1860, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said applicants Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin, possess any rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said mother, and the applicant Cornelias Jones, possesses no rights to enrollment other than as his mother's descendants; that the applicant Elnora Vann, is a child of the applicant Ary Lynch, and the said Jesse Ridge, deceased, was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; that the applicant Jesse Barnett, is a child of the applicant Laud Riley, was born since 1860, and, after ample opportunity afforded, it is not established by satisfactory evidence that the said Jesse Barnett possesses any rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said mother, and that the applicant John C. Riley, is a child of the said applicant Laud Riley, and one William Riley, (said William Riley's rights to enrollment are considered below, S. F. D. 303), was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of his said parents; that the applicant Josephine Vann, is a child of the said applicant Rosa Vann, was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said mother. (In S.F.D. 666, the Commission found that one Ed Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 17, 1904, Departmental letter L.T.D. 3470-04, said finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant Lollie Townsend, is a daughter of one Jesse Vann, and one Emma Battle, was born since 1860, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In S.F.D. 604 and 265 the Commission found that the said Jesse Vann and Emma Battle possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on May 11, and November 12, 1904, Departmental letters L.T.D. 331-3394-04, said findings were approved by the Department); and that the applicants, Rosa, George and Arthur Townsend, are children of the said applicants William and Lollie Townsend, were born since 1860, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as descendants of their said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Gusie Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than those obtained by virtue of their marriage to the applicants Lettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Lettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, and Sallie Miller, (children of One Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, supra, for the return of freedmen to the Cherokee Nation; that the applicants, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Delana, Mabel, and Elmer Hicks, Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Beeson, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Paulcelia (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Lillie Chinnett, Frank and Luella Johnson (In C.F.D. 855 the Commission found that one Charlotte Beck, mother of the applicant, Luella Johnson, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on July 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Elize and Tyndie E. Hawkins, Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, Frances, Nettie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead, and Katie Davis, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Dennis Hicks Sr., Bettie and Susie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and of Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, Nettie Downing, deceased, and Mary Ridge, deceased, (In re Mary Ridge see preceding paragraph), and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants.

THE EVIDENCE FURTHER SHOWS: That one Riley McNair and one Maria McNair, both deceased, were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Delilah and Lottie Johnson, and of Millie McNair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria and Millie McNair, all deceased, and the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lottie Johnson, and the applicants, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Ellick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson, and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the rebellion, were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the above mentioned Whitmire decree, for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; that, the applicant, Ruth Riley is a daughter of Henry Thornton, deceased, and Fannie Thornton, was born since 1866, and possesses no rights to enrollment other than as a descendant of her said parents; (In C.F.D. 570, 580 and 581, the Commission found that the said Katie Thornton and one Maggie Curls and one Joseph Thornton, full sister and brother of the said applicant, Ruth Riley, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and on June 21, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department); that the applicant, Hannah Riley, was born prior to the commencement of the rebellion, and was the slave of a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the commencement of the rebellion; and that the applicants, Lillie

Nathanial, Joseph, Ollie, Viola, Mabel, Elnora, Ideller, Luther D., Frank, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola, Earl E., Clarence (In C. F. D. 624, the Commission found that one Mary Riley, wife of the applicant Frank Riley, and mother of the applicants, Lottie, Fannie, James, Ralph, Arizona, Inola and Earl E. Riley, and grandmother of the applicant, Clarence Riley, possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on October 31, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department), Samuel, James B., Amanda, Mariah, Maggie, Calvin, Bertha, Ada and Leona Riley, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie and Jimmie Scott, Delilah, Allie, Luman, Jesse, Alfred, Nola, Della, Ella, Harrison, Rebecca, Edna, Wilbert and Arch Johnson, Henrietta, Irvin, Harry, Roy, Dan, Ed, Fred, Jesse and Maine Ward, Lenora Odine Riley, Charles Landrum, Dottie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Cora J., and Ovel Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth and Elnora Melton, Julius, Riley, Willie, Edward, James, George, Stephenia and Peatrice Curls, (One Nancy Curls, C.F.D. 429, who was denied enrollment by the Commission is the mother of the six last mentioned applicants), Ophelia, Alpha, Libbie, Hirschel, Harvey, and Clyde Thompson, were born since the commencement of the rebellion, are descendants of the said applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Jerry, Jane, Ruth and Hannah Riley, Fannie Scott, Lottie Johnson, Daniel and Sandy Thompson, and Elick and Amanda Ward, and of the said Riley McHair, deceased, Maria McHair, deceased, and Willie McHair, deceased, Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, and possess no rights to enrollment other than as such descendants.

None of the applicants herein born during or prior to the first below mentioned year, nor the ancestors of any of the said applicants herein born during or subsequent to the said first below mentioned year, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and none of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

THE EVIDENCE HEREIN FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicants Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, died prior to September 1, 1900. Affidavits to that effect are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1900 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

The applicants, Katie and Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, testify that they, together with Mary and Jesse Ridge, both deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, remained a few months, and then removed to Joplin, Missouri, where they resided for a number of years. That they returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 is controverted by the testimony of witnesses who were in a position to know the matters of which they testify. In view of the fact that the burden of proof is on the applicants, and they must show by satisfactory evidence that their rights to enrollment are perfect, it is considered that these applicants have wholly failed in this, and that their applications come within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al. (I.T.D. 544-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers, (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), Martha Albert et al., (I.T.D. 4732-04), and Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04); and, granting that said above named parties did return to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, as contended, it is further considered that they did not establish such a residence in said Nation as was contemplated by the treaty of 1866, and are, therefore, within the rulings of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales and Susan Brown (I.T.D. 1850-04), and Thomas Mayfield et al. (I.T.D. 6968-04).

The testimony in re return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, of the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt, and Sallie Miller, and of the said Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, is contradictory in itself, and contradicted by the testimony of witnesses in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, hence, it is unsatisfactory, and the first above mentioned rulings of the Department are considered applicable. In this connection attention is called to the cases of Esther Holt, C.F.D. 645, Tecumseh Holt, C.F.D. 653, William Holt, C.F.D. 694, and Moses Holt, C.F.R. 185, mother and brothers of the three applicants first named in this paragraph. The material facts as established by the evidence in the several cases embracing this family, are practically the same, and the Commission found that the said Esther, Tecumseh, William and Moses Holt, possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and its findings were duly approved by the Department. Granting that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Sallie Miller, and the said Buck Bushyhead and Nettie Downing, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the interval between the close of the rebellion and February 11, 1867, they must have remained but a short time, as, by the testimony of the applicants themselves, and that of disinterested witnesses, it is shown that during a period beginning immediately subsequent to the year 1867, they, for a number of years, continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, consequently, the ruling of the Department in the cases of Martha Gales, Susan Brown and Thomas Mayfield, et al., supra., is also applicable to them.

Sam Webber, Lewis Whitmire, and Daniel and Reuben Sanders, testify that Anderson Johnson returned to the Cherokee Nation with them in the summer of 1866, but for reasons more fully set out below, it is not considered that their testimony is either convincing or satisfactory. That these four witnesses complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, there is no doubt. They were admitted to citizenship by the Chambers Court, and are identified on the 1880 roll. Without calling attention to the many cases in which the above named witnesses have been successfully contradicted and repeatedly impeached, it is considered by this office, that, after hearing the testimony of numerous witnesses, interested and disinterested, and after the examination of many exhibits filed and made a part of the record in freedman cases, it can identify each and every member of the party of freedmen known as the Webber-Whitmire-Sanders detachment, or colony, who complied with the treaty stipulations of 1866, and it is fully convinced that Anderson Johnson was not a member of that party. In support of this position attention is called to the fact that the personnel of the above mentioned party was thoroughly gone into by the Chambers Court, in 1878-9, and numerous witnesses, among others, the said Lewis Whitmire, examined on behalf of both parties, and that, too, at a time when the facts must have been fresh in their mind, and no particular advantage was to be had by misrepresenting who were included in said party, with one accord testify as to who composed this colony of freedmen, and the said Anderson Johnson is never named as one of them. By reason of changed conditions, the experience of the former Commission and of this office, in their investigations relative to the personnel of said colony of freedmen, has been somewhat different from that of the Chambers Court, but generally the conclusions reached have been the same. It seems to have been the policy of those witnesses appearing before the Commission, who were members of the above mentioned colony of freedmen, to add to said colony as occasion required, but after an examination of a great number of freedmen cases in which the above named witnesses testified, it cannot be found that they ever included Anderson Johnson as a member of this colony, until they were called upon as witnesses in behalf of his descendants, although they were often asked to, and as often did, name those who returned with them in 1866.

As to the return of Riley McNair, deceased, to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion: Moses Hardrick, in behalf of the descendants of the said Riley McNair, testifies that, after the rebellion, he and Riley McNair returned to the Cherokee Nation together. In C.F.D. 314, the Commission found that the said Moses Hardrick did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on October 13, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. It was several months after the above indicated trip before Riley McNair moved his wife and family to the Cherokee Nation. One Emma Purtle, daughter of the said Riley and Maria McNair, removed from the Cherokee Nation during, and returned thereto after, the rebellion, with her father's family. In C.F.D. 265, the Commission found that the said Emma Purtle did not return to the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on November 12, 1904, its finding was approved by the Department. The said Columbus Rogers, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, with the said McNair family.

The applicant, Jane Riley, testifies that she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, and is corroborated by her witness, Jack Landrum. No credit can be given the testimony of the said Jack Landrum, as he has been repeatedly contradicted and impeached, (See, in particular, C. F. D. 493-D 664 and D 863). In C. F. D. 578 ( R 410 ), he swore, point blank, that Katie Thornton, applicant therein, and her husband, Henry Thornton, deceased, returned to the Cherokee Nation during the winter of 1866, and that he hauled logs to help build their house. In this case it was conclusively shown by the testimony of disinterested witnesses, that the said Katie and Henry Thornton did not leave Garnett, Kansas, after the rebellion, prior to March 1, 1871, and on this testimony the Commission denied the applicant, Katie Thornton, the right to enrollment, and its action was duly approved by the Department. Attention is further called to the fact that the said applicant, Jane Riley, and one Ben Landrum, deceased, are the parents of the applicants Charles Landrum and Bettie McIntosh, and that the said two last named applicants were born in 1861 and 1862, respectively. It is shown by the testimony of several disinterested witnesses, and a certified copy of the record of certain proceedings had before the District Court of Woodson County, Kansas, that the said Ben Landrum, continuously lived near Garnett, Kansas, during the years 1866, '67 and '68.

The applicant Daniel Thompson, testifies that on his return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, he found his son, Andrew Watie, at Fort Gibson. In C. F. D. 502, the Commission found that the said Andrew Watie did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion within the time specified in the Whitmire decree. The applicants Sandy Thompson and Amanda Ward, returned with their father, the said Daniel Thompson.

In connection with those applicants herein who claim through Jess Ridge, deceased, and the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Henry Ridge, Daniel Thompson, and Robert Foster, attention is called to the fact that the Commission on Cherokee Citizenship of 1898-9, decided that the said Jess Ridge, since deceased, and the four applicants last above named, were not entitled to Cherokee citizenship, a certified copy of the proceedings of said Commission in re above named parties, being filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The applicant, Elick Ward, swears that he was raised by one Peter Ward, and after the rebellion returned to the Cherokee Nation with the said Peter Ward and one Abraham Ward. In C. F. D. 513 ( R 262 ), and D 607 ( R 283 ), the Commission found that the said Peter and Abraham Ward did not return to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion, within the time specified in the Whitmire decree, and on April 29, 1904, its findings were approved by the Department.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I. T. D. 5843, 11776-04), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), Laura Ridge, Ay Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, and Myrtle Ridge, Pncebe (Wilton) Johnson, Joseph Wilton, Percy Wilton, Herbert Wilton, Serena Wilton, and Pearl Wilton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, and Stella Martin, Cornelias Jones, Elndra Vann, Maud Riley, Jesse Barnett and John C. Riley, Rosa Vann and Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Mollie Townsend, Rosa Townsend, George Townsend, and Arthur Townsend, Fattie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr., Delana Hicks, Mabel Hicks and Elmer Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Beeson, Ella Beeson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt and Maucelia (Marcelia) Holt, Sallie Miller, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett and Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson and Luella Johnson, Eliza Hawkins and Tyndle D. Hawkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Katie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Frances Johnson, Fattie Johnson, Katie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Pushyhead, Katie Davis, Moses Riley, Lillie Riley, Andrew Riley, Nathaniel Riley, Jesse Riley, Joseph Riley, Ollie Riley, Viola Riley, Mabel Riley, Elndra Riley, Ideller Riley, Luther D. Riley, Frank Riley, Lottie Riley, Fannie Riley, James Riley, Ralph Riley, Arizona Riley, Inola Riley, Earl E. Riley, Clarence Riley, Jerry Riley, Samuel Riley, James E. Riley, Amanda Riley, Mariah Riley, Maggie Riley, Calvin Riley, Bertha Riley, Ada Riley, and Leona Riley, Fannie Scott, Charles Wesley Miller, Bessie Scott, and Jimmie Scott, Delilah Johnson, Allie Johnson, Luman Johnson, Jesse Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Nola Johnson, Della Johnson, Ella Johnson, Harrison Johnson, Lottie Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Luford Johnson, Wilbert Johnson and Arch Johnson, Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick Ward, Amanda Ward, Henrietta Ward, Irvin Ward, Harry Ward, Roy Ward, Dan Ward, Effie Ward, Troy Ward, Jesse Ward and Faine Ward, Sandy Thompson, Ruth Riley, Lenora Odine Riley, and Hannah Riley, Charles Landrum, Bettie McIntosh, William Riley, Carrie Gibson, Core J. Wagoner and Oval Wagoner, Arthur Riley, Elizabeth Walton and Elndra Walton, Julius Curls, Riley Curls, Willie Curls, Edward Curls, James Curls, George Curls, Stephenia Curls and Beatrice Curls, Ophelia Thompson, Alpha Thompson, Libbie Thompson, Hirschel Thompson, Harvey Thompson and Clyde Thompson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the applications for the enrollment of Ethel Townsend and Clarence Curls, he, and the same are, hereby dismissed, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716).

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications
for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Katie Ridge for herself; by Cornelius Ridge for himself, and children, Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle
Ridge, and his wife, Laura Ridge as a citizen by intermarriage;
by Phoebe Johnson for herself and minor children, Joseph, Percy,

Herbert, Serena and Pearl Milton; by Henry C. Ridge for himself; by Ida Jones for herself and minor children, Lee, Eddie and Stella Martin. Thereafter, on June 27, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on June 3, 1902, of Cornelius Jones, child of the applicant, Ida Jones; by Charles J. Lynch for, among others, his wife, Ary Lynch, as a citizen by intermarriage. The others included in said application have been heretofore disposed of, and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Walter Vann for, among others, his wife, Elvora Vann; the others included in said application have been otherwise disposed of and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision; by Maud Riley for herself and minor child, Jesse Barnett. Thereafter, on April 9, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on October 26, 1901, of John C. Riley, child of the applicant, Maud Riley; by Rosa Vann for herself and minor child Josephine Vann; by William Townsend for himself; by Dennis Hicks Jr., for himself, by intermarriage, and his wife, Bettie Hicks and minor children, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Dolana, Mabel and Elmer Hicks; by Eliza Hawkins for herself and minor child, Tyndie S. Hawkins; by Joseph Hicks for himself and wife, Susie Hicks (by intermarriage), and minor child, Otto A. Hicks; by Katie Hicks for herself; by James A. Hicks for himself; by Joshua Holt for himself and wife, Jane Holt, and minor stepchildren, Laura and Ella Benson, and minor children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Vaucelia (Marcella) Holt; by Mary Johnson for herself; by Ruth Chinnett for herself and minor children, Martha, and Lillie Chinnett, subsequent to filing her application herein and prior to September 1, 1902, the applicant Ruth Chinnett was married to one George Vann, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Ruth Vann; by Frank Johnson for himself. Thereafter, on July 1, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit showing the birth, on February 7, 1902, of Luella Johnson, child of the applicant Frank Johnson; and by Frances Johnson for herself and minor children, Mattie, Katie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson.

The records of this office further show that on October 12, 1901, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision herein, denying, among others, all of said applicants the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen and citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, which decision was duly forwarded to the Department, and that, thereafter, on July 9, 1902 (I.T.D. 1724-1902), motions having been filed with the Department for a rehearing of this case, the same was remanded to the Commissioner for rehearing and readjudication, the Department stating that it "considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under Article 3 of the treaty of 1866."

In accordance with this direction the Commissioner consolidated the following cases, and further proceedings were had therein at Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 14, 1904; Katie Widge, D 294; Cornelius Ridge et al. D 300; Phoebe Johnson et al. D 300; Henry C. Ridge D 330; Ida Jones et al. D 347; Ary Lynch R 70; Elvora Vann R 113; Maud Riley et al. D 501; Rosa Vann et al. D 594; William Townsend D 636; Leroy Hicks et al. D 358; Eliza Hawkins et al. D 360; Joseph Hicks et al. D 360; Katie Hicks D 361; and James A. Hicks D 362.

Although the principal applicants included herein other than the applicants in the above mentioned consolidated case, and their attorneys, have several times been notified by letter and in person, of the Department's action in remanding their cases for rehearing, and to submit such evidence as they desired to present in their behalf, they have failed to do so. Their rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen will therefore be adjudicated in this decision.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of one Jesse Ridge and one Mary Ridge, both deceased; that the said applicants and the said Jesse and Mary Ridge deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion and did not return thereto and establish an actual, personal, bona fide residence therein as provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stat. 137); that the applicants Laura Ridge and Ary Lynch and Mabel Hicks, neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than by reason of their marriage to the applicant Cornelius Ridge and the said Jesse Ridge deceased, and the applicant Joseph Hicks; that the applicants Pearl, Jesse and Myrtle Ridge and Joseph, Percy Herbert, Serena, and Pearl Wilton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida and Cornelius Jones, Minora Vann, Maud Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann (In C. F. D. 180 the Commission found that one Eli Vann, father of the said applicant Josephine Vann, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, and on May 7, 1904-I. T. D. 347-1904- said finding was approved by the Department), William Townsend, Leroy, Dennis Jr., Mollie, Mabel and Elmer Hicks, (their father, Dennis Hicks, case D 360 infra.) Eliza and Tyndie M. Hawkins Joseph, Otto A., Katie and James A. Hicks, were born since 1865 and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen except as descendants of the said Katie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge and Phoebe Johnson, and of Jesse Hicks and Mary Ridge (Hicks) deceased.

After ample opportunity afforded the applicants, Lee Edie and Stella Martin and Jesse Barnett, it is not shown by satisfactory evidence that they possess any right to enrollment other than as descendants of their mothers, the said Ida Jones and Maud. The minor applicant John C. Riley is a child of William Riley, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was rejected by the Commissioner on February 27, 1907, and the applicant herein, Maud Riley, and possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman other than as a descendant of his said parents.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE FURTHER SHOWS: That the applicant, Dennis Hicks Sr., neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than by virtue of his marriage to the applicant, Bettie Hicks; that the applicants Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Anderson Johnson, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; were taken from the Cherokee Nation during said rebellion, and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time provided by Section three of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906; that the applicants Jane Holt, Laura and Ella Eason, Jessie, Willard, Clifford, and Maudella (Marcella) Holt, Mary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha and Willie Chinnett, Frank Johnson (In C. F. D. 180 the Commission as the Five Civilized Tribes found, on April 23, 1905, that Rebecca Weber, mother of Frank Johnson, possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and its finding was approved by the Department June 26, 1906-I. T. D. 7712-1906-1906), and Frances Nattie, Mattie, Clarence and Wilda Johnson, were born since the war of the rebellion; are descendants of the applicants Dennis Hicks Sr., Nettie Hicks and Joshua Holt, and of Anderson Johnson deceased, and possess no right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants. The applicant Luella Johnson, is a child of the said Frank Johnson and Charlotte Johnson, whose application for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on July 21, 1904 and its action affirmed by the Department September 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7192-7201-1234). No one of the applicants herein nor any ancestor through whom they claim the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1900.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That following the ruling of the Department in the case of Lemuel Welcome (I.T. D. 7044-11775-1904), under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1906 (34 Stat., 496), Laura Ridge, Ary Lynch, Dennis Hicks Sr., and Susie Hicks, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied; and that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act last above noted, Mattie Ridge, Cornelius Ridge, Pearl Ridge, Jesse Ridge, Myrtle Ridge, Phebe Johnson, Joseph Milton, Percy Milton, Herbert Milton, Sarana Milton, Pearl Milton, Henry C. Ridge, Ida Jones, Lee Martin, Eddie Martin, Stella Martin, Cornelius Jones, Elmore Vann, Paul Riley, Jesse Barnett, John C. Riley, Rosa Vann, Josephine Vann, William Townsend, Nettie Hicks, Leroy Hicks, Dennis Hicks Jr. Delana Hicks, Habel Hicks, Elmer Hicks, Eliza Perkins, Fendle C. Perkins, Joseph Hicks, Otto A. Hicks, Mattie Hicks, James A. Hicks, Joshua Holt, Jane Holt, Laura Benson, Ella Benson, Jessie Holt, Willard Holt, Clifford Holt, Lucelia (Marcella) Holt, Vary Johnson, Ruth Vann, Martha Chinnett, Lillie Chinnett, Frank Johnson, Luella Johnson, Frances Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Mattie Johnson, Clarence Johnson and Wilda Johnson, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

cision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 ( I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father the said Cornelius Ridge had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman

October 13, 1905, the Commissioner decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicant, Katie Ridge, is the mother of the applicants, Cornelius Ridge, Phoebe Johnson, Jesse Ridge, deceased, and Mary Ridge (later Nicks, former wife of Dennis Nicks, Sr), deceased; that they were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation, during the War, and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that the applicants, Laura Ridge, and Amy Lynch neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than those obtained by marriage to the applicants Cornelius Ridge and Jesse Ridge, deceased; that the applicants Dennis Nicks, Sr., and Susie Nicks neither claim nor possess any rights to enrollment other than by virtue of their marriage to Bettie and Joseph Hicks; that the applicants, Bettie Hicks, Joshua Holt and Gellie Miller (children of one Esther Holt), and Anderson Johnson, deceased, Buck Bushyhead, deceased, and Nettie Downing, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion; were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the War, and did not return on or before February 11, 1867; that one Riley McWair and one Maria McWair, both deceased were the parents of the applicants, Moses, Andrew, Jesse, Frank and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott, Helilah and Lettie Johnson, and of Willie McWair, deceased; that the said Riley, Maria, and Willie McWair, all deceased, and Moses, Andrew, Jesse, and Jerry Riley, Fannie Scott and Lettie Johnson, and Jane Riley, Daniel Thompson, Elick and Amanda Ward and Sandy Thompson and Ben Landrum, deceased, Harrison Johnson, deceased, and Columbus Rogers, deceased, were the slaves of Cherokee citizens at the beginning of the War of the Rebellion, were taken out of the Cherokee Nation during the war and did not return thereto on or before February 11, 1867; that all the other applicants were born since 1866, are descendants of the foregoing and possess no rights to enrollment except as such descendants, or have failed after ample opportunity afforded to establish such a right. None is identified on the 1840 authenticated Cherokee roll, or the Cherokee census roll of 1896, nor can an ancestor be so identified.

There is also enclosed a letter from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes transitting a motion in behalf of the applicants and three communications from G. P. Fagle enclosing motions in their behalf which have been carefully considered.

In view of the record the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

G. P. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

July 9, 1906.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On October 13, 1905, you transmitted the record, together with your decision of the same date, in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of Katie Ridge et al. (Cherokee freedmen D. 295). Said decision was adverse to all the applicants.

Reporting December 22, 1905, the Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The attorneys for the applicants have filed a number of motions and briefs in this case, and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation has filed his answer.

A consideration of these motions, together with the record, leads the Department to the opinion that the case should be remanded for a further hearing.

The Department considers that this consolidated case should be divided, and that if possible the division should divide this large family into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged they returned to the Indian Territory, under article 9 of the treaty of 1866, being first those persons and their descendants who returned from the neighborhood of Joplin, Mo.; second, those who returned from near Fort Scott, Kans., and third, those who returned from Garnett, Kans.

Having divided this case along the lines indicated, you will permit the attorneys for the applicants and for the nation to submit such proper evidence as they may see fit regarding the rights of these applicants for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

The record is returned.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos Ryan
Assistant Secretary.

Secretary 2-

In connection with the finding of this office relative to the rights of Cornelius Ridge to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman, case No. D 586, the same being included in the consolidated case of Katie Ridge, et al., herewith transmitted, the attention of the Department is invited to the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., Cherokee Freedman No. 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, wherein, in its decision rendered on July 5, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes found, inter alia, that one Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, daughter of the said Cornelius Ridge, was entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, said finding being concurred in by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs on September 24, 1904 (Land 57605-04), and affirmed by the Department on October 22, 1904 (I.T.D. 7724-04), and in conformity thereto said applicant's name was placed upon a schedule of Cherokee Freedmen forwarded to the Department on June 26, 1905, and she is now included in a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 27, 1905, opposite No. 3907.

The right of this applicant, Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, who was born since 1866, to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman was based upon the theory that her father, the said Cornelius Ridge, had "heretofore been enrolled by this Commission as a Cherokee freedman", which, as the consolidated case herewith transmitted indicates, was error.

Secretary--5

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that, if the Department affirms the decision of this office as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee freedman citizenship, the case of Muech Daniels, et al., Cherokee freedman 1429, formerly Cherokee Freedman D 219, be reopened, and the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee Freedman citizenship, be reversed.

Sir:

On March 4, 1907 (Land 21941-07), the Indian Office transmitted your report, dated February 28, 1907, relative to proceedings had in the matter of the application for<sup>d</sup> the enrolment of Laura (Katie) Ridge, et al., together with your decision of the same date rejecting the application.

The Indian Office concurs in your decision. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department considers said decision correct and it is hereby affirmed.

In connection herewith you call attention to one Laura Daniels, a party applicant in this case, who appears on a partial roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907. You report that she was enrolled and that her enrolment was based on the theory that her father, Cornelius Ridge, who is denied enrolment in the present decision, had "heretofore been enrolled by the Commission as a Cherokee freedman". You state that this is an error and you recommend that if the Department affirm your decision as to the rights of the said Cornelius Ridge to Cherokee citizenship that the case of Enoch Daniels, et al., be reopened and that the decision therein, in so far as it grants to the said Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, the right to Cherokee freedmanship, be reversed.

In accordance with your recommendation the Department rescinds its decision and reverses your decision in the case of Enoch Daniels in so far as said decisions apply to the enrolment of Laura Daniels, nee Ridge, and her name is canceled from the roll of Cherokee freedmen opposite No. 3907, as of this date.

Your office and the Indian Office are requested to make your records conform to this action.

The papers in the case, together with a carbon copy hereof, have been sent to the Indian Office.
